Evidence Showing Doucett Paid for Work Done on Farm Submitted to Committee

TORONTO (CP) — Two sheets from a cash book showing that Highways Minister Doucett paid $1,087.83 for work done on his farm by two employees of the Robindale Quarries Ltd., a firm headed by Ontario contractor H. J. McFarland of Picton, were submitted as evidence before the Ontario legislature's highways investigation committee.

The evidence was submitted by Miss Clare Frederics, secretary-treasurer of the Crushing and Ballasting firm, in a surprise move that turned the committee hearing into a turmoil at Queen's Park.

The committee opened its hearings Wednesday morning to air charges of perjury made by Albert Wren (Lib.-Lab.-Kenora) against the highways minister. Mr. Doucett has denied the charges.

Mr. Wren charged that Mr. Doucett had two employees of a contracting firm working on his Carleton Place farm who were not paid by the minister.

VIOLENT OPPOSITION

Miss Frederics was called to the witness stand by committee chairman Kelso Roberts (PC—Toronto St. Patrick) over the violent opposition of Mr. Wren, Opposition leader Farquhar Oliver and CCF House leader W. J. Grummett.

Mr. Grummett said he had "never before" heard of "the defence being put in before the evidence is given."

Mr. Wren said he would insist that he be permitted to enter into the records the statements of witnesses he asked to appear. They included Joseph Zakrajsek of Cobourg and Stanley Valant of Newanda, Que., the two employees in question, who were among seven persons served with warrants to appear before the committee.

Miss Frederics, also secretary of the H. J. McFarland Construction Co. and the H. J. McFarland Dairy Products, identified the Zakrajsek and Valant were hired by Robindale Quarries in 1946 shortly after their arrival from Europe. She said the company approached their group insurance firm asking it to waive the normal three months waiting period to have the pair receive the company benefits. The request was granted.

WORKED ON FARM

Mr. Doucett approached Robindale Quarries for two men to work on his farm and Zakrajsek and Valant were turned over to him from July 15 to Oct. 31, 1946.

Miss Frederics said the men were paid by Robindale while they were on the Doucett farm.

"Mr. Doucett later paid Robindale for every cent we paid out—gross pay, insurance, board."

She then turned over as exhibits the cash book sheets showing a list of bank deposits made Dec. 13, 1946, which, she said, included $1,087.83 received from Mr. Doucett as the salaries for Zakrajsek and Valant.

Under questioning by Mr. Wren, Miss Frederics said the payment was made to Mr. McFarland.

"I can't remember if I issued a receipt but I should have in the normal course of affairs."

She said she believes payment was made in cash.

This morning's session, held in a lights-packed committee room crowded by many members of the legislature, was delayed for a half hour by Mr. Wren who said he was tied up at the airport with his baggage.

From the start, the session was fiery, punctuated with heated replays between Attorney-General Porter, Mr. Oliver and Mr. Wren.

The opposition members roared their protests over the appearance of Roydon Hughes, counsel representing Mr. Doucett, claiming if the minister was to be represented by counsel, Mr. Wren should also be.

Mr. Oliver objected to Mr. Hughes' statement that Mr. Doucett was "tried by the press, radio and interviews based on information which came from a source which should not have been accepted."

UP TO COMMITTEE

Mr. Oliver said it was up to the committee to decide whether Mr. Doucett perjured himself and not a member of the committee alone.

The opposition again objected heatedly when E. A. Richardson, counsel for Mr. McFarland was allowed to speak to the committee who attacked Mr. Wren for accusing his client through the press. "Through your party you charged a man with a crime," he said.

"We're here to find out if that charge is right," interjected Mr. Oliver.

Mr. Richardson said any questions regarding Mr. McFarland providing employment for Mr. Doucett could have been cleared up if Mr. Wren had made some inquiries.

The wrangling continued as Mr. Wren rose to read a lengthy statement outlining the history of his perjury charges. He said he had learned that the two men were paid by Mr. McFarland while working for Mr. Doucett and "with these facts I was at a loss to decide what to do."

GIVEN TWO COURSES

In seeking advice from many quarters, he said, he was given two courses to follow: Acquaint the public with what he knew or quit his seat in the legislature.

"I decided not to be a quitter," he said.

Mr. Wren said that the minister, in giving evidence before the committee last June, gave "vague" answers.

Mr. Porter asked why Mr. Wren didn't ask Mr. Doucett about the McFarland employees at that time.

"I had some information but the information from a source upon which I didn't want to use," replied Mr. Wren.

The opposition member said it was not until July 29 when the official transcript of Mr. Doucett's testimony was available that he interviewed a crown attorney at the Toronto city hall regarding the laying of perjury charges against the minister.

REFERRED TO JP

He said he was referred to a justice of the peace who suggested examining one or two witnesses before deciding whether there was enough evidence available to issue a warrant.

Mr. Wren said he hadn't the funds available at the time to meet expenses that would be involved as "I dropped the matter temporarily."

"Subsequently, a story was printed on my unsuccessful attempt at laying a charge."

At this point in the reading of his statement, he asked the committee chairman to strike out from his copy of the statement a page which he said referred to C. H. Nelson, former chief engineer of the highways department facing three charges of conspiracy who died suddenly last Sunday. Mr. Wren said he had intended calling Mr. Nelson as a witness.

"You never said that until after he died," interjected the attorney-general.

Prior to Mr. Wren's arrival, Mr. Oliver said he wished to make it clear that Mr. Wren's actions were his own responsibility.

"He did it with his right as a member of this committee. However, I felt that a charge of that kind should have emanated here. . . . I wasn't impressed and I didn't indulge in what I call melodrama."

Thousands of German War Veterans Crowd Into Village To Welcome Kurt Meyer Home

NIEDERKRUECHTEN, West Germany (Reuters)—Thousands of German war veterans crowded into this little border village Wednesday night to give former Nazi Gen. Kurt Meyer a hero's welcome home from the British war criminals' prison at Werl.

Former soldiers from Hitler's SS Elite Guard units poured into the village near the Dutch border from all parts of West Germany, coming by car, bus, train and bicycle to see Meyer's return.

They blocked roads leading into the little community and filled the air with shouts of "hurra" and "hoch" as Meyer, once sentenced to death for responsibility in the shooting of 18 Canadian prisoners, clasped his family in his arms and thanked the crowds for their welcome in the glare of floodlights.

Meyer was released Tuesday from Werl after serving part of a 14-year sentence for inciting his troops to deny quarter to Allied soldiers and for responsibility for the death of the 18 Canadians. A Canadian court martial sentenced him to death in 1945, but the sentence was later commuted to life imprisonment and then to 14 years.

SHOWS EMOTION

Meyer showed visible emotion as he embraced his wife, his four daughters and his 11-year-old son Kurt, whom he had never seen before.

He met them in a small house financed for the family by Fred Lichtenberg of Moncton, N.B., a friend known to the children as "Uncle Fritz."

Local police and reinforcements from many towns opened a way through the surging crowd for Meyer to reach a floodlighted improvised dais in front of a barn hung with West German banners.

Meyer jokingly noted "familiar faces" and shook hands with the former owner of one of the tanks he commanded in Russia. He recalled "many pleasant and serious hours" with the men around him.

Then he broke off with the remark that "soldiers should not talk—they should act." Handshakes and bouquets were thrust upon him as he left the dais.

Civil Air Fleets In Soviet, Red China Lagging

By FRASER WIGHTON

HONG KONG (Reuters) — The civil air fleets of the Soviet Union and Communist China lag behind those of Western countries in design and performance, but the standard of flying is good.

This is the conclusion reached after an air journey of 8,000 miles from London across Finland and via Moscow through Siberia, Mongolia and China to report the visit of the recent British Labor party mission.

Nowhere behind the Iron Curtain was there a single four-engined transport to be seen. The whole services appeared to be conducted by three types of twin-engine machines, the most modern of which is the Soviet Ilyushin, which seats 21 passengers.

The Ilyushin seemed a tractable aircraft with a demonstrated cruising speed of about 200 miles an hour. The seats are comfortable and the aircraft, if somewhat noisy, reasonably well kept. Noteworthy was the omission of safety belts.

In China, on the other hand, all machines used on the tour were fitted with standard safety belts. The airports in Moscow, Sverdlovsk, Novo Sibersk, and Irkutsk in Russia; and Peiping, Shanghai and elsewhere in China, suggested that both countries had adequate supplies of twin-engined transports. In China, the Labor mission sometimes had two special planes at their disposal as the party included not only the British but officials and interpreters. There was a third plane for the press.

Ground servicing of aircraft seemed prompt and efficient.

The standard of pilotage seemed good, careful and efficient although there were some tickish approaches to runways, particularly in China.

Duchess of Kent, Daughter, Face Many Receptions

MONTREAL (CP)—The Duchess of Kent and her 17-year-old daughter, Princess Alexandra, go their separate ways today, but each faces an imposing list of official visits and receptions.

First stop for the duchess on her second day in the city is Villa Maria convent run by the Roman Catholic congregation of Notre Dame.

A broad, tree-lined driveway leads from west-end Decarie Blvd. past stone walls to the recessed convent, once the residence of Canada's first governor - general, Viscount Monck.

After an hour-long inspection of the convent, she will return to lunch, probably alone, in her hotel suite.

WOMEN'S LUNCH

Meanwhile, Princess Alexandra will be guest at a luncheon given by this city's three major women's leagues — the Women's Junior League, La Ligue de la Jeunesse Feminine and the Jewish Women's League.

This will be followed by a fashion show featuring Canadian-designed fashions.

Their visit ends Tuesday when the duchess leaves by air for New York. Princess Alexandra is to return for two more days at an undisclosed estate in the Laurentian mountains where the royal party will spend a four-day holiday starting this Friday.

WINNIE WON'T RESIGN

HESTON, England (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill has no immediate intention of resigning, Capt. John Thirkell, who speaks under the auspices of the Conservative party central office, told a party meeting here Wednesday night.

LONG VACATION

CAIRO (AP)—An American airline pilot landed his single-engined aircraft here Wednesday to wind up an 8,000-mile vacation flight from Wichita, Kans. Capt. William Judd, who usually pilots four-engined airliners for trans world airlines, flew the little plane to Egypt for use in flights to the remote Red sea areas to pursue his hobbies of underwater fishing and photography.

NEW SHIP SERVICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The interstate commerce commission Wednesday authorized Michigan-Ohio Navigation Co., formerly Waterways Inc. of Detroit, to establish a new summer passenger ship service between Detroit and Cleveland. The company is preparing a luxury vessel, the Marine Star, capable of handling 2,509 passengers for the service, scheduled to be started early next June.

CNE Attendance Lower Wednesday

TORONTO (CP)—For the second successive day attendance at the Canadian National Exhibition Wednesday took a sharp dip and while it went hopes of officials that the big show this year would crack the 3,000,000 visitor-mark.

The Exhibition has three days to run, including today and the figure is about 750,000 short of the goal. Wednesday's crowd of 143,000 was 10,500 less than that for the corresponding day last year.

But attendance was still 198,000 better than for the first 11 days of the 1953 presentation.

This is the day that the neighboring province of Quebec comes in for special attention following along with the CNE's program of Canada on the March.

"CITIZEN" BARRED

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP) — Garry Davis of New York, self-styled world citizen, Wednesday night was refused admission into Britain after arriving here on the liner United States. A year ago Davis camped outside Buckingham Palace in his crusade before he was thrown out of the country. Immigration officials declined to comment on the barring him this time.

Oshawa Defeats Northerns 7-2

The Oshawa Maple Cleaners took a one game lead in their O.A.S.A. Senior "B" playdown series with Belleville Northern Electric last evening by downing the Quinte crew 7-2 in Oshawa.

Don Boyle pitched for Northern and was touched for several home runs with men on bases to do the damage. Both Belleville runs came on homers with Glenn Young and Doug Soules connecting for the distance while their only other hit was a double by Don Locke.

Oshawa play the return game on Saturday at the C.P.R. Park with the action getting under way at 3.00 p.m.

HAUL LESS ORE

CLEVELAND (AP) — Great Lakes vessels have hauled 44,147,283 tons of iron ore so far this season, the Lake Superior Iron Ore Association reports. This compares with 68,000,000 a year ago.

RETURN WAR DEAD

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communists today delivered the bodies of 241 American and nine British war dead in the ninth day of the exchange of soldiers killed and buried in enemy territory. The delivery brought the total to 1,850 bodies handed over to the Allies, including 1,522 Americans, 21 British, 63 Koreans, 19 Australians and 189 of unknown nationality.

NOISY HEARING

pared to swear" that the payroll entries were all made in 1948. Committee members hooted when Mr. Wren demanded that an RCMP expert examine the cards to determine the age of the ink markings.

TOOK THE STAND

Mr. Zakrajsek and Mr. Valant themselves took the stand to substantiate Miss Frederick's evidence that they were employed on Mr. Doucett's farm and paid with cheques signed by Mr. McFarland. Under questioning by Mr. Wren they both admitted making statements to provincial police earlier this year regarding their work on the farm.

The two men were issued with warrants to appear before the committee, at the request of Mr. Wren. Clarence Mchoe, a McFarland truck driver also summoned, said he had no accusations to make against Mr. Doucett.

Another witness ordered to appear, Edward T. Wride, a former McFarland employee, said he had no charges to make "at the present time."

Mr. Wren attempted to have Mr. Doucett take the stand so he could ask him the source of funds with which he paid the laborers.

"NOT YOUR WITNESS"

"He's not your witness," cried the attorney-general. "You have already heard what Mr. Doucett said. You didn't ask him then."

Mr. Wren said he expected a "straight forward answer" from the minister. "—And you got it," shouted Mr. Porter.

"I'm not sitting on this committee to go through a lot of nonsense" said the attorney-general.

Committee Chairman Kelso Roberts (PC—Toronto St. Patrick) said Mr. Wren had "no right whatever to call the man charged."

"If you can't substantiate the charge then you have no right to make the charge," he said.

Mr. Wren stood by his actions. "I still stand on the information that was given to me—that is that these men worked on Mr. Doucett's farm and were paid by another company. That is definitely contrary to the evidence given by him."

"GUILTY OF SMEAR"

Mr. Porter said the Opposition member was "guilty of a smear."

Miss Frederick's appearance apparently caught the Opposition by surprise. They objected to her testifying before Mr. Wren presented his case.

Tom Dent (PC—Oxford) asked: "In the name of God is there no common sense here?"

"If I got a construction company to loan me two men and I paid them for it I can't see anything wrong with that . . . this is just a lot of damn nonsense."

Winding up the hearing, Mr. Roberts said that judging from the evidence of Miss Frederick and the lack of evidence from Mr. Wren's witnesses, there was no basis for the charge and felt that was, with the exception of Mr. Wren, the unanimous decision of the committee.

ONE RESERVATION

Mr. Oliver said he agreed with one reservation—that it was a bad practice for a minister of the government to have working for him employees of a contractor.

W. J. Grummett, CCF House leader, said he did not wish to add any further remarks.

C. E. Jackson (Conservative East) asked Mr. Wren to "admit you were wrong."

"Are you questioning my honesty in bringing these charges?" replied Mr. Wren.

Mr. Porter said "it was human nature to make mistakes "but it is one thing to make a mistake and another to commit perjury."

Lands and Forests Minister Mapledoram said he believed Mr. Wren "was badly inadvised . . . I hope it was for this way."

Throughout the proceedings, Mr. Doucett sat quietly on the side smoking a cigar. At the conclusion of the hearing he was surrounded by friends and strode slowly out of the room followed not far behind by Mr. Wren. The two did not meet.

UNION LEADERS

The arbitrator will rule on the unions' demands, which include 18 days a year paid sick leave, eight statutory holidays with pay, higher Sunday pay and longer vacations. The railways say these demands would cost them $60,000,000 a year. The non-operating grades include nearly all employees except those that run the trains.

Mr. Hall said Wednesday the unions don't object to a clause in the cabinet's proposals which says the arbitrator can "grant or deny, in whole or in part" the union demands, but they do balk at a phrase empowering him to put into effect "any proposal or plan in relation thereto which appears to him to be apt and appropriate to the equitable disposition of the said requests."

"That in our opinion falls short of deciding the issues on their merits," he said.

Wednesday's meeting also gave Mr. Hall an unanimous vote of confidence, refusing to accept his resignation which he tendered when the unions accepted the government request that they submit the dispute to arbitration.

Delegates also attacked the federal government for "depriving railway workers of their right to strike," and said Mr. Hall was in order in condemning the actions of the government.

Stefansson's Cache Is Found After 38 Years

OTTAWA (CP)—A cache left 38 years ago on Banks Island by Arctic explorer Vilhjalmur Stefansson has been found, the defence research board said Wednesday.

The board reported receiving a message from Dr. William Cameron, one of a group of Canadian and United States scientists investigating Canada's western Arctic waters. It read: "Have recovered Stefansson cache at Knight harbor."

"Stefansson, leader of the Canadian Arctic expedition in 1913-18, reported in one of his books the discovery of records left in 1881 by Captain, later Admiral Sir Robert McClure. He built a stone cairn in 1916 near the spot on the northeast tip of Banks island, and sent the documents to the British admiralty.

Shall I wear?" The program was interesting and informative and the displays were exceptionally good, despite the dry season.

CANADA'S NEW BANK NOTES

CANADA'S NEW BANK NOTES will begin to replace the present issue this month. The new notes will be put into circulation from time to time as worn and soiled notes of the old issue are withdrawn. It will thus be some time before the new notes have completely replaced the old. Banks will have a limited quantity for distribution in the introductory period.

As you come into possession of the new notes you will be aware of a number of new features.

In general the new design is less ornate and this simplicity contributes to easier recognition of the various denominations. It also makes it easier to distinguish a genuine note from an attempt at forgery.

Other changes include the placing of the portrait of Queen Elizabeth at the right hand side of the note. In this position the engraving of the portrait will not be subject to the wear from the constant folding of notes through the center.

The allegorical figures which appear on the back panels of the present issue are now replaced by engravings from photographs of various types of Canadian countryside.

The notes are printed by new processes which give them a distinctive "feel". The colours of the various denominations are approximately the same as at present but close examination will show that the colour on the face of each note results from the combination of two colours printed one over the other.

These and other changes have been made to improve the appearance of Canada's currency, to lessen the risk of counterfeiting, and to reduce the cost of production.

Many people ask "Is there not some special means of distinguishing genuine bank notes from counterfeits?" The answer is that there are a great many means—singly and in combination—so many that a full description could be confusing and would only help those who might attempt to counterfeit.

The best means of distinguishing genuine bank notes from suspected notes is the simplest, namely—compare a suspected note side-by-side with one known to be genuine. Even small variations—no one of which might be noticeable by itself—will usually combine to produce an easily distinguishable difference in general appearance. Good notes look "good" because of the skilled craftsmanship behind them.

As you come into possession of the new bank notes, study them to become familiar with their general appearance. This will help safeguard one of Canada's most important facilities—your currency.

CHIPS OFF THE SPORTS BLOCK

By Geo. H. Carver, Sports Editor

"WHEW"

The Batas "dood it" but it was closer than your next breath and your underwear combined. Tony Feliti's three-run circuit blast gave the Governors their only runs and they very nearly lossed it away in the eighth when Art Wright balked in a run with the sacks loaded and Jerry McCormick gummed up an easy out by not tossing it to second. However, Art Wright, although giving up nine clouts came through with some fine clutch hurling—and saved the day.

Jerry Frizzelle, Petes flinger was in good form and held the Batas to four clouts. His mates were in scoring position several times but could not come through with the money blasts. Twelve men stranded tells the tale. The teams clash again in Peterborough Friday night and back here Saturday gloaming.

Meanwhile along the softball rialto the Or Painters blasted out a neat 13-9 decision over the Petes Seatrookes to wrap up the Intermediate "A" softball round in Cobourg. Roy Mallory blasted out two homers while "Pop" Maracle was in five-bit form.

Bob Temple's Bobcats eliminated Bill Hurst's Stewart Warners last night 12-3 to take over the OASA Intermediate "AA" job. They meet a Kingston team the first of next week. The Cats exploded in clusters, scoring five runs in one inning and six in another.

"THE KING IS DEAD"

Some time ago we wrote a perfectly true fishing story which did not meet with the approval of some of the sportswriting fraternity, especially pal Chick Appel, our OAHA table confrere, who promptly named the yarn dubbed us the "King of the T.T.T.'s" (Tiller of Tall Tales)... He received the approval of one Jack Christie, who in his spare moments secretaries the Ontario Miner Hockey Association and is doing one heluva fine job.

Now it is with extreme reluctance that we relinquish the crown and place it gently but firmly on the noble brow of "Munchausen" Appel. (Mr. Christie, please note).

Mr. Appel, who sports columns for the Stratford Beacon Herald, earned the T.T.T. bauble with a golfing story that would make his fiturative namesake the "Baron" look like a five-year-old Sunday School pupil.

Says Chick: "Last year Neil Haney, a grade school principal in Marysville, Michigan, was playing on the town's municipal golf course. On the seventh hole, a par three, he hit his tee shot to within a foot of the pin. His next shot, a mashie, landed the hit next and his ball bounced on the green, rolled toward the hole and bumped Haney's ball in for a hole-in-one.

"But wait," Chick goes on, "there is more. The next day he played the course again and was telling another friend about his freakish hole-in-one. 'Let's see you make another' his friend challenged. Haney hit his tee shot on the seventh hole and it went for another ace. Unbelievable you say? Well, hang around and hear the rest. On July 19 of this year, Haney scored still another hole-in-one on the very same hole."

Whatever, Your Majesty, here's the crown, the sceptre, and long may you reign.

HOCKEY

OHA vice president Frank Buckland of Peterborough and executive member Lorne Cook of Kingston have called a gathering of the senior "B" clans which will convene in Peterborough Sunday, Sept. 12.

There are a number of wrinkles to be ironed out, chief among which is the group composition. Four teams are definitely entered, Belleville, Kingston, Peterborough and Oshawa, and incidentally we gathered from a reliable source that the story of Oshawa's withdrawal from the group is so much balderdash. The Truckmen will be back in full force, and will play their home games in the Whitby arena, preferably Wednesday nights.

Stouffville and Orillia are dangling for berths in the Toronto Metropolitan League and this matter will be definitely cleared at the Sunday confab.

Cornwall and Brockville are seeking entry into the group, but first must get permission from the Ottawa Valley Hockey League. The Canadian-American Hockey League which controls these teams has folded and the Clinton, N.Y. team will play in the Eastern-America n loop.

Just how the other squads of the senior "B" set-up will greet the Cornwall-Brockville applications is a matter for conjecture. Trenton and Belleville will probably agree with Peterborough on the fence, but from this corner it appears Oshawa will object strongly to the long haul. Of course playing arrangements might be arrived at to suit all concerned.

Incidentally Oshawa has lost the services of Wally Samanski who signed a contract with Pat Wilson's Fort Wayne Komets. However the Truckers will not be weakened to any great extent by the loss of Samanski. They are gunning for the services of Billy Adderley, former crack junior "A" player who performed with the Generals and last year with the Guelph Biltmores.

Adderley is going to the Hershey Bears training camp and if he doesn't click with the junior Bruins, he will in all probability be wearing an Oshawa uniform this winter. Adderley is a winner of the Red Tilson Trophy.

DIAMOND DUST

Duane Rumor has it, and fairly accurately at that, that the Oshawa Transporters want no part of another series with the Oakville Oaks to decide an Ontario Baseball Association representative. The Transporters figure the present series which finished last night should wind the league championship and the right to play Peterborough or Bellefille for the OBA playdowns spot in one complete ball. Some time ago we were informed that the Oaks were to play off with the Niagara District winners in OBA competition, but apparently this has been changed.

Gad, who was the joker that said the loop should wind up in August so as to give winners a chance to compete without the necessity of clearing the snow off the diamond. As it is now, the slaves of the sports departments will be dashing helter-skelter from ice-locked diamond to the comparative warmth of a hockey arena.

And the first thing you know we'll have 'em driving in the puck from shortstop, bodychecking in centre field or giving the pitcher a ten minute misconduct for throwing his stirpe.

Tosses 8-Hitter at Athletics While Byrne Wins for Champs; Dodgers Get 'St. Louis Blues'

By Ben Pheegar
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 20-Game Club, that exclusive circle of pitchers that gets special mention in the record books, probably will wind up with six members this season.

Four have made the grade so far with Early Wynn of the fast-moving Cleveland Indians the newest recruit.

Wynn passed his entrance exams with flying colors Wednesday night, throwing an eight-hit 5-2 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. And a long-time associate of the elite, Warren Spahn of Milwaukee, moved next in line by winning his 20th, the rip-roaring Braves 5-2 over Pittsburgh.

On hand to greet Wynn, who has won 20 or more twice before, were teammate Bob Lemon, a six-time member; Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies who has been in good standing for five consecutive seasons and newcomer Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants.

OTHER PROSPECTS

With Spahn, a member five times previously, almost certain to join soon, the only other live prospects appear to be Virgil Trucks (18-8) of the Detroit White Sox, who won 20 last season, and rookie Bob Grim (17-6) of the New York Yankees.

Wynn's victory kept Cleveland 4½ games ahead of the Yankees who beat Baltimore 8-2 in Tommy Byrne's return to the majors. Milwaukee moved four games out of the rain - idled Giants while Brooklyn and Chicago games back by losing to St. Louis 6-5.

In other action Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia 8-3 and took over fourth place from the Phils. Chicago White Sox shaded Washington -1 and the Red Sox beat Detroit 5-2. Rain washed out the Giants' scheduled home game with Chicago.

Spahn won his 11th game in a row by blanking the Pirates on three hits after giving up two runs in the first inning. Eddie Mathews hit his 36th home run with Joe Adcock on base in the third.

Twice before the Braves have won 10 straight games and they had one nine-game streak. Their next game is Friday night in Brooklyn.

45th HOMER

Erskine lost his chance to stay in the running for the 20-game club by failing to hold a two-run lead in the ninth inning against the Cardinals. He escaped the loss since he left with the tying runs on base. Joe Cunningham cashed them in against relief pitcher Jim Hughes, then scored the winning run on Rip Repulski's single. Haddix pitched the ninth inning for a relief victory, saving the victory for rookie Gordon Jones.

Big Ted Kluszewski of the Redlegs drove in three runs and started a four-run rally in the sixth with his 45th home run, six more than anybody else in either league.

Byrne, waived out of the majors last season because of wildness, walked only four and struck out four in beating Baltimore. He also scored the first run after taking a base in the third and he banged a based loaded double to put the Yanks ahead to stay in the fourth.

Morrie Martin, making his second start for the White Sox allowed only two singles until he gave way to Don Johnson with one out in the ninth against Washington. Johnson gave up one more in finishing. The Sox nicked Porterfield for 10 hits but left 10 men stranded.

Ted Williams went hitless in three times at bat in Boston's victory over Detroit. Red Sox broke open the close game with consecutive home runs by Sam Mele and Sam White in the eighth.

RECALL CARDS PLAYERS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis Cardinal Wednesday announced the recall of nine players who had been optioned to minor league teams this season. None will report immediately, because all are members of clubs which will be playing in post-season playoffs. Harry Elliott, San Diego outfielder leading the Pacific Coast League with a .356 batting average, has the best season record of the group.

Quebec Frontenacs Will Quit League Unless Ontario Schedule Arranged

MONTREAL (CP) — Quebec pan out however and they folded. Frontenacs of the Quebec Junior Hockey League served notice Wednesday night they will quit the loop unless an inter-locking schedule is arranged with the Ontario junior league.

Bobby Martineau, vice-president of the club, said in an interview here "it would be financial suicide to operate the four-club QJHL without games with Ontario clubs."

The two leagues played an interlocking schedule last year when the Frontenacs replaced Quebec Citadels in the senior league. This year the other QJHL clubs—Montreal Canadiens, Trois - Rivieres Reds, and Jonquiere Marquis—decided to break off the arrangement when Quebec Citadels asked for $750 for every game they played in Quebec.

Martineau, whose family owns 50 per cent of the Frontenacs' stock, said "a six-team league would be feasible but as far as the Martineaus are concerned we will not operate in a four-team league."

He said the Frontenacs had offered Ontario teams $1,000 per game to play inter-locking games. A similar offer was made by Quebec Citadels after that team was suspended from the QJHL last season. The Citadels gave did not Ontario, probably pack Maple Leaf Gardens and give us nothing in return.

"We would have to pay all our own expenses and not get a cut from the gate receipts. That would be financial suicide."

Tony Pettitt's 3-Run Homer Gives Batas Victory Margin In 3-2 Win Over Peterborough

By GEO. H. CARVER
Sports Editor

Tony Pettitt's fence-busting two-run homer in the sixth innings here last night, gave Belleville Batas a narrow one-run margin as they edged the Peterborough Petes 3-2 in the opening game of a best-of-five OHA playoff series.

Pettitt's homer was needed as the Petes took advantage of a bases loaded balk and a Batas infield error to stone two runs in the eighth inning to come within striking distance of victory. In fact they had the tying run on third in the ninth but superb clutch hurling by Art Wright nipped the rally in the bud.

Jerry Frizzelle, pitcher hard-luck deserved a better fate. He joined Wright in a thrilling mound duel and allowed but four hits while whiffing five and walking four. The Petes rapped Wright for nine safeties but the Batas ace nightmarder came through with fine clutch hurling. Wright struck out six and walked four.

Some three hundred fans shivered in ideal football weather as the ancient rivals went to the wars. The mat in one of the better games seen here this season. The teams head back again in Peterborough Friday night with the third game set for Saturday night here.

FINE BURLING

Behind fine hurling the teams battled scorelessly until the bottom half of the sixth innings. The Batas Keith Macdonald drew a walk and went to second as Junior West bobbled Gerry Goyer's bid for a clout. Pettitt blasted a Frizzelle pitch over the left centre field fence to drive in Macdonald.

Howie Dalton lashed out a clean double to start off the Petes half of the eighth inning. Redmond popped out to second and Bigford smashed out a line single. Wright walked Legrow to fill the sacks and then balked in the first Peterborough run. Padgett then struck out with the bases loaded Batas shortstop Jerry McCormick instead of tossing the ball to second elected to throw to first and errored in the second Petes run. Wright then struck out Joe Lowrey to end the rally.

NEARLY TIED IT

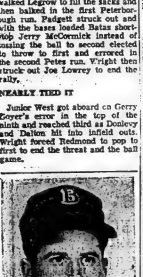
Junior West got aboard on Gerry Goyer's error in the top of the ninth and reached third as Donlevy and Dalton hit into fielders' choices. Wright forced Redmond to pop to first to end the threat and the ball game.



ART WRIGHT

The Petes came up with two double plays as the Batas sacrifice bunts resolved into pop flies and the twin killing at first. The Batas had a double play in the fourth.

Joe Lowrey paced the Petes with a triple and single with Bigford and Legrow had two singles each. Junior West and Dalton hit doubles.

Tony Pettitt's homer led the Batas offensive while Mouse Bush followed with a triple after he had scored MacDonald who walked and G. Goyer on base through Padgett's error. McCormick and Gerry Goyer were the only other Batas' clouters to connect safely with the Frizzelle slants.

Whipper, Togo In Big Match

Standout wrestling card of the season to date has been signed for the Memorial Arena on Friday night, with Whipper Billy Watson, the British Empire champion, opposing the Great Togo, Japanese judo-chop specialist, in the feature match.

The Great Togo has done a lot of damage with his ruthless judo-cuts, but Whipper's speed, skill and experience should be big factors against the tactics of the wily Togo.

A special attraction on the same program will be four midget matches in a tag team match. The team of Sky Low Low and Ivan the Terrible will go against the combination of Tito Infante and Tiny Tim Gerrard.

Toshi Togo, brother of The Great Togo, will meet Pat Flanagan in the first match.

Elgins Muzzle Galt Terriers In Series Opener

GALT (CP)—St. Thomas Elgins Wednesday night took the first game of the best-of-seven Senior Intercounty Baseball League final 5-2 from Galt Terriers.

Southpaw Eddie Drapcho gave up seven scattered hits and helped his team to victory with three singles in four trips, driving in two runs. Although he walked four, he struck out nine.

For six innings he allowed but four hits and these in the seventh with two out and a mate on base on a charity. Manager Mike Pontarelli shattered the goose egg with a massive clout over the left field hill.

Roger Renard started the Elgins on the road to victory in the first when with two down he lifted Eddy Larouche's first pitch out of the park. Then in the seventh and against the same Don Rudd homered onto the left field hill.

Larouche, Galt's starting hurler, was charged with four Elgins' runs on nine hits. He retired for a pinch hitter in the seventh and Bobby Schnurr finished and was never in trouble.

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP)—Peterborough Tuffermen qualified for the Mann Cup finals again here on Wednesday night.

Each team drew four minor penalties, and the Peterborough Canoe of Athletics was given a match misconduct in the third for arguing too hotly with referee Piper Bain.

Point Ann Blanks Peterborough 13-0 To Win Intermediate 'A' Playdown

(By GARRY ALEXANDER)

Unlimbering their heavy artillery, the Point Anne Cementmen crushed Peterborough Seabrookes 13-0 in Cobourg last night to oust the Little City squad from O.A.S.A. Intermediate "A" competition, two games to one. The Pointers will now meet a Toronto team in the second round with the first game scheduled in Point Anne on Saturday.

The Cementmen slammed out 17 hits off Lefty Jack Doria, including a pair of homers by Roger Mallory and two doubles by Doug Hull as veteran hurler Pat Marsela spun his second five-hit shutout of the series.

The winners netted a pair to open the scoring in the third and followed up with seven more in the next two innings while scoring once in the eighth and adding another trio in the final frame. Peterborough came close to scoring in the third when singles by Scriver and Thompson plus a fielder's choice sent Doris heading for home. Centre Wardhaugh whipped the ball to big John Green guarding the plate and the run turn tagged the runner, lifting him several feet off the ground in the process.

Wardhaugh's walk paved the way for the victor's initial tallies when a fielder's choice was followed by Mallory's first homer, a line drive that darted by Kotowski in left-centre.

Jake Wade singled to ignite their fourth-frame fireworks with Mulholland and Marsela laying down perfect bunts to load the sacks. Pat Gilmour delivered a sharp single to left to score Mulholland before Wardhaugh kept the rally alive with another two-run single but Hull's double was wasted when the next two batters went out.

A walk to Wade started trouble again in the fifth when Marsela's single bounced through for two runs on the three-base error. Bob Strahan also walked with Wardhaugh singling and Hull's double plating Strahan. Wardhaugh was out in a run-down play between third and home for the third man.

A pair of singles by Hull and Mallory plus Wade's long fly netted their tenth marker. Mallory continued to hit Peterborough pitching as if he owned it when he followed singles by Bob Strahan and Hull with a terrific blast to very deep centrefield in the ninth for the victors final three runs.

Marsela pitched superb ball all the way, allowing only one man to reach third as he fanned seven and never walked a batter. Doris was wild, too while walking six.

Doug Hull led the Cementmen at bat, with two doubles and a pair of singles in six trips while Mallory added a single to his homers as well as walking once and driving in five runs. Sam Mulholland had a trio of singles with Jackie Wardhaugh and Pat Marsela getting two each. Pat Gilmour, Bob Strahan and Jake Wade also hit safely.

The Peterborough hitters were Thompson, Curry, Kotowski, Scriver and Doris, each with a single.

Majors to Give More Financial Aid to Minors

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—More major league financial aid for minor league clubs has been considered by farm directors of all 16 big time teams.

The group, meeting with minor league president George M. Trautman yesterday, took no formal action but said some sort of legislation to help the minors and big teams would be ready for the December minor league sessions in Houston, Tex.

Lee Macphail of New York Yankees, chairman of the subcommittee named at the recent all-star game to submit recommendations, said the idea of sharing television and radio receipts with the smaller clubs had not been considered. Trautman indicated the majors might help the minors through increased payments for players taken through working agreements, or contribution of a portion of the smaller team's training or travel costs.

Major Leagues Television Is 'Killing Minors'

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball commissioner Ford Frick Wednesday told baseball and broadcasting to reach an understanding before the "goose that laid the golden egg gets killed."

"Unlimited television of major league baseball is killing off the minor leagues," Frick warned in a luncheon speech at the Metropolitan Baseball Writers Association, "and if the minors are killed, the majors won't be far behind."

Frick said some clubs can not the radio and television networks which have mushroomed around major league teams are interested only in the money collected from sponsors.

He branded any defence that such networks are supplying a public service as "selfish and phoney."

The commissioner advocated a "reasonable" radio, television, major and minor league representatives to study the problem.

Bobcats Claw Stewart Warners To Win Series

Blasting three Stewart Warner hurlers for 14 hits including a brace of homers, Bob Temple's Bobcats walloped the city OAHA intermediate "AA" representation with a 13-2 victory at the CNR Recreation Park last night. The game was the sixth in the best-of-seven series.

The Bobcats meet a Kingston team in the first round playdowns with the opener scheduled for Kingston early next week.

The Cats grabbed a comfortable six-run lead with a five-run explosion in the fifth after scoring single in the first innings. The Stewies nibbled away at the lead scoring singles in the fifth, sixth and seventh to cut the margin to 6-3. But the Cats erupted another five-run in the eighth to put the game on ice with a six-run deluge.

Bucky Burshaw started for the Bobs and gave up five hits for two runs in five innings when he was relieved by Jim Buck. Buck strangled the Stewarts with four hits and one run over the rest of the route.

Dimp Young went to the mound for the Stewarts in the second and gave up eight hits for six runs before giving way to Frank Baldwin in the eighth. Baldwin restricted the Cats to a lone hit and no runs until the eighth when he blew for four hits and five runs before Skip Dracup was rushed into the breach. He gave up a walk and a hit to finish the game.

Yank McBride's sacrifice fly in the first scored Gord Donovan who had doubled and gone to third on Burshaw's single. McBride started the fifth inning outburst with a two-run boomer scoring Wardhaugh ahead of him. Singles by Temple, Hatfield and Burshaw resulted in three other runs.

Hatfield blasted a three-run round tripper in the eighth after Wardhaugh and McBride had scored. Temple raced home with the sixth run on Burshaw's single. Baldwin's homer in the fifth started the Stewart Warner scoring. They collected another off three singles in the sixth and scored the final tally in the seventh when Gord Donovan's sacrifice who had singled.

Yank McBride paced the Cats with a homer, triple, single and sacrifice fly for three for three. Jim Buck was two for three with Mike Hatfield hilt a homer and a single. Lewis hit a double and single for the losers.

Paul Andrews KO's Hughes In Second Round

CHICAGO (AP)—Paul Andrews, Buffalo light heavyweight, connected with a steaming right to the jaw to register a second-round knockout Wednesday night over Bobby Hughes of Warren, Ohio, in a nationally-televised bout at Chicago Stadium that was scheduled for 10 rounds.

Andrews' bomb landed on the surprised Hughes as he was trying to weave inside. He fell back on his haunches, then tumbled over on his side.

Hughes was counted out after 52 seconds had elapsed in the round and stayed down for several minutes before officials helped him to his corner.

He was bleeding from the mouth and nose.

For the six-foot, three-inch Andrews, former paratrooper, the victory was his 29th in 32 bouts. It included 21 knockouts.

The 24-year-old Buffalo belter, third-ranking light heavyweight, outweighed his little-known opponent 180 to 176. Hughes, 26, absorbed his 13th loss in 37 fights.

This single-barrel Kentucky rifle was first used about 1750 by early settlers in the vast uncharted country west of the Alleghenies. Muzzle loading, this weapon was fired when a piece of flint hit the frizzen and sparked, igniting powder in the pan.

TODAY, this Remington 410-gauge autoloading gun, weighing slightly over six pounds, is one of our most modern sporting guns. The peaceful use of firearms provides healthful, competitive sport. The thousands of marksmen who use our ranges each year have developed a high standard of self-discipline, keenness of eye and steadiness of hand necessary to successful rifle shooting.

HORSE SENSE BRIDGE

By SAM GORDON
The Kibitzer

There is frequent evidence that the master players of bridge are inconsistent. Even when half of them agree on a trump suit it can be the wrong suit. Their title play reeks with such examples.

In the winter national finals were 36 tables of players from among the highest rated in the world. I am reporting what they did with each deal's results of the first three have been shown here.

In the first they reached 11 different contracts. In the second they reached 12 different contracts. In the third they reach 13 different contracts. This is average agreement of three per deal.

In the first, 24 were defeated and 12 made what they bid. In the second, they went 28 and only ten made. In the third, 23 bit the dust and 13 came through. Average, two defeats for each make.

If these are the models the public looks up to, think of the confusion in the ranks of prospective players. Standardization has a sad outlook in the near future unless such stuff is debunked.

Alibis of tough competition will not stand up against so many wrong results. The evidence shows lack of standard factual basics; light openings and responses, uncertain counts, shaded suits.

If their first bids and counts were true they would know when to double more sacrifice bids. If their shown suits were biddable they would be in less no-trump bids that are defeated.

Here is their number four deal:

NORTH
♠Q J 6
♥Q 9
♦A 2 5
♣K J 5 4 3

WEST
♠8 7 3
♥10 8 7 6 5
♦10 9 3
♣Q 8 6

EAST
♠K 10 5
♥A K J 2
♦K 8 4 3

SOUTH
♦J 7 6 2
♣A 7 2

You would have to be an awful dumb duck not to see that north and south have a better trump suit in clubs than in spades. Still, only four tables wound up with clubs as trumps.

Most of them were in the less correct spade suit. More details of this and other different bids will be in my next report.

A master bidder shortly shows he wants to go where the wild goose goes.

Dodgers Next On Menu Of Sizzling Braves

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Jolly Cholly Grimm's Milwaukee Braves, winners of 10 straight games and only four behind the leading New York Giants, open a two-game National League series with Brooklyn Friday, and by the time it's over not a tree may be standing in Flatbush.

"We're hot," chortled Grimm after the Braves' 3-2 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday. "Very hot. If we can get by the Dodgers — and we're playing them one by one, maybe we can squeeze by the New York Giants. But it's a big order.

"Everything depends on the Giants. If they fold and we win—well it will be a big story. But let me remind you—we're playing them one by one.

"The Pirates weren't any push-overs. They had us 2-1 in the first inning. I wasn't worried. Never worry until the last out. But you might say, Charley was a little perturbed!"

The victory not only was the Braves' 10th in a row, but marked the third time this season that they've accomplished the feat. It also was Warren Spahn's 19th victory of the season and the 11th in a row for the lefthander. There's not a National League pitcher who can boast that feat.

Wings Start Training Sept. 15

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (CP)—There will be fewer new faces with Detroit Red Wings this year than at any other time in their National Hockey League championship span, general manager Jack Adams said Wednesday night.

Adams is here preparing his fall training camp for the Red Wings. The camp opens Sept. 15 and runs for two weeks.

The Wings, defending Stanley Cup champions, will have only one vacancy to fill as the result of the retirement of Jimmy Peters, utility rightwinger.

Paul Richards Deals With Sox

CHICAGO (AP)—Manager Paul Richards said Wednesday he was negotiating only with Chicago White Sox for a new contract and any dealings with Baltimore Orioles are "out of the picture."

Richards, whose Sox pact expires at the end of the year, has had at least one business meeting with vice-president Chuck Comiskey in the last two days. He said he expects negotiations probably will continue for some time.

Royals, Wings Assured Of Playoff Spots

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With only four days remaining in the International League season, Rochester Red Wings and Montreal Royals are assured of playoff spots while two other teams may go down to the final day before deciding fourth place.

Rochester and Montreal are battling for second and third places while Havana and Syracuse fight for fourth. Toronto already has won the pennant.

The Red Wings moved to within half a game of the runner-up spot by nipping the Royals 3-2 in 10 innings Wednesday night. The same two clubs meet tonight in Rochester.

In the only other action, Syracuse Chiefs kept their playoff hopes alive by downing Buffalo Bisons twice, 2-0 and 7-2, and moved to within half a game of the idle fourth-place Kings.

A costly error by Montreal shortstop Chilo Fernandez with the bases loaded in the 10th gave left-hander Ed Ludwig, who went the distance, his third victory against the same amount of losses.

Lynn Lovenguth, former Bison who spent the entire season in the bullpen, hurled the three-hit shutout in the Syracuse opener. Jack Meyer, league batting champ, fanned 11 Bisons in the second game and had a two-hit shutout until the ninth when Ron Northey drilled his 24th home run with one man on.

Charles Will Trade Punches With Marciano

MONTICELLO, N.Y. (AP)—Ezzard Charles remembers the pasting he took from Rocky Marciano in their last heavyweight championship fight.

The challenger well recalls it and so does his manager, Tom Tannas.

Therefore, the reasoning is that the memory of the last battle will have a bad psychological effect on Ezzard, who climbs into the Yankee Stadium ring against Marciano in just six days.

"Only the match will disclose that," said Charles as he resumed heavy drills that will keep him busy until Monday. "I feel the same as I did before our last meeting. I might say even better. I know what to expect and will have a better offence and defence.

"I know, and I think that I proved, that Rocky is no superman. If it weren't for that wild crippling blow to the Adam's apple in the ninth, I'm certain my performance would have been even better."

Unless he is throwing up a smoke screen, Charles will trade punches with Marciano. That's just what the Rock and his manager, Al Weill, want, so they say, so someone is making a mistake.

Your Horoscope

BY FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR FRIDAY, SEPT. 10, 1954

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Agressiveness, needless contention should have no place in your thoughts or doings today. Business and occupational interests ask adroitness in management, tact, kindliness to all.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — You may have to make your own breaks and then supply the impetus and tenacity necessary to make them pay. You can do it. Much is up to the individual now, but some attainment is possible.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — You don't need extensive outside help if true to your own fine talents and capability. With new ideas and methods, you can turn the mediocre into profitable material. Try!

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — While the influences are not wholly generous, some benefits can be gained through smart management and a careful allocation of tasks. You are capable—artistically and mechanically.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — A day to improve your qualities, to gather knowledge of lasting value and also to clear desk or bench in preparation for a productive week ahead.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo)—Mild aspects today, but look forward to splendid vibrations for a big and favorable tomorrow. Finish up things already started and get things in order for a pleasant week-end.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—An ideal day for furthering study, research, improving patients and laying plans for future activity. But don't think the day will be an easy one; you must give your best efforts where needed.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Some vigorous, benefic rays linger from yesterday but, on the whole, it would be advisable to be careful, conscientious and amiable. Familiar work, recreation, children's, family's interests sponsored.

November 22 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—There may be some tendencies toward irritation and indisposition; also tasks and plans may not work out as quickly and satisfactorily as you had hoped but these facts should not dismay you. Let this day be a challenge.

December 22 to January 22 (Capricorn)—You may find persons and situations not entirely to your liking, and you may feel restricted, but this does not mean that you cannot accomplish, even make gains if you try—and cheerfully.

January 23 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Assume responsibilities as you should, and aim to carry them through to the best of your ability. You will find this true; "Where there's a will there's a way." You have the capability.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Today may be trying in some ways but, if true to your fine qualities, you will outsmart opposition and come through with pleasing results.

YOU BORN TODAY are keenly intuitive, imaginative, creative, clever at improving upon others' ideas and methods. You may have unusual mechanical ability and can do a skilled job at whatever you undertake. You have an analytical mind and, though you seem to criticize considerably, it is only with the intention of aiding those you correct. You may sacrifice too much, work too hard for loved ones, thus hurting your health. Take it easier, decorate more with family, friends—and don't worry. Birthdate: John J. Crittenden, Amer. statesman.

Sleek Saxonia Given Greeting At Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — The sleek 21,000-ton Saxonia slid gracefully into Montreal Wednesday as a ship from all parts of the world blew a stirdent greeting to the new transatlantic liner. The big ship made the 2,500-mile trip to Father Point, Que., where the St. Lawrence pilot is picked up—in five days, two hours and 13 minutes. The Cunarder is the first big liner designed for the British-Canadian Front by Belleville, Ont., yard since 1929.

As she swung under the towering girders of Jacques Cartier bridge to berth within a stone's throw of the financial heart of the city, the 50 members of St. George cathedral choir sang "O Canada." The wife of Kingston choirboy travelled back to Montreal on the ship after visiting Britain where they sang at Westminister abbey.

Let Them Fight

LIVERPOOL, England (AP)—If your kid wants to fight—then let him. That's the advice of Dr. H. S. Wilkinson, director of the child psychiatric clinic at a big children's hospital here.

Dr. Bryan told a woman's public health officers conference Wednesday:

"If the nation is to have self-assertive, virile and manly men and women they must self-assertive and at times aggressive little boys. When you see two little boys fighting, don't obey your natural instincts to stop them. Don't interfere.

"Little boys must be let do each other any harm and probably will be quite good friends when they have settled their dispute."

Lung Cancer Can Be Detected And Removed

CHICAGO (AP)—Evidence that lung cancer can be detected and removed surgically several years before symptoms appear have been reported by a Minneapolis radiologist.

Dr. Leo G. Rigler, chief of the department of radiology at the University of Minnesota School of Medicine, said Wednesday this surgery can be performed on normal tell-tale shadows on an x-ray plate.

He told the United States and Canadian sections of the International College of Surgeons that these shadows have been found on x-ray pictures taken as early as nine years before cancer was diagnosed in the patient.

Dr. Rigler said that whenever old films have been found in a lung cancer case, these shadows have been observed in nearly every instance. They are just present in the area where the cancer later develops.

YOU! YOU!
There are two men in Belleville between the ages of 25 and 35 who have been punching a time clock and have selling ability. They could easily double between four and five thousand dollars per year selling one of the best known automobiles in Belleville with the highest percentage of public acceptance. They may be now driving a milk wagon, a bread wagon, pumping gas, or doing one of a thousand jobs where there is a limit to their pay envelope. These two men are good honorable citizens — they are accepted as such in this community. They would like to get into the better income bracket but they just are not keen for big risks. ## PRAISES SYNTONA FOR HELP FROM STOMACH DISORDERS

This Woman Who Suffered Badly with Indigestion, Gas and Sour Upset Stomach Tells of Grand Relief. Nerves Are Calmed Down, Aches and Pains Gone. "Feel Much Better".

When you are troubled with stomach disorders such as gas, indigestion, heartburn and sour, upset stomach you may need something more than ordinary alkaline medication to bring the relief you want. Syntona has helped many people suffering this way, because it not only helps to rid the digestive system of excess acids and impurities, but also stimulates the action of normal digestive juices, giving better tone to stomach and promotes livery, kidney and bowel activity.

Her Own Experience

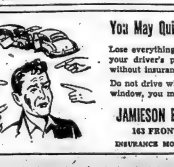
Here is what Mrs. Mary Moffat, 3 Leslie Street, London, Ontario, said recently about Syntona:



"For a long time I suffered with stomach disorders. I had gas, indigestion, heartburn and sour upset stomach after taking every meal. My nerves were so edge that I couldn't sleep well at night and now recently I began to have backache and aches and pains in my limbs, knee and muscles.

"Syntona has helped me more than anything I have ever tared before and in no time at all I felt I will recommend it to anyone who is troubled as I was. My food digests well, the aches and pains are relieved and my nerves are calmed down so that I can sleeping better at night."

Easy to Take

Although Syntona is made from 12 herbs and roots its fine flavors make it extremely agreeable. It is a tonic medicine which has been used by thousands of people to relieve the distress and misery of indigestion, gas and sour upset stomach after other things had failed.

Syntona is sold and recommended in Belleville by Dolan The Druggist.

MARILYN BELL SAYS SHE FEELS 'TERRIFIC'

As $50,000 cheered her, gallant Marilyn Bell, 16-year-old swimmer climbed ashore in Toronto last night after conquering one of the most amazing feats in swimming annals. The blonde swimming queen completed the tough 32-mile grind from Youngstown, N.Y., to Toronto in 21 hours, to become the first to swim Lake Ontario. Today Marilyn is the toast of Canada and her spectacular performance is another example of Canadian grit, courage and endurance. Her opponents, Florence Chadwick, well-known American swimmer and Winnie Leuzler were forced to withdraw from the competition.

U.S. AND RUSSIA HEADING INTO BITTER FIGHT

Recent Aerial Clashes In Far East in Dispute

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and Russia headed today into a bitter fight in the United Nations Security Council over their recent aerial clashes in the Far East.

The 11-member council was called into session at the request of the chief United States delegate, Henry Cabot Lodge, to consider an incident last Friday off the coast of Siberia in which Russian jet fighters shot down an American naval patrol bomber.

Western diplomats, however, expect Russia's deputy foreign minister, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, to counter with charges that the U.S. bomber violated Soviet territory. Washington contends its plane was over international waters.

The initial discussion was expected to boil down mostly to an exchange between the U.S. and Russia. Other delegates have indicated privately they cannot see what good the council debate can accomplish.

The difficulty faced by the council stems from the conflicting accounts of the incident given by the two powers.

An American spokesman said his government, in bringing such an incident before the council for the first time, wants to create an atmosphere in which such incidents cannot be repeated.

The Russians are expected to counter that the best way to prevent such incidents is to keep American planes away from Russian shores. Rejecting a second American protest of the shooting down, the Soviet Union declared on Wednesday what would happen if Russian planes "begin patrol flights near the border of the United States."

Marilyn Bell's Fine Condition Amazes Doctor

TORONTO (CP) — Dr. Frank Griffin, physician who examined Marilyn Bell after she completed her amazing 32-mile swim across Lake Ontario, Thursday said that from her condition "you would never know she ever did a thing."

"It's absolutely fantastic," he said, "After such an ordeal, you can expect a lowering of the blood pressure, but here is absolutely normal."

"I would say this is a surprise to the medical profession," he said.

Hurricane Edna Threatens to Hit U.S. Mainland

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Storm warnings flustered in the early morning hours over South Carolina northward to New England today as hurricane Edna threatened to strike the United States mainland.

The season's fifth tropical storm, with winds up to 115 miles an hour, this morning was churning northward at up to 10 miles an hour in the general direction of North Carolina.

Edna, latest for the fifth letter of the alphabet, has hurricane-force winds 175 miles an hour or more—outward from the centre 100 miles to the north and east and 75 miles to the south. Gale force winds reach out 200 miles. Ships were ordered out the storm as it crept northward off the Florida coast. The S. S. Fairland, out of Mobile, Ala., put into Miami and after passing through the eye of the storm Wednesday, it encountered winds estimated at 120 miles an hour.

The Norwegian steamship Astvin reported herself in the hurricane's "eye" Thursday and asked the Miami Coast Guard to stay turned to her radio frequency. Later the Coast Guard said the vessel apparently came through safely.

'GOOD PROGRESS' MADE IN TALKS ON ATOMIC FACTS

Canadian, U.S. Heads Confer at Washington

WASHINGTON (CP) — William Bennett, president of Canada's atomic energy agency, says a meeting Thursday with United States' atomic officials on an exchange of information "made very good progress."

Bennett conferred with Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the U. S. atomic energy commission, and his aides. The discussions also dealt with arrangements for supplying raw material and fuel for power reactor programs.

Canada has been in the business of atomic production for peaceful purposes for some years at the Chalk River, Ont., plant. A recent amendment to the U. S. Atomic Energy Act now permits the exchange of information between the U. S. and its allies.

HOPE OF HELP

Canada is primarily interested in obtaining from the Americans information in the field of design engineering of atomic installations. Bennett said Canada now hopes "to get a good bit of help along that line."

Also under discussion was the buying and selling of uranium between the two countries. Canadian atomic enterprises which Bennett heads and the U.S.

At a press conference Thursday Strauss said the U. S. now has many more atomic weapons in its arsenal than it had a year ago. But he was tight-lipped when reporters sought to find out about American and Russian progress in the atomic arms race.

A reporter asked if there had been any new Soviet atomic blasts since the U. S. announced detection of a Russian test about a year ago. After some thought, Strauss replied: "That is a field where I ought not to answer." He cautioned reporters not to "draw any inferences" from his reply.

HOLD TALKS SOON

Strauss also is ranged into the field of peaceful atomic energy uses, and said he expects conferences soon on creation of an international atomic agency similar to proposals by President Eisenhower. He also hoped for an international conference of scientists in January on use of atomic energy "not long after the first of the year."

He left the door open for possible participation by Soviet scientists, but said "the nationality of participants" has not been decided.

'Darkness and Eels Bothered Me Most' Says Marilyn in Describing Long Swim

TORONTO (CP) — A victory celebration is planned for tonight for 16-year-old Marilyn Bell, conqueror of Lake Ontario.

Civic officials said today that, if the swimmer is sufficiently rested from Thursday's ordeal and if her parents consent, they will give her a ticker-tape parade up downtown Bay Street late in the afternoon.

A triumphant cavalcade along the Canadian National Exhibition waterfront also is tentatively scheduled for tonight, followed by a presentation at the CNE bandshell.

Marilyn herself, who announced she felt "terrific" at the end of the swim through more than 32 miles of choppy water, revealed today she had swum with the constant pain of a strained tendon in her left ankle. She said nothing about the ankle until after she reached Toronto as the first person ever to swim across Lake Ontario.

The blonde high school student, who as a child lived for a time on an island in North Bay, confessed to being overwhelmed by the welcome from the vast throngs who waited in the gathering dusk and to the publicity her feat had attracted.

"I thought my swim, if I finished, would be on the back pages of the papers," she said in an interview. "If I thought I would just climb out and go home and a few of my friends would congratulate me."

With her accomplishment still virtually the sole topic of conversation in this city that took the plucky young athlete to its heart, Marilyn spoke of the arduous hours in the cold water.

"They say I went to sleep twice. Maybe I did but I know I kept right on swimming.

EELS A BOTHER

"It was the darkness and the eels that bothered me most. It was so dark that first night. I called to the boat to turn all its lights on so I could see something. They did and I felt better.

"But the eels kept coming around me. I could feel them. One of them fastened on my leg. I could feel its sucking mouth. It slowed me a little and finally I kicked it off.

"The last two hours were the hardest. I felt like I did in Atlantic City when I swam the 26 - mile marathon there — as if I'd been swimming all my life. Every time I brought my head up, I saw the same old things: the sky, the waves and the darkness of the water again.

"Even though you have boats there, you seem to be so alone. You can't hear anything, your mind goes blank and you just keep doing the same thing, over and over-yes, and over again.

"What am I going to do with all the money? I don't know. I haven't even thought about it yet. How much was it?"

It was estimated today that her rewards in cash and gifts will total more than $60,000.

Among the major awards: a $10,000 cheque from the Canadian National Exhibition, $10,000 in cash and prizes from citizens of Hamilton and district, $5,000 in cash from the "Marilyn Bell Fund," a convertible plus 200 gallons of gasoline, polishing and car washes for at least two years and offers of driving lessons from three schools.

Holidays to Atlantic City, New York and any summer resort in Ontario have been given.

AWARD TONIGHT

A Toronto department store promised $500, former Toronto controller Fred Hamilton and the Sportsman's Show $1,000.

The Toronto baseball club has planned a benefit night which is expected may could net from $10,000 to $15,000.

In addition to the major prizes, hundreds of smaller donations are beauty treatments, steak dinners, flags, trophies, television sets, record players, wrist watches, life - time passes, free dry-cleaning, dance lessons and a fur coat.

The presentation of the awards will be made tonight when Robert Saunders, president of the Canadian National Exhibition presents Marilyn with the cheque for $10,000 at a victory celebration on the CNE grounds.

Winnie Roach Leuszler Lost Gamest, Hardest Fight of Life

TORONTO (CP)—Mrs. Winnie Roach Leuszler lost the gamest and hardest fight of her swimming career Thursday.

The 28-year-old mother of three small children swam desperately and courageously until her legs were numb and her arms tiring exhausted. Finally, she was pulled in the late afternoon from the chilling waters of Lake Ontario after covering 24 miles of the distance from Youngstown, N. Y., to Toronto.

SENT MESSAGE

Even then, the dead-game swimmer made sure her trainer sent a message to Marilyn Bell, the 16-year-old star who was then struggling off the Toronto waterfront to "Stay with it."

When pulled from the water, she was rushed to Toronto, A high-powered police launch met her and carried her into the harbor, where she was taken to a hotel room to rest.

One witness said Mrs. Leuszler was semi-conscious for a time and when she was taken from the water. While she was being carried to her to Toronto, her husband, Morris, and trainer massaged her legs to restore circulation and feeling.

"I can't feel a thing in my legs.

I'm cold. I had cramps for four hours," she said, "but I couldn't kick them off."

WASTED ENERGY

Another gutsy conqueror of the English Channel wasted precious energy Wednesday night, when she swam for two hours before being forced to return because she lost her bearings.

Mrs. Leuszler dived into the water about 11:15 p.m. EDT with Marilyn Bell and United States star Florence Chadwick, but missed by a wide margin on her first launch. She started swimming after it, but it suddenly sped away, her trainer yelling after her to stop lake alone.

She was finally picked up by her father, and taken back to Youngstown.

She made a second start at dawn Thursday. She swam for 10 hours before being forced to give up.

Home-Made Contraption Takes Man 6,200 Feet in Air But He Lands in Jail

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A part-time hypnotist with an urge for a trip into the sky was in jail today after a flight in a home-made rig suspended from 60 gas-filled balloons.

Garrett Cashman, 28, of Albany, was arrested Thursday night by state police and arraigned on a charge of flying without a license.

Cashman pleaded innocent, and was remanded to jail in lieu of $100 bail.

Earlier Thursday, Cashman spent about 90 minutes soaring about 23 miles north. He landed in a tomato patch about 15 miles south of here.

Hundreds stared, unbelieving, as he floated overhead.

Cashman, who told reporters he reached a height of 6,200 feet at one point, described his flight as "wonderful" and said he was "fully satisfied with the results."

He made the trip seated on a platform about 25 feet above the square, braced underneath and alongside by a framework of bicycle spokeless bicycle wheel. His cluster of balloons was attached to the wheel. He said each balloon held about 112 cubic feet of gas.

Cashman weighs 140 pounds, the contraption weighs 40, and he carried 30 pounds of sand. He also carried an altimeter. He landed in a power company crew tapped into a gas main and helped him fill the balloons with illuminating gas. He ran up a bill of $43.30.

'Big Three' Will Reject Reds' Pleas for European Parleys

LONDON (CP) — The United States, France and Britain are sending immediately to Moscow a note rejecting recent Russian proposals for European conferences, except on specific terms, diplomatic quarters here said today.

The American, British and French envoys in Moscow are due to hand the Soviet government today the Western reply to the two Russian notes proposing a Big Four meeting on Germany and another conference on European security.

Text of the note will be released later simultaneously in the three Western capitals.

The Soviet foreign ministry today might issued a lengthy statement emphasizing that so far no reply had been received to the two Russian notes.

It also again warned the West that Russia considers German rearmament could lead to war.

The Soviet foreign ministry rejected the argument that inclusion of a rearmed West Germany in a European defence system would strengthen the West in its dealing with Russia.

"Such statements are absolutely groundless, the Russians said. Such militarization would create many and drawing her into any military adventures would create insurmountable difficulties for uniting Germany.

"This means the whole German nation would remain torn in two parts for an indefinite period, and that in itself creates a dangerous situation."

The statement stressed the danger to France of a rearmed Germany, and warned that such a step would reduce France to a second-rate power.

Fifteen Years Since Canada Declared War on Germany

By DAVE McINTOSH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—Fifteen years ago today, Canada declared war on Nazi Germany.

It was the first time in this country's history that Canada had made a formal declaration of war in its own right.

It was through that hot summer of 1939, the tide of war crept closer until on Sept. 1 the German Panzer divisions rolled into Poland. Two days later, British and France declared war on the Nazi United Reich.

The 15th anniversary of Canada's declaration of war comes three days after the 15th anniversary of the first Canadian troops landed in France.

Maj.-Gen. Kurt Meyer, originally sentenced to be executed for responsibility in the massacre of 19 Canadian prisoners in the Battle of Normandy.

Internationally speaking, the world has turned upside down since Canada's servicemen fought here in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization now are trying to find

Toronto Girl, 16, Swims 45 Miles In Crossing Lake

21-Hour Battle With Waves Earns Her Prizes, Plaudits

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — A golden-haired, laughing-eyed girl of 18 with the courage and fortitude of an amazon swam Lake Ontario, captured the hearts of Canadians and came out of it feeling "terrific."

Marilyn Bell, a charming, freckle faced blonde who will go into fourth form high school next week, did Thursday what no other human has ever done—swam the 32 miles of the icy lake that separates New York state and Ontario.

After 20 hours and 56 minutes in the water, she said she felt "terrific" and went to bed, tucking under the pillow a white bathing cap with its four-leaf clover inside, symbol of a young girl's amazing determination.

The white cap bobbing on the lake had been the only visible evidence during a long day of her fight against cold and high waves, sometimes as high as six feet, and Toronto had received frightful of the drama being acted out in its front yard.

NO DOUBT

But there was no doubt of its feeling when she finished in the lake at 8:15 p.m.

Not since its famed marathon swims of the '20s and '30s had Toronto witnessed anything quite like the exultation of Thursday night. About 250,000 persons, a great many of them crowded around the Canadian National Exhibition shoreline and spreading out to the finish point half a mile away, expressed their delight at a local girl's victory over the cold, high seas and two noted English channel conquerors, Flo Chadwick and Winnie Roach Leuszler.

The scene was a bedlam as the five-foot, 118-pound girl with the boyish bob and infectious grin from suburban New Toronto surged to a breakwater near shore in a blare of cheers, boat whistles and the boom of exploding fireworks.

Prizes showered on her. In real money they amounted to more than $10,000; in prospects they promise $50,000.

Today, Marilyn was Toronto's pet, her most favored daughter of the moment. Not since 12-year-old George Young, another Torontonian, swam the 21-mile Catalina Channel in 1927—11 years before Marilyn was born—had anyone so captured the imagination of the city. Young, now a Philadelphia railroad worker, has appeared in a CNE midget show for several years.

STARTED NEAR MIDNIGHT

Most of Toronto was asleep when Marilyn entered the dark waters of Lake Ontario unnoticed at 11:12 p.m. Wednesday night at Youngstown, N.Y., a minute after Miss Chadwick. A pair of Sault Ste. Marie, two-way English channel conqueror and two minutes before Mrs. Leuszler, 28, of St. Thomas, Ont.

The CNE had Miss Chadwick under contract for the swim, but Miss Bell and Mrs. Leuszler, who swam the channel in 1951, plunged in with no promise of prizes from the CNE.

DANE AUSTERITY PLAN

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Prime Minister Hans Hedtoft Thursday proposed a new "austerity plan" in an attempt to meet Denmark's widening foreign trade deficit. He said it will include a 10% demand for price increases for beer, tobacco, wines, rail-fares, postage and automobile taxes. He also urged increased income taxes.

Toronto Workers Of Company Vote to Strike

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto employees of Massey-Harris-Ferguson, members of the United Automobile Workers of America (CIO-CCL), voted Thursday in favor of a strike.

The meeting decided to ask authority from the international union to strike almost immediately if the company cancels the present contract Friday night.

The company has given the Toronto local until midnight Friday to sign a contract or face the loss of bargaining rights.

At Brantford the company said it was prepared to sign a contract with the 1,500 employees at Brantford and Woodstock regardless of the dispute here.

A union official said Toronto action would not affect the other two Massey-Harris locals which have tentatively accepted last week's conciliation board award.

The award, which recommended no increase in wages, was refused by the Toronto local. The 2,800 workers here are sticking to demands for a 10-cent-an-hour increase. The present basic wage rate was not available.

There comes a fish story from Baggott's Point near Picton of a mammoth muskie that chewed up a flatfish bait then nibbled at the plug until it disappeared.

Boomhauer and Harold Abbott were fishing for pickerel when the big fellow struck. They battled the fish for more than a half-hour eventually getting it to boatside before it slipped away to freedom.

Abbott and Gorsline figured the muskie would weight in the vicinity of fifty pounds.

Enrolment Sets New Record As Albert College Re-Opens

Albert College opened its doors on Sept. 8 to the largest and most representative enrolment of young people in its history. Students from as far away as South America and China appeared to register.

Under the leadership of its headmaster and principal, Clifford has forged ahead in every department until it is now recognized as one of the leading colleges in Canada. Mr. MacKenzie has brought to the school a wide background in general administration and his inherent interest in young people has made the office one of the places where a student may go and expect guidance in Christian living.

In addition to the veteran masters attached to the faculty, Mr. MacKenzie has surrounded himself with a group of capable and well-qualified teachers who have made a great contribution to the progress he has made in the past several years.

At the opening of school it is customary at Albert College to welcome the students in the Chapel. This year the service, being auditorium and an appropriate place to begin a year of serious study. Here it is that the headmaster delivers his welcoming message and at this time introduces the student body to the individual faculty members. Following the principal's remarks, the dean of studies and the registrar held forth on matters relating to immediate business. And of course, Albert College, appears as it is in tradition, tops the evening's formalities with an informal luncheon in famed Ackerman Hall.

ATTENDANCE GROWS

The academic, theological and commercial departments have far exceeded expectations, and Mr. MacKenzie feels this upsurge also in attendance is but a further indication of the need for an enlarged plant. He intimated that with the school's centennial not too far away a financial drive to synchronize with that historic event could materialize.

Mr. Clifford in introducing the teaching staff stated that he was fortunate in having such an outstanding faculty and wished to elaborate on the qualifications of each.

Dr. Thomas McMullen, M.A., Ph.D., Vice Principal and senior instructor in higher mathematics, has been with the school since 1919 and numbers his staff as an enviable teaching record.

Joseph H. MacKay, B.A., B. Paed. the dean of studies is a graduate of Western and brings to his exacting duties a wise and mature judgment in the selection of students. Mr. MacKay served with the Armed Forces in the capacity of education officer and earned the rank of a high reputation in that field. Mr. MacKay is interested in music and is director of the Albert College choir.

Eugene C. Irvine, B. Comm., A.P.A., heads the commerce and business administration department. Mr. Irvine, a commerce graduate of Mount Allison, has had a wide experience in the field of business and business training. For some years he was on the faculty of Mount Allison Academy and Rothesay College, and during the war Mr. Irvine was in the Royal Army courses in office procedure at the port of Saint John. Prior to joining the faculty at Albert, Mr. Irvine was instructor in assessing and accounting with the Department of National Revenue, Windsor, Ont.

Mr. Kellett is a graduate of Western, and brings to his staff a variety of talents necessary in the bringing to life of his chosen subject. He shares his interests with the Cubs of Bridge Street United Church in the capacity of Cubmaster.

N. A. Beach, is perhaps one of Albert's key men. As senior housemaster it is his duty to be father and mother to the boys in residence. Mr. Beach is a versatile man and besides a variety of essential duties finds time to direct the athletic program. During the war he served overseas, with the Y.M.C.A.

C. Murray Irvin, B.A., heads the department of English and supervises the annual dramatic presentation.

Douglas B. Hoare, B.A., the junior master on the faculty, teaches English and Senior French.

BACK FROM EUROPE

John MacKenzie, B.A., is not related to the principal. Mr. MacKenzie is supervisor of the boys' college and heads the department of Physical Education. Mr. MacKenzie has just returned from Europe and brings to his studies a rich and crafts many new and inspiring ideas.

Mrs. Ola Sharpe, B.A., teaches junior and senior mathematics as well as junior English. Mrs. Sharpe had also had the benefit of a term abroad and brings to her English classes a brand new conception of the English countryside.

Mrs. R. B. Morden, A.C.C.O., is the specialist in Speech Arts and is well-known in Belleville and surrounding territory.

He is ably assisted by Egerton Boyce, R.M.T., Miss Bessie Handley, A.T.C.M., and Barnet Taylor, R.M.T. ## Will Not Continue Search for Man Believed Drowned

City police and firemen will not continue their search for the body of a transient who was believed drowned in the Moira River at the Canadian Pacific Railways bridge on Thursday.

Finding of a brown suitcase on the bridge shortly before noon on Thursday touched off the search and late in the afternoon police officers said they saw what appeared to be a body resting on the bottom of the river beneath the bridge.

Attempts to raise the body with a hooked pole were unsuccessful and dragging operations by city firemen assisted by police and provincial constables were without success.

Today police said they were not completely satisfied it was a body, that they too believed they saw in the river. Police reported that a person answering Marguson's description had been in the city both last night and Thursday morning.

Late Wednesday police came to the conclusion that Peter Marguson, no given address, is also was going through a small suitcase when he left the room. He was brought to the police station for questioning but was released early Thursday after he believed they saw in the river. Police reported that a person answering Marguson's description had been in the city both last night and Thursday morning.

Late Wednesday police came to the conclusion that Peter Marguson, no given address, is also was going through a small suitcase when he left the room. He was brought to the police station for questioning but was released early Thursday after he believed they saw in the river. Police reported that a person answering Marguson's description had been in the city both last night and Thursday morning.

Acting on the possibility that Marguson may have fallen through the ice, Chief Constable Harold Ben and P. C. Ron Lee searched the river. About five o'clock they spotted, what appeared to be a body on the bottom of the river. Efforts to dislodge it with a pole were unsuccessful and the bottom of the river was roiled by probing and the object could no longer see. It is believed the body may have been disturbed and was carried further downstream by the current.

Advisory Board for Blind Making Appeal for Funds

The Hastings County Advisory Board of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind launched its annual campaign for funds on Thursday.

The local organization raised $7,742.83 in Hastings County in 1953 but an increase of 10 blind persons in all time high of 121 has necessitated an appeal for even greater generosity this year.

No specific target has been set for the local campaign but Board officials say they will have considerably more money than last year if they are to maintain and expand existing services to the blind.

Contributions, which are exempt from income tax, should be forwarded to H. J. Fluke, treasurer of the Hastings County Advisory Board, at the Bank of Commerce, Belleville. Official receipts will be issued for donations of $1.00 or more.

The campaign, which will run through to Sept. 18th, will be launched in Belleville by a tag day on Friday afternoon, Sept. 17th, and Saturday morning, Sept. 18th. School children will supplement the downtown tag days with a house-to-house canvass of the residential districts.

Forty-two of the 121 registered blind persons in Hastings County live in Belleville.

Services provided by the CNIB and arranged through the local Board, include visitation and teaching services, emergency financial assistance, provision of embossed books and talking book records, employment training, and social and recreational activities.

The increasing number of blind persons in the six county area served by the field secretary stationed in Kingston, has made a yearly visit to each blind person extremely difficult. Emergency cases are visited as often as required.

HOME TEACHING SERVICE

The home teaching service includes instruction of the newly blind in the performance of household duties, handicrafts, reading embossed type and the use of typewriters. Twenty-one persons in Hastings County availed themselves of this service last year.

Eight local blind persons took employment training last year. This training is designed to make blind persons competent workmen capable of maintaining their economic independence. CNIB placement officers find employment for these persons, once trained, either in local industry or in CNIB shops.

Fifteen persons in Hastings County used the library service last year. This service draws on 25,000 embossed (Braille) books, and thousands of talking book libraries. Twelve talking book recording machines, were purchased by the Belleville Kinette Club, are on loan. Seven radio sets are also on loan and service on all repair bills were paid.

Concessions arranged for blind persons in Belleville include passes on Belleville buses, and passes to local theatres.

Social and recreational activities are centred around the Belleville White Cane Club which maintains an active schedule of bowling and suitable games.

The prevention of blindness program includes provision of free eye examinations, treatment and glasses when needed.

Nine persons called on the emergency fund last year. This fund provides food, fuel and clothing in emergency cases.

The ability of the Hastings County Advisory Board to maintain this program for blind persons in Hastings County is dependent on public support. They have appealed to the people of Hastings County to be generous during their campaign.

Cyclists Riding On Sidewalks To Face Charges

City police are going to crack down hard on bicyclists who persist in riding on city sidewalks and particularly on the Belleville bridge sidewalk.

Police Inspector J. C. Hayes noted that school students were the main offenders of riding bicycles on the footbridge and stated that police were definitely going to prosecute.

"We are going to prosecute without question," he said.

The inspector also noted that a close check would be made for bicycle riders giving another person a lift on their bikes. This practice was also contrary to traffic regulations and again offenders would face charges.

Provision of proper lights was another requirement for bicycles and the Inspector noted with shorter days rapidly approaching it was all the more important for bikes to be properly equipped with lights. He stressed that it was the duty of parents to see their children's bicycles were equipped with the proper lights.

QUEBEC (CP)—A suitcase and a packsack were moved from Montreal to Quebec City, Paul Auclair and the moving cost the army $370, Auclair testified Thursday at the court martial of L. Cpl. Denis Gauthier of Montreal.

Gauthier has pleaded not guilty to 18 charges of fraud involving about $3,000 in connection with an alleged furniture-moving racket the army uncovered last July.

Cpl. Auclair said he received $100 from the moving firm after the bill had been paid by the army but that he didn't know the reason for the reimbursement.

He said he had got the firm to move him from Montreal to Quebec last May and signed a bill on which no figures were listed.

Mr. How does not know how soon the appeal can be heard—"but I'll push it as hard as I can."

The case arose when the three children of Paul Emile Perron, a Witnesses follower, were refused admittance to Protestant school in Rougn. School authorities claimed Mr. Perron is not a Protestant.

Temporary arrangements are being made to take care of the children's education, Mr. How said. He declined to give details.

Central Bridge Wins Series From Meteors

TRENTON (Special)—Pitcher Ernie Curtiss poled a long home run to aid his own cause but he failed to stop rampaging Central Bridge batters in the second game in the Trenton Softball League's championship series between Graham's Meteors and the Bridgemen at Bayshore Park here Thursday night. Central Bridge trailing by two runs going into the last half of the ninth blasted Curtiss' best offerings to win 13-12 and sew up the series.

The steel company's board of strategy started Stan Cooper on the mound. He was in difficulty several times but managed to pull himself together and went the route while the Meteor's pitched three different hurlers and sent Curtiss back to work again after Garney Rosenpiet went stale.

Austin Scott, Leroy Wannamaker and Sam Ellis each had three Meteor flingers a hard time throughout the peppery affair.

SICKNESS CAUSES DELAY

Sickness has delayed the 50th wedding anniversary celebration planned for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ellis, who live a half a mile south of the village of Wooler eight miles north of here, Mr. Ellis was stricken suddenly last week and after rest and treatment in the Trenton Memorial hospital was permitted to return to his home to recuperate.

Winnie Leuszler Pays Tribute To Marilyn Bell

TORONTO (CP) — Canada's female English channel conqueror Mrs. Winnie Roach Leuszler said today it was very fitting that 16-year-old Marilyn Bell should be the only swimmer to finish the Lake Ontario marathon.

Mrs. Leuszler, 36, was taken from the water Thursday with cramps after swimming 18 miles.

"It's only right that the youngest swimmer should win," she said. "She is the new generation. She has the whole world and a wonderful career before her."

Six New Tremors Rock Algerian Quake Survivors

ORLEANSVILLE, Algeria (reuters)—This ruined town, trembled under six new earth tremors during the night while rescue squads still searched for survivors of Thursday's shock which killed more than 1,000 persons.

The latest tremor shook the surrounding countryside for several seconds just after dawn.

The 40,000 persons who had fled from towns and villages Thursday to spend the night in the open country were near panic again as the new tremors, shook the earth today.

THOUSANDS HURT

At emergency rescue headquarters, in the wreckage-strewn yard of the Orleansville prefecture, officials feared these tremors might complete the destruction of the once-thriving city.

Latest official estimates put the injured at between 5,000 and 6,000, with 30,000 people homeless and about $12,000,000 worth of damage done.

Rescue squads had extricated more than 500 bodies before night fell Thursday. The work continued overnight.

Today has been declared a day of national mourning by the French government for the earthquake victims. Flags will be flown at half-staff on all public buildings in France and French territories.

A constant watch is being kept on the 180-foot wall of the mighty Fodda river dam, which would start millions of gallons of water flooding the ravaged area should it break. The dam was cracked by the shock, but engineers hurriedly repaired the breach.

Another smaller dam, the Lamartine, collapsed in the earthquake, drowning 200 and inundating the surrounding area.

The earthquake centred on Orleansville, a modern French town of 32,000 inhabitants. Small towns and villages in a 60-mile radius were devastated, and some completely destroyed.

Orleansville was asleep at 1 a. m. Thursday. Then for 12 nightmare seconds, with a grinding roar, the earth rocked.

FIRES STARTED

As the subterranean rumbling trembled, cracks appeared in walls and whole buildings collapsed.

All lights went out, but jets of flame hissed from ruptured gas mains and started fires.

Some Arabs reported a fireball appeared in the sky, while the moon turned blood red and a scalding wind blew over the city.

People swarmed into the streets, shrieking and wailing. They shoved in blind panic to escape the falling wreckage.

Men knocked down women and children in their rush to reach the open country while minor tremors continued to shake the city.

Here and there a car tried to force a way wedged through crowds, struggling to cling to the fenders and running boards.

One eye-witness gave this description of the interno:

"I thought that I had been awakened by a storm, but through the window I could see a reddish glow over the whole of the city and could see that buildings were crumbling.

"In the streets as I fled there was a great howling. The people looked up fearfully as they rushed along, thinking that the already damaged buildings were about to topple down on them.

"Through the dust and smoke I saw one woman scrabbling at a heap of bricks, screaming for her son.

"I saw an old man moaning softly. He was buried in rubble up to his neck and one hand, sticking out behind at a grotesque angle, twitched convulsively.

"I was carried along by the crowd, beyond the old broken walls of the town into the country."

ALL DAMAGED

The governor-general of Algeria, Roger Leonard, reported that not a single building in Orleansville escaped damage.

Six mobile army kitchens were rushed to the area to feed the homeless, and today officials said there is no shortage of food or water.

Freshmen Taken On Early Run Through City

It looked as though a somnambulists' convention had hit the city as a procession of pyjama-clad youth passed through Belleville and district in the wee hours, this morning.

In essence, however, the parade was more solemn than weird for it marked the traditional Early Morning Run of the Freshmen of Albert College — part of the annual welcoming ceremonies of the student body for new students in the college.

Around 4.30 p.m. freshmen were roused from slumber and, dressed in pyjamas and running shoes, were taken on a joy ride through Belleville.

Girl students turned out at their residence to applaud the procession as it started out.

Reports from the college this morning say all freshmen took the trip in good fun. However, come Wednesday night, a panel of senior students will hold court to decide the fate of those less appreciative of the joys of running through city streets clad in pyjamas in the gray light of dawn.

This year the school opened Monday for the largest registration on its record and school authorities report that despite enlarged accommodation the college is again filled to capacity. Students from Jamaica, America, Haiti, Bermuda and Hong Kong, and U.S., besides Canadians, were enrolled.

U.S. DOLLAR ABROAD

When is a U.S. dollar not worth a dollar?

When it's in Canada of course.

Lack of U.S. dollars outside North America has placed the rest of the free world at the feet of the United States, while that nation's abundance of them has forced recognition of Washington as the free world's capital.

The sign of the dollar casts eight across our world, and now is a more potent sesame in every country than the old "Joe sent me," or the local equivalent. It gets an American in, any place, anywhere.

Anywhere that is except in this Canada of ours.

Only last night in a city restaurant a customer paying his check, as an afterthought, extracted a green bill from his wallet to ask the cashier: "Can you give me a dollar for this if I scrape up the difference?"

The bill, of course, was a U.S. dollar and the difference referred to was three Canadian pennies—the present difference in value between the Canadian dollar and that of the U.S.

Although the international exchange rate varies from day to day, the change is slight and three cents is the current premium of Canada's money over that of its southern neighbor.

It has been so for several years, and, rightly, it is a source of high satisfaction to Canadians since, not so long ago, the shoe was on the other foot.

Now the latest issue of the monthly business review of the Bank of Nova Scotia has something fine to say:

"From 1950 to the present a dominant influence in Canada's international economic position has been persistent U.S. investment in Canada's resources.

The letter also credits, as a prime factor in maintaining the value of the Canadian dollar, a surge of United States funds into Canadian investments during recent months.

This statement is nothing new since Canadian Big Business always has been aware of the role played by United States' backing in boosting our optimism in Canada's future. However, it does serve as a reminder of this, to many of us, and is timed to be a sardonic about the whole thing when one sees a visitor from the United States putting out three cents to bring his money up to par with that of the booming Canada.

The one can then appreciate the irony of the situation is the southern visitor himself, who has helped to bring this situation about.

Ultimately though, even he will have little cause for complaint.

NASSER'S SIGNIFICANT STATEMENT

"Suppose, for example, that my country is a neighbor of Russia and is under foreign colonization. If I am a man who is interested in my country's freedom and I have the opportunity to get help and aid from Russia, do you think that I would hesitate to accept aid from a Communist country to get rid of the oppressor?"

That is the attitude of Nasser, but that is beside the point. The important fact is that, whether or not it is a reasonable attitude, it is an attitude that exists among many influential leaders in Asia and Africa.

These views were uttered by some Communist fellow-traveller, but by Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, Premier of Egypt. They were part of an interview with "U.S. News and World Report" which quotes Nasser as "outspokenly anti-Communist and friendly to the U.S." Yet Nasser says that if his country were under colonial rule, he would accept aid from the Communists in an effort to overthrow this foreign control.

There's no use arguing against such an attitude. It cannot be changed—but its existence can be recognized for what it is, a burning desire for independence which does not fingle any leanings toward Communism.

Once the West recognizes the widespread existence of this outlook, there will be a greater hope that it will take appropriate action.

Nasser thinks that this appropriate action would be granting independence, "under good guidance," before, instead of after, the Communists "have had the opportunity to take advantage of the situation."

HARD TO BELIEVE

Mr. Walter Winchell interests us.

That, of course, is his main objective in life—to interest people.

It keeps his Hooper rating—and his salary—at a comfortable level.

Mr. Winchell's radio effusions, however, never interested us quite as much as his observation he made to the Congress committee concerned with a proposal that Senator Joseph McCarthy be censured.

Mr. Winchell told the committee that he did not know who gave him what he believed to be a copy of a cut-down version of an FBI espionage report.

Mr. Winchell said that he "didn't take a very good look" at the man who slipped him the copy.

Perhaps the members of the Congress committee may find nothing strange in this admission.

There are, however, hundreds of city editors who would blow all their fuses and burst all their gaskets if the youngest cub reporter on the staff made a similar admission to them.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

SUCCESS DEFINITION

There are so many definitions of success that it is difficult to pick out one that may be said to cover the entire territory of success. A sentence or two can be written to embody such a definition, however. It was expressed by Prof. Alonzo Stagg, the great one time athletic director and coach for Chicago University's football team when he said that the decisive factors in football were experience, form and the will-to-win.

That definition can cover a multitude of varieties of human endeavor. There is no substitute for experience. In applying it to the rule of the first, if not the first, question is this: "What experience have you had?" Then there is form. The way you conduct yourself in your job, or the task at hand. Do you keep trying to better yourself? Then there is that high essential—the will-to-win. This latter overshadows all else. If you haven't this you might as well not attempt success, for you won't deserve it.

Always Barred

(Winnipeg Tribune)

There's a certain kind of cigar we can't smoke any more. It's for the Man on the Way Up, a brand of hat is forever barred to our use and style is designed for the Man Who Looks Ahead, and the latest blow is a soap chip which can be purchased only by the Young At Heart.

March of Science

(Windsor Star)

Science believes it finally has learned why cats like catnip. That settled, it can advance to the more important problem centering on the partiality of ducks for water.

In our hope and dream for success in whatever you choose to do, you must recognize the fact that you will have to tread the straight-ahead road of Self Discipline. And bear in mind—sometimes—that you will have to carry your own baggage and equipment. No one else can carry it for you, and you should not want them to anyway. There is glory in having a definite goal, and pursuing it happily and courageously.

Too many people think that genuine success means the accumulating of money. This is not true. Success is achievement. Thomas A. Edison could have become the richest man in the world by demanding royalties on all his inventions, but he wasn't interested in making money. He only wanted to keep thinking out something new that would be useful and bless the whole world. And so the entire world will forever be in his debt.

Which?

(Winnipeg Tribune)

If he's any kind of husband at all he can tell right away from his wife's greeting whether the candles on the table are there for gracious living or a blown fuse.

With Room to Spare

(Moose Jaw Times-Herald)

The chap held on a charge of robbing a ladies' wear store had 200 bathing suits in one of those purses that women carry when going shopping.

Leisure Industry

(Financial Post)

The 8-hour day and the 5-day week have created a new industry in Canada. It's worth at least a billion dollars a year, gives thousands of Canadians good jobs and is growing steadily.

This is our "leisure" industry, the result of what Canadians spend to amuse, interest, instruct themselves, and otherwise use up that substantial portion of our daily 24 hours left over after the hours for working, eating, and sleeping have been accounted for.

Our hard-working, plain-living grandfathers of a bygone age could hardly imagine the magnitude of this development. When they got through producing the necessities their day was about done. For most of them, there was little time left for sport, travel, music or hobbies. There were no Stratford festivals, no radio or television, no movies. There were few summer hotels, golf courses, ball parks or holiday trips to the mountains or seaside. And there were few people or businesses catering to this sort of thing because leisure hours and surplus for most people were scarce.

Today the average worker has over 90 hours a week free, relatively a lot of money to spend as he pleases.

It is almost impossible to overemphasize the importance of this development in the general business. In the United States, for instance, almost 25% of all women's clothing sold is for sports, resort or play apparel. And the same proportion or close to it would apply to Canada.

Probably a third of what the average person spends on all headline goes for sheer pleasure driving, as we learned when rationing of strictly necessities during war years. On entertainment, theatres, travel, hobbies, the average family spends almost as much as on food.

This new and rapidly expanding industry touches the lives of almost everybody and for the businessman planning ahead it is a most significant factor, too.

So Canadians Are Stodgy!

(Ottawa Citizen)

Up on the shores of Great Slave Lake recently, there was a wedding. It was a church wedding, with the usual marriage ceremony, as set forth in the social columns of the News of the North, Yellowknife, N.W.T. would fit in the main many happy nuptials of the kind in the more populous (but not more civilized) parts of Canada. Thus:

For the nuptials the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace with net inserts. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of tucked and ribbed satin. She had and she wore a rhinestone necklace with matching earrings. She carried a bouquet trimmed white prayer-book and white satin ballet slippers completed her ensemble.

Then there was a reception, following which the bride and groom left for Fort Rae. They spent the week-end in Rae and North records the departure:

For travelling the bride wore faded blue jeans with a matching cap and jacket. A true northern outfit was her dressing, and anonymous well-wishers had thoughtfully removed the shear pin from the engine and anchored the craft with heavy rocks. Thus the start of a departure were accompanied by constant shouts of the cannon and the melodious strains of "Row, row, row your boat" from the onlookers.

Interpreters of Canada who insist that Canadians are a dull and stodgy people might please take note.

Piggy Bank Experiment

(Royal Bank Magazine)

The "piggy bank" really came into its own recently at a bank in Minnesota. On exhibition in the lobby was a new and far bigger, enclosed in a scientifically designed structure, operated by the local agricultural college.

The idea was to call attention to the fact that the bank was not giving 40 farm youth of the community its 4-H-training project. Pictures released to the press showed several bank presidents doubling their savings by feeding their arms.

Angry grunts were transmitted over the air by a radio station but the bank's publicity officer was unable to find a radio announcer story method of conveying the distinctive phrase which hung over the lobby.

The bank voted that which think a huge success. What the pigs (and the cleaning staff) thought was not recorded.

Curious Thing

(Galt Reporter)

The world's most curious thing is a woman who isn't.

Admission Of Failure

(Spotlight)

If one accepted at face value the reports of Soviet propaganda coming from the satellite states, it would seem that the Communist regime was a thing of roses for everyone. The second five-year plan of the so-called People's Republic of Bulgaria recently referred to "great successes" which had been achieved, economically, with "the enormous and disinterested assistance of our liberator, the Soviet Union." But the actual plan gives a clear indication of how grim conditions must really be.

It estimates that some of various products in the Bulgarian population should increase by 1957 by the following proportions over 1952: sugar—220 per cent; rice—310 per cent; meat—181 per cent; lard —400 per cent; leather footwear —310 per cent; potatoes—200 per cent; textiles—230 per cent; woolen cloth—330 per cent; woolen knitwear—400 per cent; shoes —290 per cent; cotton cloth—220 per cent; wireless sets—730 per cent; and so on.

No need to speculate how this ambitious plan can ever succeed. Even if the Communist party's plan that it should. Let us assume that 90 per cent of these goals and relations are genuine. What a dismal picture of present conditions it reveals!

Could any reasonably fed man ever expected to live years on twice as much sugar, rice, meat and vegetables? There must be a terrible shortage of these staples. And the same proportion or close to it would apply to Canada.

Probably a third of what the average person spends on all headline goes for sheer pleasure driving, as we learned when rationing of strictly necessities during war years. On entertainment, theatres, travel, hobbies, the average family spends almost as much as on food.

This new and rapidly expanding industry touches the lives of almost everybody and for the businessman planning ahead it is a most significant factor, too.

Circuses End Delinquency

(Hamilton Spectator)

In Holland an experiment in the treatment of juvenile delinquency is having an astonishing success. For in it are blended in almost equal parts imagination and realism. Psychologists have known for years that the root cause of many cases of juvenile delinquency lies in the desire for excitement, allied to exhibitionism. A find legal outlets for these two desire implanted by the Creator, the Dutch reasoned, and so they have shown. Themselves in constructive and successful in the profession. The keen sense of danger-is the challenge their nerves demand, the love of light and the knowledge that the world of grown-ups is not forced on them satisfies to the full their desire to show off, while the "star or all-round boy" who is much better reward than a rather childish gold medal is the encouragement that so often has a distasteful anti-climax.

This is also the solution to every case of juvenile delinquency. The candidates for the Dutch experiment were, no doubt, carefully selected after psycho-analysis. But this approach to a complex problem is original. The changes, thrills and dangers of circus life have enabled the young performers to give expression to the best in their natures and, apparently, they have no time to think of delinquency, even if they have the desire for it, which is doubtful.

Not So Tough

(Kitchener-Waterloo Record)

The assumption that people were much tougher in the "good old days" than they are today is in error. Few of them at that era could have survived a 300-mile automobile trip to a vacation resort with three brats on the rear seat.

Beavers Build Badly

(Financial Post)

We have been rather shaken by a news event which sadly weakens one of the things Canadians are supposed to believe in.

In Northwestern Ontario, a beaver dam derailed because of a washout. One cause of the washout was the failure of a dam-built and maintained by beavers.

We were always brought up to consider the beaver a sober, industrious, reliable animal, a skilled engineer and a painstaking worker. Had we, like the railway builders, observed that waters which might cross the track were backed up by a beaver dam, we should have had a good deal more confidence in the track to their care. Now, through the beavers' neglect and carelessness, the train has burst, and the railway track has been damaged.

What has happened to our national animal? Is there a new, effete generation of beavers, corrupted by the spectacle of civilization, and in revolt against the stern standards of the frontier? Or have we been wrong, all along, in making the beaver an object of national admiration? Faulty observation there may now, led human beings to confuse beavers with stupidity.

If we don't depend on the beaver what can we depend on?

Personal Health Talks

ARE SCHOOL ATHLETICS FOR ATHLETES ONLY?

Now for example, does your school program stand up against this criticism:

"Existing abuses, which threaten so much that is good in school athletics today, must be identified and appraised with candor."

"Among these abuses is senior high school emphasis often found these extremes: over selection for the athletically skilled and neglect for others"

Dr. Brady

The mistaken idea persists . . . That in sports skills anything short of the best is a reproach: Better be a spectator than a second-rater!"

"When the intramural program is regarded as primarily a feeder system for the varsity, the needs of the majority of boys are likely to be neglected."

"Sometimes the school's so-called intramural program for boys is little more than an elimination tournament held early in each 'major' sports season. Large numbers are encouraged to take part at first; but after the more promising athletes have been selected for the varsity squad, the rest receive scant attention. If false values are attached to the significance of varsity status, the boy who fails to make the squad may acquire feelings of failure and rejection that will color his whole high school career."

His writing career and the rest of his life, perhaps.

If you give a hoot about such matters, you can inform yourself quickly by sending $1.00 for the book School Athletics by the Educational Policies Commission of National Education Association of the United States and the American Association of School Administrators.

THE PACKSACK

By GREGORY CLARK

Mr. Ralph Allen, editor of Maclean's Magazine, invented a new gambling game in Italy, called Snore Roulette.

I was the roulette. Due to my age and infirmity, I have always had bed early for the past sixty years. And in some of the billets we occupied as war correspondents it was necessary for as many as ten officers to go to sleep on the floor of one single room.

Being gifted as a sleeper, I can sleep on a floor, or sitting up, or even standing. And deep in my sleeping bag, in a cozy corner of the billet, I would be hard at it by eight p.m., or not long after. Up early and hard at it, I refer to the snore.

On my mother's side, I inherit a highly individualistic snore. There are those who snore steadily, stroke on stroke, like a mild wheel. There are those who snore in patches, with long intervals of just sitting back your trombone on your knee. But my snore is pure erratic. It starts immediately after I've gone. That was twenty-seven bucks.

Allen comes, which is usually two minutes. And it keeps up until shortly after midnight. It starts high, or it starts low. It goes maybe three snorts and then a sudden snore, or it may go fifteen snorers and then a strangle. But upon the snort or the strangle, there is a brief pause for station identification, and I start on the next series. There is no law how many snores I wil go. That is the essence of gambling.

And it was Mr. Allen who perceived its possibilities. Since nobody else wanted a cot to bed at 8 p.m., and since bridge, cribbage or even chess bored me, the question under the circumstances, Mr. Allen conceived the idea of betting on my snoring. I would go on each cadenza. You placed your money on the table, taking a number three to fifteen, as a rule. When the bets were up, you waited for the start of my next snort or strangle. And the number of snorers I went won the pot. I am convinced Mr. Allen once won two thousand seven hundred lira on me. That was twenty-seven bucks.

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY

DR. EARL L. DOUGLASS

A GREAT DISCOVERY

Shining shoes! Shining shoes! Shining shoes!

"How many have you shined this morning?" I asked him. "Oh about twenty pairs," he said.

I fell to thinking what a dreary life it must be just shining somebody else's shoes. When the day was over he would have shined get was over he would have shined fifty or sixty pairs and what would it get him? At this point he looked up cheerfully and a friend of mine had entered the shop. He inquired about his family. Was the boy in Missus well? How about the children? Oh, his grandchildren? He had eleven now. And were the kids! The kids like these in all the world! And had the friend seen the fight on TV last night? Boy, you should have seen it. And that funny guy—he's a scream, and it makes everybody laugh! What a scream he is!

Sunday? After church, a picnic. It was getting a bit cool now for swimming, but he could still take the old jalopey out through the hills.

There was much laughter. There was jolly bantering back and forth between the boy and his friend. I listened attentively for I realized that I was being taught a lesson in the importance of little things which make people happy.

And when I LEFT, I said to myself: "Bless you ! I think I have discovered a happy man."

Liberal Party In Nova Scotia To Pick Leader

HALIFAX (CP)—A new leader for Nova Scotia's majority Liberals will be picked today at the largest N. S. convention in party history.

Close to 580 delegates and an estimated 8,000 spectators will watch in the Halifax Forum starting at 2:30 p. m. ADT as the party picks a man to succeed the late premier Angus L. Macdonald.

It's only the third convention for such a purpose for the party and indications are that it will be spirited.

At least six candidates — five members of the present cabinet and one outsider—are said they will seek the nomination. And there is always the possibility of further candidates from the floor.

After Mr. Macdonald's death in April of this year his health minister, Harold Connolly, took over as "caretaker" premier. He is one of the candidates for the leadership today, along with cabinet colleagues Attorney-General Malcolm Patterson, Highways Minister A. W. Mackenzie, Education Minister Henry Hicks and Municipal Affairs Minister Ronald Fielding.

Hector Mill, Toronto lawyer, councillor and former president of the Nova Scotia Federation of Agriculture, is the sixth.

RCAF "PERFORMS" TO RECORD CROWDS at CNE

After having thrilled capacity crowds in prairie and west coast cities with outstanding displays of individual flying, Flying Officer Al McIlwraith, left, of Peterborough, Ont.; FO. E. Hesjedahl of Bensough, Saskatchewan, and FO. Vern Villeneuve of Ottawa, are currently in the East, where they are performing to record-breaking crowds at the Canadian National Exhibition, now under way in Toronto. During the RCAF demonstrations, now an annual event at the CNE, FO. McIlwraith pilots the sound barrier in an F-86 Sabre jet—the other two officers fly the CF-100 Canuck, and F-86 Sabre—Central Press Canadian.

Officers Want Set of Rules For Arbitration

OTTAWA (CP)—Top officers of the federal labor department will try today to get unions and railway companies to agree on a set of rules for the government's arbitrator who is to write the settlement award in their contract dispute.

Neither participant in the controversy—clouded by strike possibility until they agreed to accept binding arbitration Aug. 18—has accepted fully to tentative government-proposed terms of reference for the umpire, but government officials Thursday expressed hope will be held separately by a two-man labor department team with members of the 14 unions' general conference committee and with heads of the major railways engaged in the long dispute.

The aim is to reach understanding on the scope of the arbitrator's powers so cabinet can write them in order-in-council and appoint the arbitrator next week.

The main demands of the unions representing 145,000 workers are for 18 days a year sick leave with pay, eight paid statutory holidays a year, longer annual vacations and higher pay for Sunday overtime work.

Picked Off Perch

DETROIT (AP) — Firemen picked Eddie Blandy, 52, of his tiny perch atop a 50-foot pole at the Michigan State Fair Thursday, but only after the ex-sleepyhead proclaimed a world "flagpole stand sag" record.

Blandy, his feet swollen to nearly twice normal size, had stood on a platform only 18 inches in diameter since 3:30 p.m. Aug. 30. His total elapsed time was nine days, 21 hours and 35 minutes. Food and water were hoisted to him and he said he slept standing on one foot.

He was paid $1,000 by fair officials here.

DIES IN COLLISION

PORMOSA, Ont. (CP) — Walter Wilkin, 32, of Hanover was killed Thursday night in a collision near this village, about 40 miles south of Owen Sound. Police said Wilkin's car collided with another driven by Francis Hawthorne of Brantford and spun into a ditch on the side.

The only two women among the 101 Air Force personnel flying and servicing aircraft making up this year's RCAF CNE air display, Roddie Koehn, left, of Edmonton, Alberta, and Sue Soucy of Port Colborne, Ont., are technicians on the huge 175-ton CF-100 Canuck. They are seen above watching the Toronto air display from a preferred position on top of one of the three flying boxcars accompanying the jet cavalcade.—Central Press Canadian

New Name Added To Mounties' List Of Wanted Men

OTTAWA (CP) — The RCMP today added the name of an escapee from a British Columbia prison to its list of most-wanted fugitives, bringing the list to five men.

Clifford Eugene Ernest Dawley, 45 - year - old seaman and steel worker who escaped from Oakalla prison farm at Burnaby last month, was placed on the list. When he escaped Aug. 23, he was awaiting trial as an habitual criminal.

The other names: Michel Sisco, alias Antonio D'Agostino, 46, Montreal restaurant owner who failed to appear in answer to narcotics and conspiracy charges in 1950. He previously was convicted at Toulouse, France, in 1946 of treason and was sentenced in absentia to death.

William Patrick Ryan, 64, international swindler wanted by Vancouver and Toronto police for fraud involving about $15,000.

William Adams, alias Wasely Sombrosky, alias Joe Lacheau, 31, wanted by St. Catharines, Ont., police on a charge of murdering his father whose body was found buried in the basement of a small shoe repair store in June, 1949.

Daniel William O'Connor, alias Mike Clancy, alias Bob Collins, 27, wrestler, wanted by the RCMP on a charge of attempted murder arising from a shooting affray at Kenmore, B.C., in May, 1953. The RCMP said O'Connor, stopped by an RCMP highway patrol, shot at his interceptor, knocked him unconscious and pistol-whipped him.

In announcing the addition of Dawley to the list, the RCMP said the name of Donald Winston Henderson, wanted on a murder charge in Calgary, has been dropped. A man identified as Henderson was arrested last month at San Francisco and is being returned to Calgary on a charge of murdering Yvonne Levesque Aug. 11, 1949.

The announcement also recalled that John Mallock previously had been listed but his name was dropped when he died as a result of an automobile accident at Queretaro, Mexico, April 22, 1954.

Need More Power Than in Sight Says Premier

ELGIN, Ont. (CP) — Premier Frost said Thursday Ontario is going to need more power than now is in sight—including that to be provided by the St. Lawrence power project—to keep up with development of the province.

He said Ontario faces challenging and great times. The development of the St. Lawrence will make eastern Ontario a front door to Canada and this area will undergo fundamental changes.

He said the province, to assure adequate power for the future, is financing the development of atomic energy and that natural gas from Alberta will be needed to supplement the province's own power sources.

He predicted that power will one day come to Ontario from Labrador.

Premier Frost suggested in a series of addresses during a tour of Leeds county that Ontario may soon be able to borrow money in Great Britain.

He said the province has established a ready and eager market for Ontario foods in Britain and predicted that it would not be long before the British pound becomes convertible.

"In that event Ontario will be doing business in the money markets of London again."

The premier spoke in Athens, Portland, Westboro, Seeley's Bay, Elgin and Gananoque in support of James Auld, Progressive Conservative candidate in the by-election of Sept. 16.

Carton Delivery Of Milk May Be In Offing

By GEORGE LINTON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — "Milkman, keep those bottles" may be heard on the way out a refrain in this metropolitan area.

If present trends continue, the early-morning deliverers will be able to lighten their wares at will without disturbing their sleeping customers.

Dairymen here say the day may come when milk will be delivered to homes in cardboard cartons instead of the familiar glass bottles.

The carton has successfully replaced the bottle in a number of ways. Chain stores use it almost exclusively. It's used in most packaging for picnics and for delivery to business offices.

SMALL DENT

But cardboard packaging has made only a small dent in home deliveries. One dairy here started delivering buttermilk to homes in cartons about two months ago. Officials said it was well received but they hesitate to use cartons for sweet milk. The problem, they say, is that housewives would rather pick up bottled milk on the doorstep.

"While most women are happy to get cartoned milk at the store," one dairy official said, "they prefer the milkman to leave them a transparent container so they can see what they're getting."

Cost of delivering bottled milk is reported higher. But some dairymen say it's worth it because a wax carton could soften in the rain on a doorstep and the milk might pick up a cardboard flavor.

Distributors here are watching the results in four Canadian communities where cartons are being used by individual dairies—London, Winnipeg, Flin Flon, Man., and Winkler, Man.

Sanding Will Cost Million This Winter

TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario highways department said Thursday it will cost more than $1,000,000 to keep roads sanded this winter in the province's heaviest traffic areas.

Deputy Highways Minister M.A. Elson said the lowest tenders submitted for 18 sanding contracts in the Toronto, Hamilton and Port divisions estimate the job will cost $1,228,831.30. The figure also included three sand-supplying contracts in other regions.

The department's policy was to call for road-sanding tenders in these three divisions alone. It did its own maintenance work in areas of lesser traffic density.

FLY FOOD TO ESKIMOS

EDMONTON (CP) — Food supplies have been flown in to a band of nomad Eskimos found starving in the Ennadai lake area of the Northwest Territories, 250 miles inland from Hudson Bay and about 50 miles north of the Manitoba border, it was learned Thursday. The Eskimo plight was reported by Associated Airways of Edmonton, whose plane flew in meat from Fort Smith, N.W.T., 370 miles west.

FAILS IN BID TO SWIM LAKE

A surprise challenger of the 32-mile Lake Ontario course, Jerry Kerschner of Columbus, Ohio, was pulled out of the water after battling the waves for eight hours. The 27-year-old distance swimmer beat everybody into the water in an attempt to be the first to conquer Lake Ontario, but lasted only 16 miles. — Central Press Canadian.

Senator Ives To Be Candidate For Governor

NEW YORK (AP)—Senator Irving M. Ives agreed Thursday to become the Republican candidate for governor, while four of New York state's most influential democrats formally endorsed Averell Harriman as their candidate.

Their action probably assured Harriman of the Democratic nomination despite promises by supporters of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., that they would take the issue to the convention floor on Sept. 21.

Harriman, 62, who held high posts in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, won the backing of Senator Herbert H. Lehman, Democratic national committeeman Carmine de Sapio, New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner and state Democratic chairman Richard H. Balch.

U.S. Government Expert Tells Of Cancer Danger

WASHINGTON (AP) — A United States government researcher says heavy cigaret smokers now 40 years old have from five to 15 times greater chances than non-smokers of developing lung cancer before they are 80.

Sidney J. Cutler, staff statistician at the National Cancer Institute at nearby Bethesda, Md., emphasizes that nobody has proved cigarets cause lung cancer, but "it is fairly clear that whatever the causal mechanism may be, smokers are more likely to develop lung cancer than non-smokers."

Butler's paper was one of several dealing with relationships between cigaret smoking and cancer cases prepared for the International Congress of Pathology, a conference on the causes of disease.

The American Cancer Society announced last June that one of its studies showed cigaret smokers 50 to 70 years old died earlier, in groups that were studied, than other men. But other scientists have said there is no conclusive evidence cigarets themselves bring on cancer.

Dr. Nils Ringertz of Sweden's Sabbatsberg Hospital, Stockholm, said it is doubtful if such things as air pollution by smoke and similar substances are important factors, on a world-wide basis, in the rise in lung cancer deaths.

He added that "there is strong but so far not quite complete evidence that tobacco smoking, especially cigaret smoking, is the most important external factor causing the main part of the lung cancer cases."

THE SKINNY SURVIVE
CHICAGO (AP)—Skinny people may stand a better chance of surviving radiation effects of a hydrogen or atomic bomb attack, a neuro-surgeon suggested Thursday. Dr. Averill Stowell of Tulsa, Okla., said experiments with animals given death-dealing x-ray doses indicated that starved animals, as well as those that were hibernating or living in a cold environment, outlived the fat and well-fed ones.

Middleton, pastor of Bayside church, united in marriage Margaret Joan Dudley of Belleville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dudley, to Earl Clavin Dafoe, of Thrasher, Florida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rose Dafoe. Pink and white gladioli formed a charming background for the ceremony.

Crippled Girl Learns to Write With Her Head

MONTREAL (CP)—A little crippled girl in a Montreal hospital has learned to write with her head. A year ago Miss Lorraine, of the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children opened. Badly she was unable to use her hands or any of her muscles except those in her neck.

Today, with a specially-designed apparatus fitted to her head and with the help of her neck muscles, she can write, paint or draw as well.

The hospital, asking that her name not be divulged, identified the girl only as Mary.

The apparatus, designed for her by a member of the hospital staff, is made of plastic and resembles a telephone operator's headset.

Attached to this headset is a protruding arm which holds either a pencil or paint brush. With a table and paper fixed firmly in front of her, Mary moves her head, with her neck muscles.

However it was only after many months of extensive physiotherapy that Mary learned low to write. At first the seriousness of her paralysis and Mary's mental distress added complications to her problems.

Gradually the nurses gained her confidence and Mary slowly regained a little power in her weakened muscles.

It was only after a noticeable improvement in Mary's condition that she was given the writing apparatus.

Little Demand In India For Toilet Goods

By ADRIENNE FARRELL

NEW DELHI (Reuters) — Toothbrushes in India grow on trees. Soap is in the earth. Toothpaste is powdered charcoal.

There is little demand for Western luxury toilet goods. In fact, most of these are considered rather disgusting by Indians.

Toothbrushes, for instance. Most Indians consider it a dirty habit to clean the teeth day after day with the same brush. They use each day a fresh twig from the neem tree—a tree with particularly astringent juice.

They soften the end of the twig in water and fray it into a brush to scrub their teeth. Neem twigs cost a penny a bundle in New Delhi.

Indians from the south may use a mango leaf or powdered charcoal rubbed on the teeth with the finger.

AFTER-DINNER RINSE

They always rinse their mouths after taking food and are surprised that this is not done in the West.

Handkerchiefs are a Western habit viewed with distaste here. Most Indians consider it disgusting to replace a handkerchief in the pocket after use.

The Western style of bathing also is criticized by Indians. Indians bathe three times as much as the average Westerner. They insist, too, on bathing under running water. They consider it a filthy habit to sit in your own dirty bathwater. For soap, many Indians use earth or ashes.

Cleanliness is literally a ritual in India, although people in the chilly hill regions are more loath to take a bath in the icy mountain streams than their compatriots in the plains.

But the average Indian probably spends some three hours a day washing.

SHAM ATOMIC ATTACK

BONN, Germany (Reuters) — Mock atomic bombs will send mushroom clouds 2,000 feet high during allied army exercises in Western Germany starting Sept. 22.

Fighters will warn German civilians against panic and tell them how to protect themselves and their cattle from possible danger. More than 130,000 United States, British, Canadian, Dutch and Belgian troops will take part.

Theran Allan at Peterborough. Master Dale Allan returned to Mrs. Allan from them after holidays spent here with his grandparents.

Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ketcheson, 20 Cedar street, who this week celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage. The couple were "at home" to a large circle of friends and relatives and received many messages of congratulations.

Woman's M.S. Hears Interesting Description of India, Her People

Mrs. E. M. Badgely was hostess to the members of the Melrose Woman's Missionary Society on Wednesday last. Mrs. George Morgan was in charge and opened the meeting with words of welcome to all present. Attendance was 14.

Mrs. Morgan conducted the worship service assisted by Mrs. R. MacFarlane and Mrs. D. Embury. Mrs. S. Demille read the hymn and Mrs. Embury offered prayer for divine guidance for the statesmen of India and of Canada.

A short business period was conducted.

Mrs. L. W. Scott extended an invitation to the Society to meet at the manse for the October meeting.

Mrs. S. Demille, group leader, took charge of the Bible study program.

The study period for the following months will be programs based on "The Church in India" written by R. H. Bennett.

INDIA

Mrs. John Milligan gave an outline of India as to her people, their customs, different religions —the soil and climate of the country, and her riches. India is one of the most fascinating and mysterious countries in the world. Next to China, it is the most populous, her population being 361,000,000.

The Hindus, considered the native race, comprise three-fifths of the population. Ninety per cent of the people live by agriculture. India is rich in minerals. The rubies and sapphires of Burma are said to be the finest in the world. The violin bow originated in India, and the game of Chess came from India.

Miss Beatrice MacFarlane read the leaflet "Indian Scene".

Mrs. Harry Davis presented the first chapter of the study book in a most interesting manner. India received her national independence on August 15, 1947. Britain left India a priceless heritage—a respect for good government, integrity in office, and a skilled Civil Service. With only a short national history of six years, she has become a nation of great importance. Her constitution stands high in international affairs.

FILM INDUSTRY

The film industry has become entirely national in character. Today, India is the second largest film producer in the world. Much art and culture is found in all Indian motion pictures and a heavy emphasis on the religious theme.

Radio in India is non-commercial and state owned. Adult literacy is a specialized feature in the Madras state where it is stated some 15 million illiterates were learning to read through radio broadcasts.

Pipe Cleaners Are Big Item In Her Hobby

AMHERST, N.S. (CP) — Mrs. A. H. Lane says people probably never believe it but pipe cleaners are a big item in her hobby. She collects bottles.

She uses the cleaners to mount her 1,500 buttons on large cardboard squares.

Mrs. Lane started her collection several years ago with a half-dozen dainty miniatures in thin gold frames from her grandmother's button box.

She became so interested in the collection that she's been adding to it ever since. The first addition was a "charm string" purchased from a Maccab, N.S., resident.

QUAINT CUSTOM

Such strings were popular 80 or 90 years ago when young girls would start them, knotting the string between every button. Tradition said that between the 99th and 1,000th button the man of her dreams would come into her life.

Mrs. Lane also started digging for bits of pottery at Indians and she says it's remarkable how many different kinds have been produced since the days inhabited by the Egyptians as ornaments.

Mrs. Lane's varied collection includes buttons shaped in the form of animals' heads, some with pictures and one with a fancy story and fruit buttons and miniatures.

They are made of pearl, jet, carved wood, pewter, celluloid, glass and half a dozen other materials.

Women's Activities

The offering amounted to $3.40.

A scramble word game was contest was given with Mrs. Johnson the winner.

Miss Walt served refreshments which brought another happy meeting to a close.

Monthly meeting will be held next Sunday with no Sunday school or services held in Foxboro.

Bride-to-Be Honored by Showers, Presentation

A popular young lady and bride of this week, Miss Dawn Easton, was the guest of honor at two miscellaneous showers; one at the home of Miss Elizabeth Sonne, Dunbar Street, when ten girl friends met for a social get-together, and to present her with tangible evidences of their esteem and affection.

On entering the living room, Miss Easton was confronted by a mound of beautifully wrapped gifts, for which she expressed her admiration and thanks.

Refreshments, served by Mrs. Dorothy Mitts, and the hostess, Elizabeth Sonne, concluded a happy evening.

Last Tuesday evening, another miscellaneous shower was held when 20 friends assembled to do her honor at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Mays, Belleville, R.R. 5. Pink and white streamers and white wedding bells adorned the archway, while the special chair was accented by a wedding pink and white streamers from the corner above ending in bows on the chair's back. Here, the bride-to-be was seated and a basket, delightfully adorned with pink and white bells filled with gifts, was carried in and placed at her feet.

As each gift was unwrapped Dawn most graciously thanked the donors.

The evening was spent in playing games, and a social time, followed by the serving of refreshments.

White Prevailing Color in Home Furnishings

By VIVIAN BROWN

NEW YORK (AP)—Looks like it'll be a white Christmas in home furnishings.

Such is a trend apparent at the current national home furnishings show here featuring exhibitions by members of the American Institute of Decorators as well as many manufacturers of furniture, fabrics, floor covers, lamps and wall papers.

The theme of the show, "Design for better living," offers furniture fashions as durable as they are pretty, making white and decorator colors as impervious to dirt and damage as darker combinations.

White goes from floor to ceiling in a room decorated by Paul McCobb. His room divider, a chair and cigaret table with white carrara glass top complement floor covering of white vinyl with inlaid strips of brass.

Hard floor coverings take the spotlight, there are floors of cork, leather, marble, clay tile, parquet inlay in basket weave effects, linoleum terrazzo and vinyl with metal inlays—aluminum, copper as well as brass.

Modern furnishings are used more as an accent this year in many decorator rooms. Period pieces are labeled in color.

DURABLE CARPETS

Brilliant tangerine and bright blue as well as yellow, sapphire and topaz colors are chic accents in white and pastels. Vineyard greens and coppers are also dominating.

Soft floor coverings, where shown, hold their own.

ADVICE to the LOVELORN

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

DOES HE REALLY WANT TO MARRY HER, OR HE JUST FLATTERED?

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I am a young woman working my way through college, and last year a young lady eight years younger than myself came to work in and did not encourage her when she made the evident bid of courtship. I was somewhat flattered. However, I was busy and she began dating a chap that was not to my thought that would be the end of it.

About two weeks after the college year ended, however, I received a letter from her, which, I ignored. Then I learned from one of my close friends that this girl had written to him, asking if he thought there was any chance for her with me. He didn't answer her letter, either.

The girl has an attractive personality, a very frank and sincere smile and is somewhat tomboyish. About her character and reputation, I know nothing. But I feel sorry for her, and would like very much to help her as a friend, and I find myself increasingly inclined to write to her. Yet I am not sure it would be wise, as it may tempt more than I would be willing to give.

So before I take a wrong road, I am asking you to give me your very frank and wise opinion on the situation. — "Red"

Dear "Red":

I think you had better let this girl alone, and leave her to friends of her own age. You don't say how old you are but, ordinarily, a girl eight years younger than a student in college is very young indeed, and I think it would be highly inappropriate for you to encourage her.

If you really want to help her, and not just to feed your ego on flattery from a virtual child, write a letter and tell her that you are much too old for her and for her to find her boy friends among those in her own age group. Then let that be the end of any contact with her.

MARRIAGE NOW WOULD BE SHEER FOLLY

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I am 18 years old, and the boy I have been going steady with for a year and a half is 17. He is out of school, but I have two more years yet to go.

We have been engaged for five months. I expected that we would wait to get married until I graduated from high school, but he wants me to marry him soon. I love Bill with all my heart, and I feel he loves me, but I think we are too young for marriage, especially since he doesn't have a steady job.

What is your advice to me? — G.W.

Dear G.W.:

My advice to you is not to let yourself be persuaded into leaving school to get married, nor to marry anyone who doesn't have a steady job. Add to this my conviction that it is exceedingly foolish and dangerous for 16 and 17 year old boys and girls to marry, and you have my opinion on your situation in full.

I believe you feel exactly this same way yourself, so stick with it.

Readers' Friday Column

As Conducted by Mary Moore

QUESTION:

... most anxious to get information about cooking and baking in high altitudes. . . enclosing a recipe for Ginger Snaps like the ones sold in the stores if you care to use it.—Ivy P.

ANSWER:

The column you referred to on high altitude cooking appeared here on January 9th this year. I have forwarded a copy to your friend in New Mexico. Thank you for recipe for

GINGER SNAPS

(Courtesy Ivy P.)

One-half cup shortening, 1 small cup sugar (note from Ensign: I would suggest 1-3—certainly not more than 2-3 cup), 1 3-4 cup all-purpose flour, 2-4 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon cloves, 1-4 cup molasses, 1 egg. Mix shortening and sugar, add egg and mix well. Add molasses and the sifted dry ingredients. Roll 1if small balls in hand and bake in moderate oven. These are delicious and look just like the bought ones.

Thank you Ivy. Would you mind letting us know if the flour is sifted before measuring? Also oven temperature. I would suggest 400 deg. Fahr. for 8 or 10 minutes.

I am glad to hear that the Icicle Pickles were such a success.

QUESTION:

Your column gives me a great deal of pleasure. . . I must have missed a recipe for skim milk chocolate ice cream. Would you reprint some day? Also cookie dough to freeze.—Mrs. M. G.

ANSWER:

CHOCOLATE ICE CREAM

(Using skim milk powder)

One square cooking chocolate (1 oz.), 1 cup hot (not boiling) water, 1-2 cup sugar, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons cornstarch, 1-4 cup skim milk powder, 1 teaspoon vanilla, (scalder) 1-2 cup skim milk powder, 1-3 cup cold water. In top of double boiler melt the chocolate. Stir hot water into it. When together the milk powder, cornstarch and 1-4 cup skim milk powder. Gradually add this to the chocolate mixture, stirring until blended. Cook the mixture over boiling water, for 15 minutes, stirring constantly until slightly thickened, then occasionally afterwards. Remove from heat. Add vanilla and cool to lukewarm. Rinse out refrigerator tray with cold water, pour in chocolate mixture and freeze firm. Meanwhile sprinkle the second 1-4 cup skim milk powder over the 1-3 cup cold water and beat with rotary beater until it is stiff enough to hold in peaks. Turn frozen mixture out into cold bowl and break it up with a fork. Add the whipped milk and beat with rotary beater until light and fluffy but not soft and melted. Immediately return to freezing tray. Freeze until firm. Stir once during last freezing period to mix frozen and unfrozen portions.

COOKIE DOUGH TO FREEZE

One cup butter, 1-2 cup each white and brown sugar, 1 beaten egg, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups all-purpose flour, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1-4 teaspoon salt. Cream butter, gradually cream sugars in until fluffy. Beat in egg and vanilla. Sift dry ingredients together and mix in well. Shape dough into rolls and wrap very well in freezer paper and freeze. To bake slice frozen dough 1-4 inch thick and bake at 375 deg. Fahr. for 10 or 12 minutes.

NOTE:

Dough may be divided into 3 parts. To one portion add 1-2 square melted chocolate; to another 1-4 cup shredded coconut; to another 1-4 cup chopped raisins; another 1-4 cup chopped pecans; another 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon and 1-4 teaspoon nutmeg; leave last portion plain.

LINDSTROM RE-MARRIES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Dr. Peter Lindstrom, 47, famed neuro-surgeon whose first marriage to screen actress Ingrid Bergman ended in divorce, was married Thursday night to Dr. Agnes J. Rovnanek, attractive 36-year-old pediatrician.

Beauty

By HELEN JAMIESON

BEAUTY PLUS

When a high school boy is asked to go on a double date with a girl he has never met he will ask "Is she pretty?" or "Is she cute?" The college lad is more likely to ask if the girl is interesting.

So it is with men who demand something more than prettiness when they seek a companion for a special evening. If a young woman hasn't brains that get up and go 'round like a wheel she can prove a bore and a trial. Little "dead pan" hasn't a chance these days. It is smart to be smart, no matter what anybody says. Of course, one must not out-smart the man. Too much masculine pride will be wounded.

Our world of beauty is peopled with women whose physical proportions are decorative, whose hair sports the latest arrangement, whose complexions are radiant, whose ankles are trim, attire modish. But that is all you can say about them. They do not hold your interest. "Good looking but blah" is the verdict.

"Interesting" is a word that is coming into popular usage as an attribute of loveliness. No woman can afford to depend upon her physical attractions alone. Intelligent women are well-read, they are in touch with what is going on in the world. You'll never find them dull. And, being intelligent, they will not talk as if they "knew everything" but will give the other fellow a chance to get in his ten cents worth.

The woman who is well-groomed is doing only what is expected of her. The obligation toward one's personal appearance is so universally recognized that only a rare genius can escape censure for carelessness. The physical properties of beauty are expected of every woman just as it is taken for granted that she will brush her teeth and comb her hair. But developing a rare and interesting personality makes for beauty-plus.

GOOD MANNERS

By MRS. BEECKMAN

SOCIAL GRACE IN THEIR RESPONSIBILITY

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

Do you think it would be discourteous of me if I asked my bridal attendants to introduce themselves to the wedding guests as the guests pass along the receiving line, and if there is time, to say a few words of greeting? I've been to so many weddings, several quite recently, when the bridesmaids made it so difficult for me to get much, if any, response. They seemed so terribly impressed with their appearance as glamor girls that their manner became rather wooden. But when you go to a wedding where the bridesmaids are gracious, knowing, introduce themselves, and really respond like human beings to compliments about the bride, the wedding, and so forth, it makes a fine impression. I'd like to get that impression from my attendants. Do you think they'd mind if I did some subtle hinting? Or shall I just trust to luck? — Patricia W.

I've never received this question before. . . I'm glad you sent it, for I agree with you it's very important. I'm sure we've all had this experience of self-conscious or frozen-faced bridesmaids who seem to have forgotten the ordinary social grace of introducing themselves, and being responsive to social give-and-take. From your letter you seem like such a gracious person yourself that I'm sure you could do some subtle hinting, as you say, about this and not make it seem a bit discourteous or 'complaining.' You might casually, and merrily, tell about some experiences you've had at other weddings, when the bridesmaids seemed to a bit lacking in social grace.

SHE SHOULD BREAKEVE FURNISHINGS

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

My husband and I have recently moved to this medium-sized town, and as yet we don't know many people. We have never met my stepbrother's family, who live here, who live here. Recently the family called my sister to say they'd like to visit them for a week-end, so the families could meet, as they didn't know each other. Since they have only one guest room, my sister asked me if we could put up her son, which we did. During the entire week-end my husband and I were not invited to eat with the family and the fiancee. I just couldn't believe it, and I'm deeply hurt. What do you think about this? — B.N.

It would certainly have been the pleasant way-of-hospitality for them to have invited you and your husband. For so many reasons your sister and brother-in-law were their house guests; their son-in-law-to-be was your house guest; and your brother-in-law had recently-arrived in town, and this would have been a friendly way to welcome you. But really I think there must have been some really adequate reason why they could not include you and your husband

Sunday School Lesson:

Everybody's Business Is Yours

By ROY L. SMITH

There is an old pagan proverb to the effect that "everybody's business is nobody's business," by which it is meant, of course, that no one assumes responsibility for that which is everybody's responsibility. The truth is, however, that everybody's business is your business and my business Unless some of us attend to everybody's business none of us will have any security in our business

OUR COMMON TASKS

At least one half of every man's work is done for him every day by other people. Other men gather the news for him, other men prepare his food for him, other men keep the peace for him, and other men stand guard over his property for him. They even safeguard the health of his children, and put out the fires for him.

In the meantime, of course, he goes about doing a lot of things for other people. The economists call it "exchanging services," and just to make it more convenient we have minted money, legalized it as "currency," called it a medium of exchange and go about with our surplus product in our pocket in the form of cash or in the bank as a checking account.

SOCIETY MAKES US RICH

Hundreds of thousands of people walk past the corner lot we own and each one contributes some value to our property in doing so. Other hundreds of thousands rush to buy the gasoline we invest and each one contributes his fraction of a cent profit. Tens of thousands tune in on our program and create our value to our radio sponsor. In the meantime we are apt to flatter ourselves with the thought that we are self-made.

Having made us rich, famous, comfortable, or powerful, society has a right to make demands upon us. Power creates responsibility, and no man can escape from the moral demand involved in it.

THANK GOD FOR RICH MEN

The public, especially the American public, can thank God for the rich men who have acknowledged this sense of responsibility. While the rich of other lands have erected monuments and triumphal arches, the rich of the New World have been endowing colleges, research laboratories, charitable foundations, playgrounds, and similar institutional all across the world.

The Uniform Sunday School lesson for September 12: "Christian Citizenship and Co-operation." Acts 6:1-6; Romans 12:9-16; 13:1-10; I Corinthians 3:4-6; Galatians 5:13-15.

But the responsibility for such public concern does not rest upon the rich alone. It rests with equal imperative upon the poor as well as upon the fortunate. The poor man can help keep his neighborhood clean, can help maintain the peace, can furnish an audience for decent and splendid entertainment instead of the sordid and the scandalous. He can fill a pew in the House of God on the Sabbath day, he can refuse to be stampeded by hysteria, and he can keep an open mind on public issues.

PLAIN MAN'S POWER

The plain man who calls himself a Christian can help changs the climate by attending the meetings of his labor union and voting his Christian convictions, can serve on the committee of the Parents - Teachers organization and help formulate policies, he can cast a ballot that counts as much as that of the richest man in town, he can think as clearly as any man with a doctor of philosophy degree if he sticks to the facts and thinks in a straight line.

And all that is as much a religious man's duty as is prayer or Bible reading.

(Copyright 1954 by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America.)

TORONTO GIRL

Mrs. Leuzler, separated from her launch after swimming two miles, had to return to shore shortly after midnight, putting her far behind. She started out again at 6:43 a.m., but quit because of cold water at 4:30 p.m. after covering 23 miles.

Miss Chadwick, probably the world's foremost woman swimmer who was paid $2,500 by the CNE and was promised another $7,500 if she finished, became sick from gas and oil slicks at 12:40 a.m. Marilyn, streaking a powerful 70 to the minute in water of 62 to 66 degrees, took over the lead. That was it.

THROUGH THE NIGHT

With her coach, Cus Ryder, shouting encouragement from a dory about 30 feet behind, she plodded through the night.

Unaware that Miss Chadwick was in difficulty behind her, Marilyn slackened her lead to a mile at the 13-mile mark at 6 a.m., as her mother and father watched anxiously from a launch.

Far behind the Canadian girl at 7:30 a.m., Sue Diego brunette was taken from the water. It was all Marilyn's now. She had already beaten the woman who had conquered almost every large body of water in the world that could be swum. She herself was confident as the first woman to swim the 26 miles in Atlantic City in July.

Ahead there was the acclaim of her home town and prizes which were steadily mounting as news of her courageous fight was sent across the water.

With their early news broadcasts Canadians heard of Marilyn's gallant fight and the drowning of Ted May, British chief worker who attempted to swim the English channel unescorted and perished.

GOOD CHANCE

Morning paper headlines had heralded the start of the swim, originally scheduled for Monday night and postponed twice because of high winds, but interest centred on Miss Chadwick. It was not until the morning coffee break that Toronto heard that Marilyn was within 12 miles of its waterfront and had a good chance to make it.

With eight miles of home and with the city's skyline visible at noon, Marilyn was spurred on by signs written on a blackboard by Ryder, one of them reading: "You quit and you fall all the kids." Another read: "You quit and I quit." He wrote her messages about the prizes awaiting her, and saw her spurt ahead when his boat lettering told of a convertible awaiting her on shore.

She trod water occasionally while Ryder held out a long stick with a hook on one end holding containers of fold. Lifting her water-spattered goggles, she ate six times, a total of one cup of pablum, six cups of corn syrup, some orange juice and some honey.

At 2:30 p.m. Toronto newspapers began heralding her victory.

HEADLINES BLAZE

"Our Marilyn! making it," read one headline. Another said: "Four miles to go." In late afternoon one reported optimistically: "Only yards to go."

Reports of her distance from shore varied widely during the afternoon. Some reports had her two miles from shore at 3 p.m., but their inaccuracy was evident when at 3:30 p.m. an airplane pilot reported her 1½ miles off shore.

Her progress was agonizingly slow in the last hour and a half to the thousands on the lakeshore and to millions more who waited reports throughout the country. Currents had lengthened her 32-mile swim to between 40 and 42 miles.

Finally she was reported 1,000 yards, then 500, then 300. Then the stirring of boats in the darkness heralded her approach to the breakwater and the end of a courageous swim.

Marilyn said she felt terrific. The thousands who waited felt the same way about her.

Securing food often hinges on strange abilities. The Angler Fish has teeth built on a sort of hinged principle. Vertical, they snap the prey, then lower slightly inward, forming a barb that makes escape difficult.

Worth Remembering

In 1670, for a million square miles of Canada's West, the Hudson's Bay Company was to pay to the King or to his successors, whenever they visited this land, "two elk and two black beavers." When George VI visited Winnipeg in 1939, the first such payment was made. An interesting historical fact worth remembering.

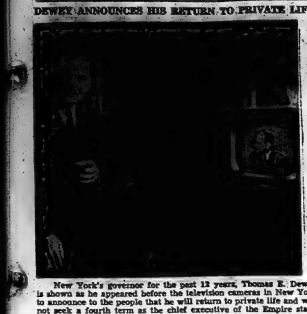
DEWEY ANNOUNCES HE IS PRIVATE LIFE



New York's governor for the past 12 years, Thomas E. Dewey is shown as he appeared before the television cameras in his home to announce to the people that he will return to private life and will not seek a fourth term as the chief executive of the Empire state. Dewey, twice unsuccessful GOP presidential candidate, said: "After the most thorough and even painful consideration, I have concluded that the time has come for me to return to private life. I shall not, therefore, be a candidate for any public office this fall." The 52-year-old governor made no reference to a possible successor.—Central Press Canadian.

Royal Visitors Will Enjoy Rest In Laurentians

MONTREAL (CP)—The Duchess of Kent and her daughter, Princess Alexandra, today leave for the Laurentians for a weekend respite in their 23-day Canadian visit.

The Royal visitors will motor to Laurentian retreat, away from the rigors of their tour. They will return to Montreal Monday, but Alexandra then will go back to the Laurentians for another two days. The duchess leaves here Tuesday for New York en route home, and will be rejoined there by her daughter.

TYPICAL DAY

Thursday was a typical day in the tour of the Royal ladies. They finished the day with a dinner at the exclusive Forest and Stream club, after a concert at the historic Notre Dame Cathedral in the old part of Montreal.

Earlier, they went on separate ways for a short time in their seven-day visit in the Montreal region. The 19-year-old princess made a brief address as a luncheon guest of three women's clubs and then witnessed a fashion show.

Prime Minister St. Laurent came to Montreal to visit the duchess and Alexandra in the evening. They chatted for 30 minutes and then posed for photographers.

In a visit to the Junior Red Cross League earlier, Alexandra received an impromptu guitar serenade from 15-year-old Russell Chapman and then witnessed a fashion show with a Canadian motif.

The duchess, meanwhile, went to 189-year-old Villa Maria convent, once the home of British governors and remained there with Alexandra until it was time for medical institutions.

COMPARES WOE

At an east-end clinic for the care of babies born of tubercular parents, the duchess inspected the nursery and compared their work favorably with that in England.

Trade Minister Howe and the Montreal Neurological Institute by Dr. Wilder Duff, dean of medicine at McGill University, and shown about the world-famed hospital.

Opposition Leader Welcomes Joint Development, Operation Of St. Lawrence Seaway

OTTAWA (CP) — Hon. George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, said Thursday he welcomes joint development and operation of the St. Lawrence seaway by Canada and the United States.

"I am glad it is to be a joint development," he said at a press conference following his return to Ottawa from a two-month fact-finding tour of Europe.

However, Mr. Drew said he reserves the right to criticize later the exact course of the seaway including the location of locks and canals.

Mr. Drew said he approved of joint development after he had been asked to comment on a statement by George Hees, national president of the Progressive Conservative Association, that Canada "missed the boat" in the building of the project.

VOICED CRITICISM

Mr. Hees said in Montreal Aug. 19 that "lack of initiative and courage on the part of the federal government and its lack of confidence in Canada's ability to build a major development project are responsible for the fact that the joint part of the St. Lawrence seaway is to be built by the United States."

It was a criticism of Canada's agreement to let the U.S. build a four-mile link of the seaway on the American side of the International rapids at Barnhart island near Cornwall, Ont.

Mr. Drew said joint development would be of great importance in assuring maintenance of operation and would be valuable as an international expression of good will. However, he said he could not comment on Mr. Hees' statement until he has read the complete text.

Canada's rights in the St. Lawrence must be respected under any Canada-U.S. seaway agreement, Mr. Drew added that there must be give and take on both sides regarding an engineering advice.

NO ALTERNATIVE

The Opposition leader in the Commons said he feels there is no alternative to the rearmament of West Germany.

If agreement could be reached on German rearmament he was confident it would not be necessary for Canada to send military equipment to Germany. Germany was recovering rapidly and would be able to produce its own arms.

Impacts for Canadian trade with Europe were described by Mr. Drew as tremendous. However he said Europe is gradually recovering its industrial potential and Canada will face increased competition for world markets.

Referring to the release of Gerhard Sb. Arnold, Kurt Meyer, Mr. Drew said Canadians are entitled to a complete statement on the reasons for the release. The manner in which it was done had caused considerable resentment in Canada.

B.C. DISPUTE

Mr. Drew, commenting on an inter-party dispute in British Columbia, said it did not indicate a split in the Progressive Conservative party. It was a local dispute which had resulted from a personality conflict.

A faction of the B.C. Progressive conservative party split away from the national organization after expressing lack of confidence in Mr. Drew's leadership. A leader of the dissenting group is Deane Finlayson, provincial party leader.

Mr. Drew said the lack of confidence vote does not call for a national convention of the party. He had received a vote of confidence from the party's national executive when it met in Ottawa last spring.

Utterly Inhuman Says Drew Of Treatment Given

OTTAWA (CP) — Hon. George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, says that treatment received by many European seeking permission to emigrate to Canada is "utterly inhuman."

He made the statement Thursday at a press conference following his return here from a two-month European trip in commenting on a charge by a Canadian Bar Association committee of "shocking" procedural practices in overseas offices of the immigration department.

Mr. Drew, who called for a royal commission investigation of the immigration department at the last session of Parliament, said no one could have any idea of the government's immigration policy, he "in terms of human relationship this is a very terrible thing," he said. "We are dealing with people and not files or inanimate objects."

FACE UNCERTAINTY

Europeans wishing to come to Canada faced uncertainty and difficulties. In how of a number of cases where persons had met immigration qualifications but had received no definite answer even after several months of waiting.

"In terms of human relationship People are led to believe that if they meet certain requirements they can come to Canada. They dispose of their belongings and spend much money, then have to travel long distances for examination and questioning.

"After all that is done they can't get an answer. Even a positive no would be helpful in many cases."

Mr. Drew said he again will demand a royal commission at the department at the next session of Parliament. He insisted he will make the demand for a royal commission.

Canada's Growth Is Welcomed Except Behind Iron Curtain And by Some Folk in Quebec

—St.Laurent

MONTREAL (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent, in a busy schedule which included a visit with royalty, Thursday criticized "some" political opinion and also commented on international trade.

The prime minister's time-table included a luncheon aboard the new liner Arosa, an interview with the Duchess of Kent and the opening of a massive French government trade fair.

Mr. St. Laurent, before top business and government figures aboard the Canard ship, said Canada is beginning "an era of growth and development," and defied "some people here in Quebec" to stop it.

In my recent world tour I found that (Canada's growth) was realized everywhere and our influence welcomed everywhere except behind the Iron Curtain and among some people here in Quebec."

He said the federal government's influence on international and national affairs increased with this country's development.

"This may have some effect on provincial politicians, but their dislike can't prevent the country from continuing to develop or (pre-) an increase in this influence.

Mr. St. Laurent later officially opened the trade fair where he called on France to join in the movement toward a free international flow of currencies.

France and other sterling countries have placed curbs on the exchange of their monies for dollars, and the prime minister said full and true unification of the countries of the free world would be impossible without the lifting of these curbs.

Transport Minister Marler and Revenue Minister McCann accompanied the prime minister aboard the Saxonia, which made her maiden voyage here.

Trade Minister Howe also attended the exhibition.

Hubert Guerin, French ambassador to Canada, thanked Mr. St. Laurent for his presence at the fair which he termed a picture of friendship between France and Canada.

The 16-day fair is an exhibition of French art and industry, including exhibits of the textile world, perfume industry, cuisine and heavy industry. It is the largest ever staged in Canada by France.

Canadians Get First Look At New Bank Notes

BY THE CANADIAN PRESS

The public got its first look at Canada's new bank notes Thursday and gave them a mixed reception. Their novel appearance apparently led some people to think the bills were not "real money."

The bills, first to bear the portrait of the Queen, went into circulation in bank branches across the country. Canadian Press surveys show that many Canadians gave them a cool reception.

Vancouver banks reported brisk demand and favorable comment on the bills. However, at Halifax, a bank teller suggested the notes, striped with blue and red, mentioned, look like merchandise coupons.

A widely-travelled Montrealer said the bills remind him of wartime occupation money and to Quebec, a female bank teller said the notes remind her of "stage money."

SOME BALK

Toronto residents gave them a fairly good reception, but a few persons in Kitchener balked momentarily when the bills were handed across the teller's wicket.

Edmonton bank cashiers became annoyed when they found the bills had a tendency to stick together. One cashier ran into this stickiness twice and almost gave a customer an extra $1 and $10 bill.

White Men Band Into Councils To Enforce Racial Segregation

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Parents are picketing unsegregated schools in two West Virginia counties and there have been moves to set up "citizens' councils" to enforce racial segregation in the state of Mississippi.

"The white people in certain counties are organizing to protect themselves," Mississippi legislator said Thursday. "Practically every county in the state has organized or is organizing."

Mississippians soon will be voting on a constitutional amendment which could lead to abolition of the public school system.

PROTESTS MOUNT

The protest moves came as the new terms began allowing a United States Supreme Court ruling this summer that school segregation is unconstitutional.

A member of one of the councils, refusing to be quoted by name, declared: "We want the people assured that there is responsible leadership which will avoid handle local segregation problems. If that is recognized, there will be no cause for any lunatic fringed bunch to start a Ku Klux Klan. If we fail, though, the temper of the public may produce something like the Klan."

The Mississippi legislature on Thursday passed a bill designed to guard against Negro suits forcing admission to the new University of Mississippi medical school. The legislature recently allocated $10 million of state medical scholarships to Mississippi students. Fearing that Negroes might try to force admission to the school because no other facility is made available for them, 29 Negroes voted Thursday to continue scholarships for Mississippi Negro students to attend a Negro medical college in Nashville, Tenn.

At the same time the Mississippi House passed on a second reading a constitutional change in the 1.5 which would allow the legislature to abolish public schools. The amendment is virtually assured of passage. It will be submitted to the voters in a Dec. 21 referendum.

In two West Virginia counties Thursday parents protested the racial integration of school children.

A picket line was set up at the school at Gauley Bridge in Greenbrier county, where 12 Negroes have been attending classes since the school opened Tuesday. And another group of white students in Marion county turned out to protest admission of 13 Negro students.

Washington, a move to hold up racial integration in the District of Columbia's public schools was blocked when district judge Henry A. Schweinhaut denied a plea submitted by an all-white group which called for an order restraining the registration of students for unsegregated classes.

Georgia's new governor - designate, a protege of Governor Herman Talmadge, declared Thursday that he will campaign for passage of the Talmadge-sponsored "private school" amendment, similar to Mississippi's measure.

Accused Called By Defence In Murder Trial

WOODSTOCK (CP) — Defence evidence continues today in the murder trial of Velibor Rajic before Ontario Supreme Court.

Rajic, 34-year-old unemployed woodworker, is charged with the murder by stabbing of Mrs. Ernest Boyd June 26.

Defence Attorney A. C. Whaley rested the crown's case on the second day of the trial Thursday. Rajic was the first defence witness called by defence counsel Dr. R. Blackstock, psychiatrist, during the witness box about 3:30 p.m.

Following more emotion than he has so far displayed in the hearing, Rajic broke down in tears as he was questioned about his relations with Mrs. Boyd on many occasions.

SPENT IN BEVERAGE ROOM

He said he came to Woodstock in April, 1949, and worked first on a farm near Beachville, and then two textile plants and a woodworking plant. He said he had been off in March, 1954, and has had no job since then. He met the Boyds in a beverage room and saw them often and became friendly with them.

Rajic testified Mrs. Boyd asked him often to go away with her and her children and husband so she could leave her husband and four children and go to Detroit. He said he refused, but wouldn't do that and told her to stay with her husband and children. Mrs. Boyd often asked me many times. I said I did not want to be a home wrecker."

DOMINATED WOUNDS

Dr. John Penniston, provincial pathologist from Strathroy, described the wounds on Mrs. Boyd's body and said cause of death was a severed arteries in the neck.

He said an alcohol test showed Mrs. Boyd had been under the influence of June 10.

William McKenzie of Woodstock told of selling a hunting knife to Rajic at a hardware store about last April. Rajic is a native of Ontario provincial police identification officer, testified to a finger print on one of the kitchen knives as that of the accused.

The trial is continuing.

Until now, the men of Brig. W. A. B. Anderson's 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade group have had to put their families in German houses, sharing these with German families.

TRYING CONDITIONS

The army wives have had all the advantages, and disadvantages, from easily available baby-sitters to worries about shared kitchens which this state of affairs entails.

Now, soldiers and their families can move into ultra-modern houses and flats, built to German designs, but with many details altered to meet Canadian specifications. Interior decoration has been done by Canadian firm.

When the scheme is complete, Brig. Anderson will have 3,000 whole series of jobs at the same time.

He will, for instance, be field commander of a fighting-fit brigade group which is, by general consent, one of the best units of its size in the North Atlantic Treaty organization's northern army group.

He will be town major and town commandant of three large housing settlements of over 600 quarters at Soest, 270 at Werl, and 226 at Hemer.

WIDE RESPONSIBILITY

He will be responsible for the heating and lighting of the houses and for the schooling of 1,600 Canadian children of all ages, for road safety, and for relations with the local German population and the German authorities.

The biggest of the projects is the new school which is being built by the West German government for the Soest settlement. The school is being built on German-owned ground and being paid for by the West German government.

Canada, for its part, has guaranteed to pay rent, in Canadian dollars, for at least five years. After that, the rent agreement is to continue indefinitely, subject to three months' notice being given by either party.

Detached homes are being built for senior officers. Other officers will live in semi-detached houses.

GETS PREVIEW

One of the wives, who has had a preview of her new home, is Mrs. Jean Belanger, wife of Sgt. A. L. Belanger of Ottawa.

"I am thrilled with the living room," she said. "It is going to be very long and airy, with big windows and a view of sky. A serving hatch is being built between kitchen and dining room in each home."

All wives will have their own meals (army supply) store where they can stock up anything from the family larder to the children's clothes cupboards.

All the soldiers will have to pay for is their own rent.

Each apartment block will contain six flats. Tiled bathrooms in each flat will have built-in baths with separate toilets. There will be gas stoves and refrigerators in the kitchens. One washing machine will be shared by the families in the block.

McCarthy Tries To Make Public 'FBI Letter'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Joseph McCarthy planned to renew today his efforts to place before the senate investigations censure charges against him a 2½-page document which Attorney-General Herbert Brownell has said should be kept secret.

The Wisconsin Republican senator, who started to walk out of Wednesday hearings late Thursday during a row with committee chairman Arthur Watkins (Rep. Utah), was to return to the witness stand to resume the defence he took up two days ago.

Preceding McCarthy's walk toward the exit Thursday was his surprise move to place in the committee record—and thus make it public property— the 3½-page "FBI letter" which touched off a series of disputes during the McCarthy-army hearings.

LEAVES CHAIR

Watkins sought to cut him off in mid-sentence. McCarthy stepped from the witness chair, and with an appearance of anger strode down the red-carpeted caucus room, half turning toward the exit. Then he turned and took up again his place at the witness table.

Watkins insisted that committee members should consider overnight whether to place the document in evidence or even read it. None of the seven members of the McCarthy-army hearings committee would read it.

The letter, of a surprise of its own, the committee subpoenaed from the White House. It outlines for closed-door questioning before today's public session. Brownell's contention that the Senate investigations sub-committee which Watkins heads and Jenner is a member of the investigations sub-committee staff.

REPORTS TO SENATE

The investigations committee was created to consider a move by Senator Ralph Flanders (Rep. Vt.) to have the Senate censure McCarthy on the ground that he has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a senator.

The Senate adjourned under an agreement to return to session in the fall or winter to receive a report from the committee and consider the censure resolution.

Canadian Beaten In Chess Tourney

AMSTERDAM (CP) — Oscar Panno of Argentina Thursday night defeated Paul Vaitanos of Hamilton, Ont., in the fourth round of the world chess tournament preliminaries and dealt a severe blow to Canada's chances of qualifying for the finals.

Three other matches between the Argentine and Canadian teams were adjourned until today, leaving Argentina strongly entrenched in the third and final qualifying berth out of six group, 1½ points ahead of Canada.

Twenty-six countries are entered in the tournament, divided into four groups. The first three finishers enter the finals starting Sunday.

Lobster Poaching in Maritimes Now Thriving Black Market

By JIM SHERRARD

Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX (CP)—Lobster poaching in the Maritimes is no longer referred to with a wink. It is a thriving racket which has taken on the proportions of an organized black market.

To combat this growing menace to the industry, officials of this province have embarked on their stiffest campaign in years against poachers.

Among other things they started to enforce the Crustal Fisheries Protection Act of 1953. Under this act all vessels must "bring to" when ordered by a government ship, must answer under oath the questions of a protection officer and must not destroy cargo or equipment after being ordered to "bring to."

This would prevent a poacher from outracing a government vessel or tossing illegal gear overboard to dispose of evidence. Violators are subject to imprisonment and fines of up to $10,000.

Protection officials say frankly that it's all for the good of the fishermen because if poaching continues at the present rate the large-scale operators will have to cut their business and the smaller fishermen will probably be forced out of business altogether.

Government officials say that a lobster whose carapace (upper shell) measurement is less than 3½ inches must be thrown back. But many fishermen are dumping their undersized catches in a booming black market, a practice which nets them only a fraction of the legal price and jeopardizes their own future income.

Tests have shown that a baby lobster sold this year at black market prices would bring the same fisherman more than twice as much money next season. A lobster-carapace 15 per cent in length and 30 per cent in weight in one year.

But to many old salts, poaching has been a family tradition, carried on in many cases for three generations.

Many of the modern battles between fishermen and protection officers have been waged over the prohibition-era feuds between revenuers and rum-runners. Sometimes these battles reverted to violence in some cases when confronted by government agents.

Still a mystery in New Brunswick is the death of Agapie Leblanc of Shediac, a government agent who set out one night on a poacher hunt. His body was washed ashore a few days later.

Many of the small time poachers have been very well organized rings whose trucks make regular midnight calls to pick up illegal freight. Other buyers operating off shore have worked out codes of signals and lights to signal fishermen with catches for sale. A well-organized grapevine warns those in the vicinity when a government agent enters the vicinity.

Modern enforcement speedboats, assisted by airplanes, patrol Maritime waters in many divisions. The northeastward strait, prolific lobster grounds between Prince Edward Island and the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia mainland, is the big centre of illegal operations.

CUTS OWN SUPPLY

Lobster populations are local and migrate only two or three miles. Thus, the poacher who sells undersized lobsters is cutting his own supply for future years. A government education program is meeting with only mild success.

A century ago fishermen thought the lobster population would never diminish. Along the coasts of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia lobsters were being washed up on shore and caught in such numbers that they were being spread for fertilizer.

SEKING DOUBLE

This two-headed garter snake was found near Red Deer Lake, about 12 miles south of Sudbury, by six-year-old Marvin Smith of Cossington, Ont. Both heads of the snake are perfectly formed though the one on the right is slightly larger than the other. It can apparently see with both sets of eyes but has some difficulty in movement, possibly because it can't make up its mind which way to go. (CP Photo).

CAMPBELLFORD — Special services on Sunday marked the official opening of the Campbellford Pentecostal Church, when a number of dignitaries were on hand for the opening ceremonies.

Following Sunday school classes in the morning, in charge of Mrs. G. E. Leno, wife of the pastor, a special morning service was held. During the service, which was in charge of Rev. G. E. Leno, the Rev. W. B. Greenwood, district superintendent of the Pentecostal Assembly, spoke to the large congregation. General superintendent, the Rev. W. E. McAllister, of Toronto, also spoke and brought greetings to the congregation.

A duet, sung by Ruth Owens and Dorothy Ann MacMillan, both of Campbellford, and a solo by Mrs. Jean Bell of Toronto, were enjoyed.

During a special service in the afternoon, the Rev. A. E. Toombs, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, representing the Campbellford ministerial Association, brought greetings to the congregation, and praised the members on their efforts in constructing such a fine place of worship. Mayor R. J. Leslie also addressed the congregation, saying he was proud of the efforts of the people in building such an institution.

The Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, Minister of Welfare, also spoke saying he felt proud to know he had had a part in the opening ceremonies and complimented the congregation on their efforts. The Rev. Fred Parles of the district presbytery of Peterborough, also addressed the gathering.

DEDICATION PRAYER

The Rev. W. B. Greenwood offered a prayer of dedication. The official dedication was made by the general superintendent, Rev. W. E. McAllister, of Toronto. Mrs. Sam Wilson of Campbellford sang "God Bless this Hall" during the dedication service.

The Rev. G. E. Leno, who was in charge of the service, thanked the congregation for their efforts and also the general public for their support in the form of donations and money and materials to help with the construction work.

On Monday, a district rally was held, with services throughout the day. Prior to the afternoon and evening services, the brass band of the Peterborough Pentecostal church played a number of selections for the large crowd which gathered around the new church.

In the evening, a meal was served to more than 150 people in the church basement.

The Rev. and Mrs. Leno came to Campbellford about three years ago, and plans were soon laid for the construction of a new church in the town. Construction on the building was started on April 5, exactly five months prior to the official opening ceremonies. The cornerstone of the new church was laid by Mr. Greenwood of Belleville on June 20th.

Admiral announces a new Super Giant 21" picture tube, accurately described as "The World's Largest"... with 270-square-inch screen ...20% bigger than other 21" TV...yet so compact it will fit into a cabinet almost 3 inches shorter in depth!

You've never seen it SO BIG...You've never seen it SO GOOD

It may seem surprising that between two TV picture tubes —both truthfully labeled "21-inch"—there may be a difference of almost 50 square inches in actual picture size. And it may appear even more mysterious that the larger of the two 21" tubes fits a more compact cabinet. The puzzle is quickly cleared up when you understand how picture tubes are measured.

To learn the size of a rectangular picture tube, you measure diagonally from corner to opposite corner. Then by established industry practice, the resulting measurement is rounded off to the nearest inch. In this way, the diagonal of a 21" tube can range from just over 20⅝ inches to just under 21¾. So you see how it is possible to add many square inches to the picture area and still have a 21" picture tube.

And this is why the label "21-inch picture tube" doesn't necessarily tell all you need to know about the actual size of the picture.

Now—the World's Largest 21" TV Picture

In the new 1955 TV models, Admiral is featuring an entirely new 21" tube size. It gives you a picture 270 square inches in area . . . 20% larger than other 21" TV. Because it is an all-new picture tube, with new dimensions, and made from entirely new tools and dies, it was possible to make another important improvement.

Not only is the size of the picture increased substantially—but at the same time the front-to-rear measurement is shortened. This means that the new Super Giant 21" tube fits easily into cabinets almost 3 inches shorter in depth than required for all previous 21" sets. The saving in depth gives the new cabinets a more attractive furniture scale . . . they look better in even very small rooms . . . and save up to 120 sq. in. of floor space.

New Tube Gives Brighter, Clearer Picture

Here's another important question to ask before you buy: Is the picture tube aluminized? Admiral's new 270-square-inch Super Giant 21" gives twice as much brightness by actual light meter measurement because in every model it's aluminized with a micro-thin "Magic Mirror" of pure aluminum, applied behind the picture tube face. This invisible mirror beams all of the picture brightness forward to the viewer—none is wasted inside the tube. Such a picture cannot appear faded or "washed-out," even in a brightly lighted room.

To give final assurance of maximum clarity and comfort to the eyes, Admiral adds the exclusive Optic Filter Screen. This feature may be compared to the filters used in photography. It makes details stand out crisp and clear, with ideal contrast, while guarding against the possibility of hazy glare.

See the full Admiral line before you buy

Numerous other improvements are featured in the 1955 Admiral TV models now on their way to your neighbourhood Admiral dealer. Drop in and have him explain these features to you and ask him to show you the full line of nine superbly designed models. Compare them, feature for feature, with other makes . . .

Compare, for instance, the finer performance you get from Admiral's completely re-engineered Super Cascode Chassis with ordinary TV reception, especially in noisy and far-fringe areas. Admiral, with "power to reach the moon," gives you the finest performance in television history at any operating range! And only in Admiral TV will you find a 17" table model with big-set features like the "Magic Mirror" Aluminized Picture Tube and eye-saving Optic Filter Screen. Compare Admiral's prices, too, and you'll see they're still the lowest in the industry.

A demonstration will convince you that Admiral is this year's "best-buy" in TV. You'll quickly see that it lives up to all we've said of it and you'll understand why one out of every three TV sets in Canada is an Admiral! With this information to guide your choice, we believe there's a good chance you'll want to join the hundreds of thousands of families now enjoying Admiral TV!

'Marilyn Had Condition And Courage Of A Champion',--Coach Gus Ryder

CHIPS OFF THE SPORTS BLOCK

By Geo. H. Carver, Sports Editor

HAIL TO THE QUEEN!

"Sheer guts, ability and a will to win, wrapped up in the trim body of a 16-year-old wonder swimmer, put Canada on the front page today.

Marilyn Bell, teen-aged natatorial queen, stole the headlines thunder from world series, football and other leading sports in one of the most spectacular accomplishments recorded in Canadian athletic archives.

The figurative eyes of Canada were focused on the gallant youngster as she bravely battled her way through the choppy chilling waters of Lake Ontario to become the first to swim the big pond.

Not since George Young swam the Catalina channel in 1927 has anyone captured the imagination of good "Ole Hogtown", or Canada for that matter. Even Marlene Stewart, Canada's queen of the golf links, did not receive the accolades of the Canadian public as did this pretty blonde swimstress.

Canadians generally took the event in their stride prior to the take-off. Opposed by such headlined queens of the waterlanes as Florence Chadwick, American champion, and noted distance swimmer and Winnie Lemler, another Canadian champion, Marilyn appeared to be just another competitor, probably an "also-swam".

But as the news filtered through that Chadwick had been taken out, Lemler had been forced to quit, and the golden-haired school girl was plowing her way steadily towards Toronto and a golden goal, Canada's interest quickened. Throughout all over the country started to thrill. Newspaper offices, radio stations, in fact every possible source of information was besieged with calls of the curious.

In the news rooms of the Ontario Intelligencer, phones whirred, buzzed and tinkled in a steady stream of calls. Downtown radio shops, other stores and even the police station were the scene. Ears were "glued" to radios all over the city.

Today Marilyn is the "Toast of Canada" and as one American newspaper puts it, "The Empire." Today the twin swimmer, the tough 32-mile grind a memory, joins the ranks of such outstanding Canadian sportsmen as Wilfred Wilson, George Young, Marlene Stewart and many others. And as such Canada is mighty proud of this 115-pound modest youngster who defied cold, water and worn in a spectacular display of "guts" and courage to become the first to swim Lake Ontario.

The Examiner of the waterlanes has gathered unto herself all the glory, and the gold that goes with it. The Leaky mark as Florence Chadwick and Winnie Lemler may beat her time of 21 hours, but their performance will be strictly anti-climactic.

What determined athlete a gallant courageous girl, a more or less untried youngster who came through with flying colors despite the terrific handicaps of wind, wave and bottling sealer, to reach the heights in the realm of Canadian sportdom.

ISLAND OWNER

The 200 pounds-plus chassis walked into the news room yesterday and waved a friendly greeting. It was topped with one of the former well-known faces in sportdom, one to which Time has been kind in engraving its milestones.

If you look around when the famous "Kid Line" of the Toronto Maple Leafs was writing National League history you would have recognized the big fella. He is "Chuck" Conacher who had one of the hardest shots in professional hockey and can still blast the biscuit at a rate of upod a few seconds slower than a bullet.

But the former ex-Leaf, ex-Chicago Black Hawks coach was not here in sports capacity, although he did "give" with a few remarks anent his favorite sport.

"Chuck" was in town in a business capacity representing a natural gas company and toured the village with prestigious to various members of the city government roundtable.

During the recent "time-out" awarded casually by the front office to slaves of the typewriter, we accepted a few of that part of Lake Ontario off the village of Wellington, and boys being boys we visited the gulls at the Scotch Bonnet lighthouse. En route we passed what is mapped as Nicholson Island, a three-hundred acre-plus spot a short distance off Hayek's Point, and which has had more names than Perry Joyce Napkins.

Skipper of the trim power craft, Gerry Stoneburg, who hosted the party told us between the raucous protest of gulls, the size of Christmas geese, that some well known sports authority had purchased the island. Yesterday we discovered he was right.

Chuck Conacher admitted to the ownership of the island girt property which besides hundreds of acres of illiable soil has timbered land said to be a paradise for pheasants. Time was when deer was on the island.

However Chuck would not admit that he intended changing the island's name to "Conacher's Hideaway", but he did extend an invitation to this department and the city editor to do a Robinson Crusoe there for a few days come duck-hunting season.

Eventually the conversation veered around to sports and Chuck was asked his opinion of the chances in the Chicago Black Hawk's setups. He was more or less non-committal but ventured the opinion that Tommy Ivan, the new business manager, did not exactly make the right move.

It will be a rigit test of Ivan's managerial ability, thought Chuck. "After all you cannot make a hockey team overnight, and the Hawks will have to start a rebuilding job. Hockey is something like a poker game. You can bluff occasionally and get away with it but in the long run you have to have the right cards to win."

THE WHIP AND THE NIP TONIGHT

What looks like the wrestling battle of the season goes on tap tonight at Memorial Arena when East York's pride and joy, Whipper Bill Watson tangles with that suave son of the Land of the Rising Sun, the Great Togo. Togo, one of the old school of Japanese wrestlers, is a powerful tank-like emissary from the Land of the Cherry Blossoms and Madame Butterfly, and his ring tactics veneered with an apologetic manner and profuse "no sallys", would scarcely win him a halo. However, Togo is a topnotch wrestler, powerful and tricky, but he meets a foeman worthy of his steel in the Whip. Then there are the midgets, that rollicking guartet of rasslin' gnats who provide ring entertainment plus with their clever performances. "Tosh" Togo brother of the Great One tangles with Pat Flanagan in the Smiling Marilyn Bell, spectacular teen-age Canadian swimmer smiles with Winnie Lemler, another Canadian champion prior to their entering Lake Ontario at Youngstown, N.Y., for the tough 32 mile grind to Toronto. Marilyn, in an amazing display of courage and endurance, negotiated the long swim to gain fame and fortune.

Bad Currents, Wind and Waves Bucked Gallant Girl Student; Was Never in Real Trouble

TORONTO (CP) — Marilyn Bell had everything against her, except the water temperature, when she started her 32-mile swim across Lake Ontario.

But many people forgot about that thing athletes call guts. Gus Ryder calls it the "condition and courage of a champion."

Ryder, the 16-year-old swimmer's coach, said Marilyn ran into "wicked currents, wind and waves" during her epic marathon.

"Everybody's heard about the mile of the century," he added.

"Well, this was the swim of the century. It was tough all the way. There was never a smooth spot. The waves ran six feet high; four feet most of the time."

Newspaper men and others who accompanied the high school student on her history - making swim agreed.

"WELL BE EASY"

Ryder said Marilyn figured before she plunged into the lake that she could beat world-famous Florence Chadwick and conquer the frigid waters. She whispered to Ryder as she started at Youngstown, N.Y., at 11:17 p.m. EDT Wednesday: "This will be easy."

"It wasn't easy," said Ryder. "She was dog tired at the end, after nearly 21 hours in the water. But she wasn't completely exhausted as many thought. The first thing she asked me was that I let her go in practice sessions at my swimming school Friday night."

As soon as Marilyn left the water she was whisked away in an ambulance and to a downtown Toronto hotel. A doctor gave her a sedative. Nobody was to disturb her for 24 hours, the doctor said.

Ryder said he knew Marilyn had to take the lead from Miss Chadwick, 34-year-old girl from San Diego, Calif., "right from the start." I also expected to win.

TOOK THE LEAD.

"That's what she did. The water temperature was perfect; anywhere from 62 to 66 degrees. I think it was a bit warmer for a while. Marilyn took over the lead after 300 yards. She was stroking about 70 to the minute and we soon left Flo behind."

Miss Chadwick left Youngstown at 11:18 p.m., EDT. She gave up at dawn because of sickness from gasoline fumes and oil slick after swimming 13 miles.

Ryder said:

"It was plenty rough. Our boat tossed around on the waves. At times we couldn't see Marilyn. The wind, sometimes 20 or 25 miles an hour, was churning up the lake.

"The thing that really got her was the darkness. She couldn't see a thing in front of her. It gets you when you're all alone out there and 300 feet of water under you. She got pretty scared. She had ideas about quitting around 4 a.m. but we said everything was fine.

URGED HER ON

"Just after dawn, when we had about a three-quarter-mile lead on Miss Chadwick, Marilyn was discouraged. We urged her on. Then we told her that Flo quit. It was okay after that. She quickened her pace, stroking about 86 to the minute. She later eased up.

"It was just a question of keeping her going then. She didn't eat much at night; a cup of corn syrup and some infant's food. She had a bit of honey and orange juice, too. She ate only six times during the trip. She wanted most of it during the day."

Ryder said Marilyn never ran into a "real trouble." She averaged about 56 strokes to the minute.

There were conflicting reports about Marilyn's condition when she reached the breakwater, about 50 yards from the Ontario shore. Some said the young swimmer was exhausted and collapsed twice as she tried to get into Ryder's dory. Ryder commented:

SHE WAS BEAT

"She didn't try to get into the boat. Do you think anybody who swam 32 miles could climb into a boat? She was beat. The boats that were whizzing around the area made her nervous. She tried to swim back to the dory but couldn't find it. One of the launches nearly hit her. We finally got to her.

"She didn't talk much during the trip. She'd asked about the time and her pace. We didn't waste words. And she was too tired to talk much after the trip."

Ryder said he had no idea how far Marilyn actually swam. Some boat captains said she went more than 40 miles because of the current and wind.

Wings Defeat Montreal 1-0 For Second Spot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The battle for the second, third and fourth spots in the International League pipsters is going right down to the wire.

With the end of the regular campaign only three days away, Rochester Red Wings hold a half-game lead over Montreal Royals in the scrap for second place. Syracuse Chiefs and Havana Sugar Kings are deadlocked for the fourth position. Toronto already has copped first place.

Rochester moved ahead of Montreal Thursday night as lefty Memo Luna tossed a four-hitter at the Royals for a 1-0 victory. Luna homed six out and walked only one—and that intentional. All of the hits were singles. Eddie Roebuck walked in the only run of the game in the fifth on Chico Fernandes' error, a walk and a bunt single batted in. Luna began with none out. Then Roebuck walked Allie Clark.

Syracuse also used a four-hitter by Jim Owens to down Ottawa 5-0 and gain half a game on the idle Ottawa. Owens pitched six hit ball racking up his 16th victory against nine losses. Joe Lonnett and Don Richmond each singled home two runs and Johnny Blatnik drove the other across.

Canucks Swamp Yank Threat In 30-Mile Water Marathon

By JIM PEACOCK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — A Canadian quartet swamped the United States' top threat in the Canadian National Exhibition's 30-mile marathon relay swim Thursday, finishing 1½ miles ahead of the Big Ben after 14 hours, three minutes and five seconds in the water.

The Canadians—Cliff Lumsden, Tommy Park, Ben Gazell and George Bevan—took an early lead and increased it with each of the six laps to come home in the dark with winners of the $19,000 top prize money.

The Big Ten team—so named because each of the four swimmers is a former captain of a Big Ten university swim team in the U.S.—fell far behind the Canadians in the first five miles and lost ground steadily until its last swimmer was pulled from the water 1½ miles from the finish.

The Big Ten took second money of $5,000 and a split of the third and fourth prizes. Buffalo and Mimico teams each $2,500 when it became apparent they couldn't because of darkness. Buffalo and Mimico were running a close race for third and fourth with Buffalo ahead, but both were well out of reach of the second-place Big Teners.

TAKEN FROM WATER

When Lumsden hit the finish barge, the remaining swimmers were taken from the water. Two of the six four-man teams had withdrawn earlier, Toronto quitting in the third lap and Philadelphia giving up after 23 miles when a swimmer became ill in the dark.

Mat Mann 3rd and Wally Jeffries, both ex-captains at University of Michigan swim teams, Jack Anderson, former Minnesota University captain, and Bill Steuber, once captain of Northwestern University's swimmers, made up the Big Ten team. Its trainer was Matt Mann 2nd, for years swim coach at the U. of Michigan.

These names brought predictions here that the Big Ten would be the team to beat. The Canadians had been given about an even chance against the U.S. entry.

Lumsden, 23-year-old from Toronto who has for the last two years won the CNE 10-mile marathon, anchored the Canadian foursome. Bevan, 31, a Winnipeg-born swimmer now living in Toronto, sent the team into a half-mile lead after the first five-mile lap. Park, 31, of Hamilton, winner of this year's Atlantic City 26-mile swim, and Gazell, a 43-year-old veteran from Toronto, kept the edge increasing.

ADDED TO MARGIN

Each Canadian swimmer took to the water twice, the limit allowed by the marathon rules, and each added to the margin. Lumsden opened the gap from three-quarters of a mile to 1¼ miles on the fourth lap, then finished strongly from three miles out.

The relay at the CNE waterfront resulted when the CNE's original plan to have the four-man teams swim Lake Ontario from Youngstown, N.Y., 32 miles to Toronto, was washed out by unsuitable weather.

Thursday, the water temperature was 63 degrees, the air temperature 55. The swim began in a light wind at 10 a.m. EDT and the blow increased to about 20 miles an hour by the time Lumsden finished the 9:45 p.m.

Sports director George Duthie and his committee decided to take the remaining swimmers from the water when Lumsden finished. He said the darkness and choppy waters made swimming dangerous at that time.

The Toronto team, withdrawn by its manager Joe Richardson who said some of his swimmers "weren't trying," had Shirley Campbell, 18, of Fergus, Ont., only woman in the event.

Indians Getting Closer To World Series Wampum; Giants Lucky To Split

Score 'Gift' Win Over Phils, Yanks Blanked With 1-Hitter; 'Bums' Deal Cards 10-1 Defeat

By REN FELIGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The time has come to start measuring the flag pole in the Cleveland Municipal Stadium for the 1954 American League pennant.

It may be a few days too soon to enlarge the press box for the world series, or even printing programs, but with a 5½-game lead and only 14 games left the Indians certainly are justified in showing some signs of optimism.

Among other things, history is on their side. No American League team ever blew so large a lead this late in the season. Such bigger margins have been shaved, but never erased completely.

The Indians saw the folding green stuff come closer Thursday with a 5-4 "gift" victory over Philadelphia with the second-place New York Yankees 5½ games behind more on Joe Coleman's brilliant one-hitter.

The magic number for the Indians now is 10. Any combination of 10 Cleveland victories and New York defeats will clinch the pennant. The earliest possible date is Tuesday.

While the Indians were tidying up their affairs in the American League the New York Giants wasted a chance to gain a more comfortable lead in the National.

GIANTS BREAK EVEN

The Giants broke even in a doubleheader with the seventh-place Chicago Cubs and were lucky to get that split. It took two late rallies climaxed by a squeeze bunt with two out in the ninth and again in the ninth by Hank Thompson to pull out the first game 7-6. They never had a lead in the second game, getting only five hits while losing 3-2. Chicago's Ed Mickelson was in two of the runs, one with a homer.

The runner-up Milwaukee Braves weren't scheduled. They trail New York by four games and have 16 left. The Giants have 15 to play and Brooklyn, 5½ behind, has 15.

It will take a combination of 14 New York victories and Milwaukee defeats for the Giants to clinch the flag.

Brooklyn came out of a prolonged slump with a 10-1 victory over St. Louis Thursday in the only other National League action. Washington blanked Chicago 2-0 and Boston defeated Detroit 8-0 in the American.

The winning Cleveland run scored in the 11th inning against the Athletics when Phil Rizzuto walked Hal Naragon with the bases loaded. Cleveland had come from behind with two runs in the eighth and one in the ninth to send the game into extra innings.

NO. 100 FOR TRIBE

The victory was No. 100 for Cleveland, the most won by any American League team since the 1946 Red Sox.

Coleman's bid for a no-hitter over the Yankees ruined two on a bad bounce single by Enos Slaughter in the eighth inning. The lone hit by second baseman Bobby Young but it bounced high over his head just over the reach of Bobby Avila. Nobody else came close to getting a hit off the 32-year-old righthander.

The Chicago-Washington game was the finish of the season, lasting only 90 minutes. Each team got only three hits but two of the Washington hits off Harry Dorish were home runs, by Roy Sievers and Jim Busby.

Boston's victory over Detroit was another well-pitched game as Willard Nixon scattered five singles. Ted Williams, at bat four times, was held hitless for the second straight game.

Soccer Gossip

This week-end comPletion for the Ontario Intermediate soccer league begins. Two games are scheduled for tomorrow afternoon in the first round. Toronto Borough Mercantiles travel to Kingston to take on the Kingston Celtics and Toronto Canadian Scottish are playing host to Picton Gunners. The return games will be played next Saturday on the home and home total goals to count basis. Batawa and Peterborough UEW both drew a bye into the semi-final.

In minor circles Branch 99 Canadian Legion bantams take on Kalevs bantams tomorrow at Toronto's Greenwood Park in the first leg of a home and home goals to count series for the Ontario Canadian bantam championship whilst as the other half of a doubleheader Foley Foundry juveniles take on Toronto juveniles for the Ontario juvenile championship. The return games will be played at the Flat Grounds in Belleville next Saturday afternoon.

Crests have been received from the Football Association of Canada for those players who took part in the minor match in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Federation of International Football Associations. The crests will be presented to the boys at their regular practice last night.

In about a week's time the local minor leagues will start their season's activities in earnest in the Belleville school principals asking them to obtain names from boys in their school who wish to play soccer this year. When these names are obtained teams and schedules will be drawn up for the bantam league. Sponsors are being obtained to provide distinctive shirts for each team. All boys under 15 years of age on April 1st last should hand in their names to their school in order to participate in this competition for the Bill Harvey trophy.

The juvenile league for the Belleville Football group will start about the same time and it is anticipated teams from Napanee, Kingston, Wellington, Belleville and possible Deseronto will enter.

Wednesday night's game between Belleville and Trenton Merchants in the final of the Belleville Charity Cup ended in a tie all fie and the replay has been called for Bain Memorial Park, Trenton, on Wednesday 22nd September. Next Monday evening Northern Electric and Picton Gunners meet in the second tie at right to play Trenton Merchants in the Trenton Challenge Cup final. The final will be played in Trenton next Wednesday evening at 6.30 p.m.

On Sunday afternoon Batawa is playing host to Toronto Slovaks in an exhibition tilt which should be a treat for soccer fandom. The Toronto Scottish Soccer Club is coming down with quite a reputation in Toronto soccer circles and it will give local soccer followers a chance to compare the brand of soccer played locally with that of Toronto. It will be recalled that earlier in the season an all star team from the Eastern Ontario League beat the Toronto Senior League all stars in Peterborough. On Sunday we shall see whether this same superiority is reflected at club level.

This week's tip to the budding soccer star: "Have a go—keep the ball low."

Offer $5,000 for Match Race Between Marilyn, Chadwick

VICTORIA (CP)—An offer to have Toronto's amazing 18-year-old Marilyn Bell compete with Florence Chadwick when she makes her second attempt on the Strait on Juan de Fuca next summer was made Thursday by co-sponsors of the Bapco-Times swim.

After Miss Bell's fine swim in Lake Ontario, Fred Manning, vice-president of Bapco Paint, and Stuart Keate, Times publisher, wired her offering increased expenses for a match purse race of $5,000 for the winner who makes a successful crossing.

Braves, 'Bums' Start Hot Series

BROOKLYN (AP)—The fabulous Milwaukee Braves invade Ebbets Field tonight for the first of a two-game set with the fading Brooklyn Dodgers and the series is of the utmost importance to both teams.

If the Braves are to stay in the pennant chase, they must win both games. If the Brooks hope to get second money, they have anything but sensational, will counter with Billy Loes, a local boy, in an effort to stop the Braves who carry a 10-game winning streak into the fray.

Max Bentley Quits Hockey

NEW YOR K(AP)—Max Bentley, 34-year-old centre from Delisle, Sask., has handed New York Rangers by letter that he intends to quit hockey.

Ranger officials made this known Thursday when asked how it was that Bentley's name had turned up in the Toronto Maple Leafs list of players protected from the draft.

The Rangers said that as a result of Bentley's decision to retire, his contract reverts to the Leafs. Bentley had decided to give up hockey after playing with Toronto in the 1953-53 season. He was coaxed out of retirement last season to play for the Rangers.

'Flo, Sick Girl' Says Mother

LOS ANGELES (CP)—Marilyn Bell, the little Toronto 'teen-ager who conquered Lake Ontario "deserves everything," the sister-in-law of Florence Chadwick, her defeated rival, said today.

Mrs. Lena Chadwick, sister-in-law of Channel conqueror, said the channel conqueror, who had to be taken from the water after she became ill in the attempt to swim from Catalina, N.Y., to Toronto had this to say about the Canadian girl who finished the grind:

"That Bell girl deserves everything. She reminds me of Florence when she was starting. She must have the same drive as Flo.

"Florence has to stop swimming some time, but it is too bad she must be defeated to stop."

Miss Chadwick's mother, Mrs. Mary Chadwick, said she has asked her daughter to come home and take a good rest. "I know Florence is a sick girl," the mother added.

Black Hawks Start Training

PEMBROKE, Ont. (CP) — Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League began fall training here Thursday as general manager Tommy Ivan and coach Frank Eddolls pushed 26 junior hopefuls through morning and afternoon workouts.

Yank Lefties To Face Tribe In Twin Bill

BALTIMORE (AP) — Manager Casey Stengel was stewing Thursday about what pitchers he'd use next against Chicago and Cleveland and ran into an "almost" no-hitter by a lowly Baltimore Oriole for a serious setback.

The 1-0 loss on Joe Coleman's one-hitter dropped the Yankees 5½ games behind Cleveland, as far as they've been behind all season. All the talk with Stengel before the Orioles game in the Yankee dugout was about the upcoming games with Chicago tonight and Saturday and Cleveland on Sunday.

"We have to play two teams at once," bemoaned Casey. "They're both just laying for me since they are both in the west and can throw their best at us. If one of them was in the east, I could play them one at a time. This way I have to plan for them as one team."

Stengel finally announced that Harry Byrd and Bob Grim would be the starters against Chicago and Whitey Ford and Ed Lopat, "our two lefties" in the doubleheader at Cleveland.

'Toast of Canada' Says Newspaper

NEW YORK (CP) — The Buffalo Courier-Express Thursday night said Toronto's 16-year-old Marilyn Bell is "the toast of Canada, probably of the whole hemisphere," as a result of her successful 32-mile swim across Lake Ontario.

Describing Marilyn's feat "in being the first swimmer to accomplish the route, the newspaper calls her "extraordinary, a petite, clear-hearted high school student."

AT THE ODEON McCARTHY THEATRE

Classic Themes in New Musical Score

Two of Hollywood's top men of music collaborated to provide Universal-International's "Technicolor production of "Magnificent Obsession," now playing at the Odeon McCarthy Theatre, with its exceptional musical background.

Blending symphony orchestra and choir, Frank Skinner based the score on thematic material from Chopin, Beethoven and Johann Strauss, while Joseph Gershenson, who re-created the original Glenn Miller music for "The Glenn Miller Story," directed the Universal-International orchestra in recording the Skinner score.

Skinner composed and arranged the scores for all of Deanna Durbin's 10 hit pictures. His first Hollywood assignment was preparing the musical arrangements for "The Great Ziegfeld" in 1935.

Jane Wyman, Rock Hudson and Barbara Rush are starred in "Magnificent Obsession," which features Agnes Moorehead, Otto Kruger and Gregg Palmer.

Little Benny's Note Book

Ma was writing at her desk, and she said to pop, Well, William, it's finished, I've written a 4 page letter to my sister Fanny congratulating her on her 25th wedding anniversary. Imagine, a 4 page letter in 4 minutes. Shall I read it to you, William? she said.

If a woman writes a four page letter in 4 minutes, how long will it take her to read it? pop said.

Half a minute, ma said.

And she red the letter out loud, being, Dear Fanny, I am just as excited over your anniversery as if it was my own. In closing this letter I want to refer you to a poem called Silver Wedding. You will find it in the Golden Treasury of Verse that I gave you one Christmas, somewhere in the middle. Your loving sister Pawlena.

Where's the 4 page letter? pop said, and ma said, That's all, and now I'll give you the explination.

I'm all braced for it, pop said, and ma said, Well number one, when I say that her anniversery seems as important as my own, Fanny merely has to reed between the lines to realize that it would take at least a page to discribe my feelings about my own anniversery. Number 2, my reminder that I gave her The Golden Treasury will fill her with grateful memories equal to another page, and number 3, she's her friend to look up that bewtiful poem, and it's long enough to account for at least 2 more pages, and that's 4, ma said.

My dear, you win, Fanny will have a lovely quarter of an hour browsing over your letter, pop said.

And he went back to his paper and stayed there.

HORSE SENSE BRIDGE

By SAM GORDON
The Kibitzer

It is always a relief to me when a majority of bridge masters agree on the same trump suit in the same deal. Even when it is the wrong suit. At least it proves they can agree on something.

In the 36 table national open pair master finals you see here their deal number four.

Two west players were doubled at two hearts and made it for the top score. One west was permitted to play it in two hearts and made it. See what I mean by masters lacking true basics?

North and south should know they can make three clubs or at least two spades. Only ignorance of a simple count would prevent them to quit; worse yet, prompt them to double.

One north played it in three no-trump and made it. Only a pair that lacks confidence in their ] signals would permit this contract to make. West and east can kill it in hearts fast.

Two norths were in one no-trump. One made it with two extra. The other went down two, in the first place they should have been in the club suit instead. In the second place one no-trump is easy to make.

There were three norths players in three no-trump that went down one or two or three. There was one west player in three no-trump that went down three. Were do they get that stuff?

The most correct trump suit for north and south is clubs. With a biddable suit and support they could tell each other so. But only four tables ended in clubs. All four made it.

One south in four spades went down two. A south in three spades made it. So did 19 in two spades. The spade bidders were more lucky than correct. But it is nice that so many agreed on something.

Such things can give you a temperature.

Your Horoscope

BY FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SATURDAY, SEPT. 11, 1954

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Romance, domesticity and other personal interests are favored now. Do your duty, consider others' feelings as well as your own and results should be better than they have been for some time.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — Reassuring aspects for pleasant and useful hours. Speed work some so that you may gain time for needed leisure. But don't be careless or selfish as you advance. Be normal, genial.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — During this uncertain period you will achieve best results if you go about things quietly and unperturbed, especially in business, working with associates. Avoid those who would divert you from your principles.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — All extravagance, going into debt taboo. The day is opportune for those who are purposeful, conscientious. Don't criticize pointlessly, but do correct where needed. Be charitable.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — A pleasant outlook from most angles. However, there is need for care in how you go about your work, what you take for granted. Don't expect more than you earn. Be kindly, calm.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—An ideal day for planning, conferences, detail work; also for domestic and useful social activities. In important undertakings analyze well before acting.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—It should be possible to make a fine record now. Solid returns promise in many activities, including professional and personal affairs. Heart interests, family and home matters also favored.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—More prosperous indications than appear on the surface. Dealing with natives of Gemini, Leo and Sagittarius may prove unsatisfactory. Take advantage of opportunities. Romance favored.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Domestic relations, children's welfare and charitable matters share in the good fortune that is yours today. Don't misuse anything of value or neglect duties. Thank God for His blessings.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Whatever your occupational demands, pitch in, using your best qualities, sturdiest effort. Gains are possible through friends, your family.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Never become discouraged or lose out through lack of determined effort. Don't seek recognition for your efforts—it will come unsolicited. Just keep at what should be done.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Benefits may be had. Present at first, but look sharp and you will find them. Many advantages are often hidden in unexpected places—to appear when least expected.

YOU BORN TODAY are a steadfast, earnest, helpful person; capable of achieving in almost any profession, trade or calling you choose. You are discriminating, orderly, systematic, love harmony. Do not take others' lack of appreciation too much to heart. Think more of the good in life. # Walt Alston Not to Blame For 'Bums' Lapse

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The favorite guessing game around these parts continues to be "what happened to the Dodgers?" or "Who made bums out of our Bums?"

Brooklyn hasn't been counted out of the National League race but it's waiting for the keys punch.

Reasons advanced for the failure of the club hereand to repeat as National League champion are the failure to anticipate the inroads of age, the failure to retain Charley Dressen and the subsequent hiring of Walt Alston and unprecedented bad luck involving injuries and ailments.

We believe the latter reason comes closest to the truth, as it is impossible even Dressen could have won under the handicape Alston has had to contend with this year.

UNPREPARED

There have been suggestions Walter O'Malley, club president, erred in not being prepared for a more or less general collapse of the team.

Last spring, however, there was no reason to believe the team which had won the pennant by 13 games couldn't carry on at the same pace for at least another year. If O'Malley had peddled Jackie Robinson to Roy Campanella or Billy Cox or Don Newcombe to other clubs and replaced them with bright young faces, the cries of anguish still would be echoing in Flatbush.

As for Alston, there is no reason to believe he hasn't done a capable job under almost impossible circumstances, including the failure of Campanella to resemble the Campanella who won the Most Valuable Player award last year; the slowing up of Robinson and the failure of the pitching staff.

With Campanella ineffective because of a hand injury, Don Newcombe failing to live up to expectation after his return from army service, pitcher Johnny Podres undergoing an appendectomy, Preacher Roe suddenly being taken old, Robinson playing only periodically and Cox used only sparingly for some reason or other, it is a wonder the team still has a mathematical chance to win.

The most serious single blow undoubtedly was the ineffectiveness of Campanella, who was the take charge guy last year and whose stout hitting made him a continuous threat.

BUZZY II WINS

TORONTO (CP)—A Toronto boat, Brian Newkirk's Buzzy II sailed by Bill Gooderham, Thursday won the North American six-metre yacht championship. The Royal Canadian Yacht Club boat was only 36 seconds behind Thursday's race winner, Mar Se VII, sailed by Bill Horton of California. Wednesday's first-place points added to those gained in the third and final race gave the Newkirk boat top honors of 42¾ marks. Bibis, another RCYC boat, tied for second place with May Be VII.

FIGHTING IRISH MEET NEW COACH

The first practice session held at South Bend, Ind., by the Notre Dame football squad under its new coach, Terry Brennan. The youthful successor to the great Frank Leahy here shows Nick Raich, fullback, the proper starting stance, as others of the team look on.—Central Press Canadian.

On The Football Fronts

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Annis Stukus goes after his first victory of Canada's 1954 professional football season again Saturday. The odds, Frank Tripucka and Larry Isbell may six it.

Stukus, coaching British Columbia Lions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union through their maiden year, takes his squad to Regina for a game against the hot Saskatchewan team that during another weekend loaded with big-time football games across the country.

Lions will be up against some tough operators. Lions haven't won in four starts this year. In those games they scored only 12 points against 71 for the opposition. The Roughriders, on the other hand, are in first place with four victories, a tie and one defeat.

In the only other WIFU game, the third-place Calgary Stampeders meet the fourth-place Eskimos at Edmonton. On Monday it's Edmonton at Calgary and Vancouver at Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

In the east, Hamilton Tiger-Cats meet the Alouettes in Montreal in a game that will be beamed to the United States over the NBC's coast-to-coast television network. Ottawa Rough, Riders, who failed to win their first three games with the Argonauts at Toronto in the other one.

ORFU GAME

One game is scheduled in the Ontario Rugby Football Union. Sarnia Imperials go against Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen.

In the west, Stukus will have to ride without Arnie Weinmeister, the six-foot-four tackle who was rated as one of the top linemen in the United States football history. Weinmeister suffered a dislocated shoulder last weekend. Laur-

Niemi, 250 - pound tackle from Clarkston, Wash., will take his place.

The Lions have started mixing up their original single-wing with the T-formation plays. If they expect to pull a surprise it better be good. Tripucka and Isbell, who alternate at quarterback, have been hitting their receivers well. They have completed 64.4 per cent of their passes.

Montreal coach Doug (Peahead) Walker will use the same line-up against Hamilton that he used so effectively against Ottawa last Monday.

He will go with Chuck Hunsinger, former Chicago Bear star, at right half because of his two touchdown game against Ottawa. Hunsinger, Larry Grigg, the former Oklahoma half who scored the only touchdown in Oklahoma's win over Maryland in the Orange Bowl last season, will not see action.

"It's tough making this decision because I still think the world of Grigg," Walker said.

Argos aren't expected to make any switches. They defeated Rough Riders 13-8 in their Big Four opener two weeks ago and rushed Ottawa quarter Johnny Gramling, former South Carolina star, throughout the game.

Imperials are counting up on their scoring attack. The winner of Saturday's game takes over sole possession of the senior ORFU race. The Imps lost to Kitchener 19-17 last Saturday but beat Toronto Balmy Beach 24-0 Monday.

Frontenacs Will Remain With Quebec Circuit

QUEBEC (CP)—Quebec Frontenacs of the Quebec Junior Hockey League are no longer interested in playing an interlocking schedule with the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A league and have no intention of dropping from the Quebec circuit, president Emile Couture announced Thursday night.

Couture, who purchased 50 per cent of the club's stock for an undisclosed sum from Hon. Gerald Martineau and Martineau's son, Bobby, Wednesday, added the club has "no intention" of joining the Ontario league, as had been suggested earlier Thursday.

"First of all it would cost too much and secondly our plan is to promote hockey talent in Quebec City," he said. "To do this we must keep the team financially sound."

Martineau, a member of Quebec legislative council, said he sold his interest in the club because he would be "financial suicide" to operate Frontenacs in a four-team league.

COULD JOIN

Frontenacs were told earlier by Bob Lebel, president of the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association, that the QAHA would not object to Quebec's joining the OHA.

"We are not interested in operating in a four-club league," Martineau said in announcing sale of the block to Couture.

He added that the Quebec Junior League had its worst season financially last year despite participation of the Ontario clubs.

Other QJHL clubs are Montreal Canadiens, Trois Rivieres Reds and Joaquiere Marquis.

Rule Designed To Prevent Players Jump

TORONTO (CP)—The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association Thursday announced a rule change designed to prevent wholesale jumping of players to United States teams.

Bill Hanley, spokesman for the association, said the rule requires the transfer of any junior or senior A players be approved by the club president and secretary and by W. A. Hewitt, registrar-treasurer of the CAHA.

Before, one player of a team could transfer to the United States without obtaining a release.

The new rule, applying only to junior and senior A players, results from an agreement between the CAHA and the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States.

The agreement was made after three players, the Sarnia senior A team went to the U.S. to play last winter. Sarnia club officials charged that the players, Jim Wilson, Earl (Skippy) Frezell and Mac Beaton, had not been released. Their leaving was one of the reasons given by the Sarnia club for withdrawal from the OHA.

"It's going to clarify a situation that might have gotten out of hand and lead to raiding between clubs in the U.S. and Canada," Mr. Hanley said.

The three other Quebec teams had voted against playing an interlocking schedule with the Ontario teams after the Ontario clubs demanded $150 for each game played in Quebec City.

SPORT IN BRIEF

LONG SHOT STUNS CROWD

TORONTO (CP)—Flaming Babe scored a big stunning upset when she beat the odds on favorite, Libertine, in a photo finish and won the featured Listowel Plate at Woodbine Thursday. Flaming Babe paid $17.20, $7.20 and $5.00.

The relatively small place and show prices were caused by the fact that Libertine, which had been backed down to the prohibitive odds of one-to-three, finished in second position. Flaming Babe is owned and trained by Lionel Devaux, of Williamstown, Ont.

BARRED FROM TRACKS

CHICAGO (AP)—Harry Trotsek, trainer for the Hasty House Farm racing stable, was suspended Thursday from Illinois tracks for 30 days, retroactive to Aug. 25, in connection with the alleged stimulation of the horse Mister Black, winner of Washington Park's Grassland Handicap Aug. 14.

Suspended for 90 days, retroactive to Aug. 17 are Dr. Alex Hartill, a Louisville, Ky., veterinarian, who treated Mister Black for three days before the race, and before the Grassland Handicap, and Logan Fischer, an assistant trainer.

FINE WIFU PLAYERS

WINNIPEG (CP) — Two more players in the Western Interprovincial Football Union have been fined, bringing to six the number penalized in the still-young 1954 season. G. Sydney Halter, WIFU commissioner, announced Thursday night that fines of $25 each were imposed on quarterback Stan Heath of the Calgary Stampeders for his match penalty in the Stamps-B.C. Lions game at Calgary Sept. 4, and on tackle Roger Nelson of the Edmonton Eskimos for his match penalty in the Eskimos contest at Edmonton, Sept. 4.

TO COACH SENATORS

OTTAWA (CP)—George Boucher 61-year-old former National Hockey League coach and defence star, will coach Ottawa Senators of the Quebec Hockey League this season, T. F. Gorman, owner of the Senators, announced Thursday. Boucher succeeds Walter (Turk) Broda, former Toronto NHL netminder, who will coach Toronto Marlboro juniors this season.

LOUIS PICKS CHARLES

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis, who correctly picked Rocky Marciano to beat Ezzard Charles last June, favors Charles in the return bout next Wednesday. Said Louis Thursday: "Charles is getting the right kind of work from his sparmates. By that I mean they're boiling 'Ezz around and roughing him up. That's how Rocky fights, and in their first meeting 'Ezz didn't know how to handle the Champ."

CLEAR AIRMAN

BARRIE (CP) — A 20-year-old airman from RCAF station Edgar was acquitted Thursday on charges of manslaughter and dangerous driving. Cleared on both counts was LAC. Gregory D. Mcdonald, who was charged following the May 19 accident near the Edgar station north of here. LAC. Lloyd Barrett, 21, also from Edgar, died in the crash.

Hurricane Edna Roaring Toward New England

U.S. Coastal Areas Being Battened Down for Big Blow

NEW YORK (AP) — Hurricane Edna, more powerful than disastrous hurricane Carol, roared toward New England this morning as all United States coastal areas from the Virginia capes to Maine grimly battened down for the big blow.

Facing northward at about 30 miles an hour, the full fury of the hurricane's 125-mile-an-hour core was expected to blast the lower New England states before noon. At 5 a.m. EDT the storm was centered about 100 miles east southeast of Norfolk, Va., with hurricane-force winds extending 150 miles and gales extending outward some 200 miles.

EXTEND WARNINGS

Boston's weather forecaster, who Friday night urged parts of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island to take immediate precautions against "abnormally" high tides and hurricane winds," today extended hurricane warnings north to Portland in Eastport in Maine.

The Boston bureau added, "It will hit the Connecticut-Rhode Island coast line a few hours after daybreak."

The New York weather bureau said "it seems quite certain that the New York City area and southeastern New Jersey will have winds no higher than strong to occasionally gale force."

However, the bureau said winds "close to hurricane force" would strike the eastern end of Long Island.

New Englanders still are digging out of the debris caused by hurricane Carol, which took 16 lives and left millions of dollars of property damage Aug. 31.

EVACUATE COAST

But more warnings were provided against the onslaught of Edna, the season's fifth Atlantic hurricane, and all east coast communities had been digging in in advance of it. Scores of coastal areas were evacuated as the storm advanced up the coast. Hotels were crowded as householders boarded up their homes and sought refuge further inland.

Some villagers sought refuge in lighthouses and coast guard stations.

In New York, the New Haven Railroad announced that three trains in the Cape Cod area had been cancelled and others run the risk of carrying passengers in that area during the height of the hurricane.

WARN SHIPPING

Friday, Coast Guard planes and helicopters began warning New York's coastal waters and dropped hurricane warning messages by radio. Vessels anchored in New York harbor had their moorings doubled.

Some radio and TV stations in the area put on all-night and all-day broadcasting hurricane information.

New York City put its hospitals, subways, police and other departments on a 24-hour basis to be ready for any wind damage.

MAY HALT MEASLES

LONDON (Reuters)—Sir Alexander Fleming, discoverer of penicillin, said Friday that an experimental work is being conducted which might lead to the extinction of measles and similar diseases.

American Horse, 'Never Say Die', Wins St. Leger

DONCASTER, England (AP) — Robert Sterling Clark's Never Say Die won the St. Leger stakes today, to become the first American-owned and bred horse since 1881 to take both the English Derby and St. Leger prizes in the same year.

Elopement was second in the final classic race of the English flat season. Extremadur was third in the field of 16.

Odds on the American horse were 10 to 3. Elopement was a 22-to-1 choice and Extremadur was 100 to 6.

The race was over a mile, six furlongs and 132 yards.

Value of the race was £13,412 to Clark, the owner and breeder; Jean Upperville, Va. Second and third money were £1,585 and £792.

Nova Scotia Woman Wins $43,000 Prize

MONTREAL (CP)—Mrs. Norman Larrette of Maccan, N.S., today won $43,000 in a sweepstake staged on the St. Lawrence skiban at Doncaster, Eng.

Barbara Barker, Edmonton, won $25,000 and Al Socio, Montreal, $17,000.

The sweepstake was sponsored by the Quebec Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans Association.

Mr. Ben Feather, 83 Purdy St., held a ticket on "Blue Sail". Mr. Feather will receive a share of two pools totalling $13,000 for horses which failed to place on start.

Security Council Takes No Action On Plane Shooting

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Nations Security Council adjourned Friday night without taking action on an invitation to go into the shooting down of an American bomber off Siberia by Russia fighters Sept. 4.

Henry Cabot Lodge, chief United States delegate, said Russia's acting chief Y. Vishinsky engaged in a bitter exchange. Vishinsky served notice that the Soviet Union would refuse to allow the Security Council to conduct any investigation into the plane incident, no matter what the council said about his right or vote against an investigation.

The Soviet delegate also denied Lodge's charges that his government claimed the right to shoot down planes over the open sea. He said the Neptune bomber, out on a weather patrol when it was shot down, was over Soviet territory. He added that Russia will defend its territory against any "peeping planes," and that other countries also have asserted they have the right to shoot down planes over their territory.

Lodge argued to the council that the plane was over international ocean territory, and since other members of the council "do not" accepted his statement. Lodge suggested that the World Court take over adjudication of the dispute which he said was the latest of a pattern of unprovoked attacks on American planes since 1950.

THE WEATHER

TORONTO. (CP) — Synopsis: It now appears that hurricane Edna will follow a path similar to that of hurricane Carol and strike the Atlantic coast near the eastern end of Long Island. The lull in rain from this storm is expected to affect the eastern sections of Ontario and leave the southwestern area in the clear with the Toronto area dividing line between the two types of weather.

By Sunday morning, Edna will be over the Gulf of St. Lawrence and cool, sunny weather will prevail over the whole province. . . .

N.S. LIBERALS ELECT YOUNGEST LEADER IN CANADA

Name Education Head After 5 Ballots Taken

By IRVING C. WHYNOT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX (CP)—Nova Scotia's Liberal party, in power for 75 of the last 77 years since Confederation, has a new leader today and for the job they picked a man who will be the youngest premier in Canada.

Henry Davies Hicks, education minister under the late premier Angus L. Macdonald, was elected at a party convention Friday on the fifth ballot, the final one against Premier Robert Farnhill Connolly.

At 39, the Oxford-educated Henry Hicks steps into the role of premier at the same age as Mr. Macdonald who died in April made the convention necessary.

GIVES WARNING

He accepted the job with a warning that while the party has a fine record to the past "we have no plan with imagination for the future."

"Otherwise," he said, "I feel the people will not continue to support us in office."

While there was speculation before the convention that a general election call by Premier Connolly, the naming of a new leader, none of the speakers mentioned it.

Mr. Hicks and Fielding, municipal affairs minister and a candidate for the leadership, spoke of the general election "which will not come soon."

THREE FRIENDS

Besides Mr. Connolly and Mr. Fielding, three others also contested the leadership. They included Minister A. W. Mackenzie, Attorney - General Malcolm Patterson and Hector Hill, a Truro town councillor.

All had said previously they would stand.

Mr. Hicks, a one-time school teacher, was a Rhodes scholar and has been a member of the legislature since he was first elected in 1945 at the age of 30. Four years later he was appointed cabinet minister and became the youngest cabinet minister in Canada. In 1953 he also became provincial secretary.

Present standing in the legislature is Liberals 20, Progressive Conservatives 12, CCF two and vacant three.

Ordered for Trial, Refused Bail

SHERBROOKE, Que. (CP) — David Fish, 43, a Brantford, Ont., truck driver, was ordered held for jury trial in October on charges of taking part in last week's $23,000 payroll robbery at the Dallaire Knitting Co. here.

Judge Joseph Marier refused Fish bail.

Fish, formerly of Sherbrooke, is one of four men charged with the armed holdup. Albert Peters, alias Sterling, 39, of Coburg, Ont., and Charles Armstrong, alias Pilon, 26, of Montreal, pleaded guilty Tuesday to the charges.

The men were arrested in a Montreal night-club Sept. 4, a day after three men knocked out the gatekeeper of the Kayser plant here and fled with the payroll envelopes bringing the payroll to the plant.

Eisenhower Is Facing New Problem, Finds He Has to Work at Relaxing

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower is having to work at relaxing these days, which for him is something of a job.

All during the last dozen years, through all the high tension of the Second World War, the building of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the presidency of the United States, Eisenhower's chief delight was to get away from it all for a few hours has amazed friends.

They have had time and again of how while on the golf course, or sketching, he seemed to be able to forget completely for 15 holes all the troubles of the day.

And those who watched him in a Colorado trout stream just two weeks ago could see he was at his worries over world problems slip away for that time being.

Such things as golf and fishing and bridge and an hour with his easel and oil paints still relax the president, and he has been turning to all of those hobbies since he arrived here over the week as "work and play" vacation Aug. 21.

But his friends say that this summer is his first in 20 years he can take it easy and put his cares and responsibility out of mind.

The first two weeks of his stay here were perhaps busier in some respects than those he spent in the White House in Washington. For one thing, the big farm bill was being passed by Congress during the closing days of the session.

Then, too, the president has complained to one visitor that his golf game has suffered as he had been unable to concentrate on it.

To help him relax, the president and Mrs. Eisenhower have entertained a group of old friends at a Wednesday night cowboy party at the Lazy B ranch.

Most of the officers arrested were suspected by of junior rank, and intelligence sources said no attempt to take over the country was plotted.

Canada Embarks on Biggest Foreign Policy Venture

By DAVE McINTOSH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada is embarked on the biggest foreign policy venture in its history—participating on the Indochina truce commission.

This country has played various roles before in international affairs but, generally speaking, they have been minor, at least in peacetime. Now Canada is in the middle of the push-and-pull of the cold war. One official said: "It could be a umpire in Indochina. And who loves an umpire?"

The foundation for this landmark in Canadian foreign policy was laid at Geneva July 20 when the French Union forces and Communist Vietminh signed an armistice which, in part, set up a three-country international commission to supervise the truce in the former associated states of Indochina—Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia. Canada agreed to go on the three commissions with India, the chairman, and Poland.

Officials here say there is no end to the number of arguments which may crop up among the commission members in the next two years. In fact, the first meeting is scheduled to be held and the Indochinese will decide between themselves the composition of the members.

Authorities say the armistice agreements for the three states were written so hastily to meet French Premier Mendes-France's July 20 deadline for an Indochina truce that they are not precise. Many terms are not spelled out and interpretation is left in many cases to the supervisory commission.

There are separate armistice agreements and separate commissions for each of the states, but the commissions are expected to work together through a secretariat.

The armistice terms are carried out by the two armies themselves. The international commissions merely supervise and do not have the power or the personnel to enforce the truce.

This supervision includes controlling the regrouping movement of the two armies; supervision of the ten armistice lines between the regroupment areas and demilitarized zone; controlling the operations of prisoner-of-war exchanges; and regulation of introduction in the state of armed forces and war materials.

The main work load is carried by the mobile inspection teams, comprising equal number of Canadian, Indian and Polish. If there is disagreement within the teams, a report by each member is submitted to the international commission.

Recommendations of the international commission to the two armies are accepted by majority vote —if Canada and Poland disagree, India casts the deciding vote.

In no case, officials say if it still too early to foresee how the work of the Communist side will go. Much will depend on goodwill because there are any number of loopholes into which arguments and stalling tactics can be driven. Complicating any break is always the possibility that the Communists may co-operate in the hope of lulling the West into a false sense of security.

Some of the problems entailed broke loose when the 16-year-old Queen of the Swim crossed the Strathcona reservoir, 23,000 bar gathered. And by the time she reached the grandstand steps before 20,000 more, spontaneous applause rocked the cool night air.

WINNERS

Graciously Marilyn accepted it all—gifts and applause, popping flash bulbs and whirring movie cameras—seemingly unaware that it was she who towered in all directions.

Humbly she thanked everyone who had "prayed for me and pulled for me." Her parents, she said "Canadians are the most wonderful people in the world."

Behind on the back of the seat of her own convertible—a baby-blue English-model car presented to her by six businessmen firm here—for the half-mile ride through thousands to the band shell.

There Mr. Saunders presented a $10,000 cheque on behalf of the CNE and $40,000 more in cash and prizes. Mayor Dan Lang brought a Hamilton radio station CHML by the public, the automobile, a diamond ring and a diamond watch, thousands of dollars in services, appliances, furniture, lingerie, perfumes, television sets—even a year's supply of soft water. Total in cash was more than $20,000.

When the celebration was ended at the bandshell, she had given three cheers and a tiger, Marilyn promised to her bobby-sox fans and in her church choir Sunday, then parade on Monday before returning to school.

MASSEY-HARRIS STRIKE TIES UP TORONTO PLANT

2,800 Workers Walk Out Early Today

TORONTO (CP)—A wage walkout of nearly 2,800 workers tied up the largest plant of the Massey-Harris-Ferguson farm implement manufacturing company here early today.

The United Automobile Workers (CIO-CCL) called the strike at 1 a.m. EDT after union officials said the company refused a request to extend the deadline it had set for cancellation of union privileges if a settlement in their contract dispute wasnot reached.

The strike does not affect about 1,400 workers at the company's two plants in Brantford and Woodstock. Workers there have temporarily accepted an Ontario conciliation board's report which recommended no wage increases.

The Toronto workers demand an hourly boost of 19 cents an hour. Average hourly rate now is $1.77.

NO INCIDENTS

There were no incidents as the strike call went into effect at the plant in west Toronto. The company manufactures such items as farm implements, harrows, drills, hay balers and cultivators.

Company officials said Friday night they would not attempt to operate any section of the plant because anything was normally done by hourly-rated employees. Some salaried employees and office employeesare members of the rival U.S.-based United Electrical Labor. The UAW said these men will be allowed to enter the plant.

A memorandum issued by the UAW voted Thursday night to go on strike if privileges were cancelled.

WON'T WORK

George Burt, Canadian director of the union, said: "The idea of cancelling a contract is an entirely new one in our experience. The workers will not work without one."

He said that such an act exposed union leaders in the plant to discrimination by the company, and the guarantees that the union had under the agreement for years would be either eliminated or at the discretion of the company.

A company spokesman said union negotiators were told that it had already given them two extra days' grace. But the union plea would be changed at the end of the extension and the union said it might not be, the spokesman added.

100,000 Communist Soldiers Poised in Quemoy Region

By SPENCER MOOSA

QUEMOY (AP) — The Communists have an army of 100,000 Russian-equipped soldiers—up to 40,000 of them Korean War veterans—massed within 9 miles of this tiny Chinese Nationalist island lying just off the Red mainland coast.

However, the commander of 30,000 Nationalist defenders says he has no doubt each of the Reds will risk an invasion of this island which has been the target of a month of "vest pocket war" since Sept. 3.

A group of 36 Chinese and Japanese correspondents flew here from Taipeh Friday for a one-day visit with Nationalist army and air force plane trouble.

The reporters watched Nationalist big guns bombard the mainland a few miles to the west, as Nationalist planes attacked Communist Formosa strait to rain bombs on Amoy and other Red bases for the sixth straight day.

The Nationalists defense minister in Taipeh said Friday planes again teamed up with warships to hammer artillery positions on the Communist mainland. Targets were bombarded Quemoy and nearby Little Quemoy.

A special communique said Nationalist planes destroyed seven army strongpoints at Liuchu Island, a satellite of the big base at Amoy, and destroyed three barracks at White Stone Fortress.

Nationalist warships poured dense smoke rolling up 2,000 feet over the Amoy area, the communique said.

In six days of attacks the Nationalist air force said it has not been challenged by Communist fighters.

The Communist artillery at Liuchu Peiping said one Nationalist plane was shot down and one was damaged in the fighting Friday, the Reds said. The broadcast said two waves of Nationalist planes dropped nine bombs.

Gen. Liu Yu-Chuang, Nationalist commander on Quemoy, said the Communist artillery has not been effective. "Our troops are determined on victory. The enemy's shelling has suffered so much that he might not dare invade," said Gen. Liu. "This is why he has resorted to shelling because they would like to have a chance to engage and defeat the Communist bandits."

500 Iranian Army Officers Are Arrested for Aiding Reds

TEHRAN, Iran (Reuters)—Iranian security police have arrested a major ury ring of armed forces officers working for the pro-Communist Tudeh party, an official announcement said today.

The announcement, by Brig.-Gen. Teymour Bakhtiar, military governor of Tehran, said widespread arrests showed the Tudeh party had penetrated the army and menaced the allegiance of many officers.

He said treason trials were being prepared. Officers' circles put the number arrested at more than 500. Army, air force and police officers holding trusted positions in the Shah of Iran's personal entourage, Gen. Fazulla Zahedi, were reported involved in the Communist spy network.

The military governor warned that espionage in Iran's armed forces and security service is still going on, and said it is growing stronger.

Most of the officers arrested were reported to be of junior rank, and intelligence sources said no attempt to take over the country was plotted.

Buffalo News Pays Tribute To Marilyn Bell

BUFFALO (CP) — The Buffalo Evening News said Friday that Marilyn Bell's swim across Lake Ontario was "a dramatic, suspenseful event."

"It isn't to be wondered that Canadians from Halifax to Vancouver took a personal and emotional stake today," said a news editorial, commenting on Thursday's feat by the 16-year-old Toronto girl.

"All she had said she wanted was to "Show what a 16-year-old girl can do," and perceived Marilyn Bell deserves all the kudos and honors her fellow countrymen bestow. On this side of the border we're as proud as any Canadian to claim her as a neighbor."

Fifty Beautiful Girls Enter Last Round to Pick an All-Miss America

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)— Fifty beautiful girls today entered the last round of competition to pick the fairest of them all—Miss America of 1955.

While the judges went into a huddle to weigh the points gained by the contestants in preliminary battles, the girls strutted in the final minutes of beauty and talent which will win the coveted title and one of them the prize of $30,000 in awards.

Before the winner leading the field after Friday night, vicors in bathing suit and talent contests, and other points in evening gown competition, not yet announced, was picked from the top 15 in each circle of 10 semi-finalists tonight. Miss Canada, 21-year-old Barbara Ann Marchiam of Cornwall, Ont., hasn't yet been mentioned in the nightly awards. A five-foot-six dark brunette, she paints as a hobby and has entered some of her art in the talent part of the competition.

The judges, faced with the difficult choice of narrowing the field, will leave only five finalists and Labor Day tonight one of them will be chosen as Miss America.

The annual pageant, which has been plagued by weather since it opened in a rainstorm last Tuesday night, was held to a trickle even if hurricane Edna damaged the Boardwalk boardwalk, in which the selections are made, is situated away from the ocean front.

A crowd of about 2,000—less than half the usual audience—turned out Friday night to watch the parade of pulchritude pass along the Boardwalk, a concrete strip of boardwalk, a forerunner of hurricane Edna, held down the number of spectators.

Marilyn Takes First Public Bows Before 150,000 Persons

Still Tired and Confused By Acclaim Accorded Her

By JIM PEACOCK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — A bumble blonde girl, still tired and too confused by the excitement she created to know what to say, took her first public bows Friday night before more than 150,000 persons.

Tension and emotion were apparent everywhere as Marilyn Bell rallied on the Canadian National Exhibition waterfront 23 hours after the completion of a 21-hour 40-minute cross chill Lake Ontario.

The 50,000 persons lining the shore, many of whom had been there the night before only to see Marilyn finish two miles down the waterfront and then be whisked away to seclusion, couldn't decide to cheer out loud. A few voiced their feelings; everyone clapped.

Some of the pressing emotion broke loose when the 16-year-old Queen of the Swim mounted the bandshell where 23,000 had gathered. And by the time she reached the grandstand steps before 20,000 more, spontaneous applause rocked the cool night air.

WINNERS

Guild's Director, Robert Christie, Talks to Members

"Confessions of a Canadian Actor", was the subject chosen by distinguished actor-director, Robert Christie, for his pleasantly informal address to Belleville Theatre Guild, on the opening fall meeting of the Guild in Queen Victoria School. It was well-attended by eighty members—old and new.

Mr. Christie, resident director of the Guild's forthcoming production of "The Enchanted", held his audience spell-bound with his reminiscences of twenty years on the professional stage, which ranged from the dark and desperate "thirties" in Canada's earliest professional theatre, through his widening efforts on the London and continental stage to the present great days of the Stratford Shakespeare Festivals.

Most interesting of all was Mr. Christie's exposition of the vast new freedom of Stratford's theatre-in-the-round and the evolution of a uniquely Canadian trend in theatre, which may develop therefrom. He drew a vivid picture of a time when players may come to depend entirely upon their voices and movements and may be enabled to present their plays in the centres or arenas, in public squares or, as in ancient time, in the doorways of churches. This great new freedom of the stage, stated Mr. Christie, may well be developed by the Canadian professional theatre.

At the conclusion of the meeting a "coffee-break" was followed by casting for "The Enchanted." Mr. Christie briefly familiarized the prospective players with their vehicle, and proceeded to hear readings by a considerable number of very interested candidates for acting parts in his production.

James Gordenier Shoots Bear Near Village

MARMORA — A bear upsetting and destroying some bee hives at Ryan's Corners, north of the village, fell to the rifle of James Gordenier of the village on Tuesday morning. The animal had been stirred up over Bruin's antics and when it came within near approach to their hives was pounced upon by several men, who, granted under any circumstances, were no weaklings, caught sight of the bear a short distance away, almost hidden in some bushes and caught it in a trap. He had to return home for his gun. One shot in the head was sufficient to dispose of the bear, a two-year-old weighing between 150 and 200 pounds.

Streets Turned Into Lakes By Deluge Friday Evening

The downtown section of the city was turned into a virtual lake Friday evening as threatening skies suddenly opened and dumped an inch or rain over the area in slightly more than half an hour.

Merchants' basements were flooded as storm sewers were totally inadequate to handle the deluge and sewers in many residential sections of the city backed up with resulting flooded cellars and basements.

The deluge started a few minutes before the nine o'clock closing of downtown stores and many shoppers and store personnel were caught in the downpour. Vehicular traffic was brought almost to a standstill as windshield wipers failed to clear water from windshields and visibility was cut to zero.

Officials at the city pump house stated today that a total of 1.08 inches of rain fell in a four hour period. One inch of rain fell during the downpour, however.

PEDESTRIANS GO BAREFOOT

During the height of the storm the downtown section of the city had every appearance of a lake as water flowed up over the curbs and sidewalks in many streets. Pedestrians were observed to take off their shoes and socks and wade barefoot in the deluge. Cars were parked at the curbs were up to

Industrial Position of Small Towns Improves Says Expert

OTTAWA (CP)—The industrial position of small towns must be improved if Canada is to continue to grow and expand, an Ontario trade and industry expert said today.

F. J. Lyle of the Ontario planning and industrial development told the annual conference of the Institute of Public Administration that cities of less than 25,000 population have not been receiving a fair share of new industries.

Larger towns and cities were organized to find industrialists to open new plants and factories. Smaller centres found it almost impossible to raise the money needed for an industrial development program.

The small centres must receive fresh help from some other source, Mr. Lyle told the annual conference of the institute.

An example of this type of two-way help was the formation of the Eastern Ontario Development Association, following a period of unemployment in the area's textiles and farm implement industries.

The association of cities and small towns hired one of Mr. Lyle's field experts from the trade and industry branch and prepared plans for the industrialization of the area at a meeting last June. The provincial government has pledged $10,000 a year to the association in offering to match similar program in other regions of the province. Mr. Lyle said. While such organizations were not the full answer to the maintenance of a hard and fast industrial growth, they would help bring new industries from abroad.

Mr. Lyle said that last year out of 136 new Ontario industries, 110 were established in cities of 10,000 or more population. The figure of 26 new industries in small towns was considered a good indication of decentralization.

Trophy Donated To Memory Of Gordon Dorland

GORDON DORLAND

Singular tribute has been paid to the memory of Gordon Dorland, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dorland, Wellington, Ont., who was the victim of a drowning fatality in Windsor a short time ago.

The Ford Motor Company through its Office Softball League has donated a "Gordon Dorland Memorial Trophy" to be awarded annually to the league's most valuable player.

A university graduate who received his early education in Wellington, Gordon Dorland had been employed with the Ford Company for approximately a year prior to his untimely passing. He was an expert swimmer, and is believed to have taken a tramp after diving into the Detroit river in sight of a party of friends.

Gordon won an official batting championship of the Ford Softball League in 1953 with an average of .466. He played for the "V-8's" team.

Construction Head Urges Winter Building Jobs

ST. ANDREWS, N.B. (CP)—Raymond Brunet, president of the Canadian Construction Association, urged today that greater efforts be made by industry and government to provide more jobs for construction workers during the off-season winter months.

The Hull, Que., builder told a maritime regional meeting of the association that in the last few years strides made in recent years to do more building in the winter, seasonal unemployment is as pronounced as ever.

"On the average, there are more than 25 per cent fewer construction men working in February than in the peak month of September," Mr. Brunet said.

His speech was prepared in advance and made available to the press before delivery.

NEEDED CO-OPERATION

To get better timing in construction operations requires the co-operation mainly of the builders, architects and consulting engineers engaged in the projects, Mr. Brunet observed. Both industrialists and the federal government have a responsibility in smoothing out seasonal fluctuations in the industry.

Labor Minister Gregg had recently announced that federal public works would be timed to provide "the maximum amount of employment during the winter months." The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has set up a committee to study similar action on industrial projects.

Winter work often is not as expensive as is commonly believed, Mr. Brunet said. Contractors frequently quote lower prices during the slack season. Better supervision and planning often is possible as material and labor supplies are more plentiful.

Clogged Storm Sewer Dumps Water Into Several Stores

Front street merchants in the Front and Bridge street section with store doors at sidewalk level had a few anxious moments during last night's deluge of rain, which dumped over an inch of rain in the district.

A clogged storm sewer directly at the corner was believed responsible for most of the trouble. Water mounted over the sidewalks and poured through sidewalk grates into basements.

At Ireland's Appliances the water rose over the sidewalk and ran in the front door of the store to a depth of an inch to an inch-and-a-half. Store employees and customers grabbed brooms and swept the water back out the street door. The water penetrated to about half way back the store. Ireland's basement was flooded to a depth of at least a foot in the deepest part. The water poured through a sidewalk grate into the basement.

The same was true at the Dominion Bank with the street grate acting as a funnel for the water which mounded over the sidewalk. Some water ran from the bank basement into that of Schryver's Drug Store although no damage of stock was reported.

The same was true at the Dominion Bank where water rose to at least two-and-a-half feet and seeped through into Schryver's Drug Store basement. No damage to stock there is reported although some of this had been moved to prevent damage.

There was no damage at the Sally Shop but at Stroud's the water poured over the sill through the front door. It did not pour through the sidewalk grate but through the sidewalk area and ran directly into the basement and store manager Joseph Blackburn said he and other store personnel worked hard moving stock to prevent damage.

Across the street at Paul Mercier's Jewellery store water rose to a depth of six inches in the basement but no damage was reported.

At the Capitol Theatre two to three feet of water came into the basement but pumps had it out again by midnight.

Restrooms beneath the city hall were flooded by the rain.

Murder Case Expected to Go To Jury Soon

WOODSTOCK (CP)—The case of Velibor Rajic, charged with murder in the June 10 stabbing of Mrs. Ernest Boyd, 37, is expected to go to the jury today.

All evidence was in by late Friday afternoon and Mr. Justice John L. Wilson said he will charge the jury Saturday morning when Ontario Supreme Court hearing resumes.

Rajic, 34-year-old unemployed woodworker, has been on trial since Wednesday.

Defence counsel W. R. Marshall of Ingersoll said today three witnesses in the three-day hearing: Rajic, Dr. Lebert Harris, a Toronto psychiatrist, and Vinko Brajevis, an acquaintance of Rajic.

TOLD OF INTERVIEW

Dr. Harris told the court of an interview with Rajic in county jail Aug. 31. He described Rajic as a schizoid personality, a person who makes few friends and keeps to himself.

He said he felt Rajic may have been in a state of pathological intoxication June 10. A person, while under the influence of alcohol, will go into a state of removal from his surroundings and while in this state sometimes commits bizarre hostile acts. This person would not be aware of what he was doing or remember anything afterward.

Western Powers Rebuff Russia's Move for Parley

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S., Britain and France have presented a united front to Russia on controlling West Germany, even though they still are divided and uncertain over how to make it a reality.

What was regarded as Russia's latest move to sidetrack German rearmament and exploit Western disunity was the collapse of the European Defence Community project was rebuffed Friday by the three Western powers in decidedly firm notes.

The notes had called for a Big Four foreign ministers' meeting to set up a Europe-wide security system which is regarded as an alternative to the now-defunct Western EDC plan for integration of West German troops in a European army. The Soviet Union suggested that the Big Four ministers discuss at the same time tackle outstanding German problems.

The Soviet demanded that the Soviet Union reverse itself on two major points—and no one really expected the Russians to do that.

Russia was told security in Europe can be established only about by the signature of a general treaty of the kind proposed by the Soviet Union, a treaty that would embrace Communist and free countries alike.

Such security can only result, the notes said, from solution of especially difficult issues "of which first pressing" are German and Austrian treaties.

Furthermore, Russia was told, the West will not consider modifying its treaty with the North Atlantic Alliance.

The West told Russia the only basis for substantial contribution to European security by joining effforts toward "an acceptable and effective agreement" on disarmament and the abolition of atomic and hydrogen weapons.

A Lift For Living

Are We Missing Too Much?

By DR. RALPH W. SOCKMAN

We do not like to miss any good thing that is going on, do we?

Watch people on their vacations. They go to a pleasure resort or to a big city where many things are going on. They want to see it all and they try to crowd every possible pleasure into the brief time of their stay.

We often feel we are missing something in our work. We live today in a society of specialization. We immerse ourselves in our own occupations in order to get ahead. Thus we come to know our own lines but become too busy to lift our eyes to general patterns of living.

The result of such specilization is, as Alfred Noyes has said, that we are misled by small clever minds, that is, minds which know their own field but are unlife in general.

One of the high functions of religion is to stand where the specialties meet and lift people's thinking from their lines of work "to see life steadily and see it whole."

What broad and varied interests are involved in religion! Some people think that to be religious means a narrowing of one's life and a missing of the pleasures of living. Others think of religious activities as social extras, things people may do if they like that sort of thing, but hardly vital enough for busy practical people like themselves.

BUSY DAY

If there be any reader who thinks of religion as narrow, may I just tear a leaf from a minister's diary for a typical day? In the morning I sat with a board of directors deciding on some gifts of money to colleges, churches and students. Next came an interview with a committee which is founding a religious organization to combat Communism. Following that was a hour of letter writing to correspondents who had asked advice on all sorts of life situations. Then came a visit from an anguished father asking for aid for a boy caught in the net of the law and now confined.

After that came some problems confronting our city churches. Next a representative of the World Council of Churches reported on the work being done by the churches among refugees in Europe and the Near East. The last interview was to arrange a wedding.

GREATNESS OF CHRISTIANITY

I have indulged in this personal account in order to show how one brief day the Christian faith touches almost every area of human interest. Is it not amazing beyond human explanation that a Christian movement began back in Palestine, embodied vital elements of its great Hebrew heritage, and has enlarged down the centuries until it touches all aspects of life and all parts of the earth? Let us lift our eyes to behold the greatness of it all.

We have all been reading about the world Council of Churches at Evanston, Ill. I was there as a delegate and I had my eyes opened to many aspects and activities of religion which I had been missing. God's work is far bigger business than many of us in the ministry realize. And if any young person thinks the ministry in his or her neighborhood is "small potatoes," let him remember that the Christian church has executed the Caesars to become the vastest organization in the world.

Here are some words whose sound makes life seem larger:-As they roll through the chambers of the mind they give a sense of spaciousness. They were used by Saint Paul: "We are the children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God." Great words, aren't they?

UP FROM THE JUNGLE

When I consider how God has led children from the jungle of savagery to the arts of music and painting, how He has lifted them from the muddy cave of the head-hunter to the glorious symmetry of St. Vitus Cathedral, how the adoration of God has given birth to the great architecture, I begin to wonder if I may not be missing much of the best that life has in store for me of God's beirs.

When I think of the great poets who have chanted "sermons in stones and books in running brooks" and of the prophets who have caught visions of truth beyond the crowd, I feel that I am using only a fraction of my brain to get the truth which God has made available to me.

At this season when we are returning from vacations to work, let's plan a little better to live life steadily and see it whole."

tells him.

JUST PLAYTHINGS

Visitors sometimes give a little child a nickel or dime A young-ster may regard them coins the same as other playthings. He soon learns that he must not lose them; and that mother and daddy place money in a special class. A small boy who has been allowed to play with keys and other small trinkets in his mother's purse, opens it, from curiosity, and sets out the money from her coin purse. As he is busy spreading it on the floor, he is surprised to find how much his mother is that he has touched the money!

What are some practical suggestions which parents can try out in teaching their child the value and wise use of money? A child can only learn to use money well by experience just as he learns to write by writing, or play the piano by practicing on it.

Around the time he is old enough to count, to keep track of coppers and nickles and dimes, he should be given a regular weekly allowance. The amount depends on the father's income, the child's age, experience, the average amount his chums have to spend in a week. A six or seven year old might be given five or ten cents a week.

LITTLE VALUE

The little child should not be forced to "keep accounts." If this appeals to him, well and good. But there is little value in forcing him to write down his expenditures. The essence of an allowance is that it is the child's own money, to be spent as he wishes—not to be taken away from him as a punishment and he should not be pressed to put part of it aside in order to save! A small child has little interest in long term saving. But gradually he learns to forego today's pleasure in a ten cent balloon in order to buy a thirty-nine cent book he wants.

It is not easy to make provision for younger public school children to earn money at home. There is always the problem that "if a boy is paid for carrying out ashes or shoveling a walk or mowing a lawn or a girl is given money for dusting, or washing dishes or making beds, the son or daughter in the house will come to think that they need never help with work unless they are paid. A child should have certain regular tasks as a member of the Home, in order to help Mummy or Daddy and other special jobs which he can do or not as he likes, for a certain sum of money.

ENCOURAGED TO EARN

An older boy or girl should be encouraged to experience real earning in the outside world, by delivering papers, running errands, delivering parcels, cutting grass, minding children. As he grows his allowance should be increased and the range of things he covers made larger. A collegiate student's allowance and earning should cover most of his amusements, incidentals and a good many of his clothing purchases as well.

An adolescent can decide on goals such as buying a new bicycle or a trip or going to camp, which require a considerable sum and use the necessary self-denial to save towards these ends. Learning to use money is a long, slow process—it is something some adults never learn. A child must be allowed to make his own mistakes, but he can be himself like things money can buy—and also be taught to use in life which money cannot buy.

BULLETINS FROM BIRDLAND

BIG, BLACK, AND BOLD

Well known in the Old World, the magpie is a bird of the open American and Canadian plains, coming regularly to our central prairie provinces As far north as Lake Winnipeg. Occasionally it visits Northern Ontario but rarely farther east. The story goes that in 1870 some European magpies were brought from England and released at Levis, south of Quebec City. If so, they surely must have petered out.

Easy enough to believe that a magpie is a relative of the crow and of both our jays, it is harder to think of it as belonging to the same family as the famous Bird of Paradise, Nevertheless, it is strikingly looking with its large masses of black and white, and a wedge-shaped tail that uses up half the total length of 20 inches. In flight it also looks graceful.

The magpie is equipped similarly to the two hawks, sharp-pointed bill, cooper's, with long tail and short, rounded wings. This doubtless explains their cut-out results and tastes. All prey on mice and other small rodents, small birds, and insects. Crickets, grasshoppers, grubs, and larvae are all eaten by the magpie, which also has a liking for things as diverse as snakes, eggs and berries.

This bird has a tendency to attack wounded creatures, as cattle just branded, going for the open sores. Stout feet, and a long, thick bill with bristle-like tufts of feathers near the nostrils are aids in getting meals.

Stories of Famous Hymns

by HORACE B. POWELL

WHAT MUST IT BE TO BE THERE?

We speak of the land of the blest,
A country so bright, and so fair,
And oft are its glories confest,
But what must it be to be there?

We speak of its pathways of gold,
Its walls decked with jewels so rare,
Its wonders and pleasures untold,
But what must it be to be there?

We speak of its peace and its love,
The robes which the glorified wear,
The songs of the blessed above,
But what must it be to be there?

We speak of its freedom from sin,
From sorrow, temptation and care,
From trials without and within,
But what must it be to be there?

Do Thou, Lord, midst pleasures or woe,
For heaven our spirits prepare,
Then shortly we also shall know,
And feel what it is to be there!

THERE?

Elizabeth Mills' longing for Heaven, expressed in this hymn which was a favorite in nineteenth century gospel song books, was satisfied less than three weeks after she finished her verses.

Mrs. Mills, a young Englishwoman whose husband was a member of parliament, was only 24 when she died. Her song of Heaven, inspired by some Bible verses which she had been reading, became one of the most popular hymns of the day. Children sang it in Sunday School everywhere. Parents found it a favorite in prayer-meetings and evangelistic services.

Philip Phillips, the famous "singing Pilgrim" who compiled 23 collections of sacred music during his lifetime, carried it with him on his gospel singing tours—in America, and in Europe and Australia. Shortly before his death, on June 23, 1875 in Delaware, Ohio, he wrote to a friend: "You see that I am still in the land of the dying. Why I linger so long is to me a problem. The precious Saviour is more to me than ever I expected when I was well. Often during the night lessons I have real visions; I am walking on the banks of the Beautiful River, and getting glimpses of the bright Beyond. The lines that come most often to me are these:

"We speak of the land of the blest,
A country so bright and so fair,
And oft are its glories confest,
But what must it be to be there?"

Give Me A Dime

BY NANCY CLEAVER

"Give me a dime, Dad!"

"Susie and I want ice cream cones, Mummy!"

"I want money for a movie,"

Requests for money for good things to eat, for toys, for movies and new clothes, all these have a very familiar sound in the ears of modern parents. "Money, money, our children are always after money! Can't you do something about it?" a father irritably asks his wife.

"What can I do about it? his wife answers.

The subject of a child and money is no easy one for parents today. One difficulty is that boys and girls, particularly those in cities and towns have all kinds of opportunities for spending money long before they have had any real experience in earning money. As soon as a child is old enough to go into stores with his mother, he observes her opening her purse and parting with money in exchange for desirable objects. She explains to him that he must not lift a toy car off the counter and go off with it. "Mummy must give the clerk the money for it," she

A DANGEROUS DEVICE

The editor of the Paisley Advocate has been talking with the conservation officer in his district and has learned that "it is illegal to carry a gun of any kind in a car any day after sundown, or any time on Sunday, unless the firearm is in a case."

"It is a little known law, but one which will be enforced by conservation officers," the Advocate reports.

We do not know whether conservation officers in this district intend to enforce this law and we have no intention of inquiring. This is a case where it is best to let sleeping dogs lie.

We do know, however, that the poor conservation officer is going to be damned if he does enforce it and damned if he does not.

The Advocate lists another law which seems to us to be in the same category. Under the Canada Shipping Act the owner of any vessel propelled by an inboard or outboard motor of 10 horsepower or greater must apply for a licence, reports the Advocate, and once the licence is issued the owner is required to have his designated number, and the port number as well, displayed on both sides of the bow and on the stern.

Just let such a supposed to happen when an outboard motor is shifted from one boat to another, or placed on a rented boat, we do not know.

We suspect that this is another law which will be more honored in the breach than in the observance and that law enforcement officers will frequently be blind in the weather eye.

This habit of policemen in overlooking infractions of laws irks some people. It is true that in theory it is a most undesirable procedure. In practice it is the only thing that makes life bearable. Those responsible for the situation are not the law enforcement officers but the law-makers, in Parliament, Legislature and municipal councils.

The police are usually credited solely with the desire to make it simple to convict a guilty man, without any attention being paid to the danger that they may also make it easy to convict an innocent.

Obviously this is what has happened in respect to the regulation requiring that a gun carried in a car after sundown or on Sunday must be in a case. It is devised to make it easier for conservation officers to obtain convictions against those guilty of hunting at night or on Sundays. (Incidentally, that rule against hunting on Sundays is enforced only in parts of the province; the secession movement in Northern Ontario would gather great momentum if law enforcement officers in that region ever took the law seriously.) Now there may be some instances where a guilty hunter, scurrying to his car, will not have time to dismantle his gun and put it in a case before the conservation officer arrives at his heels. But many a hunter, who has observed every other rule and regulation but who does not have a case, is liable to prosecution under this law. What real offence has he committed? The answer, surely, is obvious. None.

If this was just a solitary case, we could disregard it. There are, however, a disturbingly large number of laws which fit into this pattern. In many cases, we suspect, they are suggested by law enforcement officers, who find their efforts to protect the public are frustrated by loopholes in the existing laws. The police do not desire to assecute the innocent, but merely to prosecute the guilty. They plan to use these laws only when a person they consider guilty would otherwise escape justice. That, however, is just the danger of such laws — in effect they make the policeman the judge as well as the law enforcement officer. No man, no matter how high-minded and skilled, is equipped to fill such a role. We can forgive the police for suggesting that such laws are desirable—but we cannot free from blame the lawmakers who accept such suggestions.

A BAD DRIVING HABIT

Bad habits are difficult to cure.

Perhaps, however, a prospective of Jean Guy Fillion of Buckingham, Que., will assist some motorists in curing the bad habit of driving with the elbow of their left arm resting on the open window frame of the car door.

Fillion was doing that when his car was sideswiped by a motorcycle.

The motor bike struck the left front fender of his car, the left front tire blew and the force caused the side of the car, striking Fillion's arm and severing it.

A prominent local surgeon once commented that every year he dealt with several cases of smashed elbows as a result of drivers keeping their left arms on car window sills. Besides being an extremely painful injury the injured person was nearly always left with a stiff arm which is a real handicap.

The penalty for this bad habit is seldom so heavy as that suffered by Fillion, but it is frequently severe.

UNHANDY MAN

When grandma needed book or pencil,
My grandsire did the work himself.
He was a skillful handy man
With anything that turned or ran.
The cuckoo clock he could repair;
Restore with ease a broken chair.
A gadget-minded grandpa he,
Who left no fixing skill to me.

My grandpa had a cellar bench
At which he worked with plane and wrench.
I know he knew his brace and bit
And frequently made use of it.

But when he died, 'tis sad but true,
He couldn't leave me what he knew,
And I've remained that useless chap
Who cannot stop a dripping tap.

I'm the unhandiest of men.
I cannot fill a fountain pen
Without permitting ink to squirt
Upon my newly ironed shirt.
Although I use them, it is strange
Typewriter ribbons I can't change.
I can't perform my grandsire's tricks.
There's nothing broken I can fix.

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY

DR. EARL L. DOUGLASS

BLESSED BE THE TRUMPETS!

When Napoleon was crossing the Alps his troops became dispirited. He ordered the bands to play but the music seemed to produce very little effect on the soldiers. Then he ordered them to play the home songs of the French people for the first time. This only made many of them weep as they thought of the life they had left. Then Napoleon ordered that the trumpeters and ordered them to sound the charge of battle. At this juncture even the most dispirited soldier was filled with enthusiasm. Although he was not for the least idea how there could be an enemy on the crest of the mountains. Although all were prepared and filled with a new zeal.

In the spiritual life we sometimes need the blast of trumpets to get us going toward the goal of real spiritual achievement. Songs of hope, songs of heaven, will often do much, but the time comes in the life of every Christian he is clever when what he needs is the sharp summons to supreme endeavor. This may be the glorious realization of how overwhelmin his temptations have become as how utterly disastrous yieldi would be. Or it may be the call t enterprise or help! Some where the efforts of a good man or the consecration of a faithful woman or the virile power of youth is needed.

Blessed be the trumpeter! Blessed the battle cry when our spirits begin to languish!

High Tariffs

(Charlottetown Guardian)

The United States has passed a bill which includes a provision to increase the duty on uncooked fish sticks from one cent a pound to 30 per cent ad valorem. Whatever the House of Representatives or the President may think, the Senators seemed determined to go back to the days of high protection.

Curiosity About Ark

(Peterborough Examiner)

Once again explorers claim to have seen the remains of Noah's Ark on the slopes of Mount Ararat. The curiosity about this vessel, we presume, springs from a desire to see what kind of job an amateur shipbuilder would make, there's nothing broken I can fix.

Boating Sense

(Leamington Post And News)

Judgment and common sense are just as necessary in operating a boat as a car. First essential is a good boat, strong and watertight, capable of carrying whatever the load is to be, of shape and design that will not tip over, and of sound type adapted to the kind of service, weather and water in which it will be operated.

Fit for a Pipe

(Toronto Star)

"New York police widen use of drunkometer." Away go all the old euphemisms. No longer is a drunkard merry, elevated, a little spifflicated. Now he is coldly statisticized as 4, or 6-hatcher, the inhuman gadget may register.

Chooses to Coast

(The Printed Word)

A disquieting packet of information by today's post is that an executive with ability has turned down the offer of a promotion. It seems that it is happy, what with taxes and the costs of moving to a bigger city and living in it, the greater job wouldn't be worthwhile. Also there would be the office-politics dangers of getting nearer the top. And the clincher appears to be that the dear friend has only been moved years to go to retirement." With a mere decade and a half left, there is not enough excitement to change the children's school, so his wife and his own club organizations, or their church affiliation.

If the matter were determined only on Henry Thoreau's Walden Pond theory of the good life in the woods, there might not be much room for argument. Few would choose a big city with its higher costs and its clutter. Most people would prefer to be able to wind it all up, but not quite to be engulfed by it. The grave responsibility of uprooting a family is also understandable. Fear of the harder job is no new thing either. It has been the common lot of man since Adam was forced to get out and earn his living.

The new thing for Canada is that a man with no particular leanings towards Walden Pond contemplation, in the world well lost—a man wishing to work and able to work well at the world's business, should find it a natural hurdle of advancement. "Only fifteen years to go!" Alexander had little more than that when he set out on his travels. He had only two or three years to go and he foresaw it and wrote almost all his great poetry in one year.

Taxes never bothered Keats, so he had no money, and when Alexander was hard up he merely conquered a farther country; but taxes are probably the main trouble with this Man Who Wouldn't Jump. Taxes weaken him in two ways. They take away a large part of his earnings. Also a small part of his taxes trickle back to him, making him feel that he doesn't upset anything he will have some sort of guaranteed living. So with an actual expectation of about a quarts of his life remaining, he starts to coast.

The incident would not be important if this were a weak man, or a family-run man, but he is a soldier and first-class citizen. For his family and himself he may well have chosen wisely. Some of the lost satisfaction in fine enterprise denied may be compensated for in organization activity.

Who, however, in Canada is going to do the work? The answer is: Fewer and fewer, but he remember how we got this fay and change back. Rome did not change in a day. Nor, for that matter, did both countries the state became so powerful that the individual decided to coast, having little chance of personally getting ahead. Presently the Roman Empire collapsed. Status always collapses. Under the individuals begin to coast.

The Man Who Wouldn't Jump is brighter than most executives in Canada today. He has assessed his whole life and found his course for his dependents and himself. It is a thoroughly sane record, that if he thought he along could alter the system of taxes and social security which would take the bigger job and keep him from the effort necessary to accomplish great things. He has, however, sized up the situation. He knows that it is better to coast, with fifteen years to go. How many years to go for Canada!

Where Is The Dairy Industry Going?

(An editorial in The Ottawa Farm Journal)

That may sound like a silly question but one capable of a dozen answers. It also sounds like starting to rehash a lot of things that have been said in this column, and for a lot of people, too fore. But we have a sincere belief that many things are done without the industry have reached a stage where everybody in it—and a lot who are Canadians who have not the remotest connection with it—can make up their minds to take stock and see in what direction the wind is blowing.

Nobody in this land can make in a few words. To all intents and purposes the butter industry at the end of the Canadian milk business today is hiding behind the government's skirts to buy surplus butter at a set price. There are great cities in Canada to-day where three manufacturing sections — butter, cheese and condensed. We simply cannot get condensed—remember what has happened in the United States today when a billion pound butter surplus looked unmanageable. They cut the support price. Today that butter is somewhere around 50 million pounds surplus butter — and it 's hurting the market as some, at least, reaching consumers is not moving.

Milk powder is piling up everywhere.

The good weather in Eastern Ontario, plus the price supported oat, is producing a flood of cream, not a lot more cheese than was expected. One interesting thing certain is that Canadian offerings here at a price some 80 shillings hundredweight cheaper than Canadians, that retail prices are as low as 28 cents per pound in New Zealand, that there is no great market activity and that British Government officials have expected to be over 200 million pounds short of the amount to fill the agreement with Canada for cheese at about 28 cents wholesale.

Add to the above the fact that there are surplus dairy products in a lot of countries today. Perhaps that is why the world needs but certainly more than can be sold at the prices North American producers feel and know they must charge.

Down the prairie ruin, calling it wolf when the wolf is not yet at the door, is the coyote WHEAT.

But we do think that it is about time the Canadian dairy producer, his wife and family, awoke to what is happening and started to do some thinking about their jobs. Nobody else is going to do it for them.

Our Bill Jamieson in Britain just now attending a European dairy conference and, with a lot of other Canadian dairymen will meet again in Washington, D.C., under the auspices of the National Dairy Council of America, representing the manufacturing end of the industry, is meets in Ottawa. All these meetings have fateful decisions before them — and it is to be hoped something worthwhile comes up. The solution, we think, is simple —for Canadians to demand their own dairy rights and not be compelled to compete with people whose working conditions and standards are not comparable with their own. How long is Canada going to be a dumping ground for cheap, competitive by-products?

Son of Brahma Spreads Death

(Hamilton Spectator)

In eastern India the mighty Brahmaputra—"son of Brahma"—has overflowed its banks and drowned hundreds of square miles, bringing ruin to millions of peasants. Many villages and towns have vanished beneath the angry waste and, as so often happens in the East, human misery is piled beyond the limits of one person's imagination.

The Brahmaputra is one of the great rivers of Asia. It rises in Tibet and flows for nearly 1,800 miles to join the mightier Ganges. Its waters, swollen as often as such as three miles wide, are a busy highway for steamboats and flat-bottomed budgerigars on the broad expanse of the stream and it is hard to forget that it is a river.

To those who never seen a flood in Asia cannot imagine the sufferings of the poor. The humble hovels of mud and straw are often a few cooking pots, cotton rags, a few bullock and a wooden plough—are dearer, because they are all he has in the world. They are his means of existence and when they have lost everything else worth living for goes with them. It is only when one sees these peasants bereft of their homes that one realizes how much possessions dignify the individual.

Then, too, the eye can see the muddy waters move slowly to the distant skyline, bearing their cargo of human and animal corpses, trees, branches, roofs and all the miscellaneous flotsam of a peasant economy. The walls and roofs of huts made of plaited palm leaves soon part company and make their separate ways to the sea; mud huts, and hundreds of mud-baked bricks, dissolve — so that when the waters recede little is left.

Slowly hope returns, for the peasant is inured to catastrophe by the inborn experience of a thousand generations. The river is their friend, giving them not entirely to be trusted. He gives life, and he takes life away; he is the son of Brahma.

Self Delusion

(Windsor Daily Star).

President Syngman Rhee of South Korea says peace in the United States favor an immediate "march north" against the Communists. Self-delusion always was a dangerous habit.

Choosing A Doctor

ADENOIDS ARE TONSILS AND VICE VERSA

When I was an honest doctor I was so darned honest when I ractised in Penn Yan and Elmira that we nearly starved) t h e medical textbooks a n d magazines had a good deal of confusion about the adenoid tabitus, facies or expression —a pinched or narrow nasal bridge, small nostrils, long drawn face, narrow dental arch, somewhat retracted upper lip, prominent upper incisors, dark circles under eyes.

This was the typical appearance of the child with adenoids.

It is just as typical of enlarged tonsils, and indeed may be by consequence of long neglected tonsil enlargement even though there is no thickening or enlargement of the lymphoid tissue in the vault of the pharynx or out of direct view behind the soft palate.

This lymphoid tissue is identical with that which composes the faucial or visible tonsils in the throat. Other names for lymphoid tissue are lymphoid cell tissue or adenoid tissue, and the small mass of tissue normally situated here is called "adenoids" only when it enlarges enough to obstruct free passage of air from nose to windpipe or enough to obstruct ventilation of the middle ear cavity through the Eustachian tube.

The doctor can determine whether a patient has adenoids only by feeling the mass with finger or by seeing if in a throat mirror. No one can diagnose "adenoids" otherwise.

It is conceivable that one might have normal faucial (visible) tonsils and thickened or enlarged pharyngeal (hidden) tonsil (adenoids), but I have never read or heard of such a case. As a general rule when one treat enlarged tonsils any thickening of the adenoid tissue in the pharynx responds to treatment along with the enlarged tissue in the fauces (throat). There is rarely a bit of mucous membrane between them. Nevertheless the physician who advises whether or not treatment is necessary for enlarged tonsils without having felt of or looked (in throat mirror) at the pharynx (laryngeal tonsil) up behind the soft palate can hardly be considered careful or competent. One is never justified playing the percentages when simple observation will establish certainty.

THE PACKSACK

By GREGORY CLARK

The Duke of Edinburgh doubtless got an eyeful of Canada's arctic perimeter, but so also did a bevy of Canadian, American and British newspapermen who, from now on, will have a better idea of what Canada has got besides arctic land. Near after the Duke's dried mile after hundred mile, the aircraft hummed through the sky over what appeared to be lifeless tundra, the great Barrens, an almost breathing expanse of pool, pond, lake, lakes that stretched after as grey as rest iron; savage rock and meandering esers, those ridges, like railroad embankments, of sand and gravel that Ice Age left behind, as the glaciers melted, pouring down their little streams.

But the life in those lifeless-appearing kingdoms was too small to see from 5,000 feet up. Millions, literally millions, of birds call that vast lone land their summer home. There they build their nests, hatch and rear their younger and to fill, no matter how they may grace our eyes now in passing on migration, no matter how lovely they are. In Brazil they may go for the winter, ilk?

Brother Jacques Volant of the Oblate Order, who are the Catholic missionaries in the north, in charge of the Oblate mission museum at Churchill. He showed me a collection of butterflies made at Igloolik. There were Painted Ladies and Red Admirals, Canadian special species of sulphurs and cabbage butterflies, a variety of blues, like Melissa Blue, dainty little creatures and over forty species altogether in the museum collection. Some of these butterflies you could see anywhere. Igloolik, if you have a map handy, is on Fury and Hecla Strait, which joins Foxe Basin with the Gulf of Boothia and dangled fruitlike Island from Melville Peninsula. That is far country. Oddly enough, it is not those lively there. It is true the night is long, months and months long.

But the day is long, too, months long. The sun shines twenty-four hours in summer and in the ambient light, life flourishes without rest. Arctic hare dangled fruitlary eats, in its caterpillar stage, the violet.

Are there violets, then, at Igloolik? Are there violets, then, at Igloolik?

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

OUR FEATHERED FRIENDS

What a background Nature offers to its guests—its animal friends especially. Can you imagine a wooded area without its variety of birds? A home isn't a home until it has invited a variety of birds to its yard or territory. And if they are treated as friends, and fed, they will bless you for years.

There never has been created a bird that wasn't a work of art as far as its feathered raiment is concerned. No artist could improve on the colors and the designs and the purpose for which each bird has been endowed. There is a reason for everything in nature. There has been no guess work. The inhabitants of the air, the swimmers and divers, and many have wish feet if my summer island retreat, I often watch the loons dive and disappear for several minutes then come to the surface some yards beyond where they dove. And how nature has warned many a duck as to safety in the water when danger is near.

I don't know why but fear into he mind of the bird, but it is there they will return. It is their home.

Brother Jacques Volant of the Oblate Order, who are the Catholic missionaries in the north, in charge of the Oblate mission museum at Churchill. Short of man the bird is most afraid. Perhaps it is that they have learned of the cruelty of man to bird life. But it is not so soon as they learn that man is their friend they will welcome his friendship but never will fail for food and care. What a joyous creature the bird is, and what it sings the day away, bursting her small heart in many a varied song.

Nothing in nature is so interesting as birds, their habits, songs, calls, their love-making and home building, and their expertness in nest building. Everything learned about birds is interesting and treasured. For their care and feeding I will return their thanks a hundred fold!

Suggest Special Duty on Imports Of Barley, Malt

WASHINGTON (CP) — The United States department of agriculture is suggesting a special 26 per cent duty on imports of barley and barley malt. The tariff would apply to all imports in excess of 16,400,000 bushels annually.

The proposal was made at a hearing by the U. S. tariff commission which has been instructed by President Eisenhower to determine whether imports of oats and barley, mainly from Canada, are damaging the U. S. domestic price support program in those commodities.

The commission is to report to Eisenhower by Oct. 31. At present Canada is voluntarily limiting oats exports to the U. S. to 23,000,000 bushels, a voluntary agreement expires Sept. 30.

The special 26 per cent tax on barley imports, which would be in addition to the existing tariff of 7½ cents a bushel on barley and 30 cents a 100 pounds on barley malt, was suggested by Gustave Burmeister, assistant administrator of the foreign agriculture service, at Thursday's session.

The 16,400,000 bushels which annually would be exempt from the special tariff would include 2,100,000 bushels of barley malt, leaving 14,300,000 bushels of straight barley in the duty-exempt category.

Opposition to the proposal was voiced by J. Bradley Coburn, counsel for a group of U. S. barley importers. He said it would be "unfair in the light of the historic trade" in barley between the U. S. and Canada.

QUIT FRENCH CABINET IN SEQUEL TO EDC DEFEAT

Three members of the French cabinet, supporters of the EDC project, are seen leaving the Quai D'Orsay in Paris after the official announcement of their resignations in a sequel to the defeat of the European Defence Community treaty. In resigning, they issued a joint statement in which they said that if France rejects all formulas offered for a "common organization of European sovereign Germany", or will have to give up "defence of Europe within the framework" of France's alliances. ## Five-Year Programs to Retard Economic Depressions Urged

OTTAWA (CP) — Montreal's director of public works said Friday municipalities should plan works programs to start when unemployment passes seven or eight per cent of the labor force.

Lucien L'Allier recommended five-year programs to retard economic depressions.

He said municipal programs could be planned in such a way that they could be started in a few weeks, provided money was made available by the higher governments. However, the municipalities would be expected to pay their share of the costs of the works.

Mr. L'Allier said works programs in periods of deep economic depressions are unsatisfactory, because they are used primarily to create jobs. The cost and the efficiency of the works were not considered important. Most of the work was done in winter, adding to the cost.

"Also, while unemployed, the laborers have no interest in the work and tend to produce as little as possible, so that work may be left for them when it is again their turn to be employed," he said, explaining that employment on these projects usually follows a certain rotation.

The Montreal engineer spoke at the sixth annual conference of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada.

He said it was also a mistake to pay wages lower than the prevailing rates because the labor force then felt it was being abused.

He said these works programs should be executed by private enterprise which would pay prevailing rates to efficient workers.

Mr. L'Allier said the federal government must do its share in such public works programs.

The signal to start would come from the federal government after careful study of relevent questions such as percentage of unemployment, foreign trade, total national income and the interest rate.

"What we think the government should do is to plan the economy of the country so that there is employment available at all times for more than 95 per cent of the labor population," he said.

The funds for such public works programs could be borrowed in the same way the government borrows money in war time.

Want Amid Plenty As Alberta's Hay Is Waterlogged

EDMONTON (CP)—Want amid plenty—that's the cry at the moment of farmers in Alberta and Saskatchewan. Hay is what there is plenty of, but most of it is under water—and useless.

Heavy rains, reaching near-record proportions, have had a serious effect on the hay situation in the two provinces. Farmers, who depend on the hay crop to carry cattle during the winter months, fear the worst unless green-feed, which is also waterlogged in a number of areas, can be substituted.

R. E. English, Alberta agriculture department statistician, says not much hay has been put up and what has been is in poor condition. Unofficial estimates say 40 per cent of hay has been cut and has rotted; 30 per cent has been put up and 40 per cent has not been cut.

Even stacked hay, unable to shed the heavy rains, has rotted in some districts. Hay that was baled and left in the fields has also rotted. A few farmers solved the moisture problem by storing hay in silos.

Meanwhile, Manitoba expects a record harvest this year. H. E. Woods, director of publications and weeds, says ideal weather all July and August helped considerably and hay is just about all in.

Diseased Wild Rabbits Will Be Destroyed

By DAVE MASON

LONDON (AP)—The plight of Britain's diseased wild rabbits is attracting the attention of the Queen and the Archbishop of York —along with thousands of persons who grow rabbits for show, meat and fur.

The Royal Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has become concerned and so has Parliament.

The disease, myxomatosis, is riding hatrried farmers of long-eared pests. Reports that some farmers were deliberately spreading the disease brought a government answer that no immediate legal action would be taken pending further observations.

In mid - August myxomatosis broke out among rabbits on the royal estate at Sandringham and later spread through Windsor Great Park and Windsor Forest.

Dr. Cyril Garbett, Archbishop of York in the Anglican faith, said in a diocesan letter that rabbits are a plague and should be reduced as painlessly and quickly as possible. But he added:

"It is un-christian and inhuman to infect them deliberately with a disease which causes them to die in agony."

FOR MERCY SQUADS

The RSPCA said 66 inspectors were forming volunteer mercy squads to kill infected rabbits throughout the country.

Myxomatosis came to Britain as a result of a French doctor's experiment two years ago. Angered at the animals' depredations on his thousand-acre estate in France, Prof. Paul Armand-Delille injected two rabbits with the myxoma virus.

The professor thought the walls of his estate would check the spread of the disease, but it flashed across the rabbit population of France, Belgium and Germany and finally jumped the Channel.

Dr. Cameron, To Speak At Centennial

STIRLING. — The Centennial committee of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church convened at the church, Tuesday evening, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. W. H. V. Walker, and the centennial president, Mr. Roy Edgelton.

The plans are completed to have two special Sunday services to commemorate the event. On Sunday, September 19, at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. Rev. C. G. Boyd, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Peterborough, will be in charge of both services.

That week a congregational banquet will be held and a full history of the 100 years will be given. This is being prepared by Mrs. Harper Rollins, Mrs. Emily Spencer and several other members of the congregation.

GUEST SPEAKER.

The centennial will continue with two services on Sunday, October 31st. Rev. Dr. W. A. Cameron, retiring moderator of General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada will be the guest speaker for the day. He will bring a wealth of information to Stirling as he has served as secretary at head office, Toronto, before he was honored with this highest office of the church. That week plans are being made to have a centennial tea and bazaar on Thursday afternoon.

Invitations are being mailed to former members of the church and former members of the choir will be invited to return and render a special selection.

The auditorium of St. Andrew's church has been newly decorated and painted in a light color scheme and it presents a fine appearance. The basement was redone two years ago, and the whole edifice is now in readiness for the centennial celebrations.

Special programs are being prepared and these will contain a condensed history of the church. The programs will be valued souvenirs for those who have a centennial tea and bazaar on Thursday afternoon.

SCHRIVER—PATRICK

In Frankford United Church on Saturday, September 4, Rev. C. E. Clarke united in marriage Sheila Anne Patrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Patrick to Robert Oscar, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Schriver, R.R. 2, Carrying Place.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a street-length dress of yellow nylon taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Edna Rose, wore a street-length gown of pale green nylon taffeta, with accessories and a corsage of yellow Talisman roses.

The groomsman was Mr. R. Bruyea of Wooler.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with 30 guests in attendance. The bride's mother received, wearing a street-length gown of powder blue nylon with white accessories. She was assisted by the bridegroom's mother, who wore a street-length dress in navy blue crepe with navy accessories.

For travelling, the bride chose a grey gabardine suit with white accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

The young couple will reside in Frankford.

VILNEFF—SCOTT

MARMORA.—The first wedding to be solemnized in the United Church in this village took place recently, as Irma June Scott, daughter of Mr. Garfield I. Scott, Arden and the late Mrs. Scott, became united in marriage by Rev. Ralph McCuaig to Douglas James Vilneff, only son of Mrs. Charlotte Vilneff, of Marmora township and the late Simon Vilneff. The church was prettily decorated with phlox, gladioli and roses.

Mr. Arthur Carkner, the bride's former music instructor, sang "The Prayer Perfect", accompanied by Miss Barbara Meiklejohn of Marmora.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a strapless gown of white satin with four net overskirts, decorated with motifs and rhinestones. She carried a cascade of small pink roses.

SEPTEMBER SUN

The September sun smiles softly
Upon the meadows brown,
And sweet its soft caressed
Where autumn-pods bow their down;
On fringes of purple asters,
On plumes of golden'rod,
It lingers, loath to leave the spot
Where these late blossoms nod.

It seems to hold the spirit
Of summer's gracious hours,
With nature at her gayest
And earth all bright with flowers;
So, when life's summer passes,
And autumn winds blow chill
May youth's glad summer brightness
Flood heart and spirit still.

—Helen B. Anderson.

The bride's sister, Miss Jean Scott was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Hilda Scott, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Gilbert Caunt, sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical gowns of yellow, mauve, and green taffeta with matching headdresses. The flowers they carried were cascades of pale lilac and purple mixed flowers.

Miss Connie Bell was the flower girl wearing a yellow taffeta dress with white bonnet and carrying a basket of pansies and pink roses.

The best man was Robert Sanderson, Marmora, the ushers and Leigh Scott, brother of the bride, acted as ushers.

Receiving the bride's grandmother, Mrs. N. H. Gendron, wore a gray figured dress with navy accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother, who assisted, wore a blue French lace dress with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

After cutting of the cake, Mr. Carkner sang "Because" and the Rev. Alan McCuaig presented the couple with a white Bible thus making the first marriage to take place in the church.

For travelling north the bride wore a dress of mauve nylon, yellow and organdie with mauve and white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

They have since taken up residence in Marmora.

TO CARE FOR MEDICINES

Much is heard of the miracles wrought by modern medicines—but the improper care of medicines causes a great many severe illnesses and a surprising number of fatalities every year.

First of all, medicines should only be taken on a doctor's prescription—it is dangerous to prescribe for oneself or others.

Here are seven points St. John Ambulance recommends for the care and storage of medicines:

1. All poisonous medicines should be labelled "poison". They should be kept in bottles of distinctive color and shape and should be kept apart from other medicines, preferably under lock and key.

2. All external medicines should be kept on a separate shelf from those used internally.

3. Bottles should be kept tightly corked and clearly labelled.

4. Oils and ointments which spoil easily should be stored in a cool place.

5. A change in color, consistency or odor of any medicine should be reported to the doctor before the next dose is given and a new supply obtained if necessary.

6. Medicines should never be left in an unmarked bottle or container. No guesses should be made as to what it might be. Such medicines should immediately be discarded.

7. Medicines which have been kept in the house for a long period of time should not be used because many drugs change quality with age. They may lose their power or become dangerously strong. Prescriptions no longer in use should be discarded.

Sales of Men's Formal Wear Are Increasing

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

If pop goes out in the evening looking like an unmade bed, it's not all the fault of his wife, says Morris Rudofker, former president of the Men's Formal Wear Institute and head of a manufacturing firm devoted to after-six clothes for men.

It's up to the little woman to put her foot down, says dapper Rudofker, if she wants her husband to live up to her own standards of dress.

"Men just get in the habit of refusing to dress because they can get away with it."

Apparently a large group of American wives are keeping the situation well in hand, because the sales of men's formal wear have increased from about $5,500,000 in 1946-to $35,000,000 in 1953.

"Most men actually enjoy dressing in the evening," says Rudofker. "The trend in recent years has been away from the old-fashioned heavy tuxedos and silks and the starched shirts and collars to evening clothes that are lighter in weight and more comfortable than business suits."

DON'T IT BROWN

Now that men are starting to dress again, they're doing the thing in brown, says this authority. They're buying cummerbund and tie sets in every color of the rainbow in plaids, regimentals, stripes and solid colors.

Next spring—he asserts—you'll be seeing men wearing lightweight silk shantung dinner jackets in the new ice colors—pink, buttercup yellow, charcoal, blue, gray and white.

Brazilian Nurse Gives Advice To Schools

QUEBEC (CP) — A Brazilian nurse says nursing schools should spend more time on the cultural and moral training of their students.

Psychology courses also should be introduced in schools, Miss Waleska Paixao Friday told a congress of the international committee of nurses and medico-social workers.

Miss Waleska, a director of the Catholic Union of Brazilian Nurses, said nursing schools springing up all over the world today concern themselves with the technical formation of the nurse and forget that "a physiological, cultural and moral formation is absolutely necessary."

DENOUNCES ASSOCIATION

Earlier, a Malayan Catholic nurse denounced the Family Planning Association for its "regrettable work" among native populations of Malaya and other eastern countries.

Wilhelmina de Cruz, of Singapore, said inhabitants of Malaya live more of family life and are posed to birth control.

The idea of family planning was positive proved by his arguments of European agents of the international organization were irrelevable by the average native.

She said God's laws are not respected in Malayan hospitals. The nurses are urgently needed to upbuild agricultural areas with unpopular opinion. Mercy killing, sterilization and abortion were sanctioned and performed in most Malayan hospitals.

CALL WORKERS BACK

DETROIT (CP)—Chrysler Corporation said Friday 12,500 workers at the Dodge main plant will be called back to work as 1955 models go into production Wednesday.

Prefers to Work So She Can See Her Husband

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

May Lenore makes 2,000 pots and a dinner every night. Her working day starts at noon and ends at midnight, six days a week.

Her home is in the middle of New York's neon-lighted Broadway belt. She could afford to live on Park Avenue but prefers to work 14 hours a day. The reason?

"If I didn't, I'd never see my husband."

May is married to Gene Leone, owner of an Italian restaurant in New York. Gene learned the artistry of cooking from his mother, Amalia, who founded the restaurant in 1906. Gene personally supervises his kitchen, checks every item on the lengthy menu, mixes every sauce with his own hands.

May was a waitress when Roman in food and art, but his wife is unimpressed by Irish Rose Mac Sullivan in Brooklyn, she still seems a bit surprised to find herself cooking over an Italian dynasty. Says she: "I met Gene when I came in the restaurant one day for dinner. He asked me if I would like to go flying with him the next day. I said I'd like to go with him and I've been up in the air ever since."

When they were first married, Gene bought a home in suburban Bellrose, but May buried herself with such things as drapes, linens and silver in the approved manner of brides.

"But all of a sudden I realized that's not the only time I would saw Gene was between 2 and 4 o'clock in the morning, after he got back from the restaurant and before he went to sleep," says Mrs. Leone. "So I sold the house and moved into the apartment over the restaurant, and we've been here ever since."

On Wednesday nine women went to the links after the heats. The games started in the morning and a pot-luck dinner was served.

Housewife Strikes a Blow For Unappreciated Mothers

ILFORD, England (Reuters) — Mrs. Winifred De Costa, 38-year-old housewife who left home here Monday because she was "taken for granted" by her family, went back to her husband and four children Thursday after striking a blow on behalf of unappreciated mothers.

Mrs. De Costa, wife of a wholesale vegetable merchant, did her walk-out after her family complained about having to wait a little when the butter ran out.

"I cooked meals for them at all hours. I sat up late making dresses for the girls. I did all the cleaning and shopping.

"They never helped me and if I didn't do everything just right they criticized me," she said.

So Mrs. De Costa went off to a hotel at Brighton, south coast resort, to see how her family managed without her. But someone recognized her from a newspaper picture and the "missing housewife" and told the police.

Within a few hours, her husband was by her side, persuading her to return home. She agreed.

"I'm going back now because I'm sure they will have learned a lesson," she said. "If they will only be a little now and then and show they appreciate me I'm sure we shall be a very happy family."

SISTERS ALL

By Jean Love Galloway

BY JEAN LOVE GALLOWAY

Whether you fish with minnows or worms seems a matter of little personal choice among fishermen. But what one U.S. visitor brought to the Bay of Islands in the Bay of Quinte this week was certainly new to us. He brought a small bucket full of goldfish.

Other fishermen were shocked. Yet they couldn't help but be curious about what this glittering livened would do in the way of charming a black bass. After several attempts to lure some black beauties, our U.S. fisherman gave up. The goldfish were a complete fall ure.

CORNER STONES

Almost every day, you read in the papers about the laying of a new corner stone someplace. Construction of large public and business buildings is the usual pretense days.

At any cornerstone-laying ceremony, it is interesting to know the items which are placed in it before the stone is set permanently. Usually a copy of the current local newspaper is included. Sometimes coins are dropped in. In the case of soldiers' buildings, regimental badges are sometimes deposited in the cornerstone as they were recently at a new building at the Canadian Army Staff College.

Years and years from now, should any catastrophe destroy the many buildings, thousands upon thousands of them, now going up, turn up containing a multiplicity of items and publications.

We read recently of the removal of a cornerstone which had been set for 25 years. When the stone was opened it was lifted out, it contained a live toad. The toad had been sitting in the stone for a quarter of a century. A little dazed by the light, it hopped off.

PREMONITION

Whenever there is a prison riot, people can't wait to blame the penal system. People who have never so much as studied one book on penology or who have never had the slightest interest in working with inmates of a prison, are quick to jump to the with no foundation on facts or understanding.

Many forget that there was more trouble in our penitentiaries and a lot of rioting under the mediaeval system than under the reformed treatment. Years and years ago with no trouble and the general public never so much as breathes a word of praise to the people responsible for the security of our worst convicts.

We have great respect for observing in a section of Kingston penitentiary, have talked with prison authorities and read a good deal on the problems of caring for prisoners under long sentences.

It is our view that Kingston penitentiary is run efficiently and intelligently. It is one of the finest training schools and has one of the best medical treatment centres.

Uncle Frontenac says some people are so busy acquiring knowledge that they never have time to use it.

Directs Women Into Finding Right Jobs for Their Talents

By PAULINE KENNEDY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — When Elizabeth Smith graduated from university in 1947 and started to look for a job in Toronto she wrote 100 letters, saw 20 employers and spent seven weeks tracking one down.

With bitter memories of this experience she has set up one of the first employment service exclusively for women. Called Personnelle Placement Service her office specializes in finding the right job for a woman's talents.

In operation since May, Mrs. Smith's service has been successful. She looks for the woman a cut above the average and her placements so far have been in the fields of stenography, secretarial and office work, advertising and personnel.

"Many women are stuck in second-rate jobs when they are capable of doing much better if their talents were fully explored," she said, "I like to chart those talents and put the woman in a job worthy of her."

OUT OF RUT

Among her file of success stories is the case of an Egyptian woman who came to Canada from a post as secretary to the advertising manager of an oil company in her homeland. Equally proficient in French and English the girl wanted to learn accounting. Mrs. Smith placed her with a Toronto firm which utilized to good material ability but allowed her to write copy and do advertising layout as well.

Another applicant worked in a dead-end clerical job for several years. Trying to pull out of the rut she took a business course but couldn't find a job with experience enough for her energies.

Mrs. Smith placed her as office manager of an American firm's Toronto branch. The girl is the only woman in the office and has learned so quickly her employers are piling on responsibility.

The Smith service works this way. She is paid by employers to find talent for their offices and factories. She finds applicants by word-of-mouth and the grapevine system. So far very little direct advertising has been used.

McGILL GRADUATE

Mrs. Smith, who married an accountant three years ago set up her service partly as an escape from the organized life of a club woman.

"I'm a working woman at heart and as I found myself being sucked more and more into club activities I thought I'd better get out and use some of my personnel management training."

After graduating from McGill University, Montreal, Mrs. Smith took 4 course in management from Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass. She worked as personnel director for a Toronto firm, then joined the Toronto Personnel Association and in 1949 became its first woman director.

Her project has her husband's approval. Free from any financial worries Mrs. Smith is concentrating on building up a "quality checklist" of women talents who are looking for jobs with opportunities.

GOOD MANNERS

By MRS. BEECKMAN

CONCERNING MOTHER'S DRESS

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

Last March one of my sons was married at a formal church wedding in the afternoon, and for the occasion I bought a very handsome and expensive dress of taffeta, in a lovely shade of grey, reminiscent of cossing shade. I haven't worn this dress since. Now my daughter is getting married to her fiance's brother, and I think this dress would be the perfect one for me to wear. I think it would be ridiculous for me to buy another dress, particularly since this time I couldn't afford such an expensive one. My daughter would be willing to agree with me, I think, except my son (to whose wedding I wore it) thinks I should buy a new dress because many of the guests at my daughter's wedding will be the same as at this wedding and they might "recognize" the dress. We would appreciate your advice about this. —Mother

I can see no reason in the world why you should not wear this handsome dress to your daughter's wedding also. It is not at all unusual for a mother to wear the same dress to two weddings in the immediate family. Since you have worn it only once, I agree with you that it would be ridiculous to buy another dress. Tell this to your son, and if he insists as it is to May, and what difference if anyone does "recognize" the dress? Perhaps if you wear a different hat, an especially becoming one, they may not even recognize the dress.

BRIDE'S FATHER OBJECTS TO STANDING IN RECEIVING-LINE

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

My father is a darling, we love each other very much, he is wonderful about everything with the exception of my wedding—but he just rebels at having to stand in the receiving-line at the reception. On the other hand, my fiance's father says he'll be darned if he'll stand in the line. Must my father stand in the line? — Bride-to-be

A polite correct for him to circulate among the guests, introducing the guests, gallantly escorting older and or distinguished guests to the line waiting to be received, directing guests to the room in which refreshments are being or are to be served, making guests happy and comfortable, carrying out his duties as host. No reason to make him stay put in the receiving-line, when he prefers to circulate!

WEARING RING ON THIRD FINGER, LEFT HAND

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

Recently, for my birthday present, I was given a very beautiful birthstone ring. It's particularly becoming to my third finger, left hand. I'd like to wear it on the third finger of my left hand. I'm not engaged, and at present no prospect. My mother and sister maintain that I shouldn't wear this ring on the finger they say is "reserved" for the engagement ring. Anyway, would it be proper for me to wear my birthstone ring on this finger? — May S.

There is no rule against wearing a ring of any kind on the third finger of your left hand, if you particularly want to. But if you do, most people, or at least many people, will think you are engaged, and that is your engagement ring. (Especially as today quite often a bride-to-be chooses to have her birthstone for her engagement ring.)

NAME ON INSIDE ENVELOPE

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

When I address the inside envelopes of my wedding invitations is it correct to include the first name in the name? For example: Mr. and Mrs. John Smith or Mr. and Mrs. Smith? — Bride-to-be No first name. Correct: Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Beauty

By HELEN JAMIESON

PLASTIC SURGERY

It is no comfort to the woman who has developed wrinkles in her face to be told that she could have prevented them. Or, at least, half-ed their inroads. Yet millions of peppy old girls with crepe-like skins are carrying their banners spendidly and bravely, facing responsibilities; getting a lot of fun out of life.

Many women of this type flirt with idea of getting a face lift. If this step is taken it is highly important that they find a surgeon of high standing in the medical profession. And even when they do, they may be refused treatment since wrinkles are no life-and death matter and these specialists are busily engaged in repairing havoc wrought by accidents, and the wounds of war.

Such operations are expensive. Even the remodeling of a nose that does not qualify as a beauty feature demands a considerable fee. The surgeon must not only have technical skill but must also have vision, know exactly what the results of his work will be.

What is known as face lifting is accomplished by making incisions back of the hair line at the temples. The tissues are drawn upward, a small portion of the flesh cut away and the wounds stitched together so cleverly that no scar remains. Years ago when this treatment was first given, it produced a mask-like effect. That does not happen these days.

Little hammocks under the eyes can be removed. A spare chin, forming an ugly pouch beneath the normal one, can be made to do a disappearing act. Old necks can be made smooth and young-looking again. It is truly miraculous what can be accomplished.

Readers' Saturday Column

As Conducted by Mary Moore

QUESTION:

I look your column up first and try to remember all your good advice. . . what makes a souffle or custard watery? . . . I would like some recipes I could use in my automatic oven. Coming home from work it is wonderful to smell dinner cooking in the oven, but I run out of ideas. There are lots of us working. A beautiful new refrigerator. . . . have been watching for ideas on how to stock the freezer. Can one leave a pie and fruit in indefinitely?—Hazel D.

ANSWER:

I have mailed you two booklets on freezing and freezer foods. Custards are watery when too much sugar is used. Do not use homogenized milk. Do not overbeat eggs. I have mailed automatic oven menus.

PERFECT CUSTARD

This amount will fill 10 1-2 by 1-3 inch or 9 1-2 by 1 1-2 inch pie plates. Cut recipe in half if you want to make 4 individual baked custards.

Five whole large eggs (1 1-4 cups), 1-2 cup granulated sugar (this amount of sugar may be increased by 2 tablespoons, but no more), 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 3 1-2 cups non-homogenized milk. (If milk is hot lime of baking is decreased. Also part cream may be used.) Beat eggs slightly, add sugar and beat a few seconds to blend. Add salt, vanilla and last hot milk slowly. Strain. If used as baked individual custards pour into greased custard cups and stand them in larger pan containing hot water and bake at 300 deg Fahr, until set—about 40 minutes.

If used for custard pie pour into pastry-lined deep pie plate with high fluted edges—doing this pouring right near the oven door. Bake at 425 deg. Fahr, for 5 minutes then reduce heat to 400 deg. until custard is set. To prevent soggy crust you may brush uncooked shell with egg white and bake for 5 minutes at 450 deg. Fahr. then remove from oven pour in custard and bake as above.

The reason a souffle might curdle is because it is made with cheese that is too old. In the following recipe use process cheese.

CHEESE SOUFFLE

Three tablespoons flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, shake of cayenne, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs, 3-4 to 1 cup grated process cheese. Make a thick white sauce of first five ingredients by melting butter, stirring in flour, salt and cayenne, then milk until thick. Remove from heat and add beaten yolks and cheese. Let cool. Fold in stiffly beaten whites. Turn into buttered baking dish, stand dish in larger one containing hot water and bake at 375 deg. Fahr. for 15 minutes, then increase heat to 335 deg. Fahr. Serve at once. Test souffle with a knitting needle: it comes out clean when souffle is cooked.

QUESTION:

I have trouble with my canned peaches. . . . I can them in a canner-cold pack method. . . but some of the liquid in jars dark about half way down. They don't seem to be spoiled, and jars are tight but peaches are sort of light brown. Some jars are all right. What do I do wrong?—Mrs. E. T.

ANSWER:

Raw peaches contain oxygen. I think you packed your peaches too tightly in the jars. If they were packed loosely the air could escape into the syrup, but when it cannot it turns the peaches dark. Just as air would darken them when they are peeled and left standing in a dish in the kitchen. Loosely pack in jars for peaches to float slightly.

ADVICE to the LOVELORN

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

INVITING A YOUNG MAN FOR A WEEK-END VISIT

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I would like to invite a certain young man I met on vacation to come to my home and be my guest over the week-end. His home is quite a distance from where I live, and my parents have approved my inviting him.

How should I go about asking him to come? — Cautious

Dear Cautious:

The way to ask this boy to come and make you a week-end visit is either to write a nice note, yourself, extending the invitation, and saying that your mother and you would like to have him come, or to ask your mother to write the note. I think however, that the former would be better, since, if your mother wrote, it might look as though she thought he was more seriously interested in you than he actually may be. But be sure that you speak of your mother and say that she will be glad to have him come.

ARE YOU A MAN OR A MOUSE? — OR...JUST TRYING TO BE FUNNY?

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I am 25 years of age, and engaged to a girl of 21. I will say anything for her, but I am afraid she is taking advantage of this.

It all started innocently enough some months ago, on an occasion when she wanted to go swimming with some friends but had home work to do. She asked me if I would do her homework so she could go with her friends, saying that this would prove to her that I loved her, so I did. Since then, I've had to "prove" my love to her almost daily, in a new way or another. Many times lately when we have been sitting alone talking, and I say that I love her, she has replied: "Prove your love by getting on your knees and kissing my feet," so I've even done that.

She is a wonderful person, is not bossy, everyone likes her, and I'm sure she loves me, but will I have to prove my love to her forever throughout our marriage? We are supposed to be married next month, and that's the reason I'm writing to you. — F.

Dear F.:

Are you trying to make up what you think is a funny story to see if I'll believe it, or just a poor sucker who hasn't the gumption to stand up for himself like a man?

If your story is really true, then all I can say is that, for a chap 25 years old, you're acting like the most immature of adolescents, to put it mildly. I can think of strong-er ways of putting this, but, since I'm acting on the assumption that you're presenting me with fact, and not merely fantasy, I don't want to hurt your feelings any more than I have to.

If you intend to marry this girl, who, I would say, was quite childish as you are, for heaven's sake keep on your feet and refuse to let her make a fool of you—unless, perhaps, you're the type of weakling who enjoys being dominated by a woman. But frankly, if I were you, I'd walk out now, while the going is good. You're certain to be sorry if you don't.

Brooks Whip Braves With Assist From Hurricane Edna; Giants Defeated

CHIPS OFF THE SPORTS BLOCK

By Geo. H. Carter, Sports Editor

TWO IN A ROW

There ain't no joy in Pardesville this morning for while an unreasonable facsimile of "Hurricane Edna" was washing out Front Street, eaves and tearing the main stem into a miniature Moire, the Bates pounded a duo of Peterborough hurlers for 14 solid clouts to blank the Petes 10-0 and take a 2-0 stranglehold on the best of five OHA playoff series. The Bates could wind up this playoff ball of yarn tonight when they tangle with the Petes in the third tilt.

Bobby Bastien went all the way for the Geysermen, and although giving up nine hits was never in too serious trouble. He was backed up by some superb fielding, especially by Keith MacDonald, who came up with a sensational performance at third while Tony Pettitt's near blindness was like his imagery accounting for two doubles, one with the sacks occupied. Big Vern was walked intentionally in his first appearance as a pinch hitter with the bases loaded but the next time up he caromed the centre field fence with a triple.

Doug Loucks started for the Petes but the Bata bludgeons drove him to the showers and the ole reliable Joe Lowrey finished the pastime. The Batas played one of their best defensive games of the season in holding the Petes off the scoreboard. Johnny Mowatt will probably get the nod for tonight's tilt, if Ole Jupe Flyrion has not removed the Exhibition Grounds to parts unknown.

DOTS 'N FLASHES

Plenty of fare on the sports menu this week-end with the local scene being spotlighted with outstanding baseball and softball playoffs. At the Exhibition Grounds tonight "Batas take" on the Peterborough Petes in the third game of their best-of-five OBA playdown series? At Point Anne the Ox Pointers tangle with a Toronto outfit in the first tilt of a best-of-three OASA intermediate "A" playdown, the game starting at 8.30 p.m. . . . At 8.30 at the CNR Recreation Park Herby Heam's Northern Electric Cluckers take on the Oshawa Maple Cleaners in the second chapter of their best-of-three OASA senior "B" argument. The Clunkers dropped the first tilt 14-7 in Oshawa but should reverse the decision this evening when they will be back at full strength. . . . Monday evening at 5.30 Bob Temple's Bobcats embark on the OASA intermediate "AA" trail when they entertain a Kingston squad at the CNR Park in the first of a best-of-three argument . . . Oshawa bantams and peewees tangle with Belleville squads here in OASA minor playdowns . . . Along the soccer trail Belleville juveniles and bantams trek to Toronto for playoff clashes . . . Peter Pan Batas first sacker was decisioned by Kid Illness, the first since Peter was a small youngster.

MORE DOTS

Whitey Wyatt, former Giants hurler is a very proud poppa these days. Whitey, junior, a Little Leaguer pitched a perfect baseball game a while back. He struck out all 27 men to face him in the game. . . . Baseball moguls get the strings out . . . Murray Kennedy is leaving the sports staff of the Kingston Whig Standard, but that doughty old warrior, Michael J. Roddep is ready and 'rarin to again take up the Goodyear cudgels with this department. Mike is below the belt Mike is tied—and come out fighting . . . Winter is not too far away. Yesterday this department received the first bowling score of the season. Rumor has it the alleys pens will be bigger and better than ever this year . . . Then there's the one of the henpecked husband, who, when asked if his wife was outspoken, replied, "By whom?" . . . The senior "B" hockey moguls go into conclave in Peterborough tomorrow afternoon, and it is expected Cornwall and Brockville will apply for entry. Alderman Bruce Smith and possibly arena commission chairman Gerry Hyde will represent the Memos interests . . . The Ontario Minor Hockey Association is holding its autumn meeting at Fenelon Falls on Saturday, Sept. 18 . . . The Major "A" Bowling League swings into action on Thursday, Sept. 16 at the Bowl-O-Drome with the same six teams that won last year, Moore's Chiskers, last year's champions, Belleville Golf, CNR, G. H. Woods, Upper Canada News, Canada Cement, Lawne Bowlers and Schwabs will be back again for another fine season of alley sport. Same rules will prevail and the regular 24 game quarterly schedules. . . . Other loops swing into action in the immediate future.

Jockey Knight Coached Longden Who Denies Money Interest in Horse

DONCASTER, England (CP)—Johnny Longden, who came to England from California to ride the Canadian-owned Blue Sail in today's St. Leger turf classic, said before the race he had learned "almost all the answers to the tricky track, thanks to Sir Gordon Richards.

The all-time champion British jockey gave the 45-year-old American a few tips in a chat with Blue Sail's trainer. And Richards knows all about it, for he rode five St. Leger winners before retiring in August with a total of 4,870 winners behind him.

Blue Sail, owned by Frank McMahon and Frank McMahon of Calgary, who brought the Alberta-trained Longden over for the ride, was the third favorite at 10 to 1 in today's classic one-mile, six furlongs and 132 yards.

The English horse By Thunderl, owned by J. S. Gerber, carried the heavy American colt Never Say Die from the favorite's spot at Friday night's calliover by London bookies.

They shortened Thunder's betting odds from 9 to 2 to 7 to 2 as heavy rain softened the Doncaster track and made it just to his liking.

TAKES GOLF TROPHY

TORONTO (CP)—A team from the suburban Thornhill Golf and Country Club won the George S. Lyon Trophy Friday with a 295-total. The Thornhill foursome won the 54th annual event on the strength of Bob Dale's and Ernie Merrick's par-fits. Ted Hogarth's 76 and Jay Wagstaff's 78. A team from suburban Lambton was second. A foursome from Kitchener-Westmount, which won last year, was third.

LONDON (CP) — Johnny Longden, the jockey from California hired to ride the Canadian-owned Blue Sail in today's St. Leger classic, was questioned secretly by the Doncaster racing stewards two days ago, the Daily Express says.

The newspaper says the stewards questioned Longden about his off-track interest in Blue Sail.

"I'm not saying that I wasn't," said a reporter. "But I have absolutely no comment to make on the matter."

An Express reporter asked Longden:

"Is it true you have a share in Blue Sail? Is it true you have a bet on him for the St. Leger?"

The Express says: "Longden reckoned both questions amounted to an insult. He added his son Vance, a trainer in California, held an interest with Longden and Max Bell and Frank McMahon (of the Canadian syndicate)."

Bell and Paddy Prendergast, trainer of Blue Sail, declined comment.

Vance Longden is a partner with Bell and McMahon in Alberta Ranches, Ltd., which owns a number of race horses. However, when Blue Sail was bought it was understood that Bell and McMahon, and not Alberta Ranches, were the owners.

WINS FLYWEIGHT TITLE

MILAN (AP)—Nazzareno Giannelli of Italy Friday night outpointed Britain's Terry Allen in a 115 round fight to win the European flyweight title. Each weighed just under the flyweight limit of 112 pounds.

National President Awards Abbreviated Game to 'Bums'; Tribe Holds Lead Over Yanks

By Ben Pelegar, Associated Press Sports Writer

Hurricane Edna is one big wind that should fan a lot of fires around the hot stove league this winter.

This freak of nature, roaring up the Atlantic coast, has thrown the National League pennant race into a turmoil. Nobody will be able to tell until after the season ends just how the storm affected the outcome. But right now it looks definitely as if Edna's gales will help decide where the pennant will wave.

The deciding point in the race may well turn out to be Friday night's rain and mud-soaked contest in Brooklyn. The Dodgers beat Milwaukee 2-1 during an evening in which the players spent an hour and 27 minutes on the field and 3 hours and 27 minutes waiting in the dugout for the rain to quit.

CALL SECOND HALT

For the record, the teams played 4½ innings and Brooklyn had two runs on three hits in the first of a fifth with none out when a ball hit by Duke Snider in the same previous delay in the fourth lasted more than an hour.

The game stayed and fretted and the umpires waited. The 12:50 p.m. deadline for starting at 3:30 would have been possible even if the weather had been perfect.

But manager Larry Doby Goetz put the decision up to league president Warren Giles in Cincinnati. Should it be a legal game, ended by rain, or a suspended game to be finished today?

Giles pondered well into the early hours. It was 2:07 a.m. in Brooklyn before the Dodgers learned officially that they had snapped the Braves' nine game winning streak.

In other action Baltimore edged Cincinnati 4-3 in day game. The lost left Milwaukee four behind, the Phi Dodgers 4½.

Chicago lost its last mathematical chance in the American League by bowing to New York 8-3. Cleveland won No. 101, a 4-2 triumph over Boston and held the 94 games margin over the Yankees.

In other action Baltimore edged Cincinnati 4-3 in day game. The lost left Milwaukee four behind, the Phi Dodgers 4½.

Detroit 8-5 and Pittsburgh shaded St. Louis 5-2, all three games being ending decided in the 9th inning.

The rains that proceeded Edna up the coast washed out Chicago at Philadelphia in the National League.

ONE HIT

Billy Loes held the Braves to one hit—Joe Adcock's home run—in five innings at Brooklyn. The two Dodger pitchers got their first on a double by Pee Wee Reese, a triple by Gil Hodges and Sandy Amoros' single.

The Redlegs woe their first game in the Polo Grounds last summer with the help of four passed balls in one inning by New York catcher Ray Katt, a National League record. They also combed six Giant pitchers for nine lonely hits while Art Fowler scattered a like number.

Rookie Bob Grim and veteran Jim Konstanty tamed the White Sox with the help of a home run homer by Andy Carey and a squeeze bunt by Gil McDougald.

Cleveland beat the Red Sox for the 19th time this season with Mike Garcia winning No. 17. Jim Hegan homered for the pennant-bound Indians.

Mexico Wins Tuna Tourney, American Boats 783-Pounder

By Gerry Martin
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WEDGEPORT, N.S. (CP) — A gaily shouting crowd of 400 shivered the timbers of the little wharf at the end of this fishing village's only street as it slapped the victorious Mexican fleet leader into which Friday won the 11th international tuna tournament.

It was the second consecutive win for Mexico in only three years of competition for the Harry Tropp, emblem of the world's rod and reel tuna fishing championship.

Final results showed Mexico, first with 3,783 2-3 points, followed in order by the United States with 2,108 2-3 points, Argentina with 1,418 2-3, Venezuela, 1,240 2-3, France 884 2-3, Cuba 810, and the British Empire with 774 points.

Seven teams representing 11 countries took part in the three-day meet. Twenty boats were boated-on the largest harvest since 1949 when 72 bluefin were caught.

ON FINAL DAY

As in 1953, Mexico won the match on the final day. They boated two fish Friday to give them more than enough points to pass the United States, leaders for two days. The Americans boated one fish and narrowly missed a second when Joe Gale of New York battled a huge tuna to within inches of a gaff—only to have the hook slip free.

Wednesday Gale boated a whopping 783-pounder that was the largest fish of the tournament and the largest fish caught in the watery off Wedgeport this year.

Of the 20 fish caught during the match, 13 were pulled out of famed Soulder's Ledge area scene from the island-toothed mouth of the nearby Tusket River. Mexico landed five fish during the play while Argentina, the United States and Venezuela each had three. France, Cuba and the British Empire each had two.

It was France's first catch in two years. The Venezuelans had gone three years without taking a fish.

Jorge Cuevas and Jose Fuentes, both of Tampa, Friday boated the two Mexican fish. Cuevas landed the largest fish of the day— 505-pounder—after an 85-minute battle. Fuentes hooked a 233-pounder in the closing minute of the tournament and landed it 12 minutes later.

SOFTBALL OFFICIAL DIES

TORONTO (CP) — Douglas Smith, past president of the Canadian and Ontario Softball Associations, died Friday. He was a former head of the Canadian National Exhibition's world's championship softball tournament.

TO FORM RIFLE TEAM

OTTAWA (CP)—The army Friday announced plans to form a regular force rifle team. The seven-man team will be selected as a country - wide competition among civilian teams from army formations. It will consist of a non-firing captain, four competing members and two alternates.

FREE JANOWICZ

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—Washington Redskins announced Friday that Pittsburgh Pirates had freed Vic Janowicz from his softball contract for more and the Redskins have signed up the former Ohio State halfback.

The Whip Slips Clip on Nip After 4-Man Main Bout Brawl

By GEO. H. CARVER
(Sports Editor)

Togo, or not Togo. That was the question. And Whipper Billy Watson had the answer.

He corkscrewed the left flipper of the Nipper in the second fall of the main bout in Memorial Arena last night until it looked like a jungle-juiced pretzel, refused to take out the hitch, and was the victim of an all-out Jap invasion in the third fall.

The over-ish Togo, who had his co-com-nists brother Tosh, (short for Tash-Kent-Whether-Earth) with him, was in bad straits when the gong rang for the dessert. Togo's arm resembled a hard-ware store back-scratcher when he entered the ring. He leered, sneered and veered away from the Whip who had his sights lined on the twisted salt-shaker.

Finally he connected. He threw his forearm-exerciser into high gear, and Togo emitted a shriek that turned honorable ancestors over in honorable graves and shrivelled the cherry blossoms in the shadow of Fujiyama.

SUPER JAP

Then he screamed the Nipponese equivalent of "Hey Rube" and brother, they scrambled into the ring. The hon-ourable Togo chopped the Whip into prone submission and brought the fans to their feet. The Whip surged about the ring roaring their protests and yelling for "Pat."

"Pat", a son of cold man Flanagan, a direct descendant of Pat McCool leaped into the ring. He drop-kicked the Nipponese like nine-pins until the Whip recovered sufficiently to get in a few telling socks to the Nip noises.

Another guy in the ring, Sammy Gotter, emerged from the haze that had enveloped him all night sufficiently to raise the Whip's right hand in token of victory, or at least he tried to. The Whip would have no part of him after his performance in the first fall.

So the So Solly boys, accompanied by their faithful valet, "Little Sen-Sen" strode angrily from the ring to the accompaniment of the jeers of some 1,200 of the faithful.

The next One had things all his own way in the first fall when he subjected the Pride of East York to terrible punishment via the judo-chop and arm lock. The sneering leering Togo did scarcely over he saw fit with no interference other than verbal nothings and semaphores from the alleged official. He pounded the Whip into near unconsciousness and Flanagan was forced to assist him from the ring after doing some curative chopping of his own on the Whips cervicle vertebre.

And it looked like a repeat in the second fall, until the Whip suddenly wiped the leer of victory off the grinning features of Togo. He sank a couple of fists wrist-deep into the retund paunch of hard the Nip's tongue flew out like that of an adder and then he applied the corkscrew.

Brother, that big Jap did a war dance that would make a blood-hungry Apache of Custer's Days look like a ballet-dancer. He huffed, hopped, puffed and screamed, finally sinking to the mat with his forearm pointed east, his wrist north and his fingers due south. That was it.

Those amazing midgets put on another grand show with Fewee Gerard, a youthful newcomer to the half-pint ranks, winning for pal Tilo Infanio over the villainous trio of bewhiskered Ivan the Terrible and Sky Low-Lo. It was rip-roaring entertainment for some 25 minutes with the economy-size rasslers causing roars of merriment with their clever fast antics.

Pat Flanagan and Tosh Togo staged a colorful fast-action bout in the preliminary with the battle ending in a draw after thirty minutes.

Terriers Whip Elgins 4-1 Behind Jessup

GALT (CP)—Big Jeep Jessup put on a one-man show here Friday night to keep Galt Terriers in the running of the Senior International-county Baseball League finals as they beat St. Thomas Elgins 4-1.

Jessup bested manager Tommy White in a pitching duel and drove in three of Galt's runs including a 500-foot triple to deep centre for a run. In the seventh he singled to score two.

Galt's fourth was a home run over the right field fence by Harry Paulka. St. Thomas' lone run came in the seventh, the first counter to be scored on Jessup in 36 innings in the playoffs. He struck out 10 of the Elgins and after the second inning allowed but one hit.

White also pitched brilliantly and the only real bad frame was the eighth, when the locals bunched three hits.

The series now stands at 3-1 for the Elgins with the fourth game in St. Thomas tonight. The series will be resumed here Monday.

Welland Miss Wins Golf Title

TORONTO (CP)—Bernice Smith, 16-year-old golfer from the Lookout Point Club, near Welland, Friday won the Ontario junior girl's golf championship. She carried rounds of 39 and 41 for an 18-hole total of 80, seven-over-par, at the Toronto Lakeside Golf Club.

Runner-up was Noreen Lang, 19, of Toronto Mississauga, with an 82. Miss Smith's win gives the Lookout Club four major women's golf championships. Marlene Stewart holds the Canadian women's Close and Open titles and Ann Sharpe is the Ontario ladies' titleholder.

ISRAELI KILLED

JERUSALEM (AP)—An Israel Army spokesman said two Israeli soldiers were killed Friday near Beit Mazin village in the Latroun area by shots from across the Jordan armistice border.

Richards Signs With Orioles Says Tribune

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Tribune reported Friday night manager Paul Richards of the Chicago White Sox has committed himself to accept a three-year contract with the Baltimore Orioles as field manager and general manager.

The offer from Baltimore calls for approximately $45,000 a year, the Tribune said, but added that Richards has not gone through the formality of signing the contract.

Richards earlier Friday rejected a two-year contract offered by the White Sox. He said he will not announce his future plans until the end of the season. The Tribune said "it is believed he is motivated by a desire to spare Jimmie Dykes, Baltimore's manager, from embarrassment while the season is in progress and also to complete the season with the White Sox before the announcement."

NO ACCORD

Richards and Chuck Comiskey, White Sox vice-president met at Comiskey Park Friday, but failed to reach an accord on terms of a new contract. Comiskey said negotiations will continue at the end of the season.

Although details were not disclosed it was believed the club's offer was for two years with no increase in the salary, generally believed to be between $30,000 and $40,000, but with a slight revision upwards in his bonus, predicated on attendance.

Since Richards is a became the White Sox manager, attendance for the first time in the club's history went over the million mark. It has done so in each of his four seasons. This fact has guided the club to first division finishes in the American League.

Leafs' Sewell Is Voted Manager of Year

MONTREAL (CP) — Manager Luke Sewell of the pennant-winning Toronto Maple Leafs has been voted the International League's manager of the year. The announcement was made through league headquarters Friday by Al C. Weber of the Rochester Times-Union, president of the circuit's Baseball Writers' Association.

Sewell polled 13 votes out of a total 29 cast by writers. Harry Walker of Rochester Red Wings was runner-up with seven.

This is Sewell's first season with the Leafs, his second league action for 30 years as player, coach and manager. In 1944 Sewell brought the Louisville Browns their only pennant in American League history.

Thieves Get Fight Tickets, Cash, Jewels

NEW YORK (AP) — Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, reported to police Friday that between $20,000 and $30,000 worth of tickets for the Marciano-Ezzard Charles title fight next Wednesday had been stolen from his office during the night.

Weill also said that the thieves had taken $2,300 in cash, representing ticket sales, and about $2,000 worth of jewelry.

Officials of Yankee Stadium and the International Boxing Club have been notified what tickets were stolen. Police will be posted at the stadium gates to halt persons presenting the tickets.

Gar Fishing

By JOHN ALDEN KNIGHT
(Noted Sportsman, Author and Creator of Solunar Tables)

Every now and again a new fishing craze breaks out in a certain locality with all the characteristics and virulence of a severe epidemic. The fish in question as a rule are not strangers to the waters. Generally they have been there since time began.

Then all of a sudden, some fanatic cooks up a new lure or a novel method and the damage is done. Everybody rushes to join the fun.

Take Florida's bonefish, for example. Until 1947, the Florida Keys were a series of small islands surrounded by miles upon square miles of sand flats covered with shallow water. The bonefish there—always had been.

Then folks learned that bonefish could be caught on a fly. Word spread like wildfire. (Always wondered what "wildfire" is. Must be something that spreads real fast.) Anyway, every angler in the country wasn't happy unless he'd caught a bonefish.

Almost overnight the Florida Keys, from their former state of mangrove islands, coral rock and sand flats, took on the joint characteristics of Coney Island and a hot-shot subdivision development. Increases in property values skyrocketed into the millions.

How word comes from Memphis, Tenn., that the alligator gar, hard-shelled resident of the Mississippi river, is coming in for his share of attention from the anglers of that area. This fish, you probably know, reaches quite impressive poundage.

HEAVY DUTY TACKLE

The boys use heavy-duty deep sea tackle, wire leaders, and tuna hooks. My informants, Mr. Nash Buckingham of Memphis puts it this way:

"The area has gone nuts over fighting big gar-fish with deep-sea tackle—catches up to 200 pounds are common. Interesting technique—they're actually training 'em how to salute, like tarpon. (Wash means 'jump clear out of the water.') I got through with that 10 years ago, but it won't be long before the gar will be eatan like tuna.

"You bait with chicken innards or buffalo heads (buffalo fish, that is) let the gar find it deep. They'll work up to a sandbar reef to swallow and enjoy, and move around until it's swallowed. Then you hang it into the big guy and the ruckus starts.

"Use 50 to 250 pound-test line. They'll tow you and the motor. The craze spreading; good tackle promotional. Anyway it gives lake fishermen a breathing spell. Yll keep you posted."

Nash you will note, has a gift for brevity and graphic description.

Well, we live and learn. When I leave fished southern waters, always find has been my aim to avoid all complications with big gar. They are heavy, strong fish, equipped with armor-plate scales and wicked teeth.

Nash says that he "got thru with that 10 years ago." I was 30 years ahead of him. I'll join Nash on his lake and fish for bass, happy to leave the gar to those who enjoy them.

Basilio Verdicts Carmine Fiore

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavily-favored Carmen Basilio floored Carmine Fiore twice in the first round and went on to score a unanimous 10-round decision over the blood-smeared Brooklynite in Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Basilio weighed 147½, Fiore 148½.

It was Basilio's second victory in 17 months over Fiore and kept him in the running for a title shot at the winner of the Gavilan-Johnny Saxton championship fight.

The Canarsie from Canastota, N.Y., who is the No. 1 welter contender, stopped his aggressive, 31-year-old rival with left hooks in the opening round, and had him bleeding from the nose under the chin, and from the mouth and nose.

Royals Extend Second Spot Lead With Twin Wins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The International League playoff situation was a little clearer today as the result of twin triumphs by Montreal Royals and the Cuban Stars of Havana.

The Royals took 1½-game lead over Rochester Red Wingers in their series for second place by defeating Buffalo Bisons 6-3 and 10-4 Friday night. Havana took undisputed possession of fourth place—and helped Montreal's cause—by downing the Red Wings 8-6 and 4-3. The first game was the completion of a July 10 suspended contest.

In other games, the pennant-winning Toronto Maple Leafs (Skipper Richmond Virginians 10-2 on a 17-hit attack and Syracuse Chiefs downed Ottawa Athletics 5-2 in the first game of a scheduled double-header. The second was postponed because of rain. It will be played at Syracuse tonight.

Toronto's Norman spaced seven hits and Dixie Howell drove in three runs with a triple in Monirea's first game. Jim Black gave up eight hits and homered with one on in the Royals' second triumph.

Although pitching only one game, Ken Radtke-berg gained credit for both of Havana's victories. He was out in front when the July 10 game was called, but Jim Melton finished up Friday night. Then Radtke went the full distance, giving up only five hits.

Second-baseman Jennings with Hector Rodriguez hitting an inside-the-park grand slam homer in the second. Loren Babe hit a three-run homer in the second and Eddie Bilka had another circuit drive in the third.

Arthur Brown, deputy labor minister, announced following a meeting with union and company officials that further talks will be held Monday in pre-arbitration proceedings.

A HEAVY DOSE

There are times when all doctors in general practice are obliged to prescribe doses or regimens for individual patients which they would feel called upon to deplore as a general rule. The reason for this is that certain emergency situations call for strong measures; a qualified doctor can assess such emergency property and determine just how strong are the remedial measures that should be taken.

If a doctor, for example, prescribed dosages of a laxative much greater quantities than recommended on the bottle, it can be assumed that he understands what he is doing and why he is doing it. On the other hand a layman who goes beyond the recommended limits on the theory that "if a little is good, a lot is better" may be risking his life in his hands and inviting serious consequences.

The public should keep in mind that recommended dosages printed on the labels of proprietary medicines are not to be taken lightly. They are there advisable, for a good reason, and if a doctor for a good reason, and if a doctor sees fit to "break" the rules, it because he is thoroughly familiar with the rules and is qualified to make his own rules when circumstances make it necessary. Very few laymen are so qualified.

Question: "My 8-year-old niece had a high fever with flu last Spring and the doctor put her on 15 aspirin tablets a day for two days until the fever broke. Isn't that much aspirin dangerous for a child of 87 lb. not why shouldn't it we prescribed for her, and if the dosage prescribed by the doctor did the trick then why was he justified in prescribing it. It would be interesting to have a layman, without professional advice, to prescribe such a dosage on his own initiative.

SCHOOL AGAIN

The old school-bell its challenge flings
After across the countryside,
And children with reluctant feet
Forsake the joys of summerside,
When youth and summer faring forth
Upon adventure's way together,
Think that the year hold aught
But play
And joy and summer weather
Before them, lessons new to learn
New hopes, new tasks and paths unbroken,
And aspirations that shall be
Of true success, a faithful token;
Strange that the young should often wish
For the glad time of school days ended,
When all So many wish again
To tread the path they once had wended.

—Helen B. Anderson.

WELLINGTON— The summer holidays are over. School bells are ringing and schools are opening here. Many become an army of students. It was pleasant to hear a last say that he was glad to return to school. A successful student, he had been promoted to a higher grade.

Labor Day usually brings the summer season to a close. Holidays that bring a change of scene and friends are a benefit. A busy person who never takes him from city to city and among many people was heard to say how he enjoyed a holiday in the quiet country. He believed in the words of the old proverb, "The world is too much with us; late and soon,
Getting and spending we lay waste our powers;
Little we see in Nature that is ours."

On the other hand, those living in the secluded life delight not only in a change of scene, but also of meeting many people.

Garden Notes

Sulphur Is a Building Block

By FLORA M. SAVILLE

Few soils, with the exception of some in arid regions, contain naturally-occuring sulphur compounds. These sulphur compounds of sulphur—the sulphates—are water soluable and are rapidly leached out of soil by percolation of rainfall.

Not many soils, however, are deficient in sulphur, since quantities of this nutrient element are brought down from the atmosphere dust fall. Each chimney and smoke stack sends sulphur into the atmosphere as a waste product of coal, oil and gas, or fuel oil.

Sulphur is one of the "building blocks" in plant growth. It is a constituent of a group of proteins formed in growing plants. Alfalfa, for instance, requires as much sulphur as it does phosphorus. All typical odors and flavors associated with onions, mustard and members of the cabbage family are imparted by sulphur compounds.

READILY AVAILABLE

Complete plant foods contain sulphur as one of the ingredients of superphosphate. Superphosphate is manufactured by treating ground rock phosphate with sulfuric acid. This process makes the phosphate more available to the roots of growing plants and in process the acid is completely neutralized.

Superphosphate is a combination of several compounds, one of them being gypsum, or calcium sulphate. Contrary to some statements, it leaves no acid residue in the soil.

Sulphate of ammonia is another important sulphur-bearing plant food raw material. Used alone for several seasons as a nitrogen source, this compound will increase soil acidity; it is, therefore, not to be recommended for soils unless gardeners are aware of its drawbacks. However when it is included with other materials in a mixed complete plant food, the acid-forming properties of sulphate of ammonia are neutralized.

HAVE YOU MADE CUTTINGS?

Have you taken cuttings from your begonias, geraniums and coleus for houseplants and next year's garden? The fibrous-rooted begonias all make attractive, house plants and many of them will bloom within a few months.

Coleus grow no blooms. When they do produce a flower it is quite insignificant. They offer such a lovely array of colors in their foliage that they are prized plants for indoor culture.

Geraniums are something else again. They need long months of growth and have been into flower. That is why they are expensive plants for bedding where a quantity is needed. You can grow your own if you make several six inch cuttings from new soft wood. Some gardeners seem to be able to root them in water, others prefer sharp sand.

I like vermiculite. This is expanded mica sold in bulk in the seed store. It is quite inexpensive usually around 15 cents a pound. Pot cuttings and set them in a shady spot for a few weeks until they have formed roots. Keep the soil moist, but not wet. Bring them into the sun when you are sure they have developed roots half to three fourths of an inch long. By this time the sun will not be too hot for the plants to bear. Bring in poinsettias and cacti before the nights get too cool. Set in a sunny window.

AT THE BELLE

Doris Day, Robert Cummings Top WB CinemaScope Production

Extra-lively, extra-colorful, extra-ordinary in each department, "Lucky Me", Warner Bros. CinemaScope frolic about a gay group of show people in Miami Beach, which opened last night at the Belle Theatre, throws a broad smile across the screen that movie audiences are bound to catch. Fast moving and filled with songs, "Lucky Me", with Doris Day, Robert Cummings and Phil Silvers starring, takes the lead in the musical comedy sweepstakes.

Popular Doris Day plays the role of a humorously superstitious show-girl. Stranded with a musical comedy company that includes comedian Phil Silvers, Doris is too unhappy at the moment to enjoy the scenic beauties of sunny Florida, but, successful and debonair Robert Cummings is just in the right frame of mind to admire the attraction that is Doris. Their courtship portends a series of gay and gal-orious events that encompass the new songs and production numbers that fill the huge Cinema-Scope screen to its best advantage thus far. The toe-tapping tunes written by Sammy Fain and Paul Francis Webster include the lovely ballad, "It Must Be the Stars", and "Take a, Memo To The Moon", "Love You Dearly", "Hello Hoops", "Rebells of Broadway", "Parisian Pretties," "Soorsrition Song", "I Wanna Sing Like an Angel", "Men", and "Lucky Me." The asstles and romantics of stars Doris Day, Robert Cummings and Phil Silvers with Broadway's Nancy Walker and Eddie Fry, Jr., keep the action hot and humming.

STAR CAST

Miss Day, alwfys a favorite, proves once again that she alone is queen of the musical comedy. Followinr her success in "Calamity Jane". Doris unlimbers her voice and dancing feet in her most enjoyable role. The pace she lends to the film hardly gives the audience time to recover from one eye-filling scene to the other. Doris has now ushered in a new Cinema-Scope Day and the dawn comes up with the thunder of applause.

Robert Cummings, playing the romantic lead, handles his role with charm and skill that lends much to his characterization of the successful song writer who wins Doris after a whirlwind courtship.

Bespectacled and spectacular Phil Silvers is perfectly cast in the role of the baggy-pants comic whose requited love for Doris doesn't deter him from singing and dancing and clowning in the best role of his career.

AT THE CAPITOL — The late Glenn Miller in a scene with Sonja Henie and John Payne from "Sun Valley Serenade", the Twentieth Century-Fox encore triumph coming to the Capitol Theatre on Monday. In this sparkling musical Miss Henie does some spectacular skating numbers, including the famous Black Ice Ballet, to the sweet swing music of Miller's fabulous band. The picture also has breath-taking ski sequences that were filmed in Sun Valley, Milton Berle and Joan Davis, popular T.V. stars have the comedy roles. On the same program "Orchestra Wives" starring Glenn Miller and his band with George Montgomery, Ann Rutherford and Jackie Gleason.

AT THE McCARTHY

AGNES MOOREHEAD PROVES VERSATILE

(Current)

To be a completely versatile actress is the ambition of Agnes Moorehead, who heads the feature cast of Universal-International's Technicolor production of Lloyd C. Douglas' "Magnificent Obsession," held over until Wednesday at the Odeon McCarthy Theatre.

Jane Wyman, Rock Hudson and Barbara Rush are starred in this celebrated love story by the author of "The Robe," while Otto Kruger, Gregg Palmer and Sara Shane play strong supporting roles.

Miss Moorehead has been reselling that ambition in almost every medium available to an actress. She was one of radio's outstanding dramatic performers, establishing as an institution the classic tour - de - force "Sorry, Wrong Number" which she has done on many broadcasts and which became a Barbara Stanwyck starring motion picture.

On the screen Miss Moorehead was nominated for an Academy Award in support of Jane Wyman in "Johnny Belinda."

And the stage has felt her presence, likewise, for in the 1930 years prior to her appearance in "Magnificent Obsession," Miss Moorehead toured with Charles Laughton, Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Charles Boyer in "Don Juan in Hell."

Movie Column

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This may come as a blow to Hollywood's ego, but Italy's sexy stars are not clamoring to come here.

I gleaned this information from one of the Italian beauties, Milly Vitale, who has been lured to these shores. But it's only a temporary stay. She'll probably head right back to her homeland.

Milly, a raven-tressed, curvaceous lovely of 21 years, is playing the mother of seven children opposite Bob Hope in "Paths Fo and the Seven Little Foys." She was here once before, to play with Kirk Douglas in "The Story of" which was also filmed in Israel.

I asked her if she would stay on after the Hope picture.

"Perhaps," she replied, "if some other pictures come up. Otherwise I will go back to Home."

What's this? Isn't Hollywood the land of opportunity for actresses the world over? She indicated otherwise.

"I can make more money in Italy," she said. "The taxes here take half my salary. I don't know what amount I pay in Italy, because my father handles the business matters. But the tax is very little."

She discussed a report that her fellow actresses, Rossana Podesta and Eleanora Rossi-Drago, were being considered for a movie here with Rosalind Russell.

TOPS IN ITALY

"I doubt if they will come," Milly remarked. "In Italy, they are stars. Why should they come here to play in a picture where Rosalind Russell is the star?

"Take Gina Lollobrigida, for example. There is no reason why she should come to Hollywood. In Italy, she is the tops. Here, she would be just another star."

Why did she come here for the Hope picture?

"Because they sent me the script and I liked it," she replied. "And Bob Hope is such a world-wide favorite that it is bound to do me good."

Although she is not overwhelmed by Hollywood, Milly admitted that she admires American men.

"They are very beautiful," she commented. "Of course, we have handsome men in Italy, too. But there seems to be so many more of them here. I don't know why it is. Maybe it is all the milk they drink."

Batas' Bobby Bunton Blanks Peterborough by 10-0 Score For Second Straight Victory

PETERBOROUGH (Special) — Belleville Senators registered their second win in a best-of-five OBA play off series against Peterborough Friday night at Riverside Park by defeating Joe Lowrey's Petes by the tally of 10-0 in a rather one-sided baseball struggle before a small crowd of fans. Batas took the first game in Belleville Wednesday night by a 3-2 margin and the third contest is slated for the Quinte town Saturday night.

Bob Bunton, ace right-hander for the Belleville nine, was in superb form as he scattered nine hits, struck out 11 men and walked four in a fine display to hold the Littlock boys in complete subjection throughout; while his mates led by catcher Tony Pettitt smote the offering of Doug Loucks and Joe Lowrey for a combined total of 14 hits and racked up a handy ten-run lead.

Doug Loucks started on the mound for the losers, but yielded the honors to Joe Lowrey in the fourth inning; neither proved able to stem the Batas offensive display in a gallant effort.

Batas opened the scoring in the second frame when Fitzpatrick singled through second, advanced on a failed fly choice by Bobby Bush, and scored when Doug Hull rapped a hard single through short. Continuing their onslaught in the big third frame Bunton walked and was fanned; but Keith McDonald hit safely and Jerry Goyer was safe on an error. Fitzpatrick walked, Bush fanned, but Tony Pettitt, who proved the offensive star of the night, rapped a double to right to clear the bases and give the visitors a commanding lead that they clung to and added to score Pettitt; but McCormick grounded to third to end the inning.

Lowrey replaced Loucks in the fourth and held Batas till the sixth when three walks and an error accounted for their fourth score. One in the seventh on Pettitt's double and Reeves single added to the visitors total, and in the final s walk, Pettitt's third hit, plus singles by Bunton and Carr, gave the winners two more runs and a clear-cut victory. Adds the Batas team's correspondent twirling chore Pettitt had three hits, Bunton and Carr two each for four. Pettitt had three RBI's, Hull, Vern Goyer and Reeves one apiece. For the losers Bill Eiger and Junior West hit two for four and five respectively and Dalton, Bigford, Redmond, Donlevy and Paget hit safely.

POLIO MEET ENDS

ROME (AP)—One of the world's great assemblies of polio fighters closed Friday with a message of hope and of warning: Science appears to be on the verge of finding a vaccine to control the scourge. But, until this is proven and in general use, polio will march forward at a dark and unbidden guest of civilization.

Two are Killed At Bracebridge

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont. (CP)— Two persons were killed and two others critically injured Friday night in a series of accidents involving five cars on a 100-yard stretch of slippery highway six miles south of this Muskoka district town.

Dead are Julian Kovath, 38, of St. Catharines, and Sidney Himmel, 48, of Lockerbury, Ont., near Sudbury.

Critically injured were Samuel Glass, 55, of Sudbury Junction, driver of the car in which Himmel was a passenger and Mrs. Rose Himmel, 35. Both were brought to hospital here.

Provincial police said Kovath was driving alone north on Highway 11 when his car went out of control on the "Gibraltar" mountained an embankment and plunged into a deep ravine.

The Glass car was southbound when the driver apparently saw red flares at the scene of the first accident, applied his brakes, struck rocks and then a parked car, police said. Mr. and Mrs. Himmel were thrown from the car.

Occupants of two other cars which skidded off the road when they saw the flares were not seriously injured.

Confident Quemoy Can Be Defended Minus U.S. Troops

Will Rely on American Sea and Air Power Alone

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower presumably has been advised by the military that they are confident Quemoy island can be defended from any Red invasion attempt with United States sea and air power alone—if there is a political decision for such intervention.

Military officials attending Sunday's session of the National Security Council were reported to believe that any move by Red Chinese forces to land on Quemoy, hard by the Asiatic mainland, can be repelled without any help from American ground forces.

State Secretary Dulles, just back from the Far East, told newspaper men Sunday that the defence of Quemoy is related to the defence of the Chinese Nationalist stronghold of Formosa and is being considered in that light.

Stopping at Denver to report to President Eisenhower and the council, Dulles said it is primarily up to the American military chiefs to decide and recommend whether effective protection of Formosa requires U.S. defence of Quemoy.

RELY ON FLEET, PLANES

If a decision should be made to defend Quemoy, American strategists would rely on the gunfire and planes of the 7th Fleet and the fighters and fighter-bombers of the U.S. Air Force.

The objective would be to crush the transportation and air and ground support of a Red invasion fleet before it could reach the shores of the Nationalist-held islands, not to engage in combat with the Communist troop manpower in the invasion armada. This is believed learned in Korea of the vast and costly commitment of ground force needed to fight China's hordes of infantry.

However, some of the other disadvantages of the Korean campaign might attend any action for the defence of Quemoy. If the decision were made to confine it solely to naval operations.

In the Korean war, no bombing of Red air bases in China was permitted because of U.S. policy. Thus the dangerously powerful Red air fleet of jet fighters had to be dealt with only in the air above the battle zone.

Application of the same rules in a campaign to defeat a Red invasion attempt would impose the same problem. American fliers would have to rely on the ability to drive Red planes from the line of battle at the same time bombing and strafing invasion craft.

Eleven Killed In Accidents Over Week-End

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Eleven persons were killed in accidents throughout eastern Canada during the weekend. Seven lost their lives in traffic mishaps.

The list of violent deaths also included a boy who fell 100 feet from the edge of a cliff and a man who dropped three storeys to a concrete pavement.

A Canadian Press survey showed Quebec led provincial lists with six fatalities. Three persons were killed in Ontario and one each in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. No accidental deaths were reported in New Brunswick and Newfoundland.

Andre Martineau, 11, of Quebec City, died in a 100-foot fall from the edge of a cliff while running away from a boarding school at Levis, near Quebec, Sunday. He was fatally injured when he fell three storeys while jumping from an apartment balcony to the roof of a neighbor's shed.

In Ontario, three-year-old Bonnis Lawrey of Lakefield was crushed to death by her father's car when it collided with a truck and overturned several times on the highway 25 miles northeast of Peterborough.

Robert Fritzley, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fritzley of Exeter, died in hospital of injuries received when a car backed over him in a laneway near his home. Ernie Miller was killed when struck by a car on the main street of Selkirk, 30 miles south of Hamilton.

Medical Supplies Being Rushed To Survivors

WESTOVER, Mass. (AP) — A plane headed today from this base to Thule air base, Greenland, with medical supplies for five survivors of a United States plane which crashed there Sunday with the loss of 39 men.

Air force officials here identified the plane which crashed and burned as a four engined C-124 Globemaster. It crashed about 5:30 a.m. Sunday on Thule base, 900 miles south of the North Pole, while taking a new crew to the base.

The Atlantic division military transport service reported 10 of the 15 persons aboard were killed.

Their names were withheld pending notification of next-of-kin.

The plane left Westover a few days ago and was on a regularly scheduled flight out of Thule when its commander declared a "state of emergency" 12 minutes before becoming airborne. It was not immediately known what caused the emergency.

Bank Official Dies

TORONTO (CP) — Lt.-Col. Duncan Donald, 84, a retired lawyer and supervisor of premises for the Canadian Bank of Commerce 21 years, died Sunday.

One of the buildings built under his supervision was the present head office in downtown Toronto, the tallest building in the British Empire. He retired in 1933. His widow and one daughter survive.

THE WEATHER

TORONTO, (CP) — Synopsis: The boundary between warm and cold air lies across southwestern Ontario this morning and the weather map indicates little eastward motion over the next 24 hours. A disturbance over Nebraska moves towards the Great Lakes will affect the weather over southern Ontario Tuesday.

TYPHOON MOST VIOLENT IN JAPAN'S HISTORY

Worse Than 1934 Gale Which Left 2,000 Dead

TOKYO (CP) — Typhoon June, termed the most violent in Japan's weather history, slammed into populous Kyushu island in late today, packing winds of up to 120 miles an hour.

The boiling storm, advance guard of which already have killed six persons, is expected to cut a 300-mile wide path of death and devastation right across Japan's main southern island. It may hit this country's capital.

Weather experts describe the storm as even more powerful than the 1934 typhoon Muroto, worst in Japan's history. Muroto killed more than 2,000 people and demolished 40,000 homes.

Typhoon June struck in the path of typhoon June left their homes Sunday night for higher ground to escape raging waves churned up by the storm. All planes on Kyushu were grounded. Schools were closed.

The typhoon was expected to strike with more powerful blasts in southern tip of the main island of Honshu before roaring out to sea and but the weather bureau later said the storm might veer toward the Japan Sea.

MAY SLOW UP

However, the United States Air Force, which has tracked many storm for several days, said its peak winds possibly would slow to 75 miles an hour when it reaches to 36 hours.

In South Korea the weather bureau said fringe winds up to 50 miles an hour would hit southern provinces of Kyongsang.

It said the typhoon is expected to pass through the Korean straits and probably will miss the peninsula.

In the Honshu village of 10,000 persons was totally evacuated in advance of the storm. Flimsy houses were buffeted and roof tiles sent soaring in the air by the advance winds, which were described as a only half the strength of those around the typhoon's centre.

The typhoon encircled an area of 300 miles across when measured by radio tracking stations in Japan proper.

Offices and schools in western Japan closed down and refugee and disaster centres were set up.

Girl Wins $25,000

EDMONTON (CP) — Barbara Barker, a 25-year-old stenographer from Vancouver, B.C., Sunday accepted both salts at a dance, Saturday night. $25,000 on a sweepstake ticket.

Miss Barker held the ticket on Elenpemesa, a 22-to-1 shot who finished second in the St. Leger Stakes in Doncaster, England. She bought the $1 ticket a month ago from a former railway employee of the Canadian National railways in Quebec Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans Association.

State Vote Shows Discontent Menaces Adenauer's Regime

By DANIEL DE LUCE

KIEL, Germany (AP)—A political riptide today menaced Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and his pro-American foreign policy as his Socialist foes emerged as the strongest party in a key West German state election.

Although the coalition headed by Adenauer's Christian Democratic Union appears sure of holding control of the government in the Soviet zone frontier state of Schleswig-Holstein, the Socialists' 12,000-vote lead in Sunday's balloting is seen as a clear-cut exposure of the old leader's suddenly dwindling popularity.

The rural state — called the "spoonbone of the Bonn republic" — snuffed the 78-year-old chancellor's plea for a vote of confidence in electing its new Landtag (state parliament).

Campaigning for overtures to Russia to unify East and West Germany, the Socialists outscored the Christian Democrats by the same state that accord the CDU a 2-to-1 margin over its arch-rival last year when Adenauer was first elected chancellor.

Adenauer fought to save his international prestige with a speech in this state Friday in which he described NATO membership as unconditional German sovereignty by 1955.

But as he talked with Britain's Foreign Secretary Eden in Bonn on finding some way to end the rearming West Germany despite the Fourth scuttling of the European Defence Community, the voters of this state showed their mounting discontent.

The Socialists elected 20 Landtag candidates to the CDU's 19 in direct contests. But a complicated system alloting 40 per cent of the Parliament's 69 seats in a proportional basis gave the rival parties a final total of 25 seats each.

The Refugee party won 10 seats and the Free Democrats five. The remaining four went to the bloc formed by the German party and the Schleswig-Holstein community. The Communists again were shut out.

CDU minister-president Friedrich Wilhelm Lueble, whose forces have run the state since 1950 in partnership with the Refugee party, today said he will also invite the Free Democrats to join in a new government under his command.

With both the Refugee party and the Free Democrats in its coalition, the CDU would muster 40 of the 69 seats, compared to the Socialists' 25.

Adenauer's four-party national coalition includes the Refugee party, the Free Democrats and the German party. The national coalition is seriously strained by the CDU's reverse here. The Free Democrats want Adenauer to quit as foreign minister so he holds in addition to his chancellorship. But he has refused to take it.

The CDU is split in its own ranks at Bonn over Adenauer's current bid for NATO membership. Many CDU members of Parliament now are saying that the chances for reunification would be seriously endangered by any contribution to Western defense that would antagonize Russia.

Political observers predict the nationalist element will collapse if the Socialist trend continues strong in state elections in Bavaria, Hesse and Lower Saxony later this year.

Toronto Stops in Mid-Day Rush To Cheer, Honor Marilyn Bell

TORONTO (CP) — Despite a steady downpour, downtown Toronto stopped its usual mid-day rush to cheer Marilyn Bell, 18, first person in the world to swim across Lake Ontario.

Hiding happily, although damply, in the back of a convertible, the blonde swimmer waved to thousands of persons who had left their offices to line the sidewalks and towering buildings as she made her way up Bay street in city hall for a civic reception.

At city hall, she received two gifts presented by Mayor Leslie Saunders. The first was a silver maple leaf, set with a large diamond, inscribed, in part, "to Marilyn Bell in recognition of her phenomenal achievement in swimming across Lake Ontario, Youngstown, N.Y., to Toronto, Ontario, September 9, 1954."

The city also gave her a set of matched luggage.

The parade, which started at a downtown hotel where Marilyn has been staying since completing her gruelling marathon, was stopped momentarily while she was given a silver tray from John Bassett, publisher of The Telegram.

While the cavalcade, led by mounted police and the Governor General's Canadian Artillery band, rolled slowly by the cheering throngs, ticker tape from the buildings showered down. "Wall street" floated down.

When Marilyn peered out of her hotel window earlier and saw the steady rainfall, she grinned and said:

"Oh well, I had more water to contend with the other day."

Classes at Loretto College, which Marilyn attends, were dismissed for the afternoon. "We don't think there would be much point in having classes," said Sister Mary Alice, principal. "Most of the students would have gone to the reception anyway."

Boiler Expert Dies

TORONTO (CP) — William H. Taylor, 82, surveyor of reports and designs for pressure boilers and machinery for the provincial government the last 24 years, died Saturday at his home here.

BREAKS TIGHT ROPE RECORD

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — A 22-year-old Swedish agricultural worker, Allo Ludvigsen, has set a world record in tightrope walking on a slack rope by clocking 31 hours and four minutes. He descended Sunday night after beating a record set only last week by Germany's tightrope walker Hermann Schneider, who had stayed aloft 30 hours 15 minutes.

Railways Want Rate-Setting Curbs Eased

OTTAWA (CP)—The transcontinental railways said today they intend to seek to have a transportation royal commission recommend that some "shackles" on railway rate-setting be loosened.

Their view was made known to Hon. W. M. Hamilton, who is at a preliminary conference in advance of formal hearings in a royal commission inquiry on railway problems opening here Tuesday.

The inquiry hearings are to start about Oct. 12. It deals with contract freight rates—the so-called agreed charges—which the railway enter into with individual shippers.

Hugh O'Donnell, chief counsel of the CPR—said the CNR consider that there are "too many restrictions on the railways," in regulation and over-regulation.

"The whole position requires amendment that would enable the railways to operate on a fairer basis with their opposition," he said. "They should have freedom in establishing agreed charges and competitive rates generally to meet water competition."

Mr. O'Donnell said the railways have been seriously hamstrung in meeting competition.

"A number of outmoded restrictions," he said, "are based on past theory of the railways as a monopoly. These are no longer justified and should be removed."

ASSAILED AS ANTI-NAZI

MAINZ, Germany (AP)—A former German army general colonel was publicly assailed at a veterans' meeting Sunday because he had written articles while a British prisoner-of-war. The West German section of the British troopers association accused Dr. Von der Heydte, now a professor at Mainz University, of having written the articles for a prison camp newspaper. Lieut.-Gen. Roon, chairman of the veterans' association, who warned the meeting to "avoid political misunderstanding," said the publication has been ended and should not be taken up again in reverse."

'ADEQUATE' TAX ON MARGARINE IS REQUESTED

Butter Surplus Alarms Dairy Council's Head

OTTAWA (CP) — J. J. Creighton, president of the National Dairy Council, said today the government's butter price-support program may crash under the impact of rising surpluses unless an "adequate" excise tax is imposed on competing margarine.

Opening the council's three-day annual meeting, he estimated that Canada's butter stocks on Sept. 1 stood at an all-time high of more than 100,000,000 pounds.

And, he added, unless the government takes action to stimulate sales at home or sells surpluses abroad at a lower cost, it will enter the new butter-producing season next spring with an unsold stock of at least 50,000,000 pounds—almost triple the surpluses of previous years.

The statements were contained in the text of a speech issued before delivery.

OPPOSE DISPOSAL

The council, representing the processing and distribution segment of Canada's $1,000,000,000 dairy industry, opposed disposal of Canadian butter at fire sale prices to New York state where it is now price cuts. Mr. Creighton said, "Canadian consumers, the taxpayers should be the first to benefit.

Canada's dairy problems were not confined entirely to those in the butter business. The industry was concerned over the lack of cheese and milk powder outlets.

"An export market must be found for the 50,000,000 up to 75,000,000 pounds of cheddar cheese," said Mr. Creighton. "At present prices, no such market is in sight.

"Stock of skim milk powder are expected to be from 150,000,000 to 10,000,000 pounds higher than are required for the available market ... large surpluses of milk powder hang over the world market and freeze customers are making efforts to become self-sufficient in milk production."

Passenger Train Grinds to Stop On Lake's Brink

GERALDTON, Ont. (CP)—A Canadian National Railways passenger train ground to an emergency stop on the brink of a lake near Bicarmore, 50 miles east of here, Saturday night.

Railway officials said a padlock on a switch had been smashed, sending the train on a spur line.

The long skid of the emergency stop left the rear coach teetering. No one was injured.

The two civilians formed a human chain to pull the coach to safety across the swirling water to dry land.

Two of the children were passed to safety when a small building started down the steep bank and smashed into the fence rail the men were using as anchor for their rope. The rest of the children were rescued later.

Meanwhile, hurricane Florence, sixth tropical storm of the year, broke up as it moved inland on the Mexican coast Sunday.

Hurricane Edna Did Devilish Worst But Radio Ham Kept Station Going

By GERRY MARTIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

YARMOUTH, N. S. (CP)—Lusty hurricane Edna, which wrought devilish worst, but she couldn't make Clyde Robbins shut up.

He kept talking on her. She snapped off one of his aerials, then his wrecked antenna system, leaving down in a shower of bricks on his cluttered radio-repair shop, but shut off he never.

Clyde just switched on his emergency generator and kept on talking.

He told how Edna had come screaming up from New England to tear up trees, wreck fishing gear, and snap power lines. At his mouth, most southern town in the province and first to get the storm.

Clyde runs the only network control station for the 50 amateur radio sets in the Maritimes. Clyde joined the United States hurricane network at 8 a. m. Saturday. He kept 300-watt station VE2W on the air for 39 hours non-stop, then finally lines he lost contact with other stations.

Edna did a better job on other forms of communication. She gleefully yanked out telephone and telegraph poles, dropped trees on the wires and shorted out electricity.

Ham radios were the only connection Yarmouth had to places in the Maritimes through the wind-tortured night and most of Sunday. The 30 stations were swamped with people begging for news of loved ones living in the path of the storm.

But the operators were spared having to make tragic announcements. There was property damage mounting to the millions, but only one man was killed in all the Maritimes. He was William Jefferson Lewis, 70, of Lunenburg, N.S., who spent the same grind in front of his radio set.

Britt passed the messages on to the Canadian Press, which in turn handed them to commercial radio stations still on the air. Edna's secrecy veil was pierced before regular communication lines were restored.

The Yarmouth Chronicle - Herald says "Hats are off today to the amateur radio 'hams'."

Maritimes' Loss Runs To Millions; 8 Drown In Maine

Autos Caught in Washouts Death Traps for Occupants

PORTLAND, Me. (AP)—Washedout highways, railroad tracks and crops lay like a ragged wound today across territory in the New England states raked by death-dealing hurricane Edna, which also struck at Nova Scotia.

The cost in lives in the United States was 19—13 of them in New England and eight in Maine alone. Seven autos were trapped in road and bridge washouts by streams that went wild under a record eight inches rain.

Maine's governor Burton M. Cross, after an air survey, set loss here at more than $7,000,000—on top of $10,000,000 wrought 12 days before by hurricane Carol. Cross has asked President Eisenhower to declare Maine a major disaster area for federal relief.

ALL DROWNINGS

All of Maine's dead were drownings victims. Four persons perished in Massachusetts, one in Connecticut. Six highway fatalities in New York state were attributed to the hurricane.

Southern New England, braced for devastation reminiscent of the 1938 hurricane, was spared heavy property damage and even in the area hardest hit water, not wind, was blamed for much of the destruction.

Telephone lines went out of service on a scale that once again saw repair crews head from southern New England into Maine, where their task was complicated by road washouts that caused a temporary ban on travel to all but emergency vehicles.

Late Sunday night state police said the main routes again were open.

Hundreds of New Englanders left their coastal lowland homes, returning to find watery still in evidence, although receding.

At Augusta, the Kennebec river was 23.5 feet from normal—five feet higher than its peak last spring.

DIE IN RESCUE TRY

Two of Maine's hurricane victims perished in a daring seven-hour effort to rescue a family of 10 from the top of an automobile stranded by Little Sandy stream at Unity.

Assistant fire chief Alton McEwen, 43, and Ruth Brockway, 8, one of the passengers, were swept downstream when floating debris broke a human chain to shore.

The car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brockway and their eight children had been stranded, the stream swept over its banks.

The long skid of the emergency stop left the rear coach teetering. No one was injured.

Brockway pulled his family to safety in the car top. Firemen and two civilians formed a human chain to pull the coach to safety across the swirling water to dry land.

Two of the children were passed to safety when a small building started down the steep bank and smashed into the fence rail the men were using as anchor for their rope. The rest of the children were rescued later.

Meanwhile, hurricane Florence, sixth tropical storm of the year, broke up as it moved inland on the Mexican coast Sunday.

Hees Says Liberals Having Trouble Getting Candidates for By-Elections

OTTAWA (CP) — George Hees, president of the Progressive Conservative Association of Canada, said today the Liberal party has difficulty finding candidates to run in six forthcoming by-elections.

"It is the government's inability to persuade candidates to run in the six ridings in the slate of by-elections to be put off from October 4 to October 18," Hees said in a statement.

Federal by-elections now are expected to be called for either Nov. 1 or Nov. 8. Previous speculation had the by-elections scheduled for Oct. 18 or Oct. 25.

Mr. Hees said the Liberals seem to be running into particular difficulties in Montreal.

"No one but Mr. Marler (Transport Minister Marler) who was first made a cabinet minister can be persuaded to run," he said.

Meanwhile, the Progressive Conservatives had nominated candidates in seven constituencies.

Two are in the Montreal ridings of St. Lawrence-St. George and St. Antoine-Westmount. One is also in Ontario—York West. Toronto Lansdowne and Toronto—and the other is in the Manitoba riding of Selkirk.

The Liberals have nominated candidates in three ridings, York West, Stormont and St. Antoine-Westmount; the CCF one, in York West.

Mr. Hees leaves Tuesday for a tour of the west, including campaign work in Selkirk.

Three Kingston Girls Admitted To Hospital

Three Kingston girls were admitted to Belleville hospital, Saturday afternoon, one of them with severe head lacerations, after their car went out of control and slammed into a tree on Highway No. 2, three miles east of the city.

Most severely injured was Miss Loreen Gilmore who with her sister, Gloria was thrown out of the car onto the boulevard, when the car driven by Miss Olive Williams slammed into the small tree.

The three girls were westbound when the right wheels of the car apparently dropped off the pavement throwing it out of control. The car skidded across the highway and crashed into a tree on the boulevard, between the two highway lanes.

The injured girls were taken to hospital by Bush's Ambulance. Provincial Constable J. Fullerton investigated.

ANCIENT AUTOS RACE

GODMOND, Eng. (Reuter)—Twenty American and British horseless carriages of Grandma's day snorted and coughed into the end of an 856-mile road race here Saturday. The British team beat the American but nobody seemed to notice. The point was, they all made the 1904 run from Edinburgh to this south English town covered in a week of steady bone rattling.

Heavy Classes of Livestock, Novelty Events Attract Large Attendance at 'World's Fair'

They'll have to enlarge the track at Shannonville fair grounds if there is any repeat of Saturday's record number of race horses turning up another year.

Saturday, the annual "World's Fair" was held at the village on the banks of the Salmon River and no less than 28 race horses turned up. But the track was too small and only 22 of them could be started in the three classes.

All in all the Shannonville fair was another success with all livestock classes being well filled and the horse show was the biggest in the history of the fair. Both heavy and lighter types of horses were well filled, while Jack Bush the Belleville pilot on a special show with his pair of beautiful palomino horses.

GROUNDS RE-ARRANGED

The Shannonville fair committee headed by its president, Ed. Lazier, came up with grounds rearrangement this year which saw the midway moved from inside the race track to near the entrance gates. The change was voted a decided improvement by many of the fairgoers.

Also new this year was the addition to the agricultural building which provides many square feet of added show space. Even with the new addition the agricultural building had every available space taken as exhibits of domestic science, fancy work, school exhibits, dairy and garden products filled the hall.

New bleachers from which fairgoers can watch the horse racing and horse judging on the track are also a decided improvement.

WARDEN OPENS FAIR

Warden Fred Mitchell who officially opened the fair, congratulated the fair committee for the improvements made on the grounds this year. He said he had been invited to Shannonville Fair for many years, and noted it was getting "bigger and better" each year.

Fair president, Ed. Lazier, spoke briefly as did Sid Fitzgerald, district fairs representative, who also commented on improvements to the grounds. He referred to the new hall addition, the "change midways and to the well filled classes of horses, sheep, swine and cattle. "Thanks for a good job well done," he told the directors.

Shannonville Fair would not be complete without a school parade and Saturday was no exception.

SCHOOL PARADE HELD

Headed by the Kinsmen Boys' Band of Belleville, the parade marched from the village, the parade route ending up in the fair grounds where schools were judged. Shannonville School took top honors with Farrell's school second, and the second consession school of Miss Helen Shirley's coming in for third place.

The baby show attracted its usual large number of gurgling infants and proud mothers. Winners in one to six months' class for girls, were Sandra Lee Kimmerly, Glenda Cumbley, and Rose Marion. Winners in the same class for boys were Michael Lazier, Gregory Clark and Leland Diamond. In the six to 12 months' class for girls, Betty Ann Garland, Carol Lewis and Marlene Bender were winners, while in the boys' class Billy Hinchey, Herbert Weston and Kevan Chambers were tops.

Dr. D. C. McVicker was judge for the baby show, assisted Mary Vivian, Reg. N., Helen Vivian, Reg. N., and Mrs. Raymond Clarke.

MANY NOVELTY EVENTS

There was keen competition for the novelty events program, which saw Bram Humphreys of Belleville acting as master of ceremonies.

Old time fiddlers William Bryant and Walter Marrick walked away with the fiddling honors, while Jack Beaton and Cam and Chris Young copped the cash for step dancing.

The ladies' nail driving contest saw an exceptionally large entry. There was a long way to go for first place and when the nails were all driven Mrs. Mary Mackenzie, Mrs. C. Wager and Mrs. Clarence Brant were said to have finished in that order.

The honor of having the most freckles went to 10-year-old Charles Lazier, the oldest couple on the grounds was Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sagriff with their eight children took the prize for having the largest family on the grounds.

LOG SAWING

The art of log sawing is still not, forgotten it was proven by the McCormick Brothers of Read, who bested a large field of entrants. Second place winners were B. Miller and T. Sagriff.

An exhibition baseball fixture saw Read, winners in the Souta Hastings League, defeat the fitgerd Juniors from Belleville by an 8-7 score.

Tyendinaga stalwarts proved themselves best in the tug-of-war as they "pulled" a team from Thurlow.

Dorothy Dickey's School of dancing provided the feature entertainment in the evening program, taking part in the various dance numbers were Caron Post and Hubert Lough; with Gladyse Bain, Carolyn Chisholm and Vickey Sero in solo numbers. Other numbers were given by Barbara Mattis and Patsy Fitzgibbon.

The humorous dance number "Margie" was cleverly done by Joyce McLaughlin, Audrey Desnadge, Helen Kellar and Linn Garcell. Another duet dance number was done by Gail Juby and Evelyn Marsele. Gerald Taylor was heard in an accordion solo, while Beverly and Wayne Gowe sang a duet. Mrs. Jean Sills acted as accompanist with Bram Humphreys as master of ceremonies.

Following the program square and round dancing were enjoyed to Orchestra.

Police Blotter

There is a young east hill boy who is very sorry today after unintentionally smashing a window in a Victoria Ave. house.

It seems there was a chestnut fight in the vicinity of the house and the young lad was knocking the chestnuts down by throwing stones. One misdirected stone sailed right through the tree and also through the window. The lad's father said the window would be replaced.

Ralph Collins, south Front street, has a skiff found floating in the bay. It is believed the skiff broke its moorings during the week-end heavy wind.

Two instances of damage being done to houses under construction were reported to police.

Only one minor motor accident was reported with damage amounting to only slightly more than $100.

Madoc, Kingston Rinks Are High In Tournament

In ideal weather although a little on the cool side for the evening game, the last tournament of the season for the Belleville Bowling Club was held on Saturday afternoon. There were eighteen mixed trebles rinks in play and Mrs. Percy Locke, Percy Locke and Basil Locke as skip was the victorney with three games high score. They were closely followed by Mrs. B. E. Coppins, Mrs. Morley Galt and Morley Galt of Kingston, while in third place was Mrs. Gordon Watkin, Claude D. Tice and Gordon Watkin.

The two-game high winners were Jack Smith, Mrs. George Watkin and Austin Watkin as skip, while Mrs. Orlo Smith, Mrs. Percy Graham and Percy Graham captured the one-game high score.

The tournament was conducted by W. B. "Skit" Vandervoort assisted by Gordon Edwards and the games were run off smoothly and efficiently. The greens were lightning fast after the rain of Friday evening and the bowling was exceptionally good on all the rinks. There was a maximum of 18 points for each team in each game but the number of ends completed did not reach the top figures so keen was the bowling.

On Wednesday evening the last large mixed event of the season will be played at the local greens. The games will start as soon after the supper hour as possible and three 12-end games will be played. There will be valuable prizes for the winners.

Nitro Used to Blow A&P Safe, Cash Taken 'Considerable'

Using nitroglycerine to blow the door off the office safe, safecrackers early today escaped with Saturday's receipts of the A. and P. Store on Pinnacle street.

Police Inspector Thurlow said the amount lost was given by police other than to say it was "considerable". It was intimated that payday night and Saturday's receipts were in the safe.

Police Inspector J. C. Hayes labelled the safe job as having been done by professionals. He said that nitroglycerine had been used to blow the door off the small safe in the chain grocery.

Police believe the safe job was done some time between four and six o'clock this morning as checks made by patrol officers had indicated that doors to the premises were intact prior to that time. Entry to the store was gained by a back door, which was pried open with the use of a bar.

After gaining entrance the thieves traversed the length of the store to the office in the northwest corner where they attacked the safe. Discarded windows in the front of the store would probably block the vision of anyone passing outside the store.

Headed by Inspector Hayes, police this morning were checking the smashed safe for fingerprints, but were well satisfied the robbery was the work of out of town professionals.

Six Calves, Season's Crop Lost in Blaze

Loss, estimated at close to $12,000 was caused at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie W. Greatrix, 2nd concession Thurlow township, Saturday morning, when their large metal-covered barn with the entire season's crop went up in flames.

Lost in the blaze were 1,900 bushels of grain, hay, a threshing separator owned by Roy Ciazio, six calves, and machinery, as well as a large pig pen. Neighbors managed to get the hogs out of the pen and also saved two of the eight calves in the barn.

Belleville firemen managed to save the driveshed, bean house and the Greatrix home.

Spontaneous combustion is believed responsible for the blaze which was first seen by a passing motorist about six a.m. Greatrix and Mrs. Greatrix were away at the time but their son had just finished milking and had turned the cows out to pasture for the night. The flames were coming out beneath the eaves, when the fire was noticed and nothing could be done to save the building.

By the time firemen arrived the roof of the barn had fallen in and efforts were turned to saving the other farm buildings.

Fire Chief Gerald Vance paid tribute to farm neighbors who saved two calves and chased hogs from the pig pen.

The Greatrix barn was modernly equipped with milking machine and pressure system. A grain grinder was also lost in the blaze.

Firemen remained on the scene until midnight to guard other farm buildings against sparks which the wind raised from glowing embers.

Bear Is Shot When Wandering Near Farm Home

MARMORA (Special)—A black bear was shot here Friday after it had wandered on the property of Arthur Acorn.

Normally a timid animal, a female bear, was first spotted by Acorn's young sons who, with some neighbor boys, were playing in the front yard. The boys rushed to the house and told Mrs. Acorn, who summoned a neighbor, Arthur Tompkins, for help.

Armed with rifles Tompkins and a friend, George Fox of Malone, headed for the Acorn home. On their approach the bear took to a field at the rear of the house, where the men dropped it with gunfire.

Fox said the bear was so emaciated it could only walk in attempting its escape.

On Saturday shooting of two bear cubs was reported on the property of William Aylsworth, on the highway about a mile from Madoc village.

Exhibition Closes With Biggest 'Bang' in History

TORONTO (CP)—The Canadian National Exhibition closed Saturday night with the biggest "bang" in its 76-year history.

A 6-inch fireworks bomb boomed high over the ground at 10 minutes to midnight, marking the official end of the 14-day session, while adding machines counted up the greatest CNE attendance ever. A record 2,820,000 persons—just short of the predicted 3,000,000 mark—attended the fair, nearly 100,000 more than the previous best total of 2,723,000 set in 1950 and 200,500 more than last year.

Saturday's 262,000 turned out, marking the 11th time figures were above the same day last year. Five new records were established, including a single-day high of 296,500 who came on the second day. Ralph Shaw, chairman of the New York state power authority, told the Canada and Cadet Day directors luncheon in an address read by CNE President Robert A. Saunders that Canada and the United States "might well give more attention" to their neighbors in the western hemisphere.

In the hemisphere lie the fortunes and arsenals of democracy, he added, asking Canada and the U.S. were the arsenal of freedom.

"... Looking south instead of east and west, Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean and South America are in many respects and in many ways closer to the basic spirit and objective, and are neither tired nor disillusioned."

Fremen Busy Over Week-End

A barn fire, a grass blaze, over heated pipes and a smoking refrigerator motor caused four runs for the city fire department over the week-end.

The barn fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie L. Greatrix, Bloomfield, was the only blaze that caused much damage, all others resulting in only minor damage.

Saturday the reels were called to 41 Cannifton Road for overheated pipes. Sunday afternoon the fire truck was called to Hall's Island for a grass blaze and again in the evening to the home of J. Wesley Church and Dundas streets for a smoking refrigerator motor.

is clerical field chairman.

Willibs, Carty and Wilfred Lesage, speakers' chairmen, Rev. J. J. Buckley and Thomas Kelly; and special contributions chairmen, Rev. W. P. Healey and R. G. Norman.

Care of Aged, Chronically Ill To Be Expanded

A major fund raising campaign to expand facilities for care of the aged and chronically ill in the Archdiocese of Kingston was announced yesterday by the Most Reverend Joseph A. O'Neill Sullivan, D.D., Archbishop of Kingston.

The announcement was made in the form of a letter, read at all Masses in all Catholic Churches in the archdiocese. The appeal is being made for the House of Providence and St. Mary's of the Lake Hospital, which will be expanded so as to accommodate more of the aged and infirm people of the archdiocese who presently form a long waiting list at each institution.

Though the two institutions are in Kingston, they serve the entire archdiocesan area, which comprises the territory roughly between Belleville and Prescott. Operated by the Catholic Sisters of Providence, the institutions serve needy cases of all religious faiths—the House of Providence provides care for aged, needy cases, of which more than 40 per cent are non-Catholic; St. Mary's Hospital handles cases of incurable illnesses, of which more than 75 per cent are non-Catholic.

Though the campaign goal is still under consideration, campaign authorities have revealed that plans include the addition of a 100-bed wing at the House of Providence together with renovation and fireproofing of present quarters, and a new 150-bed wing at St. Mary's Hospital. Government grants will of course provide a portion of the required funds.

NON-CATHOLIC SUPPORT ASKED

The campaign will be conducted in all Catholic parishes in the Archdiocese of Kingston. Though non-Catholic support is welcome and hoped for, non-Catholic solicitations will be limited to business organizations and a few individuals. The solicitation period is scheduled to begin October 17, 1954.

Prior to the beginning of solicitation, a campaign organization will be set up in each parish of the archdiocese. It is expected that more than 3,000 volunteer workers will be enlisted, each of which will be asked to handle the cards of only five or six of his fellow parishioners. In this manner virtually the entire task of solicitation will be completed in one day.

Two important meetings are scheduled for this week in the campaign activities. A dinner meeting will be held September 15 at the Manitoulin Hotel, Brockville; a similar meeting will take place September 16 at the Quinte Hotel in Belleville. These meetings will be attended by leaders, both clerical and lay, from all parishes in the diocese, as well as Archbishop O'Sullivan and campaign leaders.

Heading the general organization is Most Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, D.D., Archbishop of Kingston, honorary chairman; Harry J. Stafford, general chairman.

Executive clerical chairmen are Rt. Rev. J. T. Hanley, D.D., V.G.; Rt. Rev. E. M. Lacey, D.D.; Very Rev. L. B. Garvin, V.F.

Associate clerical chairmen are: Frank Domenico, Frank Billie and J. E. Simpson. Rev. J. P. Sullivan

Apple Harvest in District Up 25 P.C. Over Last Year

TRENTON (Special) — The apple harvest in the Ontario district east of Toronto and including the St. Lawrence Valley will be up 25 per cent this year as compared to last year, according to Morley Webster, of Brighton, provincial fruit fieldman for the above district.

Mr. Webster estimated that the Ontario district east of Toronto, would harvest about 975,000 bushels of apples this year.

Picking McIntosh apples will commence in orchards this week with an adequate labor force expected to be available to complete the picking. Containers were also in good supply.

The fruit this year is reasonably clean despite a season which proved to be backward for spraying. 75 percent of the orchards in Durham and Northumberland, Prince Edward and St. Lawrence Valley district were said to be in good condition.

Although the apple crop is up, the pear crop will be about 80 per cent off that of last year, while the crop of plums will be even lighter.

With a big percentage of the apple crop in the Maritimes ruined as result of the hurricane, it was expected that the apple growers in Ontario would do well from their crop this year. Much fall fit in Northumberland county on Friday night but there was no serious damage.

Velibor Rajic Will Be Hanged For Stabbing

WOODSTOCK (CP)—Velibor Rajic, 37-year-old unemployed woodworker, Saturday was found guilty of murder and sentenced by Mr. Justice John L. Wilson to be hanged Nov. 16.

Rajic was charged with murder in the knife-slaying of Mrs. Ernest Boyd, 34-year-old mother of four children, at her home last June 10. He had been on trial before the Ontario Supreme Cousa since Wednesday.

Rajic, a Yugoslav immigrant, showed no emotion as Mr. Justice Wilson pronounced sentence. The jury, 11 men and one woman, retired to consider their verdict at about 11:30 a.m. and returned three hours later.

The evidence was completed late Friday.

CALLED FIVE

Crown attorney A. C. Whaley rested his case Thursday but called five witnesses, including two psychiatrists, in reply Friday. Defence counsel W. R. Marshall of Ingersoll called only three witnesses, including Rajic, in the three-day hearing.

In his charge to the jury Saturday Mr. Justice Wilson commended the action of Embry Morton, a Korean war veteran, at the scene of the murder. He said Morton showed commendable courage under the circumstances.

Morton told the court Wednesday he tore down the screen door to Mrs. Boyd's kitchen when he heard screams the afternoon of the murder. He said Rajic was leaving after Mrs. Boyd, plunging a knife into her.

Eight Golfers Of N.E. Qualify For Tourney

TRENTON (Special) — Eight golfers on the staff of the Northern Electric Company in Belleville qualified here on Saturday for the company's national tournament to be held at Oglebenbeg, New York, on October 2. They are: Val Smith, Mike Aquafredde, Ernie Pugh, Lorne Garrow, second low net, Ed. Lewis; third low net, Ross Rowland, fourth low net, Frank Bailey; fifth low net, Terry McCabe. Prize for the honest golfer was a dinner lunch and Ernie Pugh was awarded the prize for low gross with nine holes.

Lady golfing members of the N. E. staff not so numerous as the men but just as serious at the game held forth and came through with attractive scores despite high winds which swept the course throughout the afternoon.

Edna Bailey scored first prize, Lib. Gladney second prize and Joan Temple qualified for honest golfer honors.

All the visitors appeared to enjoy themselves. The prizes were presented to the winners following the banquet served in the clubhouse with Ernie Pugh officiating.

GAME POSTPONED

The softball tilt between the Provincials of Belleville and town police was postponed until this Wednesday night on account of rain Friday night. Regarded as one of the classic sporting events between police during the season the game to raise money for needy families gets underway at 8 p.m., providing the weather behaves and returns to normal.

Eden, Adenauer Complete Talks In Agreement

BONN, Germany (CP) — Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer completed a "thorough discussion of the European situation" here in "complete agreement," according to a joint statement issued by the two leaders after two days of talks.

The statement said the two leaders are convinced "it is only through the unity of the free nations of Europe that the necessary conditions can be created to ensure a stable peace."

Eden flew here Sunday from talks in Brussels with the foreign ministers of Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, and plunged immediately into discussions with Adenauer on the European defence problem.

The statement issued most of Sunday and Sunday night wrestling with the problem of how to fit a sovereign West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Eden met with British, American and French high commissioners after he left Adenauer's office.

His next move was an afternoon flight to Rome. From there he will go to Paris.

Barrie Flyers Voted Back Into Junior A Series

TORONTO (CP) — Barrie Flyers of the Ontario Hockey Association have been voted back into the league, three days after they had been dropped at their own request.

Bill Hadley, OHA business manager, said today he had taken a vote of league members during the weekend and all teams but one voted to re-admit the Barrie junior team. The one club, which was not named, abstained.

Barrie's application for readmission came after Hap Emms', coach of the Flyers, said he had worked out arrangements with the Barrie Arena commission to sponsor a team. Emms forwarded the application to the OHA Sept. 11.

Await Arrival Of Americans From Red China

By FRED HAMPSON

HONG KONG (AP)—A United States consulate official and three Americans, ordered deported from Red China after more than a year in Communist captivity, would not arrive here today.

The three are Richard Applegate, 37, a National Broadcasting Co. correspondent, Donald Dixon, 25, International News Service correspondent, and Benjamin Krasner, 30, a ship captain.

The U.S. official telephoned from the Hong Kong-Red China border that there was no indication when the trio would arrive.

Peiping radio said Sunday the trio were ordered deported from Kwangtung province. Hong Kong is in Kwangtung.

Peiping radio also said Hugh Redmond Josselyn, former New York businessman, has been convicted of espionage in Shanghai and sentenced to life in prison.

Peiping said the Applegate trio were arrested by a Red coastal defence unit March 21, 1953, aboard Applegate's yacht Kert after it "intruded into the territorial waters off Kwangtung."

The trio had planned to sail to Macao, Portuguese colony on the mainland, to pick up David Cliveo, 25-year-old friend of Applegate's in Hong Kong.

Peiping radio said the Chinese ministry of public security recently ordered the three deported, and instructed local authorities in Kwangtung province to carry out the order.

There was no indication of when or where they would be released. The broadcast said Applegate's yacht has been confiscated.

Almost a year passed after the capture before the Reds admitted they were holding the trio.

Charge Three Men

HAMILTON (CP)—Police laid charges of safecracking and theft today following a break-in at the North York men following a break-in at McCormick's Limited plant here shortly after midnight today.

The trio was returned from Toronto early this morning. Charged are: Frank Porter, 24, John Hodgers, 22, and John Muir, 23.

Police allege the men stole a company truck to carry away the safe from the biscuit company office.

Police said the safe was recovered.

PUNISHMENT BY CHANCE

The St. Thomas Times-Journal is critical of the method adopted by the government of Newfoundland in its campaign to stop drunken driving. The government has begun monthly publication in newspapers of a list of people who have been so convicted. If a person's driving licence is suspended for some other offence his name is also published.

"Having gone to jail or paid a fine, a man may be said to have purged his offence, and it sounds like persecution when an authority buys space in the local newspapers to re-open and emphasize the publicity attaching to it," contends the Times-Journal.

That is one point of view. However, good arguments can be advanced on the other side of the question. Publicity is certainly a punishment, but there is no reason why the punishment for any offence should not be altered, if those elected to reach such decisions believe that such alteration is in the best interests of the community and does not constitute an injustice. Drunk drivers are a menace to other users of the highways and if increased publicity will lessen this menace then a good reason why it should be tried. Moreover, many times a driver who has his licence suspended continues to operate a motor vehicle and escapes punishment. If everybody knew that his licence had been taken from him, somebody might inform the police that he was still driving.

It occurs to us, however, that there is one serious objection to the Newfoundland government's system. The government cannot guarantee that every offender will receive equal treatment. Newspapers do not have to accept advertisements. What if some, independent-minded publisher, disliking either the government's methods or its political stripe, simply refused to publish a list of names? The government could, we suppose, pass a law compelling him to publish such a list, but such a law might be held ultra vires by the courts and if it were upheld it would constitute a dangerous breach of the principle of the freedom of the press.

Even if all publishers accepted such advertisements, there is no certainty that all such lists will receive equal publicity. In a large metropolitan daily an advertisement is easily "buried"; the smaller home-town newspapers are carefully read from front to back.

BILLS, BOUQUETS AND BRICKBATS

Canada has given its perennial cabbage—its dollar bills—a face lifting.

Last week nearly $50,000,000 in new bills was moved into circulation, giving the nation its first glimpse of its currency of the future.

Wonder-child once the government can pass the buck without preparing to duck. From an artistic viewpoint the new notes are a job well done. In design they present a tidier appearance than the old ones. The scrolled Canadiana has been abandoned and a portrait in centre to the left of the bills, while typical Canadian scenes are depicted on the reverse side.

Since it is all money the nation will take to them like headhunters to a band of missionaries, and the psychological effect of the new notes will be interesting to observe. No one quite knows the reason, but people are reluctant about parting with a new bill. They will take it, admire is, abstain from bruising it by folding, and then refuse to spend it. Should the nation's monetary system be flooded with new banknotes all at once, a flash depression is possible. Possibly this is borne in mind by the government when the bills are issued, since placing them in circulation is a calculated and gradual process.

Actually, nowadays, the nation has little cause for such febrile excitement to new bills. Annually the value of the dollar deteriorates and today's dollars, even new ones, are that in name only. At the last count in July the consumer index number rose to 119 highest ever since January 1952 and there are no indications of improvement.

As for the new bills, it would be a timely gesture on the part of the financial statisticians to say just how much below par our 1954 dollar now is, and what chances exist for narrowing the gap.

Artistically the government has produced a successful banknote. All that remains now is to make it live up to its appearance.

SHORT-GRAINED MEN

Out in the countryside there is a descriptive phrase for a quick tempered man. He is "short-grained." And that hasn't anything to do with cereals.

It rather is derived from wood. Wood with a short grain is brittle and breaks easily. Thus the man whose temper breaks quickly is "short-grained."

Baseball players know something about the grain in wood. If they hold the bat the wrong way it is apt to break. That is because the ball hits it "against the grain" rather than with it. In rural areas something "against the grain" is conducive to loss of temper.

The expert woodsman splits his work easier by splitting wood "with the grain." The grain running up and down a block of wood makes it fall apart at the sharp blow of the axe. If you are whittling a piece of wood, break it against the grain; if splitting it, split with the grain. (Windsor Star).

IN A DRUG STORE

I lingered near when she came in
And to the druggist said: "
"I do not want a quart of gin,
A pencil, black or red,
I do not need a magazine
Or nylon hose, a pair,
Or anything that I have seen
Displayed for sale in here.

"I do not want a fountain pen
Or golden glint shampoo,
Or comic books or gifts for men
Or ink or paste or glue.
For postage stamps I haven't come
Or things inlaid with pearls,
Or toys or games or bubble gum
For little boys and girls.

"I hope your day 'twill not upset
But you're a craftsman skilled.
My doctor sent me here to get
A drug prescription filled.
The trouble isn't very bad
It's just a slight complaint."
So great the shock the druggist had
He'd fallen in a faint.

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY

DR. EARL L. DOUGLASS

AILMENT IN FEW AND PULPIT

At a social affair a young lady met an older man and in the introduction failed to catch his name but did remember that he was introduced as Doctor. By way of conversation she turned to him and said pleasantly, "Of course, you practise, Doctor?" He smiled and said, "No, only preach."

That story really strikes home for those of us who wear the cloth, because we know that every one of us preaches much better doctrine than he practises. We preach a perfect, supernatural gospel — haltingly, of course, but still we preach it. We know, deep living, however, we often stumble and with our toes and behave like all the other fallen creatures. No one can say anything against our preaching (except that it is not particularly interesting and eloquent) but they can say much against our practice.

It would be bad enough if this were confined to the pulpit, but this weakness extends to an alarming degree into the pews! We have all sinned and come short of the glory of God—all, without exception, there is none. Except one. Christ was "tempted in all things like as we are, yet without sin."

Otherwise, we all preach better than we practise. Our doctrine is better than our living.

So how about it, friend? Do you preach or practise? or both?

Rhee Enters Irish Fight

(Milwaukee Journal)

Some people attract trouble, some look for it.

We're thinking of Syngman Rhee. With his country divided the United States pulling out its fighting forces, Chinese Reds looking down his throat and reconstruction problems unlimited, you'd think he had woes enough. Not so. The peppery old Korean president has dived head first into the Irish problem. He has written a letter to the American League for an Undivided Ireland, saying that the present partition "cannot result in peace and prosperity and expressing the hope Ireland will be reunited someday.

Malenkov Surprised

(Ukrainian Commentary)

In one of the newest anecdotes from behind the Iron Curtain, it is told that Malenkov listened in on Molotov's conversation with a member of the Western delegation, and heard Molotov say "no" three times in a row, and then he heard him say "yes."

When Molotov hung up, Malenkov, intrigued by that "yes," asked him: "Vlacheslav, what was the question to which you answered 'yes'?"

Molotov replied: "He only asked if I had answered the previous three questions with a 'no'."

Hotel Thieves

(By W. Harry Colclough, writing in the Stratford Beacon-Herald)

"Oh, I say," called a small, balding man, dressed in a brown suit, as he chased us down the hall, when walking toward an elevator in a Calgary hotel, "did you leave anybody in your room when you left it just now?

"This was a new one. Did we leave somebody is our room? We were about to freeze him with an icy stare, and politely tell him that such was none of his business, when he grinned and said: "I'm the hotel 'dick.' When you left your room, I noticed you didn't lock your door which is right. And if somebody is in there, but if the room is empty won't you please see to it that you lock it when you go out?"

"But," I protested weakly, "I was merely going down to the office for a paper."

"That's just it," continued the inspector. "People leave their rooms just for a minute, and during that time some shark dips in, and you have anything from cash to an expensive camera or valuable papers. Do you know that, last week, there was a hotel guest cash taken from the rooms amounting to over $400, and nearly all of this was taken from rooms where the guests had just stepped out for a few minutes."

When you come to Calgary, better bring another tooth your brush—second hand one—and then you won't run the risk of feeling sore at the Management because you lost some valuables, during your stay in the city.

Hotels are not like many other hotels, and they reluctantly admit that regular complaints come in from guests who discover that valuables have been taken from their rooms. It is said that, in the old Klondyke days, one could leave a poke of gold on the kitchen table with safety, but a prosperous modern city must fight a type of hold-fingered gentry who systematically "work" city after city.

How do they do it? A well-dressed couple comes to the hotel—usually a man and his wife—who ask for a room at the end of the hall. Sometimes two men, apparently total strangers to each other, and register on different floors. There is nothing to indicate that they are any different from any other business guest. They are quiet, and apparently mind their own business, pay their bills promptly, and do nothing which would cause attention.

After they get settled in their room, their success depends upon their alertness and your carelessness. They make a practice of walking down the halls, trying each door knob, and should they find one open, they are ready for instant business. Should you leave your room unlocked, and they see you go, they know that they have five minutes—all they need—to work in safety. They go through your luggage quickly, and retire to their own room.

"It's all very simple and safe," a professional detective, "made easy by the carelessness of the average guest, and they are very clever. Should you leave a door suspicious, but we must catch them in the act before we can get a conviction. The moment a thief picks up a valuable 'take' he is arrested, and the goods are immediately—before the goods are found in his possession—found in his room, shortly, as if nothing happened, ready to tackle another victim. It is amazing, all this works against the hotel."

Such thieves usually cover the so-called "better" hotels, where they look for cash, jewellery, watches, cameras, rings, razors and electric shavers. A small, luxury suit-case is their special target. Travelers usually carry their valuables together with a case, and when a thief finds one he takes it with him to open it, but takes it back to his room, puts it in a larger case—and walks nonchalantly down the hall.

He even has been known to go into the elevator with the owner of the valuables, and exchange with he walks out of the hotel carrying the stolen suit case in plain view where the risk is very, very small—for few travelers would recognize their own luggage.

Be careful when you come to Calgary. Bring nothing but your tooth brush—perhaps you had better leave that at home, for the Calgarians are a friendly lot, and good that it will keep your teeth clean!

Cooling of Mr. Gable

(By Harold Weir in the Vancouver Sun)

English movie audiences complain that Clark Gable's new picture, which opened in London last week reveals a mournful chilling of the star's accustomed ardour.

Mr. Gable, who needed only to twitch his somewhat capacious ears a few years ago to set ten million female hearts aflame, has noticeably cooled off.

The news services took the trouble to cable North America about it, and there is certain indication that Mr. Gable's loss of amatory temperature is regarded by them as news of prime importance. In support of this view the news services quote the more eminent critics, one of whom said, that Mr. Gable's performances "rubbled like yesterday's soda water." Another wrote sadly, "He kisses like a husband with a hangover."

Now for the honor of middle-age be it said, no one has yet come forth, I may claim to belong, I feel, definitely with the news services. It is definitely not news that Mr. Gable no longer kisses like Don Juan. On the contrary, it would be the biggest kind of news if he did.

The valuable world almanac assures us that Clark Gable was born in 1901. I know he was born in 1901, but how long he had been around to know it I have no means of knowing. However, since the world almanac has upon occasion given the ages of stars whom I used to ogle in my callow youth as 42 and 43, I am inclined to discount all its records.

At the very least, then, Mr. Gable is 53 years old.

All I want to point out is that it's not in nature for a man to do his best lollygagging after he's 53 years old.

It's not, I protest, that a man is incapable of kissing prettily and warmly after he has passed the half-century mark. It's rather that he can think of so many better things to do.

If your semi-centenarian still possesses all his teeth, which is unlikely, if his store teeth fit perfectly, which is still more unlikely, the chances are that a succulent steak strikes him as a much more fascinating work of art than a pair of pulpy lips.

If the processes of nature have sometimes withered the grass in his frame, the chances are that the curve of a brandy bottle arouses more ambient appreciation in him than the cambers of a thousand ladies' prows.

What I am getting at is that chilled is chastened Mr. Gable is a thoroughly wholesome object, whereas in the raving and drooling Mr. Gable would be grisly.

I am rather glad, on the whole, that Mr. Gable refrained from playing his part in the Dreyfus affair a month because Mr. Gable has given me a great deal of pleasure in one capacity or another and I should dislike very much to see him make a lurid ass of himself in his declining years.

I particularly resent the viewpoint that one no longer cares what Mr. Gable legend shows the first tired signs of collapse." I think all reasonable men should rise up to deny that his performance shows any signs of collapse at all.

It's not collapse to exhibit a mature tenderness. It is necessarily weariness to imply that Mr. Gable's kisses are not interesting pastimes than fawning on a female.

If the critics had set down that Mr. Gable' horizons had notably widened, that he was no longer behaved as though a simpering lady were the crown of life, they would have made a sound philosophic contribution to the drama and have so much more than justice to Mr. Gable.

For surely plays can be made to something else than music.

Surely there is something more significant in human life than love scenes.

Surely the adult actor can excel in something more than juvenile romance.

And surely I wouldn't be writing like this if I weren't temporarily mad at women for good and sufficient reason which shall not be discussed here.

Tokyo Once Largest City

(Niagara Falls Review)

Tokyo, the capital of Japan, soon is expected to be the world's largest metropolitan area; but, listening to those who have been there, we do not believe many westerners would care to go there to live, for there is not enough room, not enough roads and only one small intercity area has anything like a modern sewage system.

Tokyo was the largest city in the world for back as 1921, having a population of 2,000,000 then. It is expected that, at the beginning of the 21st century, Tokyo will have a population of 8,628,000 by 1957.

Tokyo is not the city's covers more than 772 square miles, but in this area is concentrated the bulk of the population, with the rest being a collection of villages than a city and there are many problems of transportation. Development before Tokyo can take its place with the others of the world's capitals.

Personal Health Talks

By DR. WM. BRADY

OUT OF THE FRYING PAN

Dr. Brady

I was a very heavy smoker (writes a New York woman), 4 or 4½ packs of cigarets a day. About two years ago I made up my mind to give up smoking, as I had this terrible cough and always felt sick.

But when I gave them up of course I took to chewing or eating constantly and in the course of a year I gained 15 or 45 pounds. I am so conscious of my stoutness I do not like to go out amongst people; yet my will power is so weak I can't make up my mind to go on a diet. (Mrs. G. H. A.)

How do I know you should reduce? Maybe you need only six miles of oxygen on the hoof every day and regular morning and evening settings up to help correct the flabbiness you acquired in the years of shameful self indulgence.

Millions of women make up their minds to go on a diet every week-end—a diet beginning Monday morning. A dozen of them do so, for a day or two, but there is always another week-end and another Monday, and when they'll go on a diet without fail, etc., etc. If talk would do it every nice looking woman would become a holy fright. How in Sam Hill did American women get this morbid notion that the ideal is a bag of bones pushing around a pair of fish falsies?

Besides a two-mile walk three times a day or a three-mile walk twice a day or a six-mile walk every day, or the equivalent in work, play or general exercise, if you have accomplished superlinuous fat, you had better follow a corrective diet.

Use the tape measure, not the scales, to determine your progress. Fat bulks larger than muscle and weighs less.

What you chew or eat constantly may be as important as your routine diet.

If your teeth are functionally efficient — if not it is imperative that you secure at once whatever dental treatment or dentures may be necessary to restore good mastication. Nature restricts yourself to three chews a day, of whole wheat.

It is the common experience of hundreds of patients I have weighed after they quit smoking and as a rule this is desirable. In your case very likely the slacker flesh you have accumulated represents "eating compensation" instantly."

Without getting psychological about it, I suggest that you eat more slowly. Instead of just idling your life away; something to do with your hands for the sake of your neighbor or for anyone less fortunate than yourself.

THE PACKSACK

By GREGORY CLARK

Every two or three weeks, thanks to a new denture which otherwise behaves very well, I nip the very tip of my tongue by accident. A very painful little sharp sting it gives me. And when I do it, I put a particularly anguished face. My family think I am a sandwich.

Each time I glanced up, I could see, out of the cautious corner of my eye, that the gentleman was still eyeing me. I felt I should go around and explain about my new dentures, and how I had nipped the tip of my tongue. But that long upper lip of his dissuaded me. I felt he would believe me, and that he felt he had caught me in the act of making fun of him. He was hardly the type for my real. But I feel sure he is going about saying that I mean and cruel a place the world is, with heartless people making fun of a man's misfortune.

Little does he realize that I can feel the chipmunk tooth. I would be nice for him to know there are two of us.

At that precise moment, I nipped the tip of my tongue. When I opened my eyes, after the sharp pain had subsided, I stared straight into the eyes of the gentleman opposite, who was regarding me with a mixture of anger, indignation and not a little outrage. He was hardly eating sandwich.

Each time I glanced up, I could see, out of the cautious corner of my eye, that the gentleman was still eyeing me. I felt I should go around and explain about my new dentures, and how I had nipped the tip of my tongue. But that long upper lip of his dissuaded me. I felt he would believe me, and that he felt he had caught me in the act of making fun of him. He was hardly the type for my real. But I feel sure he is going about saying that I mean and cruel a place the world is, with heartless people making fun of a man's misfortune.

Little does he realize that I can feel the chipmunk tooth. I would be nice for him to know there are two of us.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

BE THE EXCEPTION!

I have often wondered why it was that so many people preferred to do as most people do rather than to be the exception. We often thought, or felt, or that fitted their personality most accurately. It's always an honor to be the exception, to stand apart, or to formulate a new idea. It's not as if "Here it is that I stand, so help me God."

I have nothing but admiration for the one who has the courage to say that he doesn't drink, or smoke, or do other things that most people do, lately because they think that it's the thing to do. He makes a personal decision and is glad to be "an exception to the rule," as is so often said. It was Emerson who said that the greatest man in the world was the one who stood most alone. We have to become a bit exceptional to "stand alone."

How often we hear the exclamation: "Oh, well, he's an exception." Why can't we all be that to a greater or lesser degree? Do we have to bow down to the facts or figures, or opinions of those who would take from us our individuality and force us to be social integrity? Is there anything personality more than to stand on one's own legs, think as one wishes, and choose one's own path through life? Not necessarily easy, but unique, but there are those who prefer the low road, especially now that we can't help but give them our applause and acclaim.

Let us not apologize as an exception doesn't mean that we are better, necessarily, than is he or she who is exceptional that he invites the respect and love of all with whom he comes in contact.

There are traits in some personalities that are exceptional they cannot be defined. They are the property of people in whom you love, trust, and welcome as friends.

Victoria Community Mourns Passing of Church, W.I. Worker

(Contributed)

The sudden passing of Mrs. Lorne R. Brickman in Belleville hospital on Thursday, Aug. 26th, 1954, came as a great shock to relatives and friends. She had been ill only two days. Mrs. Brickman was a lady of many fine qualities, and her life was one of those which sounded good deeds filled her days, every worthwhile cause having her sympathetic and practical support.

A member of the United Church at Victoria, she was active in the Woman's Association and in the Women's Missionary Society, serving as president of both. She was organist of the church for many years and also taught a Bible class. Taking a great interest in Albury cemetery, she was treasurer of the board for nearly 40 years.

A charter member of the Women's Institute for 43 years, she was honored by a life membership in recognition of her active service. She lived up fully to the motto "For Home and Country", and especially in the war years did she give wonderful leadership and put forth great effort. Mr. and Mrs. Brickman, during the war, gave the use of their canning factory for the making of more than 9,000 pounds of jam which were shipped overseas.

In March 1949, Mr. and Mrs. Brickman marked their golden wedding anniversary. They were married at the home of the bride's parents in Burr's neighborhood by the late Rev. Richard Bamforth. Since then they had resided on the Brickman farm which has been in the family for six generations. Both families were of U.E.L. descent.

Mrs. Brickman was a true friend and neighbor in the full sense of the word, always alert and responsive to the needs of others.

Mrs. Brickman, formerly Emma Ainsworth, was born in Brighton, 73 years ago. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Danforth Ainsworth. Nearly all her life was spent in the Victoria (Amelia-burg) district.

Funeral service was held on Sunday, Aug 29th from her late residence to Albury United Church which was filled by relatives and friends who gathered to pay a last tribute to a highly esteemed citizen. The Women's Institutes of county and district joined in the tribute, forming a guard of honor as the casket was carried to and from the church.

Rev. T. F. Ferguson delivered a message of hope and comfort. There was a wealth of beautiful floral tributes.

Interment was in Albury cemetery, pall bearers being Kenneth Green, Malcolm Hubbs, Melvin Pulver, Gerald Fox, Harmon Montgomery and Nelson Vanclief.

She is survived by her husband, Lorne Brickman, and one daughter, Audra, at home. Also surviving her is a sister, Mrs. Carl Bryant, Wellington; two nieces, Miss Irma Bonter, Carrying Place, Mrs. Floyd Kirby, Gananoque; and a nephew, Leonard Bryant, Wellington.

HIT BY HURRICANE

QUEBEC (CP)—North America's largest icebreaker, the D'Iberville, was tossed like a toy ship in Arctic waters two weeks ago by hurricane Carol which blew itself out in Ungava after striking the eastern United States and Canada, Capt. C. A. Caron said the ship rolled to a 35-degree angle off Wakeman bay. The D'Iberville docked here Sunday after a 6,500-mile supply run in the Arctic.

Four Cows Had Backs Broken By Hurricane

HALIFAX (CP)—The four cows lay breathing softly in a row while the flies buzzed around their heaving flanks and the farmyard crowd gawked.

Inches above the prostrate animals was the heavy beam that had broken their backs when Charlie Clerk's barn blew apart. Hurricane Edna ripped the aluminum sheets of the roof into tatters and flung bits of wood and metal 100 yards away.

Inside the gigantic barn-shaped pile of hay—200 tons of it that oddly seemed undisturbed—were 19 hogs that Charlie said he thought must be goners.

A man came in a truck with a .22-calibre rifle, shot the suffering cows one by one and hauled the twitching carcasses away.

Dying but defiant hurricane Edna cost Charlie Clerk, a Kentville farmer, about $10,000.

Top-of-World Short Cut Will Start in Nov.

NEW YORK (AP)—At five minutes after midnight on a cool November morning, a commercial airliner will take off from Los Angeles and head north.

Twenty-two and a half hours' flying time later, the Scandinavian Airlines System plane is scheduled to land at Copenhagen, Denmark, with 33 passengers.

The flight will inaugurate twice-weekly service via the top-of-the-world short cut to Europe. The airline figures that going the longer way, via New York, would take a good 27 hours, assuming fast connections.

Nov. 15 has been selected for the first flight. The polar plane will land en route at Winnipeg and at Blue-West 8 airfield in Greenland. Winnipeg is 1,854 miles from Los Angeles and the flight will take six hours, 30 minutes. The 1,964-mile leg to Blue-West 8 will take seven hours, 50 minutes. The final 2,163 miles to Copenhagen will be covered in eight hours, 15 minutes.

Warren Kraemer, general sales and traffic manager for the airline here, says five exploratory flights have been made. Because flying over the polar region sends conventional magnetic instruments haywire, special instruments had to be designed for navigation.

Second Meeting Between Hydro, Residents Called

CORNWALL (CP) — Lloyd C. Davis, reeve of Iroquois, said Sunday a second meeting between village residents and the Ontario hydro-electric power commission will be held Oct. 14 in Toronto.

The meeting was arranged following a visit to Iroquois by Robert H. Saunders, chairman of Ontario Hydro, to answer a wave of criticism levelled against recently-announced relocation plans for the village.

Iroquois, a community of some 1,300 persons, is the only St. Lawrence river community scheduled for complete inundation as a result of the construction of the St. Lawrence power project.

Residents now are asking Hydro to clarify compensation proposals before dealing with a dispute over Hydro's proposed new community and a plan advanced by Dr. W. Wells Coates, acting for Iroquois.

"I tried to talk compensation to Hydro at Toronto," Mr. Davis said. "They won't discuss anything but fair values plus a reasonable amount. The only thing they are prepared to discuss is general relocation plans at present."

Ministers Told Of World Assembly

STIRLING.—On Friday afternoon, September 10, the Central Hastings Ministerial Association convened in St. John's Church of England, Stirling, with the rector, Rev. H. C. Secker, L.Th., as host for the occasion, and presiding officer.

Rev. Miriam Collins, Bridge Street, Belleville, presided at the console of the organ and led singing "in Christ There is No East or West", and the opening prayer was offered prayer for guidance.

The May report was read by the secretary, and as the president, Rev. R. R. Bonisteel, had moved away Rev. Mr. Marsh was asked to preside for the election. Rev. W. G. Fletcher of Rawdon circuit, was elected to office with Rev. Howard Beare of Springbrook, to plan the October program. This meeting will be held in Queensboro.

Rev. J. F. Lane voiced sympathy to Mr. Fletcher in the recent bereavement of his mother.

Rev. Dr. John Marsh, M.A., Ph.D., Mansfield College, Oxford, England, gave an informative address on his impressions of the Second World Assembly of the World Council of Churches held at Evanston, Illinois Dr. Marsh represented the Congregational Church in England at the sessions.

The speaker felt it was a wonderful privilege to tell the group assembled of the great days of Evanston. He had not found time to re-arrange his views into a series in the form of a lecture as he only arrived in Canada late Wednesday, still he was asked to give his impressions.

He pictured the representatives gather from 163 churches and 50 countries and felt that it was an experience never to be forgotten. He vividly described the ecclesiastical dress of the group, the sombre robes of the bishops, the beautiful colorings and or some of the native costumes.

The speaker then described the great World Council organization where every minor detail was well planned and arranged with little confusion anywhere.

He pictured the opening service of the Assembly and told how the delegates marched in unison to their appointed places. One of the highlights was each delegate singing the hymn and repeating The Lord's Prayer in their own tongue.

The theological discussion followed after two controversial addresses were given on the main theme "Christ the Hope of the World." The delegates discussed the subject pro and con after two professors had given their views. The delegates sat in session till 4 p.m. to find God's answer to the question.

Throughout the sessions there was a sense of good fellowship and a strong incentive to bring into being the World Church.

Dr. Marsh described a moving scene at the Soldiers' Field Service when the story of the Church from creation down through New Testament days depicting the life and death of Jesus, was presented. One large spotlight illuminated the scene as all repeated in unison The General Confession. The massed choirs rendered the "Hallelujah Chorus" and in this tremendous festival of faith the simple gospel message was presented to the delegates from the various countries.

Following this presentation there was a great deal of straight talk, but with remarkable courage the various parts of church life were discussed and all eventually agreed in the oneness of Christ. Dr. Marsh told how hard it was for the delegates from various countries with different ideas in their thinking to agree on one single statement contained in the New Testament.

The speaker compared the first council at Amsterdam with that

New Concept of Pre-Natal Care Coming Says B.C. Doctor

ST. ANDREWS, N.B. (CP)—A Vancouver doctor, one of Canada's leading pediatricians, predicts the next 20 years will see a new concept of pre-natal care — shifting emphasis from the mother's health to the baby's protection against abnormalities.

Dr. J. F. McCreary, addressing the New Brunswick Medical Society, said it was probable that physical malformations sometimes present at birth can be prevented by proper prenatal care.

At present, he said, the prospective mother usually is not examined by a physician until long past the time when abnormalities may have developed in the unborn child. If the defects were caused by nutritional deficiencies in the mother, they might have been averted by an earlier visit to the doctor's office.

PLANNING IS FACTOR

Dr. McCreary, professor of pediatrics at University of British Columbia, suggested that couples looking forward to children should plan accordingly. The mother-to-be should be examined by the family doctor before conception, rather than two or three months later.

He told the society that in future the medical profession must take far more responsibility for normal development of the unborn infant. Now, he said, the concept of pre-natal care is entirely directed toward the health of the mother.

There is increasing evidence of more congenital abnormalities when the mother is in the low income group and a degree of malnutrition is present, Dr. McCreary said. It has also been discovered that sudden exposure to high altitudes, when the mother is not accustomed to height, can result in physiological malformations in the child she is carrying.

ALUMINUM CABLE from Canada was used in a Peruvian high-voltage power line, installed at altitudes of from 13,000 to 15,000 feet—the world's highest. Canada supplied only the cable but also the technical assistance required on this record job. We imagine that aluminum's light weight was particularly appreciated by the llamas or whatever other beasts of burden were used to get the cable to the top.

In the rugged mountain country of British Columbia where Alcan's own huge Kitimat development is going on, the aluminum transmission lines used represent another record: they are the largest-diameter overhead power lines in the world. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

ADVICE to the LOVELORN

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

INTOLERANT PARENTS OPPOSE MARRIAGE

One more instance of sad intolerance on the part of parents who, as adults, ought to know better, appears in the following letter from a young woman of 21:

"For the past year, I've been going with a man who is 29 years old, and of a different nationality than mine. At first, my family never said a word against him, even though I knew they didn't approve of me going with him because of this difference in our backgrounds. Now, however, things have become so unbearable that I just don't know what to do.

"You see, this man and I were planning to be married in a few months, but my family thinks he is not good enough for me and they have put me to make my choice between them or him. That is a big decision to make, when you love both.

"Now they refuse to let this fellow call at the house when we have a date, and they don't even want me to talk to him on the phone. He has never said or done anything to make them turn against him as they have. All they can have against him is that he loves me.

"If I thought that they would ever accept him as their son-in-law, I would marry him today, but as things stand, I am afraid that I must both my family and him. If I did marry now, do you think they would ever accept him in the family without causing so much heartbreak to us all?"

If this girl's family refuses to change their attitude, then, however much she wants "both my family and him," she is simply going to have to decide between them, temporarily at least. She can't live forever with an unsolved problem, putting off a decision from day to day. Either she will have to fall in with her family's wishes and give up the chap, or tell them that she knows her own mind and considers herself old enough to follow it, then go ahead and marry the man. It has got to be one thing or the other, unless she wants to go on indefinitely wavering from one side to the other—and where will that get her?

MAINTAINS RIGHT

It does happen, sometimes, that a girl who has quietly, pleasantly, but firmly, maintained her right to marry the man of her choice in the end, been able to reconcile her family to her marriage. For unless a father and mother are unnatural parents, it is pretty difficult for them to carry on a feud forever with a son or daughter who has incurred their anger, even by marrying someone of whom they did not approve. In normal people, parental feeling goes too deep for any such bitter behavior.

And much depends on the person the son or daughter has married. That is, if this girl does marry the man on whom she has set her parents' opposition, he may be able, if his own attitude and approach to the problem are mature and wise, gradually to win their respect, perhaps even their affection. Such a happy development is by no means impossible, though it might take a very long time.

In general, however, since our young woman is only 21 years old, and the man is 8 years older, I believe she would do well not to act too hastily. She speaks of being ready to "marry now;" if her parents would approve, but I think marriage now would be a mistake. Eight years is quite a long stretch between a wife and a husband, when the wife is no more than 21, and it may be that, if she waits a year or two, she may herself decide, for reasons entirely different from the intolerant views of her parents, that she and this man of 29 are not quite as compatible as she had at first thought. On the other hand, a period of waiting may serve only to make it still clearer to her that they are so close together in everything that counts, that the age difference is a negligible factor in their relationship. But I think it will take a longer period of acquaintance than they have had to date to prove the case, either one way or the other.

Then, if at the end of, say, another year, our young woman is still convinced this is the man for her, let her have the courage of her convictions together with the hope that it may all work out in the end, and marry the man she loves.

Make It With Milk

By Mary Moore

A young gentleman by the name of Kirk was married through our columns. He telephoned and accepted Pete's invitation to have dinner with us. He is quite a special young man, for besides being a classmate of Pete's he is the son of an unknown reader of this column.

His mother must be proud of him. I know I was. He was so entertaining and tactful. He accepted second helpings and when dessert turned up and was apple pie he asked if it were an experiment. (As usual it was. I am trying to make an apple pie, a cut from which will be photogenic. It sounds simple but there are endless pitfalls, for the pastry must look flaky, but at the same time be durable enough to withstand the best from the photographing lights and to cut perfectly, cleanly.)

During the summer Kirk was a milkman and such an enthusiastic milk salesman I have never met before.

I know it to be true but it was fun to hear a salesman of twenty claiming that milk is our best and cheapest of foods.

So to give Mr. Kirk's sales talk and beliefs today's topic is milk.

HOMEMADE CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP

To 3 1-2 cups of peeled raw or canned tomatoes add 1-4 cup parsley, 1-2 bay leaf, 1 slice onion and 1 whole clove. Simmer covered for 10 minutes and then force through strainer, being sure all of the tomato pulp is forced through. Mix 1-4 teaspoon baking soda with 2 teaspoons soft butter and stir it into the strained tomato pulp. In a large saucepan mix together until smooth 3 tablespoons butter and 3 tablespoons flour then stir into them until thick and smooth 2 cups whole milk or 1 cup each milk and thin cream. Add 1 1-2 teaspoons salt and 1 or 2 teaspoons sugar. Stir over very low heat for 2 or 3 minutes. Now very slowly (to prevent curdling) add the tomato mixture to the milk sauce, stirring constantly over low heat, until it just reaches simmering point. Serve at once.

PERFECT SIMPLE BLANC MANGE

In top of double boiler heat 2 cups milk. Mix together 4 tablespoons cornstarch, 3 tablespoons sugar and 1-8 teaspoon salt. When mixed stir into this 1-4 cup cold milk, then stir this milk paste into the hot milk until thick and smooth. Cover and cook 30 minutes, stirring every 10 minutes. (Cornstarch mixtures must be cooked a long time to remove all taste of raw starch.) Remove from heat and add 1-2 teaspoon vanilla. Pour into moistened mold and chill.

At this time of year blanc mange is good served with sliced raw peaches or with compote of fresh red plums.

CUSTARD SURPRISE

One 6-oz. package zwieback, 3-4 cup sugar, 1-2 cup melted butter, 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon, 4 eggs, yolks and whites separated, 1-2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cornstarch or 4 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 4 tablespoons sugar. Roll zwieback to make fine crumbs. Reserve 1-4 cup. To rest of crumbs add 3-4 cup sugar, melted butter and cinnamon. When mixed press on bottom of 8-inch square baking dish to make 1-4-inch crust. Mix yolks well with sugar, cornstarch or flour, milk and salt in top of double boiler and cook, stirring, until thick and smooth. Add vanilla and pour over crumb layer. Add 4 tablespoons sugar to egg whites and beat until meringue will stand in soft peaks. Spread over custard layer. Sprinkle top with remaining crumbs. Bake at 325 deg. Fahr. 35 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool. Cut into 9 squares. Serve with or without whipped cream and sliced fresh fruit in season such as peaches, strawberries or blueberries. This is an excellent dessert for it may be made and chilled overnight if desired.

JAILED ON CHARGE

ST. CATHARINES (CP)—Michael Dunn was sentenced to 21 days in jail and fined $125 Friday on a dangerous driving charge. His operator's permit was suspended for 18 months. The charge was reduced from manslaughter after a traffic accident last August in which Mrs. Pearl Bodnaruk was killed.

GOOD MANNERS

By MRS. BEECHMAN

THREE SISTERS

Dear Mrs. Beechman:

I have three sisters, and I'd like to have them all in my bridal party. The oldest one I would like to have as my matron of honor. The younger than she I would like to have as my maid of honor. Then my youngest sister, age ten, I would like to have as flower girl. But this 10-year-old is very tall for her age, and I'm not sure that she won't seem too grown-up for a flower girl. What do you advise? Also do you approve of my not having any bridesmaids, or do you think I should have at least two?

—Cecile A.

I think it's thrilling idea for you to have such a close family group for your attendants. (Three sisters and your father (I hope) to escort you up the aisle! Your tall 10-year-old sister is too old to be a flower girl, but she could be a junior bridesmaid. I suggest you have the three sisters walk separately. Processional: first, the ushers, walking two by two; next, the junior bridesmaid, alone; next, the maid of honor, alone; next, the matron of honor (for she will probably be the witness, and so walk directly before you and your father), and last, you and your father.

THANK-YOU ADDRESSED TO "MRS."

Dear Mrs. Beechman:

Thank you for answering in your column yesterday my questions about my thank-you notes for wedding presents. One more question, please: When a married couple send me a wedding present, should I address the thank-you note to "Mr. and Mrs. John Brown," and write it to "Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brown" (or "Dear Mary and John")? — Therese Better form to address the envelope to Mrs. John Brown, and begin the note to Dear Mrs. Brown (Or Dear Mary). Then of course in the body of your note include her husband in your thanks.

COUSINS SHOULD THANK FOR THE FLOWERS

Dear Mrs. Beechman:

We are two sisters, living together in an apartment near a small house where our cousin lived. She was a woman much older than we are, we are her only relatives, and we tried to look after her and do whatever we could for her. Last week she passed on, and as she had many friends, many flowers were sent, and many sympathy messages. Should we acknowledge these, even though so many of the senders are strangers to us? — We Two

Yes, every one of these gestures of devotion to your cousin, the memorial flowers and the messages of any kind, should be thanked for, each by note. You and your sister may, if you wish, divide this list. Think of the writing of these notes as another loving tribute you are making you your cousin.

CHILDREN love to put their own sugar on cereal—but with a spoon, they may overdo it. If you put the sugar in a shaker with medium-size holes, the independence is still intact but the measuring is controlled. Make sure the top is screwed on extra tight.

Beauty

By HELEN JAMIESON

GET YOUR BEAUTY SLEEP, LADY!

No cosmetics, no facial treatments will erase the lines and shadows of fatigue. The woman who robs herself of sleep night after night, creeping in between the sheets late and pulling out early, might as well throw her make-up and creams out of the window. They are wonderful aids, when body conditions are normal, but they cannot work miracles.

Tense faces, pale skins, jittery nerves are the tolls these sleepless women pay. It is a law of life that periods of activity must be followed by periods of rest. The nervous system is an important—actually a dominating—mechanism of the body and, when it is in repose, the muscles relax, the heart beats are light, everything is precisely right for knitting up the "raveled sleeve of care", or whatever it was the poet said on this subject.

The mind, constantly occupied during waking hours, finds rest in dreamless sleep. The pupils of the eyes are contracted. Intestinal peristaltic movements are lessened.

Chemical changes go on and new cells are built. Nature does her repair work. The energy motors are recharged. It seems senseless not to so organize one's life that these rebuilding, refreshing processes can function normally.

The idea of beauty sleep is not bunkum. If you feel slightly wilted or ever even if you don't—try to get to bed at a reasonable hour. Have plenty of fresh air in the bedroom. Bed coverings should be just right for comfort. Then you will not have a "before breakfast" face that almost scares the life out of you.

Pass these ideas on to your young daughter, if you have one. Most important matter, to a girl's way of thinking, is to be pretty animated and popular. That ambition will not be fulfilled if late hours are kept. There are too many young girls with old, tense faces these days, because of late hours.

Drug Trading To Celebrate 50th Anniversary

TORONTO (CP) — About 1,800 Independent druggists will celebrate Wednesday the 50th anniversary of the founding of a company credited with safeguarding their business.

The firm—the Drug Trading Company—had its start in 1907 when seven small drugstore operators raised $700 for a co-operative buying scheme. Today it's a $25,000,000 organization.

Its roots were planted in 1896 when the loss leader technique was being used by larger competitors to take business away from the small stores.

UNDER PRESSURE

Independents had to buy through the wholesalers while their big cousins could deal directly with manufacturers and get for less.

Then seven got together, put up $30 each and brought in another seven to build up their cash capital to $700. They called it a buying club and it became so successful manufacturers balked at selling to the group.

This led to a battle between the company and the manufacturers and then the formation of a limited joint stock company which gave them legal recognition as wholesalers. In 1930 the Druggists' Corporation was established to become the manufacturing division for the trading company.

To meet competition pressure from larger firms the Independent Druggists' Alliance was formed and a wide variety of goods manufactured under that label or the parent company's name.

Although majority of the members are in Ontario, the company handles about 26 per cent of the wholesale drug business in Canada. Orders are filled in a large warehouse and sent to all parts of the country.

Services have been expended to include display advertising, store planning and counselling on a cost basis to members.

Plumbers Strike At Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—Some 2,000 Montreal plumbers, members of the International Association of Plumbers and Steamfitters (AFL-TLC), went on strike Sunday night to back wage demands after a breakdown of post-arbitral negotiations.

The plumbers elected to stage the walkout following the refusal of the Plumbing and Heating Contractors' Association to grant the workers a five-per-cent general wage increase suggested by Quebec Labor Minister Barrette.

The strike affects only plumbers employed by the corporation, an association of unionized plumbing contractors.

Several hundred other plumbers, members of the National Syndicate of Plumbers (CCCL), plan to strike Tuesday to back the same demands. They are scheduled to hold a meeting tonight.

Sharply Higher Retail Sales Seen in U.S.

By WALTER BREEDE Jr.

NEW YORK (AP) — Sharply higher retail sales set the pace last week for a general quickening in the tempo of business in the United States.

[illegible] that the traditional post-Labor Day upswing is running a little behind schedule in some lines, notably steel and autos.

But there was no mistaking the willingness of consumers to spend.

Dun and Bradstreet said retail business for the week ended Wednesday easily topped that of the previous week, despite the fact that most stores were closed on Labor Day. Sales were from five to nine per cent ahead of the like week of 1953.

Government statisticians noted that department store sales, at latest count, were generally running 13 per cent ahead of last year.

With consumers spending freely, the spending plans of big business also commanded attention.

HEAVY SPENDING

The U.S. commerce department and the Securities and Exchange Commission estimated that business firms will spend $26,687,000,000 this year on new plant and equipment.

That's six per cent less than the all-time high of $28,391,000,000 expended last year, but it will still make 1954 the second best year on record.

Biggest spenders include the auto industry, which has its capital investment program 30 per cent over last year. Largest decline is shown by the railroads. They plan to spend 35 per cent less.

Construction spending in August set a record of $3,600,000,000—up eight per cent from a year ago. Construction contract awards also continued at a record clip.

Prices of hogs and coffee moved lower again this week. A general downtrend in farm prices was cited by the agriculture department as the chief reason for a six-per-cent drop in farm income in the first six months of 1954 as compared to a year ago.

The stock market continued its moderate recovery from the sharp break of the previous week. Volume, however, sank to a new low for the year. There was no immediate reaction to financial circles to strike developments off the Red China coast.

Has Lost Count

AMHERST, N.S. (CP) —Mrs. Martha Goodwin, 84, has painted so many rural landscapes in the last year that she's lost count.

This accomplished octogenarian doesn't lean toward expensive canvases, either. Her brush has left pictures on saucers, old plates, the glass from the face of a clock, a child's lantern slide, the cardboard top of an old ice cream carton and a soup bone.

Mrs. Goodwin returned to a youthful hobby last year when she was scouting around for something to do in spare time left over after hooking rugs and making quilts

Six Canadians Hurt in Portugal

LISBON (AP)—Six Canadians from Ottawa were injured in an automobile accident near Portugal's Fatima shrine Sunday.

Roland Chenier, 45, and Leda Beaulin, 44, were taken to hospital but their condition was reported as not serious. Mrs. Chenier, Oscar Perrier and his wife and daughter, also of Ottawa, were slightly injured but returned to their hotel.

The party arrived in Lisbon come days ago and were en route to Fatima to pray at the Shrine of Our Lady when their automobile skidded and fell 30 feet into a ravine.

Visit of Duchess And Princess Is Nearly Over

STE. AGATHE, Que. (CP)—The Duchess of Kent, her Canadian visit all but finished, spent a quiet weekend at a private estate near here while her 17-year-old daughter, Princess Alexandra, took lib eral samples of the crisp Laurentian mountain air.

The duchess, who leaves Tuesday for New York, lunched Sunday with Malcolm MacDonald, British commissioner for Southeast Asia who is vacationing in Ottawa with his family. Earlier she attended Anglican church services in this town 60 miles from Montreal.

While the duchess relaxed before a blazing log fire Princess Alexandra took turns at riding, canoeing and target-shooting.

Saturday night there was a square dance for most of the royal party at an inn near Ste. Agathe.

Tour officials quoted the princess as saying she was "sorry the days are bringing closer the time when I will have to leave Canada."

She leaves Montreal Thursday night to join her mother in New York.

The farmers' philosophically labelled Mdna "an act of God." They plan to salvage what they can and start looking toward next year's crop.

Numerous minor fires were blamed on the storm.

MINE WAS DUD.

A mine was blown ashore at Halifax, but proved a dud; at Dartmouth the roof was torn off a molasses factory.

Edna showed a prankish but unappreciated sense of humor in Pictou, before the left Nova Scotia coast across Prince Edward Island and die in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The wind pried a large chunk off a new freight shed, carried it over two piers and deposited it on the deck of a Danish schooner; a 75-year-old church steeple was snapped off; a dory was scooped off the deck of a scow, carried over two houses and dropped in a vacant lot.

Prince Edward Island escaped with comparatively little damage.

Worst hit part of New Brunswick was Grand Manan Island in the Bay of Fundy. Frothing, house-high waves crashed into the shore and carried a fishing boat out to sea. No one was aboard. Weirs were destroyed, lobster pots lost and breakwaters battered. Damage was at least $250,000.

FULLPWOOD VANISHED

High tides backed up sewers and flooded cellars at St. Stephen; a $100,000 theatre was destroyed at McAdam; about 10,000 cords of pulpwood valued at $100,000 were swept out to sea at Dalhousie; roads and railway bridge were washed out.

Off Newfoundland the Halifax tug Bancrot had to give up its tow of a crane-scow headed for the French colony of St. Pierre. The scow was reported in a sinking condition.

No injuries were reported in Newfoundland, but trees, light poles and communication lines were torn down; a house under construction at Frenchman's Cove near Corner Brook was torn from its foundations; and airline passengers had to sleep in planes at Torbat near St. John's when the city's 200 hotel beds were filled because of cancelled flights.

Amateur radios were the only communication in many parts of the Maritimes early Sunday before broken telephone and telegraph lines could be repaired. Canadian Press reporter Gerry Martin gave first reports from Yarmouth to Clyde Robbins who relayed them through Riverton, N.J., to Britt Fader in Halifax.

'ADEQUATE' TAX

MILK PRODUCTION UP

In Canada, milk production was increasing while domestic consumption of dairy products declined, due almost entirely to the inroads of margarine on butter consumption.

There were reports that bootlegging of margarine spreads was increasing in Quebec. If that province did not enforce its margarine ban, the butter surplus problem would be aggravated by an additional 30,000,000 pounds a year," Mr. Creighton estimated.

"This is a national problem of the first magnitude. The most equitable method of resolving the problem in the best interests of the national economy is to apply an adequate excise tax on margarine . . . I would appeal to the federal government in the strongest possible terms at this time to implement our representations without further delay.

"Unless action is taken, the government must assume the responsibility for the break-down in its price-support program with attendant far-reaching and unfavorable repercussions on the economy as a whole."

Stirling

STIRLING—A Junior Farmers' Camp was held over the long week-end at the Salvation Army Camp at Roblin Lake, near Redperaville, in Prince Edward County.

Mr. J. Allan Francis was program director and on Friday and Saturday there were special classes for crafts, photography, music appreciation and dramatics. Forty-six young men and young women attended this camp.

On Sunday evening, Mr. Grant Richardson, president of Hastings County Junior Farmers, was the guest speaker and he based his message on "The Drama of Life". A most impressive candlelight service closed the camp.

BUS TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Dalrymple and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Francis supervised the trip and 96 people enjoyed the outing. The three buses all met at Port Hope and travelled from there to Toronto. At the parliament buildings they were met by Mr. Roscoe Robson,M.L.A., who had arranged for a guided tour.

NEW FRUIT MARKET

They then visited the Ontario Food Terminal, located on the Queensway on the western outskirts of the city close to the Queen Elizabeth Highway. This four million dollar fruit and vegetable wholesale market was officially opened on June 21, of this year. The Minister of Agriculture said that 50 per cent of the farmers of Ontario produce 90 per cent of the food. The new market place provides a much-needed service for more than a million people living in the Toronto area and it is also a central area for assembling food from several other provinces and states.

The group spent three hours in the afternoon visiting the Canadian National Exhibition.

Those from the Stirling area who took in the trip besides the two agricultural representatives, Messrs. Dalrymple and Francis were: Robert Donnan, John Craighead, Kenneth Seger, John Sager, Douglas Detlor, Elwood Cuthbertson, Denton Short, Harry Danford, Gordon Wannamaker, Misses Grace Hessman, Beverly Linn, Joanne Hessman, Mrs. Louis Rodgers, Mrs. P. You can't go ALL-OUT IF you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness harder to keep—harder to regain. Today's tense living, frowned recklessly, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "tired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter. 23

Third, loans on business equipment . . . Businessmen like this service because it is fast and trouble-free. The business equipment acts as a backing and loans are made in accordance with value. Only the owner needs to sign . . . an excellent answer for temporary financial shortages.

Fourth, loans on farm machinery—stock . . . These loans have been especially designed for farmers' needs. And of importance to them . . . seasonal payment plans are available on loans over $500. Such loans are completed with little delay.

Besides loan plans which fit the needs of almost everyone, there are two good reasons for you to pick Niagara Finance for money requirements. Loans to $1500 are life insured at no extra cost to you. ## Destruction of Communist Party in United States One Goal of American Government

JAPAN'S TOP SOLDIER TO TOUR U.S.

General Keizo Hayashi, chairman of the Japanese Joint Staff Council, is seen above upon his arrival by air in Washington for a tour of U.S. military installations. Gen. Hayashi's position in Japan is similar to that of the American chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. — Central Press Canadian.

DENVR (AP)—State Secretary Dulles, fresh from global strategy conferences with President Eisenhower and the National Security Council, says American military might will thwart any Chinese Communist assault against Nationalist Formosa.

And FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover and Attorney - General Hebert Brownell say that as far as the Red threat on the home front is concerned, the administration's goal is to "utterly destroy the Communist party" in the United States.

They reported Sunday that a new drive toward that objective is well under way and that some Communists, spurred on by a new law granting immunity from prosecution, have been going to the FBI to tell about the activities of fellow conspirators.

Dulles, Hoover and Brownell made those statements at press conferences at the summer White House here Sunday after conferring with the president.

MET FOR 3 HOURS

Then Eisenhower, Dulles, Vice-President Richard Nixon and other members of the National Security Council met for three hours in extraordinary session for top-secret discussion of the Communist menace abroad—particularly in the Far East.

Dulles hinted in advance of that meeting that the council might reach a decision as to precise U.S. policy on the question of whether American defence of the Nationalist island of Quemoy is essential to effective defence of Formosa, the Chinese Nationalist stronghold.

Admiral Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, is the military member of the council and he was on hand for Sunday's security council meeting, first ever held outside of Washington.

But what he recommended with respect to Quemoy—and what the council decided—remained a deep secret when the members headed back to Washington by plane Sunday night.

Dulles, who flew here from the Far East Sunday, repeatedly declined to say categorically just what orders the 7th Fleet may have received, or will receive, in connection with Quemoy.

His assertion that American military might can turn back any Red Chinese assault on Formosa came in response to a question as to whether the U.S. has any plan for retaking Formosa should it fall to the Communists.

He termed the possibility of such a decipherment "so totally and utterly remote" that he doubts such a plan exists.

Says Remarks Unjust to Quebec

MONTMAGNY, Que. (CP)—Solicitor-General Rivard of Quebec says a speech of Prime Minister St. Laurent's in Montreal last week has saddened his compatriots and "would rejoice all the fanatics who wish to enslave the spirit and heart of Quebec."

Mr. Rivard made the remark in addressing 1,200 Union Nationale party supporters in his constituency at a rally Saturday night to celebrate his recent appointment as provincial transport minister.

He said the prime minister was reported as saying in a speech aboard the new liner Saxonia in Montreal Thursday that he found on his recent world tour that Canada's growth was welcomed everywhere "except behind the Iron Curtain and among people in Quebec."

This was unjust to Quebec and the words were regrettable, Mr. Rivard said. They "reveal a centralizing mind that is particularly dangerous."

"DIPLOMATIC PRIVILEGES"

"The prime minister probably knows the opinion of Russia through the Canadian ambassador in Moscow," Mr. Rivard went on. "We would have liked him to know the opinion of a Canadian ambassador to the Vatican, but the federal government has not seen fit to grant to the oppressed the diplomatic privileges it has granted to the oppressor."

Mr. Rivard said if there is some ill-feeling in Quebec it is not caused by the growth of Canada. Quebec would continue to bring its broad contribution to the prosperity and greatness of the country.

Quebec's advance in all fields, especially in mining and forestry developments was the first and most important factors in Canada's growth, he said.

"It is, to say the least surprising that the prime minister of Canada, a Quebecer, does not remember that."

Ill-feeling, he continued, grows out of the situation in which the province finds itself without the sources of revenue it needs to administer its affairs.

Beaver Becomes Problem Child Of the Forest

By WALTER GRAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — The beaver, coddled by Ontario for years, has become the problem child of the forest.

Dame Fashion has lost her love for the animal's fur. Farmers and property owners chase them off their land. And their dam-building activities have been the bane of the Ontario Northland Railway.

"The beaver has actually become a drug on the market," Dr. J. K. Reynolds, directgr of wild life management in the provincial lands and forests department, said in an interview. "The problem now is to keep them under control."

POPULATION SOARS

By 1940, the beaver population has been increasing and from 1946 its numbers have soared rapidly. Dr. Reynolds attributed the increase to improved management. The beaver is trapped on a quota system: one beaver pelt for each active beaver house on the trap line.

This year, a record 125,000 beavers were caught on the 4,904 registered lines in northern Ontario. However, the average price for a pelt was only $13. At one time they were worth $60 when the fur was prized in the fashion world.

Dr. Reynolds said the beaver has done considerable damage to northern roads by building its dams in culverts, causing flooding. The dams cover valuable farm and meadowland. This summer, two train derailments were caused on the ONR when beaver dams broke, sending torrents of water over the tracks.

MOVING EXPENSIVE

Before the beaver population soared, wildlife officials were to considerable expense transferring the animals from more-crowded areas, particularly in Algonquin Park, to the sparsely-settled districts to the north.

Four years ago, the department tried out a method in common use in the United States. Pairs of beaver—and in some cases, whole families—were placed in twisted willow cages and dropped from a plane by parachute. On landing the beaver would gnaw their way out of the cages.

However, this method was dropped. It was less costly to transfer them by truck or by plane to areas where lakes and rivers were accessible.

Dr. Reynolds said the transfer of beaver was stopped altogether three years ago when it became obvious that the population was getting out of control. It now is legal for property owners to get rid of the beaver in whatever manner they wish, but the pelt must be turned over to the department.

FLIES IN BALLOONS, LANDS IN DUTCH

Dangling from 70 balloons filled with natural gas, Garrett Cashman, 27-year-old former dancing teacher, is shown, left, as he took off from the western outskirts of Albany. Just what the daring stunt was trying to prove is not quite clear, but Cashman was carried aloft some 6,000 feet and floated more than 25 miles before landing in a field. He is shown above with his wife, safely on the ground shortly after his flight, showing the rig used in his experiment. He was sighted by an airline pilot while in the air. The CAA and the state police have more than an academic interest in the whys and wherefors of Cashman's unauthorized flight. — Central Press Canadian.

N.Z. Flying Saucer Enthusiasts Who Spent Year Investigating Conclude They Are Real

By JOHN STACKHOUSE

MELBOURNE (Reuters) — Ten flying saucer enthusiasts in Melbourne, who have spent a year investigating sightings of mysterious objects in the sky over the city, have reached the conclusion that flying saucers are real.

The 10 make up the self-styled Flying Saucer Investigation Committee. They are a banker, a journalist, four engineers, two clerks and two industrial engineers. Most of them are members of the Astronomical Society.

A year ago, these men, reading newspaper reports of lights in the sky, flying objects and the various things grouped under the collective title of "flying saucers," decided that they would investigate the phenomena independently.

They cross-examined 55 persons on what they had seen and reached their conclusions. One of the saucers was a balloon; four were meteors; one was drifting seed of Scotch thistle; two were jet aircraft; and 47 could not be explained.

CIGAR-SHAPED OBJECTS

A spokesman of the committee said the 47 "unexplained" saucers broke up into four distinct groups.

1. Six were cigar-shaped glowing objects seen at night gliding in the sky.

2. Fifteen were "proper" flying saucers or discs, rotating bodies appearing in pairs. When seen low down the upper portion appears to rotate. This type have windows and small ball-like wheels underneath.

3. Six more were shooting "moons" — bright lights which flash across the sky, hover for a minute or so, and appear or disappear suddenly.

4. The largest class, with 20 sightings, were small hovering lights, which hung in the sky, then dash off at high speed. In daylight, their surfaces flash in the sun like highly-polished metal.

CONVINCED BY SIGHTINGS

"It is much easier to say what these objects are not, than what they are," the committee's report states. "It is gratifying to note that of late the authorities are taking a more serious view of the whole matter.

"The committee is convinced that they have a definite, objective existence. They have been seen in too many widely separated places, at too many different times by too many sound and reliable witnesses to be disputed."

LAUNCHES APPEAL

GENEVA (Reuters) — The League of Red Cross Societies has launched a world-wide appeal for help for the earthquake victims of the Algerian city of Orleansville. The league said the French Red Cross put the disaster toll at 1,000 dead, 2,000 injured and 7,000 homeless.

START CO-OP HOUSING

PETERBOROUGH (CP) — A $250,000 co-operative housing project for 28 Peterborough district families got off to an official start Saturday with sod-turning ceremonies in suburban Smith township. The first homes are expected to be ready for occupancy by spring.

Maybe you deserve a key to the city!

Many people — probably including you too — deserve to be honoured for rendering certain important services to their communities.

Very few of these people are celebrities, public heroes or leading dignitaries. Mostly, they're "just plain folks". But together they help create much needed new public works, homes, building and industrial developments. All of which promote progress and provide thousands of jobs.

How do these people play a part in such big projects? Simply by owning life insurance. For it is money from their premiums, which life insurance companies invest for them, that makes it possible for many of these projects to be completed.

Thanks to these same people, life insurance companies are able to contribute funds to medical research work in a wide range of vital fields. As a result, Canadians may look forward to living longer, healthier lives.

What's more, every life insurance policyholder tries to save his family from ever having to depend on others for their support. This, too, is a service to his community.

That's why, if you own life insurance, you deserve "a key to the city"!

P.S. from your life insurance man

"Invested life insurance dollars earn interest that makes it possible for you and your family to enjoy the benefits of life insurance at such low cost. If you have any questions about how to make life insurance fit your own special needs, give me a call. I'll be glad to help you!"

Electors Urged To Vote Liberal In By-Elections

EMBRUN, Ont. (CP) — Ontario Liberal Leader Farquhar Oliver Saturday night urged provincial voters here to vote against the Ontario Progressive Conservative administration as a protest against "the messy highway scandal."

He said that election of a Liberal in next Thursday's by-election in Russell constituency would improve the riding's chances of getting government aid and benefits.

Mr. Oliver spoke in support of Liberal candidate Ralph Flinn in an election rally in this Russell county village.

Electors in Russell had received nothing from the Ontario government which they had not paid for in higher taxes, he said.

N.Z. Doctor Makes Cloud Disintegrate in Demonstration

ORILLIA (CP)—Dr. Rolf Alexander apparently caused three clouds to disappear from the sky Sunday in demonstrating his claim that the brain has vast stores of untapped energy.

The 53-year-old New Zealand physician, now living here, put on the experiment in Couchiching Park before an audience of 50. The demonstration involved making the clouds disintegrate by what he called "creative realism."

He chose a cloud and then, claiming to bring his powers of energy transmission into use, concentrated on the cloud. It disappeared in about three minutes. The same procedure was followed on two other clouds.

Several persons claimed they saw other clouds, not targets of Dr. Alexander's experiment, disappear at the same time. Dr. Alexander agreed that other clouds were probably being broken up by atmospheric conditions, but said he doubted if any broke up as rapidly as his target clouds.

He said the experiment was to demonstrate his theory that the perfectual lofe of the brain can and does radiate some unknown form of energy that has never been measured by science, although the bio-electric energy from the rest of the brain has been found by the use of electrodes.

He said he hopes that widespread recognition of the heretofore unused part of the brain will eventually bring about university research that will either prove or disprove his theory.

He said "that cloud blasting is not a unique power I alone hold. Anyone can learn to do it."

Canadian Game Getting Nod From American Fans

By ED SIMON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK (CP)—"Hey waiter, bring me a copy of the Canadian football rules."

The speaker, a freshman viewer of the National Broadcasting Company's telecasts of Interprovincial Rugby Football Union games, had just watched in consternation as Hamilton Tiger-Cats lost possession to Montreal Alouettes for failure to move the ball 10 yards in three downs.

But most of the Sixth avenue habitues no longer holler for the rule book as they keep their eyes glued to the screen. After three weeks they appear to have accepted the three-down rule and other Canadian variations of American football rules.

The Big Four telecasts, which suffered a virtual blackout in New York a week ago against the unbeatable competition of a crucial Brooklyn Dodgers baseball game, got an unexpected assist from hurricane Edna Saturday.

The drenching rains that accompanied the gale-force winds forced postponement of an equally crucial Brooklyn - Milwaukee game until after completion of the football telecast. As a result, most Sixth avenue screens were focused on the slightly alien game from north of the border.

It appeared too early in the season for the watchers to have developed partisan feelings on behalf of any of the Canadian clubs. It was Hamilton's TV debut and Montreal had made only one previous appearance on the screen.

But there was plenty of interest. The patrons grunted sympathetically as Hamilton quarter Ed Songin failed to find a pass-receiver and was forced to "eat" the ball under a swarm of Montreal tacklers. They nodded approvingly as Montreal half Alex Webster snaked through for a big gain and Hamilton's Cam Fraser threw a third-down pass from a fake kick formation.

In the odd corner, knots of baseball fans still discussed the ins and outs of the pennant race. But it was clear that Canadian football had won a New York following, which will increase when the world series is decided.

Oshawa Defeats Northern Electric To Sweep OASA Senior 'B' Series

(By GARRY ALEXANDER)

The Oshawa Maple Cleaners scored five runs in the top of the tenth on Saturday night to climax a see-saw slugger's battle and defeat the Belleville Northern Electric nine 16-11. The loss eliminated the Northerners from the second round of the O.A.S.A. seniors "B" playdowns in two straight games.

The lead changed hands no less than five times as both teams pounding away at the best of the opposition's hurlers with Oshawa getting 18 hits and the losers 13. Belleville took a 3-0 lead in the first frame, Oshawa went ahead 5-3 only to have the homesters rally for a 7-5 margin by the bottom of the fourth. Four Oshawa markers in the sixth and two for Northern made it 9-9 with the visitors getting two in the seventh and Belleville coming right back to send it into extra innings with a pair in the eighth.

Pitcher Jack McConkey ignited the winners tenth-inning outburst with a single and after the next two batters popped to the infield, Tutak also singled. Booth was hit by a pitch to fill the sacks and successive errors by Carr and Locke allowed two runs with two men still on base. Bill Barker then punched a single into right field for two more markers with another error and a walk keeping the sacks loaded. Barker scored on a passed ball before the third out was made and Belleville went down in order in their half of the inning.

Lum Carson started for Belleville and lasted for 6 2-3 frames, giving up 11 runs off 14 hits, fanning three and walking one. Boyle went the rest of the way to take the loss while whiffing one and walking two. Doug Keeler lasted for 2 2-3 frames for Oshawa, allowing seven runs from five hits, fanning three and walking five. McConkey completed the job and although he allowed eight hits, took the win. He struck out two and walked one.

Vern Goyer's lined homer followed a walk and hit batter in the initial frame but a double by Lorenzo pita an error when Carr and Cousins collided going after a short pop cut the margin to 3-3 in the second. Bob Booth's long homer in the third with a single by Goyer added two more for Oshawa while Barker's single and a double by J. Stark added one in the fourth.

Northern chased Keeler in the fourth with two walks, a single by Whiting and Glen Young's three-run double while Batchelor singled off the new pitcher to plate Young for a 7-5 lead. Five singles in the sixth plated four Oshawa markers while a single by Locke plus doubles by Goyer and Batchelor netted a pair for Belleville. Booth's single plus doubles by Barker and J. ### SENIOR B HOCKEY

FLASH — Seven teams will comprise the Eastern Ontario senior "B" hockey group in the 1954-55 season, it was decided at a meeting of group representatives held in Peterborough on Sunday.

Included are Belleville, Kingston, Peterborough, Oshawa, Cornwall, Brockville and Clinton, N.Y.

Toronto Lyndhurst, Toronto Lumbermen, Newmarket, and Orillia were represented at the meeting and requested an interlocking schedule with the eastern group with the latter paying expenses. The suggestion was tossed out. More details later.

BRRRR . . .

Another game like the last pair with the Pesky Petes and that press-radio booth at Exhibition Park may suddenly be turned into a morgue. Both games were heart-thumping affairs leaving "senile and hyperactive" with definite cardiac conditions. And there might have been a sudden flopping of bodies Saturday night had not "Hurricane Edna" teamed with Frosty Jack in a weather prediction that had the prospective boxers in a near rigid state. And no wise cracks about being "stiff."

Flager's mike had icy whiskers. "Red" Doran wanted to know what was making the booth shake unaware that he was the source. Alexander's teeth were playing with an excellent imitation of Spanish castenets. This department's conversation froze in midair and we had to go back Sunday afternoon after it thawed out to find out what we were talking about.

From here is the Balas' management can either televise the games or provide parkas and braziers. (They're buckets loaded with hot coals, and not what you are thinking, heh). or they can blinkin' well cover the games themselves.

However, the Balas came through with a Merriwellian finish to heave-ho the Petes in three straight and pave the way for a series with the cocky Oshawa Transporters. We may have something definite on that before the deadline.

The pestiferous Petes heaved a scare into our side when they captured a brace to grab the lead in the ninth, but thanks to "Mouse" Bush and that timely clout with the sacks FOB, (fulla Belleville) the Balas came through with the winner. There was a thrill a minute and a dose of drama in the ninth in a game that could have gone either way.

OUT

Herby Henn's Northern Electric Clockers were rudely shoo'd off the OASA senior "B" playdowns roost Saturday by the Oshawa Maple Cleaners. These guys are well-named for they took the Hennery Gang to the cleaners in no uncertain manner in the terrible tenth when they poured five runs over the plate after the squads had battled to an 11-all tie. Big Vern Goyer, (a gal reporter up west recently dubbed him "The Babe Ruth of Central Ontario) lived up to the moniker by bashing out a homer, double and two singles. Ho hum, somebody must lose, and the Northern have no reason to feel disgraced. They were fine reps of the city and took their defeat like good sportsmen.

"SOMEBODY GOOFED"

Meanwhile down in Point Anne, the boys were seething over the treatment handed out by the management or convener or both of that Toronto club supposed to play the Ox Feinters Saturday in the first of their best-of-three OASA Int. "A" playdowns. The Feinters had plenty of paid advertising out and were not notified of the cancellation of the game until the last minute. The reason, it was stated, was that Feinters had not yet declared a winner. Whether the Toronto outfit gambled on having a winner by Saturday and made arrangements for the Point Anne game only to have their plans go awry, is not known. Somebody Goofed" and the OASA brass should probe the matter. It is getting to the time of the year when the weather is uncertain as the feminine mind, and every delay is dangerous. If the Toronto club is at fault the powers-that-be should either give the Feint the game by default or see to it that the Ox Feinters out-of-pocket expenses are paid. No matter what the reason, the latter should be granted by somebody.

Bob Temple's Bobcats enter the touchy OASA intermediate "AA" playdown trail today when they tangle with a Kingston team at the CNE Recreation Park at six of the clock. The Cats ended the Stewart Warners last week after a strenuous best-of-seven series and now they face the acid test. Temple will field the strongest team possible in an effort to grab this all-important first game. And a little support at the box office will not come amiss.

Double Triumph Sets Pennant Fluttering in Tribal Faces; 'Bums' Win Two; Braves Split

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It would be ridiculous to accuse the five-time world champion New York Yankees of "choking up."

But it must be gratifying to the long suffering Cleveland fans today to check back over the past few days and discover that it was the proud Yankees, and not the maligned Indians, who lost seven of their last 10 clutch games.

And in the same period, the Indians won eight out of 10 to pick up five big games on the weary world champions.

If ever there had been any doubts about Cleveland's intestinal fortitude, the American League leaders dispelled them Sunday with a glorious double-header sweep of New York that all but ended the long Yankee dynasty. The 4-1 and 8-2 conquests before 86,563 spectators, the largest crowd ever to watch a baseball game, stretched Cleveland's first place margin over the Yankees to 8½ lengths. With only 20 games left, the Indians can clinch their first flag since 1948 by merely winning three overs in 11 days or sweep their remaining 11 games.

NO ROST PICTURE

All was not rosy for the Cleveland's pennant-winning pitchers, the New York Giants, however. Continuing their recent lackluster play, they dropped a twin bill 4-3 by St. Louis and had their National League lead whittled to 3½ games when the rebounding Brooklyn Dodgers came through with a 4-2 and 3-1 double-header victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Milwaukee Braves, still in the running despite two recent losses to the Dodgers, drew up to within 4½ games of the top by earning a split with the Phillies in Philadelphia.

Lew Burdette outpitched Robin Roberts for a 3-1 Braves' victory after the Phillies had snapped Warren Spahn's 11-game victory string 5-2. Cincinnati's Bradley climbed into fourth place, drubbing the Pittsburgh Pirates twice 11-3 and 13-2 as Ted Kluszewski drove in nine runs and smashed homers Nos. 47 and 48.

FOX STEALS HOME

The Chicago White Sox, paced by Nellie Fox and Minnie Minoso, vanquished the Boston Red Sox twice 5-3 and 7-4. Fox produced three hits, including a two-run double and stole three bases, including home. Minoso drove in four runs in the nightcap with a home run and double.

Detroit trounced Washington twice 5-0 and 8-3 to sweep past Boston into fourth place. Ned Garver notched his 17th victory with a six-hit shutout and was armed Ted Gray won his first game since May 12.

The Indians' first set place in the American League resulted in a stalemate as the Baltimore and Philadelphia divided a pair and continued their eighth place tie. The Orioles won the opener 4-3, scoring all their runs in the seventh for Bob Turley's 12th victory. Athletics took the second 5-4, scoring the winning run in the ninth when Jimmy Fox walked Spook Jacobs with the bases loaded.

RECORD CROWD

The 86,563 fans, with 84,587 paid, cheered themselves hoarse over the Indians' performance that gave them a season split of 11-11 against the Yankees. At Boone's two-run double in the seventh off Allie Reynolds broke up a 1-1 deadlock in the opener as Bob Lemon went on to register his 22nd victory.

Early Wynn struck out 12 Yankees including Enos Slaughter, Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra in the ninth as he outpitched Jimmy Byrne for his 21st triumph in the second game. Wynn allowed three hits including Berra's first inning homer with a man on base.

Stan Musial and Harvey Haddix combined to beat the Giants. Musial battled in three runs with a single and his 35th homer. Haddix gained his 17th victory although he needed help in the ninth.

Carl Furillo drove in the winning run in both Brooklyn victories. He doubled in two runs in the opener and broke up the second game with a bases-loaded two-run single off Warren Hacker in the 15th inning.

Chiefs, Kings Play Off For Fourth Berth

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Havana Cuban Sugar Kings and Syracuse Chiefs, tied for fourth place in the International League, meet tonight in a playoff game at Syracuse to determine the last playoff berth for the Governor's Cup.

Syracuse, needing a sweep to stay in the battle for a playoff position, won a doubleheader from the lowly Ottawa Athletics Sunday, 4-2 and 4-1, while the Kings trounced the third-place Rochester Red Wings 12-3.

The pennant - winning Toronto Maple Leafs closed out their regular season by defeating the second - place Richmond Virginians twice by 4-1 margins.

The second-place Montreal Royals split a doubleheader with Buffalo Bisons. Buffalo won the opener 3-0 as the Royals came back to take the nightcap 13-10.

RALLY FOR THREE

Syracuse, with a 78-76 won and lost record, rallied for three runs in the seventh inning of the opener as Jack Meyer gained credit for his 15th victory of the season. Jim Dilmar went all the way for his 11th victory in the nightcap.

The Kings pounded out 18 hits off three Rochester pitchers as Pedro Formental hit a pair of two-run homers to lead the Havana attack.

First-baseman Ed Stevens drove in three runs with a single and Lew Morton rounded out the Toronto scoring with his home run in the eighth inning of the opener. The Leafs took the second game with single runs in the second and third, plus two runs in the fifth.

Pitcher Jim Konstanty hit two home runs, one with the bases loaded, in the nightcap as the Royals blanked the Royals in the opener, limiting them to four hits.

Rocky Will Get Off to Fast Start, Will Be No Punching Bag, Says Ezz.

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano isn't footing this time because he has a good memory.

Remembering with a shudder that he was behind on the cards of all three officials for the first half of his last title bout with Ezzard Charles, the king of the heavies declared today:

"I hope to get off to a fast start because I know Charles might try to do something with me."

The Rock, going into his last day of training, thinks he might have slayed a camp a little too long before the first Charles battle, which he finally won by a unanimous decision.

Marciano weighs 188 pounds and has boxed 112 rounds in 26 workouts. Today was to be devoted to road work and he will break camp Tuesday. Before the first Charles bout, the Rock boxed 190 rounds.

SURPRISED AT JOE

Meanwhile, the camp buzzed with reports of former heavyweight champion Joe Louis tagging Rocky as "final fighter."

"I'm surprised at Joe," pouted Marciano. "I don't know why he'd say that."

Marciano said his style was best described as a "crowder" who might look like he's hitting foul but really wasn't.

Louis, incidentally, switched to Charles this time after picking Marciano in the first fight. In his book, Charles has a chance to knock out the champion.

Very few give Charles much of a chance to knock out Marciano in the Wednesday night bout at Yankee Stadium. The price is about 4 to 1 that he'll lose again and 12 to 5 that he won't last the route.

MONTICELLO, N. Y. (AP)—Ezzard Charles, the 33-year-old ex-heavyweight champion who will try for the third time to regain the crown Wednesday night, does not aim to prove he can take one of Rocky Marciano's punches.

"No, sir," he said today before going through his final full-scale workout, "I'm not aiming to prove I can take a punch. In fact, I'm going to try not to get hit."

Ezz has his own analysis of Marciano, who licked him with a unanimous decision last June 17: a tremendous volume of punches, few of them direct hits, plus tremendous strength.

"If he couldn't punch, he'd be a bum in the ring," added Charles—a statement which sounded like a fellow bouncing dynamite off his toenails.

Charles figures on weighing 190—four and a half pounds more than he did in the last contest—when he steps into the Yankee Stadium ring Wednesday.

"If I put some punches together, I'll be all right," was about the closest he came to summing up his chances.

Ninth-Inning Rally Gives Batas 6-5 Victory, Series Over Peterborough

Clutch Clout by 'Mouse' Bush Drives Home Winning Tally In Nip-and-Tuck Senior Tilt

By GEORGE H. CARVER
Sports Editor

A ninth-inning bases-loaded rap gave the Belleville Batas a 6-5 victory and a clean sweep of the best-of-five OBA senior playoffs series with the Peterborough Petes here Saturday night.

It was a thrill-packed nip-and-tuck battle with the score tied twice and the lead changing hands three times before the Batas pushed over the winning run. Diamond drama came in the ninth when the Petes grabbed a 5-4 lead with two runs in the top half, and the Batas came back to plate a pair to snatch the victory.

Arrangements are under way for the Batas to play the Oshawa Transporters in the OBA senior playdowns.

GOOD OLD "MOUSER"

"Mouse" Bush, Batas outfielder was the hero of the piece from a victory standpoint. His infield smash in the bottom of the ninth with the bases loaded and one out, sent Eddie Wollens across the plate with the winning run.

The Batas broke a three-all stalemate in the bottom of the ninth. Jerry Frizzelle, Petes hurler had struck out Fitzpatrick and forced Bush to pop to third. Dave Lyons drew a walk and raced all the way to third when Frizzelle uncorked a wild pitch. Jerry Lockwood, Batas shortstop, laced a sharp single to centre scoring Jones. Wright flied to centre field.

Edger walked in the Petes top of the ninth and the reliable Keith MacDonald, Batas third-sacker, threw Dalton's infield drive over. Gerry Goyer's head at first base. Eddie Redmond lashed out a clean single through the middle scoring both runners, after Bigford had been tossed out. Wright retired Padgett and Frizzelle to end the rally.

Flaying Coach Vern Goyer went in to hit for Doug Hull in the Batas half of the inning and grounded out to shortstop. Hull would have stole second and raced home with the tying run on Gerry Goyer's ringing smash to centre field. Ed Wollens ran for Goyer who had reached second on a throw to the plate. Tony Pettitt drew an intentional walk and Fitzpatrick shot his third hit to right centre, driving the bases. Came Bush's rap and Wollens raced home with the winner.

SCORE IN SECOND

Both teams scored in the second innings with the Batas grabbing a one-run lead in the fourth. The Petes took the lead in the fifth after scoring two runs off singles by Dalton and Bigford, a sacrifice and a Batas error.

Art Wright's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded and one out in the sixth scored Fitz, who had reached with the big circuit clout through with a fine relief job allowing two for two to win the game.

Gerry Goyer and Dick Fitzpatrick paced the Batas with three singles each, with Pettitt and Kelleher hitting doubles. Eddie Redmond led the Petes with two singles driving in two runs.

The fielding feature was Dougie Hull's running one-hand stab of Bill Edger's towering fly in the sixth with the bases loaded and two out.

'Jolly Cholly' Confident Team Will Win Flag

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Time is running out on the Milwaukee Braves but from manager Charley Grimm down to the batboy, the National League's infant success still believes the 1954 world series will be a battle of Indians.

"We can't stop now," says Grimm. "Our team has come a long way. They're not dejected. They're not out. As long as we have games to play we're still very much in the race."

But despite Grimm's optimism, the Braves are in a tough spot. They can't afford to lose games like the first one of Sunday's double-header to the Philadelphia Phillies. There was a chance for Milwaukee to pick up some real ground and they flubbed it.

The Giants lost to St. Louis, so had the Braves been able to add the first game against the Phils to their nightcap victory, they'd be 3½ games off the pace today instead of 4½. The Phils took the opener 5-2, the Braves the second game 2-1.

ONE WRONG PITCH

One bad pitch made the difference as far as Grimm is concerned.

Warren Spahn, the crafty southpaw veteran was pitching and the score was tied 2-2.

Spahn, who was after his 20th victory of the season, got over two strikes on outfielder Mel Clark of the Phillies, first man up in the 8th inning. Then he grooved one where he should have wasted it. Clark slapped the ball 402 feet for a triple. He then walked Stan Lopata.

That brought up cluteh-hitting Granny Hamner who laced a double to center, scoring Clark, and that was the game.

Things Perking Up for 'Bums' Says Alston

BROOKLYN (AP) — Manager Walt Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers took one look at the remaining schedule today and couldn't help smiling.

"I haven't made any predictions all year and this isn't the time to start."

But he allowed that things were looking up.

Trailing the New York Giants by three games and a game and a half ahead of the Milwaukee Braves, the schedule favors the Bronks all the way. Of their 11 remaining games, nine are at home. Five of the 11 are with the last place Pittsburgh Pirates, three with the Cincinnati Redlegs and three with the Giants.

Leo Durocher's men, on the other hand, have 11 games left—three with Brooklyn, a half-dozen with Philadelphia, three with Milwaukee and one with St. Louis. Seven are at home, six away.

Brooklyn has won five straight, including Sunday's 4-2 and 4-3 triumphs over the Chicago Cubs in their three game series. Monday is less than a week. It took the Dodgers 22 innings and five hours and 35 minutes to win the two Sunday.

Marilyn Guest Of Shriners In Montreal

By GERALD McDEVITT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP)—Marilyn Bell flew into Montreal from Toronto and made a brief personal appearance at a Shriner's convention in the Montreal Forum Saturday night.

More than 9,000 delegates cheered as the 16-year-old blonde swimming girl who swam for 21 hours across cold, choppy Lake Ontario Friday drove around the concourse in a black convertible.

"I came to help the crippled kids" she said. "I've been teaching them to swim for the last five years and I'd like to learn physiotherapy to help them a lot more."

Proceeds from the variety show, featuring French crooner Denise Darcel, go to help crippled children in the Montreal district.

GREETED AT AIRPORT

She and a party of friends, including her father and mother, were greeted at Dorval airport by 300 admirers and officials of the three-day Shriners' northeastern annual meeting.

A caravan of limousines whisked the group into the city.

In a hotel room interview she said there will be no more swimming this year "because I'm already a week late for school.

She appeared tired and newspaper men were warned that her doctor had forbidden her to stand for more than 15 minutes at a time. She was also reported suffering from a sore right ankle, result of a fall soon after the marathon swim.

Marilyn denied reports she lost 30 pounds during the crossing. She said she weighed 119 pounds when she left the New York state side of the lake and upped the scales at 120 pounds soon after reaching the Canadian side. She couldn't explain the extra pound.

WIRE FROM FLO

The youngster read of a telegram received from United States swimming star Florence Chadwick, entered in the race but who was forced to drop out before the finish.

It read "Congratulations, magnificent job and I sincerely mean magnificent. Best wishes always."

Miss Bell said her next goal is to swim the unconquered Juan de Fuca channel, the 18-mile stretch of water between Victoria, B.C., and Point Angelus, Wash.

She didn't want to challenge Miss Chadwick to the race but "I'd be pleased to have her enter."

Unbeaten Larks Claw TiCats, Ottawa, Eskys, Saskies Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Montreal is the only unbeaten senior football club in the country and the way things are going for the Alouettes it appears they'll just keep rolling along amassing Big Four opposition.

The power-laden Als, with Sam Etcheverry directing traffic from the quarterback slot behind a rock-ribbed line, made it four straight Saturday with an easy 21-3 victory over Hamilton Tiger-Cats, defending Big Four champions. The triumph put them four points up on the second-place Toronto Argonauts who lost 13-7 to Ottawa Rough Riders.

Meanwhile, in the Western Conference, the badly-crippled Edmonton Eskimos came to life before a home-town crowd to whip Calgary Stampeders 30-11. They did it with their two quarterbacks, Jackie Jones, all converted into touchdowns. And Hedley Quinnell's Lions, secretary in the WIFU this year and sitting ducks for the other four clubs so far, continued their fifth straight. The Lions scored their most points in a game at Regina this year in the pace-setting Saskatchewan Roughriders.

LIVE UP TO NOTICES

The Alouettes, hard hit by injuries key men most all year, ruined their Big Four playoff hopes, have lived up to all advance notices.

They started the season at Hamilton in last September's Tiger-Cats 24-6. They followed up with an easy 21-2 victory at home over Ottawa Rough Riders. Then they went back again 20-11 and took the fight out of the Tiger-Cats Saturday.

In other action Saturday, Sarnia Imperials scored two touchdowns in the final minutes of Saturday's play—both by half Albert Richmond—to defeat Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen 18-17 in their Ontario Rugby Football Union game at Kitchener. The victory all but eliminated Dutchmen.

The ailing sports publicist s 3-0 lead on Jig Logan's early field goal and Tex Coulter made it 3-3 with a single before the first quarter.

From there in, Tiger-Cats didn't have a chance and the Als romped to two converted second-quarter touchdowns and added another in the third. Ray Poole, their veteran kicking artist, finished off the scoring on a field goal from around the 30-yard mark.

TOM MAZZEO

Alex Webster, formerly of North Carolina State, scored two majors and Chuck Bussinger, three - year veteran with Chicago Bears, went over for the other. Pools kicked two converts.

At Toronto, a slim crowd of 13,- 910 watched Rough Riders work off the split-T formation to keep Argonauts off balance for most of the game. Ottawa led 12-0 before Argonauts managed to score an unconverted touchdown in the second quarter.

Billy Bass, released by Argonauts earlier this season, gathered Ares ahead to stay in the opening quarter when he scampered off a 52-yard march by smashing through centre for a touchdown from four yards out. Avanzo Stone, who jumped Chicago Cardinals last year, went over for Ottawa's other major.

Stone also kicked a single and Gene Gaudet, Roberts, Big Four scoring champion in 1953, kicked one convert.

SURPRISE DUTCHMEN

The Dutchmen led 17-7 with minutes remaining and appeared to be well on the way to victory when Senaties set Imperials for their two touchdowns.

Richmond's first major came when a 15-yard penalty against the Dutchmen gave Imperials a first down after they had lost the ball on third down on an incomplete pass. On the next play Richmond took a five pass from five yards out and went over.

The final touchdown was scored with time up. An interference call from a forward pass gave Imperials the ball on the Kitchener 1. The game was over, technically at that point but due to the penalty Imperials had one play and they grabbed the opportunity.

Richmond bulled over from four yards out.

'Finest Day in Baseball' Says Lopez, 'Ole Case' Locks Yankee Clubhouse

CLEVELAND (AP) — In the Cleveland Indians' dressing room, manager Al Lopez called Sunday "my finest day in baseball," and he's been in it 30 years.

Around the curve of Municipal Stadium, Casey Stengel locked the clubhouse door of the New York Yankees whose five-year reign as American League champs is near an end. So Case said Sunday.

Major league baseball's biggest crowd of fans—86,563 who saw New York tumble the Yanks 4-1 and 3-2 in the stadium sunshine and doubleheader would agree today that the reactions of Senor Lopez and old Case were about right.

Mathematically, the Yanks can't be eliminated before Monday afternoon, and it's more likely to happen Friday or Saturday. But only a miracle could prevent it, a miracle such as the Indians losing eight of their remaining 10 games, while the Yanks win all 11 they have left.

THINGS LOOK GOOD

Lopez, pilot of three Indian runners-up to the world champion Yankees, had more to say about his "finest day."

"Guess I'll have to admit now that things are looking pretty good" he said, and added a chuckle.

The huge crowd—not as noisy as some half the size—watched a display of topnotch pitching by Cleveland's Bob Lemon and Early Wynn. Together, Lemon and Wynn gave the once - mighty Bombers only nine hits in 18 innings including two bunts and an infield scratch.

Lemon crushed the Yanks' hopes of gaining on the Tribe by winning the opener with a six-hitter that increased his major league leading victory total to 22 against six losses.

STRIKES OUT SIDE

Wynn poured it on the downcast New Yorkers with the 3-2 three-hitter. In the first game Wynn struck out 12, whiffing the side in order in the ninth. Wynn now has won 21 and lost 11.

Yogi Berra spoiled Wynn's hope of a shutout with a homer into the upper right field deck in the first inning of the nightcap. It was Yogi's 20th homer, came with two out and Andy Carey aboard with a double.

Two-run doubles by Al Rosen and Wally Westlake were the game-winning hits among 15 the Indians collected against lefty Whitey Ford. Westlake's blow tied two innings, Allie Reynolds; and Rosen's drive, which went all the way in the nightcap.

POSTPONE FIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—The lightweight title fight between champion Paddy Demarco and challenger Jimmy Carbone scheduled for San Francisco Sept. 22, was indefinitely postponed Sunday because of an injury to Demarco's left elbow.

Terriers Nip St. Thomas 8-7 To Even Series

ST. THOMAS (CP)—Protecting an early lead, Galt Terriers nipped St. Thomas Elgins 8-7 in a 3,000 fans here Saturday night to square the best-of-seven finals for the Senior Intermediary Baseball League championship at 3-2.

The fifth game is slated for Galt Monday night and the sixth in St. Thomas Tuesday.

St. Thomas came within one run of tying the score in the ninth but Galt's fourth double-play of the game squelched the rally at one run. Harry Paulka's three - run homer in the fifth was the most damaging blow of the game. He batted in five of Galt's eight runs. Roger Birnard hit a bases-empty home-run for St. Thomas in the fourth.

The Terriers took an early three-run lead in the first inning on a walk, a sacrifice, an error and three hits by Jack Colvin, Tex Kaiser and Freddie Thomas. Colvin hit three for five, including a double, while Paulka hit a single and a double as well as a home run.

UNEARNED RUN

Galt scored an unearned run in the third on Colvin's single, Paulka's double. St. Thomas scored a single run in the fourth when Birnard hit over the fence.

Galt had a three-run inning in the fifth when Thomas singled after Colvin had doubled and Thomas walked. St. Thomas rallied for four runs in the sixth on four walks, a hit batsman, and one run by Don Butler. Nine men batted.

St. Thomas' one run in the ninth was scored on Birnard's walk, Willie Casanova's single and a wild pitch by Jeep Jessup who had relieved Bill Hanrahan.

Bobby Schuyler, who worked 6 2-3 innings, was the winning hurler. Wilmer Harris, who started for St. Thomas, was the loser. He was followed by Cam Church and Eddie Drapeau.

WINS BIKE RACE

HAMILTON (CP) — Browning Koss of Woodbury, N.J., won the 15-mile Canadian League bicycle marathon here Saturday in the record time of one hour, 19 minutes and 37 seconds.

Quinte Soccer

The Belleville entries in the Ontario Minor championships both met defeat on Saturday in their home and home goals to count series. Last Saturday's encounters were played at Wilbrod Park in Toronto, Branch 96 Canadian Legion bantams were beaten 7-0 but definitely were not downhearted. The^game was played in a very strong wind. In the first half the Legion boys had the wind advantage but had not got over the effects of their long bus trip. Toronto Kalevs who are made up mainly of boys from Estonia were a much stronger team and managed to put two in the Legion net whilst playing against the wind. After change of ends Kalevs had nearly everything their own way and put on the pressure when they had the wind in their favor. In that half they put the ball in the Legion net five times.

Branch 99 Canadian Legion team, Ramsbottom, T. Kellar, Kerrulah, T. Phillips, Van Der Floeg, R. Kellar, B. Green, Colligan, Van-Alystine, Healy, Findlay, subs, Lewis, Hannah, E. Kellar.

In the second half of a doubleheader Foley Foundry juveniles met defeat by 4 goals to nothing at the hands of Toronto juveniles. The Toronto boys were superior in positional play and were faster on the ball. The Foley Foundry youngsters were by no means disgraced when giving away one goal in each period.

After the matches both teams were entertained to dinner at East End Canadians F.C. club rooms and did a good chore in putting away the roast beef and apple pie.

The return games will be played in Belleville at the Fairgrounds next Saturday afternoon.

Foley Foundry team: Smets, Tripp, Penazka, K. Kappes, R. Phillips, Dafoe, P. Kappes, J. Green, Zubka, Morovcek. Trayhouse, subs, Scrimshaw, T. Kellar, Rushlow.

Batawa ran out easy winners in their exhibition game yesterday afternoon against Toronto Slovaks when they defeated the Toronto Senior League opposition by eight clean goals. Etson with three, Curphey two, Holefsema two and Pospoil were the shooters in the scorers. The Slovak team came down with quite a reputation and it says a lot for the standard of local soccer that the Batawa boys were able to put up such a show.

In their first round match in the Ontario Intermediate Cup Kingston United beat Peterborough Merchants six goals to one in the first leg of a home and home goals to count series. The return game will be played in Peterborough next Saturday afternoon.

Belleville Beats Oshawa Bantams; Pee Wees Ousted

The Belleville entry in the O.A.S.A. Bantier "A" series, Checker Taxi, scored an 11-7 decision over Oshawa here on Saturday afternoon in the first game of two final series at one game each. Meanwhile, their smaller "brothers", the Booth pee wees from Belleville were eliminated by dropping a close 5-4 verdict, thus losing the series in two straight games. BANTAM McLaren hurled the distance for Belleville to take the win, giving up eight hits, striking out a pair and walking eight. Young was his catcher. Joyce pitched all the way for Oshawa, being pounded for 11 hits including a pair of homers. He fanned one and walked four. Silver was the loser.

Bull and Young were the batting stars for the victors, each slamming a home run and two singles. Lerrels followed with a trio of singles while Goyer had a double and single with L. MacDonald punching a brace of singles.

McDatch hit a home run and a double in defeat with Cole and McAvoy contributing a duo of singles each. Boddy and Knocker had one-base blows.

The umpires were Mac Carson and Lum Carson of Belleville.

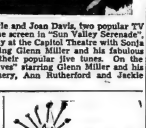
PEE WEE

Belleville lost a heart-breaker in this one with Hook pitching a three-hitter but still going down to defeat. He fanned eight while walking the same number. Mapes went all the way to gain the win while surrendering six hits, whiffing 12 and walking to.

One of the winners hits was a three-run homer by Garrow in the seventh inning with Peters and Sinlock getting singles. Belleville hitters were Zibler with a homer and single, Brown had two singles while McKee homered and Dalnard had a double.

Garrow was the Oshawa catcher while Dalnard was Hook's battery mate. The local boys had five errors, one more than the visitors but fanning the men on base cost them the game.

The umpires were Mike Whalen and Red Townsend, both of Belleville.



By SAM GORDON
The Kibitzer

The main difference in bridge systems is in the basics for an opening bid and the requirements for its first response. If every system started with the correct basic, changes would be few if any.

My Horse Sense method is probably the only one of the current systems that has never made even one change. Reason: it is mathematically correct to start with.

If the basis for an opening one bid is wrong, all the bids in that deal must be rebored to fit the defect. If the first response is wrong, all future bids in that deal must be re-adjusted.

Take the hand you see here:

♥A Q 8 4 2
♦8 7 4 2
♣A 6

In Horse Sense this is not a sound opening bid. It lacks a high card of being a mathematically sound opening. Inventors of some of the other systems may advise an opening one bid with it.

The lack of a fourth high card in an opening one bid changes all the foundation qualities for a future no-trump contract. So, in other systems there must be uncertainties to contend with.

The highest ranking master bridge players stand on a policy of: A quick attack is the best defence. To adhere to this belief they will often open with a hand that is fundamentally weak.

Consequently, their later rounds of bids must be geared to the possibility of a weak opening. This is why so many of them wind up in contracts that are often ludicrous.

In a current series here, you are reading what the masters did in the last winter nationals. You will notice that many deals in which all of these played reach a wide variety of endings.

The main reason for this is lack of confidence in the stability of their openings. And partner does not always guess how weak it is.

Lack of confidence keeps partners on a fence.

HEAVY LOSS IN BARN

COOKSVILLE, Ont. (CP)—Fire Sunday night destroyed a barn and several grading machines inside on the farm of former agriculture minister T. L. Kennedy of Ontario near Toronto. Damage was estimated at $40,000.

Quinte Tennis

The annual mixed doubles tournament of the Bay of Quinte Tennis League was held on the Quinte courts under ideal weather conditions. An excellent brand of tennis was provided by entries from Campbellford, Madoc, Point Anne, Trenton and Belleville. Thelma Monk and Fleming Hunter of Campbellford won the mixed title with a 6-2, 6-0 victory over Jenny Billiski and Ken Woodley of the Point Anne Tennis Club. Sheila Bowler and Thorold Horwood of Point Anne won the mixed consolation series with a 6-1, 6-3 victory over Madge Cowley and Dick Morden of the Belleville Quinte Club.

"MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION"
A FAMOUS NOVEL

The book, "Magnificent Obsession," from which was filmed Universal-International's Technicolor production of the same name, held over until Wednesday at the Odeon McCarthy Theatre, is one of the most celebrated novels in publishing history.

Like a companion tale, "The Robe," similarly translated to the motion picture screen) "Magnificent Obsession" is the distinguished work of Lloyd Cassel Douglas. His very first novel, it was written when the author had passed the half-century mark. The popularity of his book grew chiefly by word-of-mouth when it was first issued in 1929. Later it was printed in more than 50 editions, attaining a circulation exceeding the 1,000,000 mark in separate pocket book edition sold more than 800,000 copies.

Brought concretely up to date in the screenplay by Robert Blees, "Magnificent Obsession" was directed by Douglas Sirk with Jane Wyman, Rock Hudson and Barbara Rush in starring roles

MacDonald Says Party Leaders Betrayed Trust

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—Ontario's forest resources were vested in the province at the time of confederation as a trust to be administered for the benefit of the people of Ontario, Donald C. MacDonald, CCF leader, told a meeting here Saturday night.

Mr. MacDonald charged that successive old party governments had betrayed that trust and that the present government was continuing that betrayal "in spite of tragic consequences to be seen on all sides."

He said that for practical purposes nothing had been done to restore the 2,500,000 acres that had been reduced to unproductive wasteland in the wake of slaughtering forest resources.

Your Horoscope

BY FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY, SEPT. 14, 1954:

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Accomplish as much as you can during this auspicious period. You'll be glad later, if you do. Don't mind obstacles; you have the ability and mentality to overcome them.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — If living true to Taurus' fine qualities and exercising them daily, you'll enjoy this period which is an exceptionally progressive one. Domestic matters may need sympathy, kindly understanding.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — Neither an entirely favorable nor too restricting period. But be careful signing documents, leases, making loans. Don't make verbal agreements. News in p.m. may cause you to mark time a while.

June 22 to July 22 (Cancer) — Keep head up and eyes open so as to proceed properly. Set a steady, not hasty, pace and look where you are going before starting. You may be tempted to go off on tangents. Don't—it may cause delays.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo) — If you run into snags, stop sufficiently long to consider whether you are proceeding correctly, using best methods, tools, etc. Don't join with dissenters; win with a smile.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Check all activities for possible flaws now. Be especially careful about taking on new positions. Today you may be tripped unexpectedly so be on guard. Be kind to your health, nerves.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Certain things may go well now while others may not. Be observing and mindful of future needs, use your best judgment, and you will stay on the right track.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—You born before Nov. 13 may find progress harder than do other Scorpio natives now but none need be discouraged for you all have fine ability, can even do well under handicaps.

November 22 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—If money matters seem more difficult and profits scarcer, don't let it interfere with current plans and duties. Today needs greater efficiency, patience, prayer.

December 22 to January 21 (Capricorn)—There's a tendency now to pull opposite directions. Look sharp and think before acting. The harder way may be the more profitable. Sincere, sensible effort can result in gainful returns.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—You may have to rouse yourself into putting forth extra effort for desired results. Your rays today are similar to those of Sagittarius. Be alert, ready for anything.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Try hard at doing a good job. Benefits and recognition for skill will come naturally to the deserving. Keep alert, aware of opportunities.

YOU BORN TODAY are very artistic, magnetic, sincere and proud of you framily tree; may be over-analytical at times, too exacting of others. However, you are honorable, truthful and like those standards to be kept by all. You tend to overwork yourself for loved ones, friends. This can insure your health. Learn to rest and recreate. Enjoy intelligent friends. Trust your intuition more often. You have unusual talents and skill. You make good entertainers, ministers; also good nurses, doctors, decorators. Life has much good in store for you. Birthdate of: Friedrich Alexander, (Baron Von Humboldt. German philosopher, author and traveler).

MONOGRAM Oil Heaters and Wall Furnaces Demonstrated Burning

- Installed to give satisfaction as demonstrated.
- Produces a genuine blaze with a stainless steel burner.
- Operating as low as 1 gallon in 24 hours.
- Does not require fans or to be turned up to maintain heat, even in coldest weather.
- Louvres and side doors are interchangeable to suit any room as needed.
- One-piece rings avoid warping at joints.
- Due to the extremely large area in the heat exchangers in the patented burner, the wall tiles, the Canadian Standards Association has tested these units and given them a 72.8% overall operating efficiency.
- We specialize in proper installation of appliances because the installation may save up to as much, and sometimes more, operating expenses than the purchase price.

May Be Banner House-Building Year for Canada

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Despite the handicap of bad building weather in earlier months, the summer upsurge in construction may turn 1954 into a banner house-building year for Canada.

D. B. Mansur, the federal government's housing chief, estimated in an interview that, given good weather, Canada may turn out a record 115,000 new homes this year, a gain of 9,000 from last year's 106,000.

As well, trade department forecasters are holding firm to the belief that investors may pour a peak $1,134,000,000 into new housing this year, a rise of $38,000,000 from $1,-096,000,000 a year ago.

Mr. Mansur, head of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, said that if the rate of building accomplished, it will be a credit mainly to the big metropolitan areas where construction is continuing at a high pace.

The sharp jump in housing starts in the big cities such as Toronto are more than offsetting the decline in the smaller communities, he added.

DEMAND HEAVY

Demand for new homes in Canada has been heavy for some years but this year there are signs that some obstacles: a lack of sufficient serviced land on which new homes could be constructed and an inadequate supply of mortgage funds.

Toronto is an example of where action has been taken to provide more serviced land, said Mr. Mansur. The metropolitan council did a tremendous job in providing new sewers, water lines and the other services required.

As for the mortgage loan shortage, this was overcome by bringing chartered banks into the mortgage-lending business for the first time, under a revision of the National Housing Act. As a result payments on NHA loans were lowered and the time to repay the loans increased. Interest rates also were boosted to 5½ per cent from 5¼, but this apparently proved no discouragement to prospective home builders.

Construction rose to a total of 6,539 starts of new homes for the first seven months of 1954, a gain of 2,000 over last year's seven-month total. The number of new homes completed rose by 3,636 to 49,955.

Chaplain Predicts Meyer Will Be Back in Uniform

EDMONTON (CP)—Rev. H. D. Ashford, ex-RCAF chaplain, predicts former German SS Major Gen. Kurt Meyer will be back in uniform for West Germany.

Dr. Ashford said in an interview Sunday in advance of a church sermon on the same subject that he based his prediction on a 1950 interview he had with Meyer at Dorchester penitentiary in New Brunswick.

He said: "Pressure of government will be applied to get him back in uniform for the West," but added that "Meyer's real dream of life is to be a leader in peace and not war."

Meyer, 43-year-old one-time Hitler Youngleader, was set free from Germany's Werl prison last week after serving almost 9½ years. Originally, he had been sentenced to death for war crimes against Canadian prisoners during the Second World War but the sentence was later commuted to life imprisonment.

Indians Weak In Some Cases Says Minister

CALGARY (CP)—For 54 years Rev. John Louis Levern has worked among the Stoney Indians.

"They are good and kind and strong, but they are weak when it comes to drinking," the 76-year-old Levern told Ken Liddell, who wrote about the 600-year-old priest in a copyrighted article in the Calgary Herald.

"Sometimes I think things now are in a worse way than when I came," he said with a deep sigh. "There is so much drinking and so much evil.

"I don't want to put all the blame on the white people but they are largely to blame. Yet everybody deserves blame."

DEDICATED AS YOUTH

When he was a farm boy near Brest in France, his parents did not want him to join the priesthood. His father begged him to follow in his footsteps behind the plow.

But his parents finally consented and when he received his orders as an Oblate missionary priest, it was the last they ever saw of him.

That was 54 years ago last April. Since then Father Levern has been a constant companion to the Alberta Indians. He spent some time with the Blackfeet at Gleichen, some with the Sarcees at Fort Macleod but most of it with the Stoneys.

FOUGHT ILLNESS

Father Levern was not in good health in 1900. He had been told he had but a few years to live. He says he "prayed and asked God" to let him work for 20 years.

"I am still here," he said with a smile.

There have been many changes since he came early days the Indians had nothing but horses, and their chief work was making hay for the white people. Few could speak English.

Now the Indians have cars and "go all over and see all kinds of things." They are no longer shy with the white people.

BROADCASTERS MEET

(CP)—A three-day convention of the Western Association of Broadcasters ended here Saturday night with a warning that government - operated crown corporations may become "monsters of power over the country." The warning was issued by T. J. Allen, Ottawa, executive vice-president of the Canadian Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters.

Economic Future Of Canada Sound Says Harris

REGINA (CP) — Finance Minister Walter Harris of Ottawa Sunday said that "with the amount of United States capital already pouring into Canada and the British establishment that she was in this country, Canada's economic future has nowhere to go but up.

"The economy is pickup that everyone expected three months ago has shrunk somewhat and investation throws that calculation out."

It was rather unlikely Canada would have a budget surplus again this year. When asked whether there would be any tax cuts or reductions made, he replied it was to too far in advance to tell.

It was improbable that he would run for the Liberal party leadership when Prime Minister St. Laurent retires.

"I don't think he (Mr. St. Laurent) has any intention of quitting his leadership in the near future anyway," Mr. Harris said.

Trip Probably Prepared In Great Detail

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — At 1:20 a.m. Sept. 12, 1953, the Arlberg Orient Express carried Mrs. Melinda Maclean and her three children across the Swiss border into Austria.

That is the last definitely established fact concerning her movements. From that moment a year ago Mrs. Maclean and her children vanished as completely as her husband, British diplomat Donald Maclean, himself missing since 1951.

In a letter to her mother, apparently posted by an unknown agent in Cairo last month, Mrs. Maclean said she and the children were well, but gave no information whatsoever on her movements.

Supposedly she went to join her husband somewhere behind the Iron Curtain.

MYSTERIOUS TRIPS

Her trip was probably prepared in great detail, and in advance. Swiss police believe she came to live in Geneva with the deliberate intention of eventually rejoining Maclean. Prior to her disappearance she made several mysterious trips to France and Spain.

A year ago she drove to Lausanne, 40 miles along Lake Geneva, with her children. Instead of driving on to nearby Montreux, where she had announced she was spending the weekend, she left her car in a garage and took the 6:38 p.m. train to Zurich. There she changed trains, leaving on the midnight train to Austria at 11:34 p.m.

Unquestionable identification by eyewitnesses traced her to the frontier station of Buchs. Police established that she was on the train when it crossed the frontier. After that, the trail vanished. Fraulein and cry throughout West Europe did not get under way until she failed to return from the "weekend" trip.

As soon as they were satisfied that Mrs. Maclean and her children had entered Austria, Swiss police called off the search. The Austrian authorities, on their part, had maintained that she had not entered the country. This led Swiss police officials to suspect that British agents in Austria had caused important information to be withheld in order to conceal how much was known about Mrs. Maclean's route.

4,000 in Canada's Korean Brigade Home By Year-End

Campney Hints Remainder May Be Withdrawn in 1955

OTTAWA (CP)—Two-thirds of Canada's 6,000-man Infantry brigade in Korea will be brought home in the next few months, it was announced officially today.

"Canadian troops being returned to Canada will be brought back as rapidly as suitable hand-over and shipping arrangements can be made," Defence Minister Campney said in a statement.

"It is hoped that the greater part will be at home or en route by the end of the year."

THOSE RETURNING

Units being withdrawn and their order of return are:

The 2nd Battalion, the Black Watch, which will join its 1st Battalion at Shilo, Man., N. S.;

The 3rd Regiment, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, to be located at Debert, N. S.;

The 4th Battalion, Canadian Guards, which will occupy Camp Ipperwash, Ont.;

1) Squadron, Royal Canadian Dragoons;

Brigade headquarters and other supporting units;

The destroyer Cayuga.

The 2nd Battalion, Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, one field ambulance unit and the necessary elements for their administrative support will remain in Korea as part of a Commonwealth brigade. Also remaining will be the destroyers Iroquois and Huron.

ALL HOME SOON?

Mr. Campney hinted at the possibility of withdrawal of all Canadian troops from Korea by next year.

"The 2nd Battalion, Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, will have completed its normal tour of duty in May next, at which time, if circumstances still make necessary the continuance of a battalion of Canadian troops in Korea, it will be relieved in the normal way."

The announcement coincided with similar announcements by Britain, Australia and New Zealand. The four Commonwealth countries have maintained the 1st Commonwealth division in Korea since 1951.

The two-thirds reduction in the division will be in proportion to the planned withdrawal of four of six American divisions in Korea.

Brig. F. A. Clift, Moose Jaw, Sask., probably will be among the last to return. The first troops are expected to arrive at Seattle, Wash., next month.

The one-squadron RCAF airlift to the Far East was discontinued three months ago. No. 426 Thunderbird Squadron did not lose a passenger, crew member or plane in flying 1,200 trouble-free cargo-6,500,000 miles—with troops and supplies.

Canadian Pacific Airlines still makes charter flights for the government transport.

The Korean war started June 25, 1950. On July 8, three Canadian destroyers sailed for Korea and on July 27 the RCAF made its first airlift flight. The 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, arrived in South Korea in December, 1950, and the second order of the brigade May 4, 1951.

RECORD REVIEWED

All told, eight Canadian destroyers served in the Korean theatre, besides the Sioux, the RCAF supplied 21 fighter pilots, who flew with the U. S. Air Force and delivered nine Communist MiG-15s, probably destroyed one and damaged eight.

A total of 308 soldiers were killed in action or died of wounds. Six Canadian soldiers, Pte. N. S. Ivor, are due to enemy action when a Communist shore battery hit the Iroquois.

The army also counted 91 deaths due to non-battle causes and 1,303 soldiers were wounded or injured in action. Only 32 Canadians returned from Communist prisoner-of-war camps.

The only Canadian known to be still held prisoner by the Reds is Sgtm. Lts. J. R. MacKenzie, 1097 of Montreal and the Chinese promised in June to release him.

Dummy Hydrant Is 'Convenience' For Area's Dogs

KITCHENER (CP)—Members of the Kitchener water commission blinked Monday night when one of their colleagues asked why a hydrant had been placed between two bushes on the Highland road.

The surprise turned to laughter when it was explained this was not the first story about the misplaced hydrant.

It is a dummy for the "convenience" of neighborhood dogs.

Forty Reported Missing In Big Typhoon

TOKYO (AP)—A typhoon—loosed earthlike crushed or damaged 400 houses today in the southern Japanese village of Minakami, the national police reported 40 persons missing.

The big typhoon which ripped across southern Japan Monday whirled across the Japan sea today, but it had lost much of its force and ranks now as only a wind storm.

National police said the storm left at least 41 dead, 183 injured and 36 missing in addition to the missing at Minakami.

Thousands were homeless and many and wind damage to homes, farms, shipping and communications was enormous. The construction ministry estimated damage to government property alone would exceed $4,500,000.

Wants Govt. To Recognize Marilyn Bell

TORONTO (CP)—A. H. Cowling, Progressive - Conservative member for Toronto High Park in the Ontario legislature, said Monday he is going to suggest to the provincial government that it do something to recognize Marilyn Bell's achievement.

"Her swim has been a great inspiration to the people of Ontario," said Mr. Cowling. He suggested that it called for a departure from provincial custom of not recognizing individual feats.

Only recognition by the province so far was a congratulatory telegram sent to Miss Bell by Premier Frost.

END SEGREGATION

WASHINGTON (AP)—White and Negro students quietly went to class together in Washington Monday. School officials said there would be some classes with members of both races in virtually all public schools in the District of Columbia, which heretofore has segregated white and Negro pupils.

Angry Parents and Striking Students Force Return to School Segregation

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va. (AP)—Five days of racial integration in Greenbrier county schools ended Monday after school officials, confronted with angry parents and striking white students, ordered an immediate return of segregation.

The high school here was closed for half a day to allow 25 Negro students, under police protection, to collect their books and return to their own school.

Some 800 protesting parents had threatened, at a mass meeting Monday night in the county bodily any Negroes who attempted to attend White Sulphur Springs high school today.

Monday's demonstration against integration involved about 300 of 440 students enrolled at the high school. They marched through the streets of this mountain- resort town with placards reading "No Negroes wanted in our schools."

HOLLYWOOD LURES MARILYN BELL WITH MOVIE BIDS

May Take Next Year Off from School Work

TORONTO (CP)—Marilyn Bell's advisers said today the 16-year-old swimmer may take a year off from high school and go to Hollywood.

They said they told the blonde student, who last Thursday became the first person ever to swim across Lake Ontario, she may have to postpone her formal schooling for a year to take advantage of several "big-time" offers, including movie bids.

Eden to Confer With Canada's Commissioner

By ARCH MacKENZIE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—Foreign Secretary Eden will confer with the Canadian high commissioner, Norman Robertson, on Eden's return from his six-day Western European tour, a Canada House spokesman said today.

The meeting will provide the Canadian government with a full picture of Eden's recorded views in the wake of the collapse of the European Defence Community, and the international parley at Geneva pertinent to his proposals for rearmament Germany.

HAS VITAL ROLE

Along with Britain's insistence that Canada is among the nine powers at the proposed German rearmament conference, this is regarded here as solid proof of the vital role Canada has to play in European unity and defence.

The current edition of The Economist, influential weekly, says only the Canadians seem likely to arrive at any such conference "in a cool and judicial frame of mind."

U.S. Fleet Ordered to Give Quemoy 'Logistic Support'

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune says it has learned in Washington that the Eisenhower administration has ordered orders to the United States 7th Fleet to give "full logistic support" to the Chinese Nationalists in their defence of the island of Quemoy.

A Washington dispatch to the Herald Tribune by Walter Kerr says the instructions, which were issued a short time ago through the joint chiefs of staff and the office of the chief of naval operations, do not rule out "even active role for American forces at a later date. However, they are considered to be adequate to the present military situation. . ."

The story quotes Washington sources as saying the policy of "full logistic support" is being applied vigorously.

There is a possibility, the dispatch continues, that in case of a Chinese Communist invasion of Quemoy the U.S. may consider it necessary to take an active part in its defence in furtherance of the "determination to protect the Nationalist stronghold of Formosa and the approaches to Formosa."

Two New Quakes Shake Algeria

PARIS (AP) — Two moderate earth shocks today shattered the building of Orleansville today as the area still counted dead from March 1 earthquake disaster nearly five days ago. No new damage was reported from the latest tremors.

The Algerian office of the French government put the death toll in Algeria at 1,340, but the figure may rise still higher as the rescue of entombed victims continues.

There have been continuing small tremors since the shattering blow Thursday morning.

Northern Ontario Chambers Ask Committee for Pipeline

TIMAGAMI, Ont. (CP) — The Northern Ontario Associated Chambers of Commerce has decided to set up a three-man committee to study possible routes for the trans-Canada natural gas pipeline "in light of the best interests of all northern Ontario."

An expected fight Monday between the Sudbury chamber and the rest of the association over a suggested northern route did not materialize.

The Porcupine chamber had originally submitted a resolution calling for the pipeline to follow Highway 11 up through the north country. The chamber said it had discussed the matter with Sudbury delegates and was ready for the overall committee to be set up.

The three members of the committee will be drawn from the Sudbury, Timmins and Kirkland Lake chambers. North Bay and Cobalt were the only two chambers which failed against setting up the committee.

The resolution came only an hour after Cyril T. Young of Toronto, a pioneer in northern Ontario, spoke strongly for adoption of the northern route. A suggestion that Mr. Young be named an advisory member of the committee was vetoed by Sudbury on the grounds that he would be prejudiced.

North Bay and Cobalt clashed with Sudbury later on several resolutions concerning new highways to road repair work in the Sudbury district.

Bruce McLeod, secretary - manager of the North Bay chamber, said it has always been recognized in the past that the association should concern itself with problems of general rather than of local interest. He asked for a ruling so that members would know which type of resolution to submit.

Sudbury delegates said they were not merely interested in their own territory and that they had supported earlier a resolution calling for a bypass on Highway 11 for Haileybury, Cobalt and New Liskeard.

A Cobalt delegate said there is a drastic difference in principle. The proposed bypass would serve all the travellers on Highway 11 and several northern towns, not just specific areas.

More Plumbers Go on Strike At Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — An estimated 3,000 plumbers and district construction and repair plumbers are on strike today to back up wage demands by their international unions.

At midnight Monday members of the National Catholic Syndicate of Plumbers, joined members of the International Union of Plumbers and Steamfitters who walked out Sunday.

An estimated 3,000 plumbers belong to the international union while the remainder are members of the Catholic syndicate. There are 800 who have no union affiliation.

Sudbury members said some of their proposed roads would carry far more people in a week than would travel on the highway past Cobalt in a month.

A highways resolution was also passed concerning widening roads in the Sudbury and Porcupine districts. Another called for permanent Federal-Provincial commission to study road safety.

The conference also voted in favor of agricultural development by the study of methods used in countries with similar climates and by increasing the number of agricultural representatives. Delegates supported the establishment of a national library, and the need for beautification of Moose Factory and other historical locations in Northern Ontario.

Railways resolutions called for co-operation between railroads to reduce stop-over time at North Bay and the appointment of a full-time industrial commissioner on the Ontario Northland Railway.

The Timagami chamber received support for its move to open up a section of the south shore of Lake Timagami for summer cottage construction.

Roy Thompson of Kirkland Lake was elected president of the association for 1955.

CRASH SURVIVOR DIES IN PLANE BRINGING 5 HOME

Ten Others Killed In Emergency Landing

WESTOVER, Mass. (CP) — A United States Air Force evacuation plane landed here early today with four injured Canadians and the body of a fifth who died aboard the evacuation plane after all had survived a crash in Greenland.

The five were the only survivors of 15 men aboard a U.S. Air Force Globemaster which crashed and burned Sunday during an emergency landing at Thule, 900 miles from the North Pole.

But one of them, Douglas Walter Hebert, 30, of Montreal died less than three hours before the rescue plane landed at Westover.

The survivors were James Brian Bryson, 23, and Thomas John O'Rourke, 29, of Ottawa, Colin Arthur Notman, 31, Montreal, and Joseph Francois Major, 30, St. Johns, Que.

Three other Canadians were killed in the Sunday crash, along with seven Americans. One of the Canadians was a USAF crew member, radio operator Sam Greenwood of Grillia, Ont. The other Canadians—the survivors—were employees of the telephone company who had been working on a construction job at Thule—were J. Emile Blair, 30, and Joseph C. Provincher, 27, both of Montreal.

Viet Nam Cabinet Wants Premier To Settle Feud

PARIS (AP)—Members of Viet Nam Premier Ngo Dinh Diem's cabinet today reported putting pressure on their chief to make peace with the Indo-Chinese state's army chief of staff, Gen. Nguyen Van Hinh.

Hinh last weekend refused to obey the premier's order to give up his military command and quit Indo-China at once for Paris. His defiance aroused fear that the Viet Namese army might try to overthrow Diem.

Reports from Saigon today said four members of Diem's government have threatened to resign unless he ends his feud with Hinh.

The general left his closely guarded villa Monday night to attend a dinner given by the premier for Gen. Paul Ely, French commander in Chief in Far East. The French have remained neutral throughout the controversy.

The general seems to be getting increased public support for his stand. Hinh has charged that Diem is to be growing into a conflict over the Geneva partitioning of Indo-China since its division between the Communists in the north and the anti-Red regime in the south.

Would Be Substitute Plan For EDC Scuttled by France

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—Britain has proposed joining West Germany and Italy to the five-power Brussels defence pact as a substitute for the European army plan scuttled by the French.

Official sources Monday night disclosed the new scheme to rearm West Germany and associate her with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The 1948 Brussels Treaty, forerunner of NATO, binds together Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg within the framework of the broader 14-country NATO organization. The five Brussels members are pledged to military, political, economic and social co-operation for a 50-year period.

EDEN'S SWING

The informants said Foreign Secretary Eden, presenting the new plan on his swing through the key west European capitals, already has been assured informally of support by Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and West Germany.

He flew Monday night from the West German capital to Paris. Rome, where political observers predict he will receive wholehearted support. His next stop is Paris.

In his whirlwind tour, Eden hopes to lay the groundwork for a conference in London to work out the new west European defence arrangement before the end of the year. At the conference, British hopes to have the six signers of the rejected European Defence Community pact — France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg—along with the United States, Canada and Britain.

SEE BETTER CHANCE

London officials said the new plan has a better chance of winning French approval than EDC because:

1. The ties would be looser than under the old unified army plan. The Brussels Treaty binds each member to go automatically to the aid of its partners in case of an attack on each country, but maintains its own national army.

2. Additional safeguards proposed for Britain would keep a lid on German rearmament. NATO would be empowered to set a ceiling on the size of national armies and inspect their forces. A similar check would be set on arms production and carrying out inspections.

3. Britain would be committed to share equally in the defence arrangements, giving the chief French objections to EDC was that British stood apart from it while Germany would be part of it. Some feared that without British along, they would be at the mercy of their old German foes.

Canadian Specialists Report New Coronary Artery Disease Technique

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new surgical technique for treating coronary artery disease, one of the worst killers in North America, has been reported by a group of Canadian specialists.

Coronary artery disease—involving a blockage or narrowing of arteries nourishing the heart itself—is one of the frequent killers among heart ailments. When bad it can be disabling.

The new technique involves switching out diseased arteries and normally supply the breast and implanting it in the muscular wall of the heart. The aim is to furnish a new source of oxygen-rich blood to the heart to compensate for the obstruction in the coronary system.

The technique was reported Monday to the second World Congress of Cardiology, currently in session here, by Dr. Arthur Vineberg and three colleagues of McGill University, Montreal.

They said the new technique has been used on 36 patients, 23 of whom have been able to return to work, including 13 who were totally disabled at the time of operation. There were six deaths during the tests. Dr. Vineberg said five of these were patients who had "waited too long" before undergoing operation.

Among the previously totally disabled patients now able to return to work, the doctors cited a Texas oil man who came to Canada "on his whim and nitroglycerine" to undergo the operation. (Nitroglycerine tablets are sometimes used as a medication in coronary artery disease).

Another was a 58-year-old man who "has returned to his work as a high school principal and has walked as much as 10 miles through the Canadian bush."

Vineberg said in an interview that certain other surgical procedures have been employed in the treatment of this disease but that the new one "reproduces nature's way."

He explained that in about one-third of all coronary cases, nature is able to increase sufficient new blood vessels to provide circuits around an obstructed coronary artery, so that such people may live for many years.

Britain Proposes Joining Germany, Italy To Pact

Higher Tariffs Are Opposed By Federation

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Federation of Agriculture says that higher tariffs on British textiles would weaken the ability of the United Kingdom to buy Canadian farm products.

The warning is contained in a brief submitted to the Canadian tariff board which is investigating the impact of British preferential tariffs on the country's textile industry. The investigation was ordered by the government after the domestic industry demanded a tariff increase against competing British textiles.

The federation said Monday in a statement:

"Not only would the result be further lessening of British purchases from Canada but would also bring about an increase in the cost of Canadian textiles to Canadian consumers and would therefore offer only a very temporary relief to the textile industry."

The federation said the textile industry's problem should be solved by a readjustment of plants to produce more readily marketable in Canada.

Jury Chosen To Try Accused For Murder

WELLAND (CP)—A jury was chosen Monday for the trial of Bruce M. MacLean, 23, charged with the murder of 18-year-old Lois Wife on Aug. 29, 1953, when the couple was canoeing on the Welland river.

A true bill was returned by the grand jury shortly after the opening of the Supreme Court fall assizes. The trial is expected to last three days.

The death of MacLean's wife, Elizabeth, was said first to be accidental but in the spring the investigation was reopened as a result of signed statements to MacLean to Sylvia Davies of Port Colborne, Ont.

MacLean was charged with murder after his release on bail on a charge of being money from Miss Davies by false pretences.

Second Gas Firm Given Franchise To Service City

The Lakeland Natural Gas Company of Toronto Monday night was given a franchise by city council for the sale and distribution of natural gas in the Belleville area.

Several representatives of the above company were present at council, their spokesman stating that it was expected natural gas would be delivered into Belleville by November of 1955.

He noted that the federal government had given approval for construction by the Trans-Canada Pipelines Company to build a 3,000 mile line from western Canada at a cost of $300 million. The company would build a 36 inch line to Winnipeg, continue with a 30 inch main to Toronto and extend a 24 inch line on to Montreal. Two lines from the United States would supply natural gas until such time as the Canadian gas from the western and northern areas was available.

Alderman Duffy asked whether a gas franchise granted some time ago by the city to the Eastern Gas Syndicate was still under any bearing on the request for a second franchise being granted. He was told by the delegation there was nothing to prevent a second franchise as any such franchise granted had to be approved by the fuel board.

The franchise was granted subject to the approval of the fuel board with the applicant to pay all expense in connection with the application.

Humane Society Members Seek More Assistance

A request from members of the Belleville Humane Society for city assistance to provide better accommodation at the city dog pound was heard at Tuesday evening's meeting of council.

Several members of the local humane society attended the meeting, their spokesman praising highly the work of city pound keeper Charles Thorn. They stressed, however, that funds were badly needed to provide improvements in the accommodation for animals in pound. They did not feel, that Mr. Thorn was being adequately paid for his work.

It was noted that arrangements had been made for a tag day to raise funds for the Society.

No action was taken by council on the matter as proceedings were adjourned before completion of the night's business.

Whirlwind Turns Car Upside Down on Road Near Kaladar

A whirlwind, reported to have snapped down over the Kaladar district about 6.15 yesterday evening is blamed with wrecking a car off Highway No 7 and sending one of its two occupants to hospital.

In Belleville General Hospital is Mrs. Gordon Gahegan, wife of a Detroit orchestra leader, Frank Gahegan. Mr. Gahegan said his wife suffered a broken collarbone and head injuries.

At the time the wind struck the Gahegans were on the highway about seven miles west of Kaladar, with Mrs. Gahegan at the wheel.

They were pulled from the wrecked car by a passing motorist and a soldier who were travelling behind their car at the time. Police said they were the only witnesses to the accident.

Gahegan, who suffered head injuries told how it happened: "We were driving along the highway a little of Kaladar when all of a sudden this hurricane hit us and picked our car up in the air and turned it over on top of us. My wife was driving at the time. We were pinned in. I shut off the motor and blew the horn."

CAR TURNED DOWN

The roof was slammed down within inches of the wheel, where Mrs. Gahegan sat.

They were pulled from the wreck by the two men who wrenched open the driver's door and pulled Mrs. Gahegan out, while her husband crawled after her.

Police said the men travelling behind the Gahegan car had seen the wind coming and stopped on the highway. They watched while the car ahead was picked up and overturned.

The Gahegans were taken into Tweed by the motorist, where they were attended by Dr. F. J. McCue before being rushed by ambulance to Belleville.

Northbrook OPP said the whirlwind touched down in that area several trees were uprooted.

Arena Committee May Proceed With Plans to Remove Posts

City council took no action Monday night on a request from the Arena Commission for council approval to spend $3,800 for plans to renovate the arena.

The proposal would be to remove the steel posts from their present position and place the supporting columns in the exterior walls. The roof windows would be removed and the upper roof carried to the outside wall. Alterations to the heating system were also contemplated.

Total maximum cost for the proposed renovations to the arena would be $100,000 according to Arena Commission chairman, Alderman Gerald Hyde, who presented the recommendation to council. After lengthy discussion Alderman Hyde withdrew the recommendation, stating that the commission may proceed to secure the plans and ask for approval of the ratepayers to proceed with the work.

COULD PROCEED

The alderman noted the Arena Commission did not have to come to council for authority to spend the money on the plans. As a commission they could go ahead without council sanction, but he thought in fairness it was only right that council should be approached on the matter.

Strongest objection from council members was the idea of the commission spending $3,500 on plans before it was known whether the municipal board or the ratepayers would approve of carrying out the work. Mayor John Both and Alderman Ben Safe maintained that sketch plans were all that were needed to acquaint the public with what was planned.

"Any artist could sketch such plans for possibly $50," the mayor said.

STRESSED ADVANTAGES

In placing the proposition before council, Alderman Hyde stressed the advantages of the proposed arena renovations. He said if the steel posts were removed all seats would be saleable resulting in increased revenue.

He was convinced that with a winning hockey team public support would be sufficient to pay for the debenture costs without direct cost to the citizens.

The question of renovating the present arena against the advisability of building a new municipal centre was raised by Alderman Ben Safe and is said by Alderman Hyde that a new municipal centre, which Belleville citizens would be proud of, would cost out in the neighborhood of half a million dollars.

He didn't think that such a project could be carried out without direct assistance from the city taxpayers but was confident renovations to the present arena could.

Alderman Sam Ellis was in favor of the project noting that all improvements made to the arena as well as maintenance since its purchase had all been paid out of operational profits.

He said it was up to the Arena Commission to sell the project to the ratepayers.

The original intention of the Commission was to have plans prepared at a cost of $3,600, then go to the municipal board seeking approval of the project. If approval of the board was not given without cost of the people the vote would be sought at the municipal election in December. There was also talk that the renovations could be done this year but if approval of the ratepayers was given the project could be completed in time for the opening of the hockey season in 1955.

Canned Goods Subject of Talk To Rotarians

Probably nothing contributes more to easy living than canned goods.

Among the myriad of articles made easily available by canning, sealed, proofed can are fresh fruits, ready-cooked foods, sapirins, juices, oils and paints.

In an address to the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club in the Hotel Quinte yesterday, Rotarian J. Lennox Smith, gave interesting insight into the industry that manufactures metal containers for the products.

The industry's history is a short one and is closely allied with the progress of the food industry," Mr. Smith said.

The ability to preserve food for an indefinite period made the food processing industry possible.

Some 65 years ago Louis Pasteur's discoveries in the bacteria field showed that germs entering containers along with the food could be destroyed by heat and if the cans could be kept hermetically sealed no germ could enter the container.

"That was the beginning of the can industry," he said.

The industry has grown rapidly with the development in retail merchandising of factory packaged units replacing the bulk packaging in boxes and barrels.

Development of containers to meet specific needs for such things as coffee, oil, and beer also has been a factor in the industry's growth, he said.

"Nothing protects like a metal container," he concluded.

Rotarian Smith was introduced by Clint Rose and thanked by Enos Dafoe.

Guest from furthest out of town was David R. Dunham, attorney, of St. Augustine, Florida. The meeting was chaired by Harold Mott.

30-Pound Muskie Boated Near Plainfield

One of the largest muskies caught in this district this season was hauled from the Moira River near Plainfield the other day.

Godfrey Morris, Hillcrest, and Oscar Stapley with a friend were angling when the big fellow struck. It weighed thirty pounds and measured forty-five inches in length.

Morris, who boated the fish, said he battled it for over thirty minutes before it sail "uncle". He used a "river runt" lure. One of the hooks was nearly straight when extracted from the muskie's jaw.

"It was the thrill of my life," smiled Morris, "mostly because it was the first muskie I have caught."

Last week "Darky" Thompson caught a fine smallmouth black bass which weighed five pounds, 14 ounces. Thompson hooked the beauty near the "Rock Pile" in the Bay of Quinte after a furious struggle.

He has entered the fish in Game and Fish Association contests.

Procedure By-Law Motions Meet With Mixed Reception At Lengthy Council Session

Proposed amendments to the city council procedure by-law presented at Monday night's meeting of council met with mixed reception on the part of city fathers.

Some of the dozen or so recommendations received approval on the part of city aldermen, others were severely defeated, and still others were referred back to the committee for consideration. The recommendations were presented by Alderman Ben Sate, and William Argue named as a special committee to go over the procedure by-law and bring in recommendations for changes thought advisable.

Discussion on the proposed procedure by-law amendments took up an hour, but little other public business was conducted and council adjourned at 11 o'clock to meet again Tuesday evening.

Among the recommendations referred back was one which would have prevented the city from doing business with any firm or corporation an officer of which is a member of city council, or an employee of the corporation.

STORM OF PROTEST

The recommendation brought a storm of protest from several of the councillors, including Mayor Both who asked if it would not be better to name the person referred to. "I don't mind my name being mentioned," he said.

Alderman Sale defended the recommendation was aimed at any particular man. "If it passes it will apply to all, even me," he said.

Alderman Smith asked if the recommendation would rule out the city doing business with a limited company.

"That is the intention," replied Alderman Sale.

Biggest argument presented against the recommendation was that it was contrary to municipal act which allowed a corporation to do business with a limited company a member of which is also a member of council.

"We can't dictate to the municipal board, that's going beyond our authority," stated the mayor. Ald. Tice agreed.

TOO WIDE SCOPE CLAIM

Alderman Sale said that although the city could legally do business with a limited company, a member of such a company, who was also on council could not morally do so.

Alderman Temple felt the recommendation covered too wide a scope and suggested an amendment allowing business to be done with a limited firm providing the member of council did not own or control over 20 per cent of the shares.

It was agreed by Alderman Argue that some of the recommendation may require rewording but pointed out the intention of the recommendation under discussion was to rule out small companies, where the owner controlled a large percentage of the stock.

City Solicitor R. A. Pringle noted that even the recommendation was passed the city could still go ahead and do business with a limited company a member of which belonged to council. This, he said, was covered in the municipal act.

'NO GOOD' SAYS SOLICITOR

"Then what good is the recommendation," asked Alderman Moxam. "It is no good," replied the solicitor.

"But you wrote it," reminded Alderman Safe. "I drafted the recommendation at the request of the committee," was the reply.

Alderman Argue wanted to know why a limited company should be in any different position than a private individual who could not do business with the corporation if he were a member of council.

Alderman Safe declared that the amendment proposed by Alderman Temple merely complicated matters. The whole matter was then referred back to the committee for further consideration.

OBJECT TO CLAUSE

Another amendment to the procedure by-law termed by one councillor as "Hitlerism" called for all city officials to be at their office during regular hours the city hall was open and if any official desired to take part in any business or occupation outside of business under the direct control of council he first must get permission in writing.

It was the last clause of the amendment which drew objection with Alderman Tice terming it "Hitlerism."

Alderman Safe countered by declaring it was only right that the city should know what its officials were doing and assured the amendment was aimed at no one particular official.

Alderman Temple felt it was the privilege of any city official to do what he or she desired outside of regular business hours. The amendment was sent back for re-wording.

TURN DOWN MOTION

Council turned down an amendment calling for the present committee system to be abolished and for council to revert to the previous system of a committee of the whole.

Alderman Duffy objected strongly to the suggested move declaring the old system to be complicated and that it would be a backward step. Even under the present system of separate committee he said it took three or four councillors all their time to have one department well and asked how a man could be expected to know all departments.

"It would be a backward step, would make for inefficiency and would be utter nonsense," he said.

COMMITTEE MEMBER OPPOSED

As a member of the committee making the recommendation Alderman Sale said that he was also opposed. It was not a majority recommendation, he said.

Alderman Thomas also opposed the move noting that committees meetings now last one to three hours. If council reverted to the old system committee meetings would take all day.

"I don't want to insult anyone's intelligence but other cities bigger than Belleville have committees of the whole and work very efficiently," said Alderman Moxam in support of the amendment. He felt that under the old system council members would be more enlightened as to council business.

"The weakness would be that council members would not know", returned Alderman Duffy. "As it is now we have a safety valve of three to five members who understand one department. By changing we would revert back to amateurs."

Alderman Sale said he had sat in council under both systems and declared that under the present separate committee no one knows the whole story.

LOST ON RECORDED VOTE

On a recorded vote the amendment was lost 9 to 3 with only Mayor Both and Aldermen Clarke and Safe approving.

Another proposed amendment to the procedure by-law which failed to meet with the approval of councillors was one calling for tenders to be opened by the chairman of the committee concerned at open council.

Several of the aldermen declared they could see no advantage in the amendment and if carried out the procedure would be a waste of time.

BECOMING PRACTICE CLAIM

In support of the motion Alderman Safe noted it was now becoming practice to open tenders more in the public eye. Mayor Both noted federal and provincial tenders were being opened in public.

Alderman Duffy declared that the purpose of doing business for the city was to serve the city not to satisfy the public. "We have to make our decisions and the public know is right and not on what the man in the street thinks," he said.

"It would be another step backwards and would be defeating the purpose of the committees," he said.

"I'll go along with the people, they are a lot smarter than you think," replied Alderman Safe.

"To my party I can't hide my own inefficiency behind the public, who do not know the whole story," returned Alderman Duffy.

OPENED IN COMMITTEE

At the present time tenders are opened by the committee chairman at committee meetings with the comptroller and at least one committee member present.

The amendment was defeated 9-3 with Mayor Both and Aldermen Argue and Safe approving. Voting against the amendment were Aldermen Clarke, Duffy, Hyde, Keegan, Moxam, Reid, Smith, Temple, Thomas and Tice.

Procedure by-law amendments approved by council were :

1. For each member of council to receive at the end of each month during the summer recess a statement showing all accounts paid during that month.

COMBINE OFFICES

2. For the offices of the sanitary inspector and the plumbing inspector to be combined and a section to be added to the by-law empowering a welfare officer defining his duties.

3. The mayor be authorized to appoint any representative he wishes to act for him as deputy mayor.

4. The duties of the social services and welfare officer to be defined.

5. The duties of the Medical Officer of Health to be taken out of the procedure by-law.

6. That if any member wishes a recorded vote he shall demand the same prior to a vote by show of hands, and once a show of hands has been taken no recorded vote shall be allowed.

7. That the comptroller be authorized to spend up to $250 without first obtaining consent from council.

Approval for the sale of certain lots in the Parkwood Heights district was granted by council but when ran out at 6 o'clock and proceedings were adjourned to complete business of the council tonight.

Expect Pipeline Will Be Approved By End of Year

NEW ORLEANS (CP)—The way will likely be cleared by the year end for building of a natural-gas pipeline from Alberta to eastern Canada, N. E. Tanner, president of Trans-Canada Pipe Lines, Limited indicated today.

Trans-Canada, with authority to build the line, at present plans to start construction next spring, Mr. Tanner said in an address prepared for delivery to the Independent Natural Gas Association.

A number of conditions remain to be fulfilled before Sept. 31, mainly to satisfy federal and provincial agencies regarding financial arrangements, but "we have every confidence in our ability to satisfy the requirements before that date."

The project, as outlined by Mr. Tanner, involves 2,200 miles of pipeline—a 36-inch line from Alberta to Winnipeg and a 30-inch line from Winnipeg proceeding north of the Great Lakes to Toronto, with a 24-inch line easterly to Montreal. A 24-inch spur also to contemplated from Winnipeg south to Emerson, Man., to serve the Minneapolis area by connecting with Northern Natural Gas Company.

Spring commencement on the main line anticipates completion to Winnipeg and south to Emerson by next fall, and cross-country operation to Toronto, and possibly Montreal, by late 1956.

HUNTERS GETTING EVADED

The hunting season opens Saturday.

There may be some readers of the editorial page who will believe that this assertion has become misplaced and that it properly belongs on the sport pages of this great family journal.

Nothing could be further from the truth. Any such mistaken belief indicates that the reader knows nothing about hunting, or writing editorials, or both subjects.

During the fall months, more of the better-class editorials are written in the duck blind than in the editorial sanctum. That is one of the beauties of duck hunting. A man can get much of his serious thinking done while he awaits the ducks' company — just as during the summer months some of the season's most stirring sentences are written with the aid of a fishing rod rather than with a typewriter.

Of course, there is a difference. We doubt whether the angler's inattention ever stopped a fish from biting the bait, but many a duck has found the hunter's wandering thoughts a passport to a longer—and wiser—life.

This, however, does not detract from the attractions of the duck marsh. Indeed, this is one of its most pleasant aspects. When a man goes duck hunting he can choose the pattern of his day. He can slave, he can work at an easy pace or he can loaf.

Even the hardest worker will return home to a meal of beans if the ducks are un-cooperative. It is also a fact that the loafer sometimes finds that his feathered friends are insistent that he feast on duck. Perhaps, however, it is as it should be: the worker sometimes needs to be chastened and the loafer to be encouraged.

The duck season, of course, is just the first of the various seasons whose openings dates stretch out before the hunter in a pleasant vista. Partridges, deer, rabbits and foxes will all be the quarry in season.

This year something new has been added for the wing-shot. The rabbit and partridge seasons appear to have been devised to enhance his enjoyment.

The duck season is opening considerably earlier in this district than it has for many years past, while the closing date has been delayed until the middle of December. This lengthened season offers something to hunters of every taste. Those who used to mourn that the golden days of Indian summer had to be before duck hunting began again will this year have no cause for complaint. Their hardier cousins, who like to shoot their ducks when the ice is already forming a rim around the marshes, will likewise be satisfied.

Partridge hunters have always been divided into two schools, those who like to shoot — or shoot at — their birds when they lie long, and those who like to flush cover; and those who prefer to wait until the trees are denuded so that the birds can be seen, although they then frequently get up out of range. This year both schools will get their innings, for there are two partridge seasons, from Oct. 2 to Oct. 11 and from Nov. 8 to Nov. 20.

CRITICAL OF POLICE GUNPLAY

Robert Fabian, former superintendent of Scotland Yard, has returned to England.

We do not know whether his investigation into the nine-month-old kidnapping of Marion McDowell of Toronto served any good purpose, but we do believe that his visit to Canada will not have been in vain if police officials in this country heed observations he made just before he boarded a plane for home.

He said that he does not approve of the "dreadful practice" of Canadian police shooting at persons who are running away from the law.

"There are times when police gunfire appears to us to be justified. But there are other occasions when it is not.

A case in point occurred in Montreal on the day of Fabian's departure.

Roger Gauthiers, 37, was detained for questioning in connection with a stockyards fire.

In a cell he plunged head first into a radiator, suffering a gash which required 15 stitches to close. Coming to on a stretcher, he struck another officer across the face, pushed a police officer and punched him in the stomach, then broke the glass doors and, seizing a shard of glass, attempted to cut the officer on the throat.

The constable, according to one newspaper report, "attempted to reason with his prisoner by firing two warning shots into the floor."

Firing shots is never a very effective method of reasoning with a man and in any case Desiauriers' actions were hardly such as to suggest that he was amenable to reason.

So the constable shot again, this time hitting Desiauriers in the heel.

If that had been the end of the affair, perhaps the constable's use of his gun could have been justified.

Desiauriers, however, refused to calm down and another constable, arriving on the run with a drawn gun, shot him again, in the same leg.

Here was a man who had just received 15 stitches in a gash in his head and who had then been shot in his heel. Yet two able-bodied police constables were unable to control him without shooting him a second time!

Scotland Yard would hardly approve.

The right to be quiet, the freedom to stay
At whatever is moving by water or sky,
To drift if you care to, and even to drowse
Are some of the pleasures that fishing allows.

To be just yourself without boastful pretense,
Is a thing you see without any

No one to disturb when you're

Who fishes alone has such pleasures as these.

No madness called "business," no

Reading the Will

(Times Of London)

That was unquestionably a hard case, lately tried by the President of Queens', of poor Mr. Ick who dropped the first letters of his surname because he had been left only 3,000 pounds out of the 25,000 pounds which he expected under a kinsman's will. Yet we probably do not fully realize nowadays quite how hard it was. In his day it was the custom of bidding all the relations agreeably to the testator's will at reading of the will was still regularly observed. Mr. Ick must have had a happy childhood, with an agreeable sparkle of malice, the envious envies of the other members of the family. His attempt not to appear too conscious of his impending good fortune gave the greater offence; his new black garments, so rich and glossy, had palpably been bought in advance out of his legacy. And then, with the reading of the will, came the horrid shock of disappointment, and he became aware of the sour smiles at variance and the open sniggering of cousins. There may have been just such a scene described in a once popular song still to be heard occasionally.

When they heard the lawyer declare,
That Granny'd only left me her old arm chair,

The atrophy of so essentially humorous a theme has been a great loss to artists, playwrights, and novelists who all at one time made constant use of it.

Many instances could be given, but two scenes in particular remain fixed in the minds of many novel-readers. Both are as familiar as any admirable: They are the work of two very great novelists and there is a reasonable balance between the two authors' technical disposition of their materials.

The earlier scene is after the funeral of Mrs. Margaret Bertram of Singleside in Guy Mannering, the latter follows that of old Peter Featherstonhaugh of Glenmarch.

First of all the lawyer, being properly acquainted with the will and its wherewabouts in his own pocket, put forth with a rat-and-mouse game with the expectant relatives by an elaborate search in the repositories of the deceased. He further artfully prolongs the suspense by reading the earlier will (in the Scottish story, to be precise, a mortis causa settlement) though it has been superseded and can have no possible effect. At last is produced the material document, leaving the bulk of the property in one case to a young man whom everybody believes to have been long dead and in the other to one that nobody ever knew to have existed. And if further fury and mortification were needed there is in both instances that last infirmity of testators, a considerable bequest to charity.

This was the sort of thing which Mr. Ick had probably had to cope up with. To be sure he had his 3,000 pounds, which was surely better than nothing, but he had beheld his head so high and perhaps had already begun to entertain a grief at the obsequies.

"There's never muckle sant wi'ter siller," Scott seeing this remarked, "to bode ither folk mischief." The sorrowful, inequitable though it may be, there are few sentiments that give greater malicious satisfaction and faintness in regard to friends, than that vulgarity expressed in the words "Sold again."

Today we may derive some ammusement from seeing the old visions of a will in the newspaper, but we cannot read in them sudden poignancy that came with the lawyer's solemn reading and the hopes that grew faster and fainter till the end was reached. Those assembled Brodricks had the best of the grim joke.

Will Execute Bad Drivers

(Edmonton Journal)

When it comes to the problem of highway safety, the kingdom of Saudi Arabia may be believed in beating around the bush. Not for this kingdom are the rules, the stop signs or even "ghost" patrols. It goes to the root of the matter.

A new law promulgated by the Saudi Arabian government has as follows, as reported by the New York Times:

"If an accident results in the death of a pedestrian, the driver is proved to have been careless and will be executed, whoever he may be."

No mention is made of cousins, brothers-in-law, or confidential persons in other vehicles, but presumably this is a capital offence.

The law further provides: "If an accident occurs as the result of speed and negligence, and does not result in death, the offender will be imprisoned for one year and his driving license withdrawn."

This legislation will doubtless strike Alberta motorists as a bit harsh, especially when contrasted with the Arabian custom of suspending the heads of careless drivers at public squares as warnings to others. We have a strong suspicion, though, that it may serve its purpose a good deal better than our Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act. Any that highway fatalities in Saudi Arabia are due for a sharp drop. With the executioner's sword hovering over their necks, Arabian motorists are likely to become models of care and courtesy—or else go back to camels.

How to Make Tomatoes Red

St. Thomas Times-Journal.)

There's a general impression that tomatoes require a great deal of sunlight and heat in order to bring them to that red color we all desire. Actually, it's not the sun and heat process will defeat itself if carried too far.

Experts over in New York State Agricultural Experiments Station by Professor Charles B. Sayre, point interesting facts.

Tomatoes have three color pigments, he explained: chlorophyll (green), carotene (yellow) and lycopene (red). Green dominates until tomatoes reach maturity. Under 60 degrees chlorophyll will not change and tomatoes remain green. Reduced gardless of how "ripe" they get. Above 50 degrees, the green color begins to change to the yellow pigments develop. At 86 degrees and above, the red breaks down and only yellow appears. So too warm tomatoes cannot get red-ripe. Professor Sayre reported. A mixture of warm days and cool nights allows the development of good red color. Cool days and nights are better than 86.

Tomatoes are most immature tomatoes to too prolonged sunshine in the window.

Restful Example

(Edmonton Journal)

An ancient dispute is whether physical or mental ease is more important in enabling a person to get rest. Perhaps it might be to . a man who has only one mind, which he has paid for with a bad cheque.

Most Propose While in Auto

(Philadelphia Bulletin)

A scientist with nothing better to do made a survey some time ago. He discovered, for instance, that when and where young persons of the modern world get engaged to each another.

The survey says that of 1,181 engaged men and women, a majority got that way by popping the question in an automobile. The automobile, it seems, trails the family car by two percent.

Thirteen per cent said, "Will you marry me?" and got the right answer while taking vacations or traveling. A statistic which should boost the tourist business considerably.

Parties and dinners were matchmakers for ten per cent. Only eight per cent proposed by telegram, which sounds like too many.

It is surprising that so many of those interviewed could remember where and how it happened. Most women would remember, but the average young man is likely to be stunned when he finds himself proposing to a girl and stunned when she accepts him.

He wakes next morning with the feeling that something happened to him yesterday. Perhaps he was blackjacked or lost his job or had his pocket picked. Reluctantly he remembers at last that he said something about getting married and somebody took him seriously.

Keep-Ahead Drivers Bad

(Saint John, N.B. Telegraph-Journal.)

Not often do you see much critical comment in the minds of motorists who are affected with the get-ahead-of-everybody-else mania, but this cause more accidents than is generally realized. The unfortunate thing about them is that usually person who gets killed or maimed is someone else—an innocent driver who becomes a victim of the keep-ahead motorist's obsession.

The latter looks just like any other citizen. To meet him socially you might not suspect him of being dangerous at all. The only clue would be a tendency on his part to boast, to be a bore, to go you one better in any remark you made about an achievement that anybody else had accomplished. To make you uncomfortably anxious to get away from him.

But on the highway you recognize him (or sometimes her) in an instant. Every car ahead is a challenge to him; he has to pass it. In his warped mind the car is taunting him. He has to get ahead of it if he breaks his neck in the attempt. As he rears past it, he lightens his lips with satisfaction.

Similarly, he can't bear to have anyone pass him. He thinks all the cars behind are in a race with him, eager to get by and humiliate him.

We don't know how the authorities can convince keep-ahead drivers that they aren't really taking part in the Indianapolis 500-mile race or at the stick of a jet plane. Stiff penalties, when they are caught, seem to be the only solution.

ENDOSCOPIST CORRECTS BAD ADVICE

In this column May 25th (Brady) advised that when a child or adult swallows a foreign body, blunt or sharp, these are good rules to follow:

Dr. Brady

(1) Do not give laxative or cathartic

(2) Do not induce vomiting

(3) Wait at least two or three days to see whether the foreign body will pass through the intestine, and have X-ray examination only if it fails to pass naturally within 36 hours.

(4) Let the child or adult eat a good size bowl of mixed vegetables —such as cabbage, celery, string beans—or twice a day, large salad of leafy vegetables, cooked soft, and fruit, especially ripe banana he will eat.

(5) Cut revolting threads into pieces 1 1-2 to 2 inch long and feed the pattern enough of them to make a ball the size of a horse chestnut, in jelly, apple sauce or custard. The threads envelop the foreign body like a cocoon more smoothly wound than it could be done by hand. In this form it easily passes from the body, and may escape notice. Of course in every case all of the dejects must be carefully flushed through a sieve for four days after the foreign body has been swallowed.

Now comes an endoscopist—so his letterhead informs me—who thinks my advice in many cases is very poor.

If any of you readers are puzzled, don't worry. I was unaware that endoscopy has become a specialty. An endoscopist is a physician skilled in inspecting the interior of a hollow organ by means of a lighted instrument called an endoscope.

The eminent specialist did not write to me. He wrote to the editor. But, dear me, how could such an esteemed member of the profession speak directly to a pediculous.

The endoscopist tells the editor that a competent physician should be consulted at once, when a child or adult swallows a foreign body. If one has a sharp foreign body in the esophagus (gullet) . . . nobody should wait three or even two days . . . and ripe bananas will make no difference . . . and the cutting of revolting threads, is taken very poorly.

I said nothing about a sharp object in the esophagus. In such a case the endoscopist's criticism would be sound.

I presented entirely the practical advice which several experienced physicians have found best for children or adults who have swallowed coins, buttons, marbles or whatnot.

An endoscopist is a useful aid in such cases, if and when the may escape notice. Of course in every case all of the dejects must be carefully flushed through a sieve for four days after the foreign body has been swallowed.

Democrats Elect Maine Governor, First in 20 Years

PORTLAND, Me. (AP)—A Democrat today is governor-elect of rock-ribbed Republican Maine—first of his party to win any major office in the state in 20 years.

Edmund S. Muskie, 39-year-old Democratic national committeeman, defeated governor Burton M. Cross, 51, in Monday's first United States' state election of 1954.

In modern times, no other Republication governor has ever been denied a second term in Maine.

SOME CONSOLATION

The Republicans, however, sent Margaret Chase Smith back to the U.S. Senate for a second term and kept their three members of the federal House of Representatives in their seats.

But their margins were far from the "greater than ever" majorities asked by Vice-President Richard Nixon to "set a standard for the rest of the country in November," when other U.S.-mid-term elections will be held.

Muskie's campaign manager Richard McMahon, attributed the startling reversal to the desire for a change and a growing feeling along the electorate that Maine's government had drifted too far from them.

He said he didn't believe personalities were involved, nor that the Muskie victory constituted a vote against Cross.

Throughout the campaign, Republicans hammered the theme that a "solid" Republican victory would help the Eisenhower administration keep control of Congress.

CARRIES BI GCITIES

Muskie carried six of the state's 16 counties and 13 of the 21 cities. Among them were Augusta, the state capital, and Portland, Cross' home city, and shipbuilding Bath, Bangor and Saco—all normally Republican.

Nixon had campaigned for the Republican ticket during a brief vacation in Maine, urging "an even greater majority than ever before" to herald Republican victories in the other 47 states in November. Nixon said the Maine voting had "great significance nationally."

Much Unknown In Highways Case Oliver Declares

EASTVIEW, Ont. (CP) — Ontario Liberal leader Farquhar Oliver said Monday night there is still much to be discovered by the province's investigation into highway-building contracts.

Speaking at two election meetings in this Ottawa suburb, Mr. Oliver said the highways "scandal" is not over yet. No one knew how much money had been "squandered."

"We will find the culprits," he said. "It will be cleaned up."

HITS AT HYDRO

"No member of a Liberal administration will have any truck or trade with contractors who are building roads in the province."

Mr. Oliver spoke in support of Ralph Flos, Liberal candidate in Thursday's provincial by-election in Russell constituency.

He said the Ontario hydro commission's frequency conversion program in southern and western Ontario will cost $500,000,000. The commission was spending about $2,000,000 a year on public relations when it had a monopoly.

A Liberal government in Ontario would call a provincial-municipal conference to work out a complete reallocation of taxation fields. The Progressive Conservative government had said a committee was working on the problem, but it has never reported, Mr. Oliver said, and he did not know who its members are.

Attlee Opposes U.S. Navy Plan To Guard Formosa

CHRISTCHURCH, New Zealand (Reuters)—British Labor party leader Clement Attlee said here today he definitely disapproves the presence of the United States 7th Fleet in Formosan waters "as a protective measure."

He made the statement to reporters after arriving with his wife from Australia.

"I disapprove of the action, but that is a matter for the United States," he said.

CHARGE 'BURG SELLER

LINDSAY, Ont. (CP) Judgment was reserved Monday on whether a hamburger stand operator contravened the Lord's Day Act by selling his wares in Fenelon Falls on a Sunday. The charge was laid by Police Chief David Gordon of Fenelon Falls.

Head of Union Told to Stop Coaching Witness

TORONTO (CP) — Walter Murdoch, Canadian head of the AFL Musicians' Union, Monday was told to stop coaching a witness testifying before the Ontario labor relations board.

The union is charged with staging an illegal strike at the Casino Theatre Sept. 7 when the musicians refused to play for members of the American Guild of Variety Artists (AFL-TLC).

Board chairman Jacob Finkelman said Murdoch appeared to be guiding a witness's testimony with hand nods.

"Let the witness answer his own questions," snapped Mr. Finkelman. During testimony the labor leader said he had not read the Ontario Labor Act until he received notification of the Casino's application to the board.

CHAIRMAN AMAZED

"I'm amazed," said Mr. Finkelman. "That's one of the most amazing statements I've ever heard by a labor official before this board."

Mr. Murdoch replied he hasn't a legal mind and leaves such matters to his solicitors.

Murray Little, Casino manager, said the union refused to work unless he declined to sign an agreement boycotting AGVA acts. He said AGV had been "blacklisted by the Musicians' Union.

Mr. Murdoch said at the hearing that the decision to withhold music for AGVA acts was made by the union executive, not by the membership.

The hearing is continuing.

HOME TOWN GIVES ROYAL RECEPTION FOR MARILYN BELL

Crowds lined Toronto streets in drizzling rain to applaud Marilyn Bell, conqueror of Lake Ontario in the 32-mile swim that has earned recognition from coast to coast. Gus Ryder, her swimming coach, rode with her as she was driven up Bay St. to the city hall, where the mayor made a presentation.

Labor Organizer Tried to Trick Board Is Claim

TORONTO (CP)—The five-man Ontario labor relations board said Monday an organizer for the United Textile Workers (AFL) deliberately tried to trick the board by placing forged membership cards before it.

The board threw out an application by the union to replace the Textile Workers Union (CIO) at the Riverside Silk Mills, Galt, Ont.

It blasted AFL organizer Vernon Mustard for "a flagrant and deliberate attempt to defraud the board."

At a hearing at Galt in July six employees of the mill claimed they had not signed the duplicate receipt forms which Mustard filed on their behalf.

PAID HIM FEE

Mustard told the board each of the six had paid him the minimum $1 membership fee, that he had signed the receipts and watched the workers countersign.

Each of the six denied signing. Three said they had never seen Mustard before. One man produced a customs receipt from Fort Erie which bore out her claim that she was shopping in Buffalo at the time Mustard claimed he was collecting her $1 union fee.

The board invoked the "rotten apple" theory. If some membership card is found to be falsified, then the whole application of the union must be thrown out.

Heatless School Disgusts Council

TORONTO (CP) — Suburban Scarborough council learned Monday night that in nearby Agincourt there are 55 pupils being educated in a ramshackle two-room school that has no heat in the winter, a roof that leaks when it rains, a wall from which plaster is falling regularly and only outdoor plumbing facilities.

The caretaker quit early this year and hasn't been replaced.

The council registered disgust at the disclosure but tabled a board of education request for a $30,000 grant to rebuild and add another classroom.

Educationalists Begin Meeting At Edmonton

EDMONTON (CP) — Education Minister Aalborg of Alberta was scheduled to officially welcome nearly 400 delegates to opening sessions today of the three-day annual Canadian Education Association convention.

Mr. Aalborg was one of seven provincial education ministers included on a preliminary list of registrations issued Monday.

The others were J. R. Chalker, Newfoundland; W. J. Dunlop, Ontario; Henry D. Hicks, Nova Scotia; W. C. Miller, Manitoba; C. D. Taylor, New Brunswick and R. Willston, British Columbia.

Mr. Chalker was taking a backseat today to his deputy-minister, Dr. G. A. Frecker, president of the association, whose presidential address was to follow Mr. Aalborg's welcome. Also on the morning's agenda was a speech by Dr. Andrew Stewart, president of the University of Alberta.

Delegates split up this afternoon into six groups to discuss audio-visual education; teacher training; curriculum; federal-provincial cooperation in vocational training; school building and compulsory education.

Meanwhile, the educational ministers will meet in private session and provincial superannuation officials are to confer under the chairmanship of S. H. Henry of Toronto.

MORE KOREAN AID

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States foreign operations administration Monday announced a new allotment of $45,000,000 to the Republic of Korea to maintain civilian relief and a steady flow of essential commodities to that country. The FOA said in a statement that "the action was taken to continue the flow of relief supplies and to combat inflation by providing funds to finance the import of raw materials and consumer - type goods."

Tells Teachers They Should Be Less Sensitive

EDMONTON (CP) — The president of the Canadian Education Association today told teachers to be less sensitive "and a little less anxious to find a scape-goat" when criticized.

Dr. G. A. Frecker, deputy education minister of Newfoundland, said in his presidential address at the opening of the association's convention "there has been a tendency to measure the best products of the schools of a generation ago against the run-of-the mill product of the schools today."

Years ago, traditional education was narrower. The top 10 per cent was trained well for the professions but the remainder was regarded as inferior and sometimes even stupid rather than individuals with different abilities.

"The average boy or girl attending our present-day schools is a better position to get a better education than was his counterpart of a generation ago. This is not because many of our schools belong to the progressive school of thought!—very few do—but rather because by and large our teachers are better-trained and our schools are better-equipped."

GEORGE R. MUNRO, General Sales Manager of Molson's Brewery (Ontario) Limited, announces the appointment of Lloyd G. Woods as Molson's Sales Representative for the Peterborough and Belleville district. Mr. Woods has had extensive experience in the selling field throughout the entire Province of Ontario and served Overseas with the RCAF during the last war.

Weddings

WOOD—THOMAS

Bridge Street United Church adorned with standards of mixed flowers was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, August 21, at twelve o'clock noon, when June Jannett Thomas, youngest daughter of Mrs. N. Thomas, 31 Evans Street, became the bride of William Arthur Wood, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, of this city.

Rev Miriam E. Collins performed the double ring ceremony and Mr. Alec Gordon, organist of the church, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. W. Burgoyne, who sang "The Lord's Prayer", before the ceremony and "O Perfect Love", during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John Thomas, wore an ankle-length strapless gown of white nylon net in tiered effect over taffeta with matching bolero and mitts pointed over the wrist, with shoulder-length veil caught to a nylon tiara studded with rhinestones, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Thomas, of London, Ontario, was her sister's bridesmaid and wore a strapless gown of pink crystalette with matching bolero, mitts and white hat. Her bouquet was of gladmelias.

Mr. Roy Whiting, of Belleville, brother-in-law of the bride, was groomsman.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the New Queen's Hotel, the bride's mother receiving in a cocoa brown dress, brown accessories and corsage of yellow rosebuds, she was assisted by the bridegroom's mother wearing a grey dress with red floral design and white accessories. Her corsage was red rosebuds.

For a wedding trip through the United States, the bride chose a rose colored suit with white accessories and corsage of Talisman roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside at 283 George Street in this city.

BROWN—SWAYNE

PICTON—The Church of St. Mary Magdalene was the scene of a pretty wedding at three o'clock on Saturday, Sept. 11, 1954, when Elizabeth Patricia Ann, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Hope Swayne, The rectory, Picton, became the bride of Charles Alexander Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander Brown, Windsor. Pink gladioli decorated the altar and guest pews were marked by white bows. The ceremony was conducted by the bride's father, the Rev. Mr. Swayne, assisted by Rev. F. A. Smith, rector of Christ Church, Toronto. Rev. Canon J. S. McConnell, rector of Trenton, and Rev. A. J. Anderson, rector of Barriefield.

Mr. Frank Bromskill at the organ played the traditional wedding music. The vested choir of the church led the procession singing "My Soul the King of Heaven", and "O Worship Thy King."

The bride made a lovely picture in a long gown of white pailette sole, featuring a full hooped skirt with cathedral train. Her long sleeves came to points over the hands. A band of shirred satin held the wedding veil. She carried a white satin Prayer book with miniature roses and stephanotis. George Swayne gave his sister in marriage.

Miss Faith Swayne was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Beverley Fiss, Toronto, Miss Barbara Lipson, Picton, and Mrs. Howard Hart, Montreal. They were gowned alike in waltz-length dresses of forest green taffeta with heavy full skirts and short sleeves. Their coronets were of green with bronze leaves and they carried cascades of bronze 'mums.

Douglas Hart, Belrick, Kingston, was groomsman. Ushers were G. Leech of Windsor, J. Biddle, Windsor and William Swayne of Picton.

The reception was held in the Parish House while the wedding gifts were on display in the rectory. The bride's mother was gowned in larkspur blue crepe and lace with a mink cape and floral fur felt hat. She carried petal 'mums on a navy beg. The groom's mother was smart in grey lace with grey accessories and Persian Lamb cape. She carried yellow 'mums.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and decorated with ivy, daisy 'mums with tapers on either side of the wedding cake. Servers were Mrs. E. ## Officers Installed At Kinette Club

At the opening dinner meeting of the Kinette Club, held Monday, in St. Thomas' Parish House, Mary Lang was installed as president for the coming year.

Retiring president Marg Hallam occupied the chair during the first half of the meeting. Reports from the various committee chairmen were given on the year's activities.

A letter of thanks to the Kinettes was read from the Kinsmen Club acknowledging the gift of three hundred dollars to be used on the swimming pool.

The treasurer's report showed a cheque for five hundred dollars had been given the Hospital Building Fund and also an additional cheque for five hundred and fifteen dollars had been handed to the Kinsmen Club to help in the building of a wading pool for Belleville's younger children.

In the past year the Kinette Club had also made donations to CNIB building fund $200, T.B. Association $5, Salvation Army 50, Poppy Fund 10, also donated a cooler to swimming pool.

At the conclusion of the yearly reports the president Mary Lang thanked the club members for their help during her term of office and asked that they show the new president the same fine cooperation.

INSTALLATIONS

The annual installation then took place with Past President Helen Wilbur outlining in detail the responsibilities of the various officers and charges each girl to take her office seriously even to the carried of personal sacrifice. Other officers elected were: secretary, Helen Lennon; treasurer, Jean Smith; directors, Peg Mulvihill, Helen Gerbutt, Barbara Bildey, Betty Sullivan, Eileen Martin.

Trying to Sell 'H-Line' Under New Label

By PAULINE KENNEDY

TORONTO (CP)—They're trying to sell the "H-line" now under the label of relaxation.

At a department store here fall fashion show Monday women found out they are not in for the extremes of the 30s but the "relaxed silhouette." It features softened curves, long lean torsos and slim skirts and coats.

"Style trends this fall are reminiscent," the commentator explained, "but fashion is not looking back—we prefer to call our new lines contemporary '50s."

Contemporary or not, several dresses were "definitely reminiscent. There was a grey wool number with no waistline and not much more bust. It fell straight from the neck and was worn with several ropes of beads.

Another was a swallow grey chiffon flannel coat-dress costume. Its flat look was emphasized by peruian lamb beadings at the throat and hemline. All the model lacked was the Charleston step.

Otherwise styles displayed were delightful and gave no cause for fear of a return to the sloppy 30s. Tweeds, camel hairs and downy fleeces were predominant with tweeds being used for cocktail dresses as well as casual wear. The gaudy Hopling jewelry is back. Most costumes were worn with long strands of rope beads. Hats are small pert and worn back of the hair like this year.

Best of the hat collection were New York and Paris models beejeweled and sequined for night wear. The cloche and turban have come back into their own. They are worn over one ear, over both ears and wound to the side.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

Toronto, Ont. (Special)—For the first time science has found a pain healing ointment with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And all this was accomplished by a new healing substance discovered by a famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name *Preparation H. The price is only $1.19 a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. *Trade Mark

ADVICE to the LOVELORN

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

DON'T KEEP UP A FEUD WITH YOUR SISTER

Dear Miss Fairfax:

Ten years ago when I brought my baby home from the hospital, I asked my sister if she would help me out for a few days until I regained my health. She refused. Then, last year I had to have a serious operation, and my sister called to tell me not to expect her to take care of my child while I was in the hospital. I hadn't even asked her to help me in any way. While I was in the hospital, she never came to see me nor even after I got home.

Last weekend she called me up and asked me if my little girl could come and spend the night with her, as her husband was out of town. I said No. My folks tell me, however, that I should let by gones be bygones and that I should let my little girl go. What do you say? — Mrs. C.

Dear Mrs. C.:

I'm inclined to agree with your folks. If by this time your sister has certainly not treated you very well, and I am inclined to think, as a result, you don't at present feel very kindly toward her.

At the same time, it is always too bad when there is friction and estrangement among the members of a family, and by not letting your little girl go to your sister when she asks it, you will only have passed up an opportunity to restore friendly relations. Then you had shown yourself to be thoughtful and forgiving, it would probably have made your sister a little ashamed of her own attitude so that she would want to change it. If you get another opportunity to better things between you, I think it would be fine if you would take it.

THINKS SHE'S LOSING HER BOY FRIEND

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I am 17 years old, and have been going with a fellow two years older than I and have dated a lot of time.

He is now in the Air Force, and recently was home on a 16-day furlough. Out of those 16 days, I saw him only 7 or 8.

When we were in school, we were very close, sharing most of our school experience and also sharing most of our problems with each other, and I am really in love with him. Now, though, I'm afraid I am losing him, and I am dreadfully upset.

Must I write to him and plead with him to come back to me? Please tell me what to do. I am afraid to discuss this with my mother, because she thinks I should have more than one friend. — M.B.

Dear M.B.:

If you want my frank opinion, I think that, at 17, you should have more than one friend, too. Moreover, I think it would be a big mistake to write any such letter to this boy as you have in mind. Write to him, certainly; but keep your letters cheerful, friendly and newsy. Keep any talk of love out of them, and don't say anything that will make him feel you are reproachful and resentful because he doesn't seem to pay as much attention to you as he did when you were in school. Believe me, this is the only way to hold him as a friend; any other kind of letter will certainly drive him even farther away from you.

In the meantime, go out with your other friends and make up your mind to enjoy them. Refuse to let yourself give in to brooding and unhappy thoughts, for that way leads nowhere. If you take the right attitude toward this boy, and toward everbody else, you are bound to be a happy girl and to have happiness come to you. You may not believe this now, but if you act on what I have said, the results will sooner or later convince you in spite of yourself.

DRINKING DEATHS COSTLY

PARIS (Reuters)—Deaths from drinking in France cut national output by about 250,000,000 francs (about $510,000,000 a year, according to a survey issued by the national institute of statistics. The survey says the French have spent 340,000,000,000 francs on wine, 25,000,000,000 on beer, the same on fermented cider and 100,000,000,000 on aperitifs and liqueurs, and that the liquor bill makes up 7.3 per cent of the national revenue.

Beauty

By HELEN JAMIESON

YOU, TOO, CAN HAVE A PRETTY MOUTH

It takes something more than poppy-colored lipstick to make a pretty mouth. If the expression is not pleasing, vivid coloring will accent it. But even the plainest mouth, lacking in perfect contour, can be made attractive if it smiles prettily. It does not require much of an effort to keep the corners of the lips lifted.

Facial operators in beauty shops have a special treatment for improving mouth contour — a treatment which can give yourself at home. This treatment will not only bring about a marked improvement in the outline of the lips but it will help to keep their surfaces soft, smooth and moist.

First, cover the mouth with a good massage cream. Then place the first finger stationary, draw up upper lip, thumb at out corner, second finger at the other. Keep the first finger stationary, draw up the lip ends with the thumb and second finger. Your lips will form a Cupid's bow. These movements strengthen the delicate fibers that surround the mouth.

Second the movement: place the first finger of either hand under the center of the lower lip, skirt along the edges of the lips to the corners, then out on the cheeks. This is an uplifting motion. Don't return the fingers along the same lines. Downward strokes have no place in the manipulations of facial muscles.

Wipe away the cream with tissues, apply a while lipstick. The cream you use on the face are not suitable for the lips since their perfume may leave an unpleasant taste. The final step is a quick friction with an ice cube to promote vivid coloring.

GOOD MANNERS

By MRS. BEECKMAN

"THANK YOU" NOT ENOUGH

Dear Mrs. Beeckman;

My husband is a junior executive in a large and important company, a quite new promotion, and of course we are both eager to "make good" socially. The other day I met the president of the company for the second time; it was only brief meeting and we exchanged only a few words. Upon leaving he said very graciously to me, "It was so nice to see you again, Mrs. Smith." I simply answered "Thank you." My husband, who was with me, said this was not the correct reply. But asked him what I should have said, he "clammed up" after telling me that I myself should know. Will you please straighten me out about that? — A Puzzled Wife

I am sure that what your husband meant was that your reply to such a pleasant remark was only half of what you should have said. That is, you thanked the company president for saying that he enjoyed seeing you again, but you said nothing about having had pleasure in seeing him again. In other words, you should have said something like this: "Thank you. I was delighted to see you again, Mr. Andrews." This "return-bow" to a pleasant remark of this kind is a very important social detail . . .as your husband apparently knows, even if he wouldn't tell you.

WHO CUTS AND SERVES THE BEST OF THE WEDDING CAKE?

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

My daughter is to be married soon, and is having a master and a mistress of ceremonies at the reception. I am very confused as to who is supposed to cut the wedding cake—that is, of course, after the bride and groom have cut and shared the first piece, according to custom. Should the mistress of ceremonies then cut the rest of the cake? Or should the bridesmaid do this, as I once saw? And I have been at quite a few receptions where it was the mother of the bride do this, but I do not think it is correct. Or may it be just whoever the bride and her mother choose to have? — Bride's Mother

This pleasant task of cutting the wedding cake may be assigned to anyone whom the bride and her mother think will do it with grace and graciousness. It might be a good idea to have the mistress of ceremonies do it, or it might be a devoted relative or intimate friend of the bride or her family. I'm not so enthusiastic about having the bridesmaid do it. And I agree with you that it really isn't a good idea for the bride's mother to do this . . . for she would be, or should be, more importantly engaged with her other hospitality responsibilities.

Give and Take

By Mary Moore

The womanpower in this country is stupendous, gigantic and colossal.

The farm girls write to me asking for recipes for canning and pickling everything from bell peppers to citron to tomato soup, and stipulate it must be without this, and without that, and that ingredient. I sometimes think "as last I'm cornered—that I can't produce"—but from somewhere or somebody the recipe usually is forthcoming and I send it on. Then I think of you girls receiving my replies and pitching in to the jobs you have dreamed up for yourselves. I would dearly love to taste some of the good things you turn out.

Of course, you give me things too. For instance, read the letter:

"Dear Mrs. Moore: . . . our paper is worth more than a nickel to me because of your column . . . always read that if nothing else. . . . your recipes are foolproof. . . I have a lot of sweet peppers in my garden and would like to know how I can preserve them without vinegar . . . could I put them up with boi salt brine and dill, as dill pickles?

"Did you ever hear of dill pickling tomatoes? We put them with mashed potatoes and a pirotein dish. I use firm tomatoes that are just beginning to ripen; pack them with dill and garlic and a bay leaf in sterilized jars. Pour boiling brine (15 cups water to 1 cup coarse salt) and seal.

"Would you have a recipe for scrumptious cheese cake. . . have bought it from a Polish bakery. . . it is yellow and about 1-2-inch thick . . . I shall depend on you to help me. — Frances."

I had not heard of dill-pickling tomatoes, and thank Frances for the method.

There are two methods of canning sweet peppers (or red sweet pimentoes) without vinegar.

SWEET PEPPERS CANNED WITHOUT WATER

Remove seeds and stems from well-washed sweet peppers and cut into quarters lengthwise. Pack in smallest size sterile jars. Press them down and put on sterile tops without tightly sealing. Process in hot water bath 2 hours. This processing brings out a thick liquor. Tighten seal and cool. Store in cool dark place.

SWEET PEPPERS CANNED WITH WATER

Remove seeds and stems from well-washed sweet peppers or pimentoes. Plunge into boiling water and simmer gently for not more than 5 minutes—barely long enough to soften. Immediately pack into small sterile jars. Fill with fresh boiling water (do not add salt), seal to within 1-4 turn of tight and process in hot water bath 30 minutes. Tighten seal.

I have mailed the recipe for Cheese Cake to Frances.

E.B. wants to know how to can Citron.

CITRON PRESERVES

(For E.B.)

Three lbs citron (weighed after preparing), 2 lbs. sugar, juice of 3 large lemon (and grated rind if desired). Prepare citron by paring, and cutting firm flesh into very thin slices, then into cubes or short strips. Sprinkle sugar over it, cover and allow to stand overnight. Cook in the syrup which forms until citron clears—this must be simmered and watched closely. Add lemon juice and cook two minutes longer. Pour into sterile jars and seal.

Few Shoppers Buy Clothes With Eye to Future Cleaning

By PEGGY THOMAS

Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—Novelty fabrics may look good, but they cause a lot of cleaning headaches, say textile experts at the Cleaners and Launderers Research Institute.

The Institute, to which 534 Canadian cleaning and laundering firms belong, maintains a laboratory which tests garments to try to find out why they fail to stand up to cleaning.

The main troublemakers, says the Institute, are fabrics with stripes or other designs glued on by an adhesive which is soluble in the cleaning fluid. Flock-dot prints and metallic prints also dissolve.

MUST EXERCISE CARE

Too few shoppers buy clothes with an eye to their future cleaning, says Ernest W. Finlayson, managing executive of the Institute.

"Women tend to buy for style and appearance rather than cleanability of material, that's why more than 250 damaged articles a month come into our laboratory for analysis and report."

FAILURE REASONS

The Institute's experts find, said Mr. Finlayson, that only 25 per cent of failures are caused by cleaning methods. The other 75 per cent are the result of the wearer's abuse of the material, poor manufacture, faulty fabrics, soft dyes, and inadequate labelling.

Labels which specify what type of cleaning a fabric requires are often lacking.

Although the Institute finds few problems arising over the miracle fabrics, orlon, nylon and dacron, combinations of these with other materials are sometimes troublesome.

The labelling problem may be solved in the near future when the Institute, in co - operation with Canadian - textile manufacturers, will put the Institute's seal of approval on garments which can be laundered and dry-cleaned successfully.

55,000 Students Expected To Register at Universities

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

More than 55,000 students are expected to register at colleges and universities across Canada this fall and officials are rushing preparations to receive them.

Enrolment will be slightly higher than last year. In the West a trend toward higher enrolments continues.

Registration is, however, well below years immediately after the Second World War when veterans filled lecture rooms to overflowing.

Many universities, with the assistance of increased government grants, have added new buildings or enlarged existing ones.

ACCOMMODATION ADEQUATE

All report students will have little difficulty finding accommodation. Campus residents will be filled but students can find off-campus accommodation for from $30 to $85 a month, including meals.

The University of British Columbia is preparing for 5,650 students, 159 more than last year. The university has 150 apartments for married couples renting at $35 to $45 a month.

The opening in a few months of a new agriculture building at the University of Alberta will make classroom space adequate, officials say. An increase is expected than last year when 3,921 attended. A new course in geophysics will be of benefit in developing the province's oil development.

Introduction of a three-year hospital diploma course in nursing has been announced by the University of Saskatchewan. Registration is expected to be about 2,350—about the same as in 1953.

The University of Manitoba expects about the same number of students as last year, when 4,800 enrolled.

EXPAND AT WESTERN

An addition to the library and construction of an administration building at the University of Western Ontario at London will make more space available to the 2,000 students expected to register.

A $1,250,000 science building will be opened this fall at McMaster University, Hamilton. Enrolment will be up slightly over last year to 3,100.

The University of Toronto has added a new men's residence for 180 students and a wing to its library. Attendance is expected to be slightly higher than last year's 10,800.

Queen's University, Kingston, had built "a new administration building and started construction on a men's residence. Applications for enrolment in the engineering course are so heavy that university officials raised the quota of first year students to 300 from 250. Enrolment is also expected to be up in the commerce and journalism course. About 2,300 students are expected to attend this year. Last year 2,198 students took courses.

NEW CAMPUS SITE

The University of Ottawa and Carleton College expect more students. Carleton is preparing plans for a new campus site. The college is housed in a former women's college building in the south end of the city. Medical students at the University of Ottawa will move into a new medical school building this fall.

A new course on operation of small businesses is offered this year at McGill University. McGill expects 4,300 students.

The University of Montreal will have an enrolment of about 10,500 students. Enrolment in engineering will swell to about 700 this year.

Laval University in Quebec expects about 4,500 students, 175 more than last year.

Brooks opens this fall with about 700 students, most of whom live in or around Sherbrooke, Que. Bishop's University, Lennoxville, Que., will have about 275 students. It is adding a new wing to the student dormitory.

Both New Brunswick universities, the University of New Brunswick at Fredericton and Mount Allison at Sackville, report registration will be about the same as last year.

Dalhousie University in Halifax is offering a new course in teaching, costs of which are being underwritten by the province. It is designed to produce more and better-trained teachers.

Newfoundland's only university, Memorial University at St. John's reports its enrolment will be about 475, the same as last year.

SENTENCED IN SLAYING

GAGETOWN, N.B. (CP)—Floyd Brown, 25-year-old miner, was convicted Saturday of having murdered Earle Thompson, 54, another miner last May. Mr. Justice G. E. G. Bridges sentenced him to be hanged Nov. 23 and defence counsel E. C. Atkinson announced he would seek an appeal.

ADDED TO RCMP LIST

Clifford Eugene Ernest Dawley, 45-year-old seaman and steel worker, has been added to the RCMP's most-wanted fugitive list following his escape last month from Oxalis prison farm at Burnaby, B.C. When he escaped, Aug. 23, he was awaiting trial as an habitual criminal. (CP Photo).

Milk Industry Faces Changes

OTTAWA (CP)—The milk man's demands for higher wages and his reluctance to reduce home deliveries may bring some revolutionary changes to the milk industry, the head of the National Dairy Council suggested Monday.

J. J. Creighton told the council's annual meeting that as a means of reducing costs, there is a trend in several provinces toward selling more and more fluid milk in places rather than delivering it to homes.

"Perhaps of even greater long-term significance is the recent and impending marketing in consumer-sized packages of a new and possibly revolutionary milk powder which, it is claimed, is instantaneously soluble in water.

"Route salesmen engaged in the distribution of fluid milk might well ask themselves whether these developments were hastened by their demands for higher and higher wages and their reluctance to reduce home delivery frequency and thereby increase their productivity."

Need Legislation to Prevent Licensing of Unfit Drivers

TORONTO (CP) — Rhys M. Sale, president of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, said today effective legislation is needed in all provinces to prevent licensing of unfit drivers and unfit vehicles.

His statement was included in the text of a speech given to the press before lunch.

Speaking at the annual governor's dinner of District 247, Rotary International, Mr. Sale said achievement of greater safety on streets and highways will require an intensive, nationwide program of education of rising generations in improving habits and safety-awareness.

He said all possible steps must be taken—by education and law enforcement—to minimize accidents resulting from human faults such as driver distraction, carelessness and recklessness.

"I refer to the thinking of people who are physically handicapped because experience has proved that many of these are skilful, safe drivers. I am thinking particularly of those emotionally unstable and mentally incompetent individuals—the speeder, the reckless driver and the bully boys—in whom the sensation of power behind the wheel unleashes some latent urge and disregard for the rights and safety of others.

"In respect to vehicles, I am thinking of those cars and trucks with defective brakes, steering, headlights, tires and so on, which are a menace wherever they go."

Mr. Sale said greater traffic safety requires more stringent enforcement of case traffic laws and more severe penalties to rid streets and highways of reckless and incompetent drivers.

"The person who coldly and deliberately drives an automobile in such a way as to endanger the public safety deserves no more consideration than if he were to run wild with a loaded gun."

Quebec Children Skimp on Milk

OTTAWA (CP) — A Quebec health authority said Monday that an "alarming" number of children in his province do not drink sufficient milk and said the reasons may range from the high price of milk to competition from soda pop manufacturers.

Dr. E. C. Sylvestre, director of the Quebec health department's nutrition division, told the annual meeting of the National Dairy Council that 80 per cent of Quebec children do not drink even 75 per cent of the recommended quantity of milk.

The statement was contained in the text of his speech issued before delivery.

Dr. Sylvestre said the dairy industry could help by making its publicity conform more with nutrition principles. That was not always the case.

The industry tended to say nothing of the high nutritive value of skimmed milk; it suggested a liberal use of butter where nutritionists taught moderation; it emphasized the nutritive value of milk products to the point where other essential foods seemed to be of little significance; it encouraged the use of chocolate milk beverage, though that beverage could not create a permanent milk-drinking habit.

WILL WRITE SERMONS

CAIRO (Reuters)—The Egyptian government decided to take over the writing of all sermons to be delivered in mosques throughout the country. A government order which comes into effect today states that sermons during the Moslem Friday prayer meetings will be "written in a concise manner" by authorities of the ministry of Waklfs (religious affairs) and will avoid disputed religious, social and political questions.

McCarthy Claims Committee Staff Is Prejudiced

WASHINGTON (AP) — A six-member committee today took on the task of drafting a report on the official conduct of Senator Joseph McCarthy, with every sign that it will ignore his attack on fairness of its legal staff.

The report, which may be critical of some of the Wisconsin Republican senator's activities, is to act as a guide to the United States Senate when it returns to be capital later this year to consider whether or not McCarthy's conduct merits censure.

COMPLIMENTS COUNSEL

As the public censure hearings wound up late Monday, chairman Arthur Watkins (Rep. Utah) said E. Wallace Chadwick, the committee counsel, and Guy G. de Furia, his assistant, had "tried their level best to be fair" in presenting evidence on five main categories of charges levelled at McCarthy.

But McCarthy and his lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams, contended that Chadwick and de Furia had been acting as prosecutors. They indicated they believe any report to which the two contribute will hold that McCarthy overstepped the bounds on one or more of the principal counts against him.

And McCarthy said he was "still disturbed by a statement of Senator Watkins that the jury doesn't have to be impartial."

This was a reference to Watkins' previous statement that many members of the Senate have taken sides for or against McCarthy, and that they cannot for that reason be disqualified from voting when the Senate considers the censure issue.

Much of Monday's final session of hearings was given over to the testimony of Brig.-Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, whom McCarthy has been accused of abusing.

TAKE TO TV

As the hearings ended, Williams called for the appointment of "independent counsel" to study the facts and the law as developed by 18 witnesses in nine days of public hearings.

McCarthy and Williams, pimping outside the hearing room, then declared on television that they don't believe "the district attorney should write the opinion when he had completed prosecuting the case."

McCarthy said Chadwick and de Furia had been "very vigorous prosecutors and cross-examined me very vigorously."

Watkins said the committee would consider this complaint, but he practically foreclosed action on it. Three other committee members indicated they wouldn't vote to get new counsel.

OSHAWA INTERESTED

OWEN SOUND (CP)—More than 25 elected representatives and civic officials from Oshawa headed by Mayor John Nayler, visited Owen Sound to inspect and obtain information regarding the 40 low rental apartments for pensioners erected here in 1951. Oshawa now is contemplating a similar housing scheme for its pensioners.

AWARD HEAVY DAMAGES

TORONTO (CP) — Alexander Hetner, 33, Monday was awarded $30,000 by Mr. Justice W. F. Schroder in a damage suit arising out of a collision in 1951 between a car and a motorcycle. Costs were also assessed against the defendant, Cecil Ryan, a stock clerk.

CHIPS OFF THE SPORTS BLOCK

By Geo. H. Carver, Sports Editor

NEW HOCKEY LEAGUE!

Meet the brand new Eastern Ontario Senior Hockey League.

The new puck baby which is comprised of teams from an area sprawled from Oshawa on the west to Cornwall on the east; Peterborough in the north and Clinton, New York on the south with Brockville, Kingston and Belleville somewhere around the centre, appears to be by far the best puck-chasing loop ever to represent this part of the province.

The new loop came into being in Peterborough Sunday during a ten-hour conclave of representatives convened by OHA vice president Frank Buckland of the Liftlock City and executive member Lorne Cook of Kingston. Alderman Bruce Smith was the lone representative of the Belleville Arena Commission, sponsor of the senior Memos.

Out of the haze of argumentative and discussional smoke, emerged among other salient facts, a forty-eight game schedule which will get under way on October 29. Each team will play four games at home and the same number away with other group members.

The loop all-star game will be played in Kingston Community Centre on October 28th. Manager of the All-Star squad is Jim Ellis of Peterborough with "Red" Doran, Belleville named coach. Two players from the Cornwall, Brockville and Clinton squads will be named to the team. The others will be drawn from Belleville, Peterborough and Kingston. The All-Stars will oppose the 1953-54 senior "B" champions, the Oshawa Generals, with the proceeds to be divided among the teams for the furtherance of minor hockey.

The Toronto Lyndhursts (remember?) Toronto Lumbermen, Newmarket and Orillia teams, which with Stouffville form another senior "B" group since the Metro League has folded, were present. Orillia would have no part of the eastern loop, as stated, due to large transportation costs—but, and get this—they are sending buses to Toronto to bring in the "Hogtown" teams for scheduled games and also taking them home, for free. The city squads said they would like to play an interlocking schedule with the eastern group providing the latter would pay all expenses. The Viking Ontario Baseball League travelling expenses were apparently too much for them, with the Oshawa crews discovered the easterners would not fall for the sucker bait they hurriedly withdrew, and sought the more friendly atmosphere of Yonge Street.

With Sunday sport permissable in both Cornwall and Clinton, N.Y., there will be plenty of week-end hockey activity. While we have no word of the schedule plans it is obvious that Oshawa and the Petes will play twin bills over the week-ends with the eastern teams and the New Yorkers reciprocating.

As a prop conference called by Memos manager Alderman Roscoe Smith yesterday, it was announced that Frank "Buick" Strahan, who had signified his intention of coming to Belleville as a playing coach, will not be available. Stahan's presence here hinged on his being waived by teams of the Quebec Hockey League, and apparently they did not do that, Stahan has been appointed assistant coach of the Ottawa Senators.

Now that the league chips re down and opening dates announced, all teams of the circuit will get down to strict organizational business. Most of the teams have organized and are busy adjusting personnel rosters. It behooves the Arena Commission here to "get crackin'" and see what can be done to bolster last year's squad.

The Cornwall, Brockville and Clinton teams are squads with plenty of experience and while as yet are an unknown quantity, you can bet your income tax rebate none will be pushovers for the squads of the former senior "B" loop.

The new Eastern Ontario Senior Hockey League with its new teams, and new faces, plus the seven-team setup should provide the best hockey seen here in many a decade. And if Belleville is to swim along with the pack, they must needs ice a team comparable with any in it.

Clinton will be allowed seven imports under an OHA dispensation but the rest of the field will be restricted to four, the same as last year. Tony Farisi and the Duncan twins will not be classed as imports this season. That leaves four vacancies on the Memos squad and with hockey just around the corner—we have seven weeks away—Arena Commission chairman Gerald Hyde and his associates should get on their collective horse and get those vacancies filled.

Manager Bruce Smith said at the press confab that he hoped ice would be available in Memorial Arena on Oct. 5 so that the Memos will have at least three weeks for training and conditioning. Not too much time at that.

We do not know the inner workings of the commission and city council regarding expenditures for senior hockey, but we do know that under present conditions to make money one must spend it. And good hockey players cannot be secured for financial peanuts.

And knowing the sports proclivities of this city, which, after all, are little different from the rest, if those box office turnstiles are to click a successful tune, a team comparable with the rest of the pack must wear Belleville uniforms. The Belleville will support a team that can hold its own with the rest of them, but a mediocre outfit that will be merely a stepping stone in the playoffs and point-"suppliers" for the league, will meet with a chilly reception at the box office.

WELL, LOOKIT WHO'S COMING?

A results Hurricane Edna is scheduled to hit Memorial Arena Friday night from the looks of the card announced today by Arena manager Walter Gerow. Following the debacle of last Friday when Whipper Billy Watson was attacked by the vicious Togo Brothers after a dismal display by the officials, the Whip Crusader a return bout with both the Pipe in the bottle. It was announced today by Gerow that Watson sees the Whip and Pat Flanagan match their skill against the Togo Terrors. And along to see that justice is done will be the reliable "Bunny" Dunlop, and rookie official Gentleman Jack Claybourne, an ex-R.C.A.F. [illegible] Lil Lee with Jack Lou and Ed [illegible] to referee the mill.

Injury-Riddled Brewers Meet Loop-Leading Giants Tonight; Antonelli Collars Cards 1-0

By REN FELGIAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Opportunity knocks tonight for the last time for the Milwaukee Braves.

The injury - riddled third-place club limps into the Polo Grounds for its last three games with the league-leading New York Giants knowing that it's win or else.

There will be no more chances if the Braves blow any one of these. The New York experts to a man doubt Milwaukee has enough momentum left from its great late season surge to sweep by the Giants now.

New York holds a four - game edge over both second-place Brooklyn and the Braves in the vital "games lost" column. Any one this column tells the story more accurately than do "games behind" figures since the contenders don't have played a different number of games.

HAVE TO LOSE FOUR

The Giants would have to lose 4 of their remaining 13 contests to be caught by Brooklyn and they would need to drop 5 to be passed, even if the Braves and Dodgers won everything from now until the end of the season.

The Braves move into New York after winning two out of three in Philadelphia. They took Monday night's game, 4-3. The Giants split with the Cardinals 1-0 in an afternoon contest and Brooklyn wasn't scheduled. Pittsburgh shaded Cincinnati 6-5 in the only other major league action.

First baseman Joe Adcock and outfielder Hank Aaron were called out of the New York series. Adcock suffered a ruptured blood vessel in his right arm he was hit by a pitch in Brooklyn Saturday. Aaron broke his leg a week ago.

Catcher Del Crandall moved into the clean-up spot in Milwaukee's Monday night and delivered three hits, two of them doubles, in five trips.

Ahead by only one run, the Braves wrapped it up with four tallies in the eighth. Crandall opened with a double and was put when Curt Simmons' throw to third on Andy Pafko's sacrifice was too late. Simmons also singled and Logan, hit Jack Dittmer and walked Roy Smalley for the bases. Steve Ridzik came in to get pitcher Dave Jolly on strikes but Bill Bruton singled over second and two more runs came in.

Johnny Antonelli was in superb form with his five-hit shutout of the Cardinals. All of the hits against him were singles and he retired 14 men in order until Stan Musial walked in the ninth.

The Giants couldn't do much against rookie Gordon Jones but the one run they got when Bob Rush the first on a double by Willie Mays and a single by Dusty Rhodes was enough.

The victory was No. 21 for the lefthander who came to the Giants from the Braves last winter.

The Pirate batting star, Ralph Kiner, up 4 runs to Cincinnati in Sunday's doubleheader, achieved some revenge when pitcher Dick Littlefield singled home the winning run against the Redlegs Monday night. Ted Kluszewski's home run spree was stopped but the big Redleg slugger singled twice in four appearances.

Four Leafs Named To All-Star Team

MONTREAL (CP)—The pennant-winning Toronto Maple Leafs captured four of 11 positions on the International League all-star team while Montreal Royals and Rochester Red Wings had three spots apiece.

The all - star squad was announced through league headquarters today by Al C. Weber of Rochester, president of the circuit's Baseball Writers' Association. Thirty-two writers voted in the election.

Catcher Elston Howard of Maple Leafs, named last week as the league's most valuable player, was the only unanimous choice. Other positions on the team with votes received in brackets:

SEWELL LAST WEEK

The announcement of Toronto's Luke Sewell as manager of the year was made last week.

Nelson, league leader in home runs with 31, was named to his third all-star team. He was picked in 1953 at Montreal and in 1946 with Rochester.

Lou Ortiz was another repeater. He won the second-base spot with Red Wings last year and drew 22 votes this year to Montreal Hal Bevan of Ottawa who had six.

Short Explosive Battle Seen Between Marciano, Charles

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxing insiders, gathered here from most areas far for the Rocky Marciano-Ezzard Charles heavyweight title fight Wednesday night, envisioned a short and explosive battle.

The general viewpoint of boxers, managers, trainers and promoters was more or less summed up today by Sugar Ray Johnston, manager of lower-division champions Archie Moore and Sandy Saddler.

"I think Charles will tear out and try for a quick knockout," said Johnston. "He'll probably shoot the works in an effort to cut Rocky's eye like he did in the first fight and try and put him away. You remember he did jar Marciano a couple of times early in the fight.

"If he doesn't get Rocky in six, he's going to get flattened himself."

FAVOR ROCKY

The majority opinion, too, is that if there is going to be any flattening Rocky will be the one to do it.

Charles himself has indicated during his training that he plans to go right after the champion. Others have said that and done the opposite but not differently when the bell rang.

"I'm going to try and make those bombers miss," Charles said. Charles after finishing his training in a four-round workout Monday. "I know I've got to put some punches together and use more power. I had him hurt in the early rounds and I know I should have thrown more artillery at him."

If Charles gets off fast, Marciano plans to be ready.

"I've got a good 15-round fight under my belt now," said the 30-year-old champion. "I think my timing is much better now than the last time. I want to get off faster because I know he might try something early."

LEAVES CAMPS

Both men left their Catskill mountain training camps today and went into seclusion in New York.

With the fight close at hand there is a reported spurt in betting, mostly on a knockout. The odds are 5 to 12 that Rocky stops the 33-year-old ex-champion.

Prospects of a punching bee and a weather forecast of "mostly fair and warm" for Wednesday night sharpened interest in the Yankee Stadium clash. Promoter Jim Norris still hopes to equal the figures for the June 17th affair which drew 47,585 fans and grossed $542,092.

Theatre television will add from $125,000 to $200,000 and the CBS radio broadcast of the 10:30 p.m. EDT 15-rounder will add another $35,000. There will be no home television.

CANADIANS WIN

AMSTERDAM (CP)—Canada remained unbeaten after two days' play in the consolation round of the world chess championships Monday night, gaining a 2½-½ advantage over France in seventh round play with one match adjourned.

Dr. Theodore Bobatchuruk of Ottawa, Canada's most successful player of the 26-country tournament thus far, won his second match of the day by defeating G. Rechetnikhon of France. Earlier, he had completed a 3½-½ sweep over Colombia by downing L. Sanchez in a match adjourned from Sunday night.

Will Inaugurate Shrine East-West Football Game

WINNIPEG (CP)—The Canadian Shrine East-West football game will be inaugurated next year, A. E. Chipman, former president of the Canadian Rugby Union, announced Monday night.

"There is a good chance that the game will be on next year this fall, but we can't be sure," he said. "However, it will be played next year definitely, prior to the start of the different league schedules. It will be an annual affair."

Chipman said the game will be similar to the United States East-West contest with proceeds going to the Shriners' crippled children funds.

"We have not decided whether the contestants will be the previous year's Grey Cup finalists, a western and eastern all-star team or the runner-up clubs in the East and West," Chipman said.

This article may be interesting statistics the other day. They said that, for the first time in Canada, the sale of television receivers exceeded that of radio sets.
I think that proves something. I think it means something to you.
Here's what I see it as:
Television in Canada has reached the point where its importance equals that of radio. Obviously, then, there's more enjoyment these days in the TV hour than in the radio hour. The convincing sign is right here, that's how we always do business as our store.
The better the drawing card, the greater the attraction, the higher the sales of TV sets. As sales increase, prices come down. And as prices fall more homes get TV sets. And more homes own. That's where YOU come in.
There was a time when television was a luxury. Then, as more receivers were made, prices were shifted, so prices were out of reach of the average pocketbook. Sizes have changed. Television has become a household necessity, you know.
Don't take my word for it. Drop around to Hitchon Radio & Television, 4 Bridge St., East, and see the new Hallicrafter, your best buy in TV. It's got the new wide-angle screen, and comes in a wide range of handsome cabinets. Price it, then compare it, and you'll agree Hallicrafter is the set-price-ranged for YOU.

Marlene Breezes to Easy 6-5 Victory In 1st Round US Ladies Golf Tourney

PITTSBURGH (CP) — Marlene Stewart of Fonthill, Ont., breezed past Mrs. James G. Murray of Pittsburgh, 6 and 5, Monday for a first-round victory in the United States women's amateur golf championship.

The young Canadian champion had little difficulty in defeating the opponent despite a two-over-par 38 on the first hole.

Another Canadian, Mrs. John McDougald of Long Branch, Ont., also won her initial match by downing Mrs. Cranston of Pasadena, Calif., 3 and 2.

Claire Doran of Cleveland, the pre-tournament favorite, was eliminated in a surprise upset at the hands of a 43-year-old Baltimore housewife.

Mrs. Maurice Glick, seven times Maryland champion, shattered Miss Doran's hopes with heart-breaking steadiness to win an opening round match, 4 and 2.

Outside of this abrupt dismissal of Miss Doran, form went virtually unsullied in the 17 first-round 85 second - round matches played under the Allegheny Country Club course.

Other defending champion, Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., won 10 straight holes from Mrs. Norvess Mary Nelson of Manoa, Pa., and scored an almost unheard-of 10 and 8 victory.

The two former champions—Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta and Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Conn.—moved into the third round, as did the bulk of the British and U.S. Curtis Cup teams and visitors from Mexico, Argentina and Belgium.

Top Big Four In Passing, Ground Gaining

TORONTO (CP) — Quarterback Sam Etcheverry of Montreal Alouettes, and halfback Alex Webster of the same club top the passers and ground gainers in the Big Four Football League after four games.

Etcheverry, former University of Denver quarter now in his third season with the first-place Alouettes, leads the passers with 84 completions in 87 attempts for 843 yards and a completion percentage of 59.8.

Webster, hard-running halfback from North Carolina State who joined the Alouettes in mid-season last year, has gained 323 yards rushing in 54 attempts for an average of six yards each time he has carried the ball.

Individual statistics released Monday night show that players from the Montreal club, which has won four straight games, also lead in punting, scoring and in pass interceptions.

Webster is the top scorer with 20 points on four touchdowns. Red O'Quinn, former Wake Forest and Chicago Bears end, heads the pass catchers with 20 completions for 324 yards. Tex Coulter, big Latin from New York Giants who does Montreal's punting, leads in that department with an average of 42.1 yards a kick.

Big Jim Letzelter of Toronto Argonauts, playing his first season in the Big Four after starting for the Hamilton Tiger Cats, leads the pass interceptors, each with four.

Chuck Hunsinger, ex - Chicago Bears halfback from Maryland who in most yards gained rushing. He picked up 227 yards in the 39 times he carried the ball in the two games he played for an average carry of 5.8 yards.

Nobby Wirkowski of Argonauts has the highest first place passing division, connecting on 32 of 91 tosses for 665 yards and a completion percentage of 37.1.

Will Vote On Argos Import

TORONTO (CP)—The Canadian Rugby Union is conducting an air mail vote at its annual meeting on the eligibility of tackle John Precheck as Toronto Argonauts' 10th import.

The request for the vote was made Sunday by Roy Robertson, president of the Big Four Football Union, to CRU secretary Harry McBrien. Until the result of the ballot is known, Precheck will be ineligible to play for Argos.

Precheck was obtained from Saskatchewan Roughriders by Argos two days before Argos third game of the season on Labor Day with the deadline for declaring the names of their 10 imports. Argos also wired McBrien on the morning prior to their third game that Precheck was their 10th import but the import rule requires that Precheck's CRU registration card must be in the mail or in the hands of the CRU before the third game.

Argonaut officials said Precheck's eligibility hinges on only a technicality. They said officials of the Saskatchewan club had either lost or mislaid Precheck's CRU card to McBrien before the deadline. Instead they sent it to the Toronto Club and it did not reach the CRU until a couple days past the deadline.

Billy Vessels Through With Grid Game

FT. SILL, Okla. (AP) — Billy Vessels, former University of Oklahoma star halfback, now a lieutenant in the army, said Monday he has no intention of playing professional football with the Baltimore Colts after his army tour.

Don Kellet, president of the Baltimore club, told reporters in Tulsa Saturday Vessels might sign with the Colts after his release from the army.

Vessels said here Monday he talked with Kellet Saturday night. He added:

"I have no intention of playing with Baltimore and I said nothing that would give that impression. (Kellet) the impression I would."

Vessels entered the army last June after playing with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Leafs' Blake Will Start Series

Manager Luke Sewell Monday chose the pitcher who completed the regular season for Toronto this season. Blake finished 13 games while racking up a 13-9 won-lost record.

The Leafs' opponents in the best-of-seven semi-final series are not yet decided.

Indians, Giants Order Series Tickets, Tribe Will Try for Win Record

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Giants today began accepting mail orders for world series tickets.

The Giants lead second - place Brooklyn by 5½ games with 12 to play. The series opens Sept. 29 in the National League park.

Reserved seats cost $7.35 a game, including a five-per-cent New York City tax, and are sold only in blocks of four-one field second sixth and seventh games. Tickets for games not played can be cashed in. The trip of four sells for $29.40 plus $1 for postage and registered mail.

A spokesman for the club said that between 30,000 and 40,000 seats are being offered for public sale with a limit of two sets to a customer.

CLEVELAND (AP) — The winningest team in Cleveland Indian history Monday ordered tickets printed for the world series within groundskeepers at Municipal Stadium tested flagpole lanyards for the American League pennant which is sure to fly there.

Manager Al Lopez, now just three victories from a mathematical clinch, decided to bench three regulars Indians for tonight's game against Washington but still insisted the Tribe will try to break a league record set in 1927 by New York Yankees.

The Yankees won 110 games that year. To tie that mark, the Indians would have to win six of their remaining 18 games.

Varsity Coach Disturbed By Fan Criticism

LAKE COUCHICHING, Ont. (CP)—Bob Masterson, coach of University of Toronto Blues, senior Intercollegiate Football League, says he's disturbed by the attitude of fans as the senior college football particularly those in Toronto.

"People maintain we don't play crowd-pleasing football," he said Monday at the Blues' football training camp here. "Yet most of our boys graduate to the Big Four and they become stars. When they were playing in college football nobody gave them a second look.

"I still think Varsity, because of its multiple offence, plays as good football as it is possible to see in Canada. This year it will be even better."

Toronto fans who have been critical of the lack of punting in the Blues' attack for the last several years are promised by Masterson they'll see plenty this season.

WILL GIVE IT

"In over 5 years of training I've never seen better passing than we've got this year from Bill Stevenson and Don Loney," he said.

"If people want to see passing, we're going to give it to them. Ends like Fred Smale, Don Smith, Ted Lansky and Bill Sutherland have turned out to be first-class receivers."

Masterson blamed the persons who make the rules for hindering the development of Canadian players.

"If they want to develop Canadian players, why don't they raise the player limit from 30 to 35?" he demanded. The CRU raised it from 26 to 28 this year but it is still 28 in the Intercollegiate.

"It's the most asinine thing I ever heard of," he added. "After you've grilled a team for a week, you have to tell four of them every Saturday that they can't play, but when they get a chance to have some fun."

Rain Halts Senior Fray

GALT (CP)—Rain forced postponement of Monday night's scheduled Intercounty senior baseball game between St. Thomas Elgins and Galt Terriers. The game, fifth of the best-of-seven series for the league title, was rescheduled for today.

The series is tied 2-2.

Notre Dame Top Grid Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Just like last fall when Notre Dame squeezed out a close decision over Oklahoma in their opening football battle, the Fighting Irish were voted No. 1 in football football writers in 1954 in the annual pre-season Associated Press pool today.

Oklahoma's Sooners received the largest number of first place votes, 74 to the Notre Dame's 58, but the Irish got 18 more points. On the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc., Notre Dame received 1,149 points and Oklahoma 1,131.

Union Rules Deprive Games Of Music, Color

EDMONTON (CP)—Much of the color of blaring bands and high-stepping majorettes has disappeared from games of the Western Interprovincial Football Union this season, according to Edmonton and Calgary.

Frank Adams, an executive of the Calgary Stampeders Football Club, said Monday band music adds "tempo and is the most distinct in Alberta and some other provinces" but the stick controls of the Canadian Musicians' Union.

Al Anderson, manager of Edmonton Eskimos, said: "It is impossible to get a band to perform at a football game here now."

Anderson said the union proved so difficult to deal with that Eskimos' football games are played at the Winnipeg Stadium, while in Regina the Lions Club boys band provides music.

In Edmonton, Anderson said, the musicians' union can't stage up a good enough band of its own for football games and stands in the way of other bands which have mixed unions and non-union members. This was the case of the reserve RCAF band which used to play at Eskimo games.

Adams said the union won't let its members perform if non-union musicians also are on the football program.

"For example," Adams said, "at Monday night's Edmonton-Calgary game our regular organist will not play as the Calgary Stampeders and "God Save the Queen" because the Elks' boys band is taking part during a half-time show. The organist is a member of the union band but not of the Elks and is not."

He said that even air force, army and navy bands are not allowed t otake part in special performances because they are unable to obtain union permission.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Abe Greene, chairman of the National Baseball Boxing Association, Monday said negotiated bouts between Azua of Cuba to seek to bring Latin American countries into the association. The NBBA executive board also selected Detroit for the 1955 convention and received a bid for Azua to have the 1956 convention held in Cuba.

Willie Mays Nudging Snider For Bat Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays, the hustling New York Giants' outfielder, made a swinging for base hits instead of home runs, is only one point behind Brooklyn's Duke Snider in the competition for the National League batting title.

Mays collected two hits in the Giants' 1-0 victory over the St. Louis Cards Monday to raise his average to .341. Snider and the Dodgers were idle and Duke's mark remained at .342.

Willie has not hit a homer since he walloped No. 39 on Aug. 29 and has only three since July 28, when he threatened Babe Ruth's all-time mark.

Overall, in last week's games, Snider dropped seven points with only five hits in 25 tries. Mays lost a single point with eight safeties in 23 at bats.

In the American League, Bobby Avila, runaway batting champ a front-running Indians, increased his lead with a three-point gain to .360 while the second-place Yankees were slumping.

Minnie Minoso of the Chicago White Sox moved into second place with a four-point climb to .337 while Irv Noren of the New York Yankees fell to third at .335. Minoso had 10 singles this week and Noren only 2-for-16.

Stan Musial of the Cards, seeking the National League batting championship, still is within range at .340 despite a 3-for-23 slump. Despite a three-point loss on his hits in 21 at bats.

Alex Webster, Scoring Leader

TORONTO (CP) — Alex Webster, Montreal Alouettes' back from North Carolina state, is Big Four scoring leader with less than one-third of the season completed.

Statistics compiled by The Canadian Press show the 23-year-old first-year American playing his first full season in Canada, with 20 points on four touchdowns in four games. He is one point up on team-mate Ray Poole, veteran player from New York Giants who has scored all his points on kicking three field goals, 12 converts and a single.

Ted Kluszewski Sets Sights On Homer Records

NEW YORK (AP)—Muscleman Ted Kluszewski of the Cincinnati Redlegs, former Indiana U. grid star, today was making passes at Hack Wilson's National League home run record and if he continues his present slugging he's likely to break the 24-year-old standard.

With the homers in his last 11 games, Kluszewski has pulled to within three games of Wilson's 1930 pace. When Hack hit 56, he walloped his 42th in his 139th game. Kluszewski has 46 in 142 games.

The husky first baseman from Argo, Ill., also can eclipse the National League homer mark for left-handed batsmen. Johnny Mize of the New York Giants set that one with 51 in 1947.

Kluszewski is eight games behind Babe Ruth's record homer rate of 60.

There's No 'Love' In This Tennis Match

SHERBROOKE, Que. (CP)—Tennis player Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke, said Monday night it is high time Rochon sport star Henri Rochon accepted his defeat Sunday in tournament at Ottawa's Rideau Club.

Bedard defeated Rochon 6-1, 6-4 in a semi-final match to end the club's invitation tournament for the Governor General's Cup.

He was commenting on a statement by Rochon that he does not consider he lost the match. Rochon said there were no linesman for the tournament and the matches were on a two-out-of-three basis in sets when they should have been a three-out-of-five series.

In an interview, Bedard challenged Rochon to meet him on the courts in a rematch "instead of attacking me with words."

'Casey' Says Tribe Has Won Pennant Predicts Changes in Yankees in 1955

DETROIT (AP)—Manager Casey Stengel, his once-unbeatable New York Yankees all but dead as far as the American League pennant chase is concerned, spoke out today in an undertaker's dignified tones.

He indicated:

1. He'd be back next year (indirectly).

2. Cleveland Indians have won the pennant.

3. There will be some radical changes in his club in '55.

4. Cleveland will be even stronger next year.

"Maybe this will do us all some good," said the professor, who was seeking his fifth straight World's championship. "There must be an awakening. Like the Yankees of old, we'll do something."

GIVES HINT

That was his hint that he'd be back at the helm next season, although in answer to a direct question, he snapped:

"I won't talk about it because I don't have to. My contract ends this year. I can be fired by my owners. I'm not worrying about that. I'm thinking of the club and what to be done to improve it whether I'm here or not."

Then he went into his plans for next year. They have Yogi Berra at third base and Mickey Mantle in the outfield. He said "the whole league better wake up. This Cleveland team is the best pitching in the league and will be better next year when they bring up that Herb Score from Indianapolis."

That the league is completely unhampered in dreams. Detroit, the fourth-place team whom the Yanks play today, is 39½ games behind Cleveland.

Doug Hepburn Turns Pro Says Editor

TRAIL, B.C. (CP)—Bill Rayner, sports editor of the Trail Times, said in his column Monday that Doug Hepburn, world heavyweight weightlifting champion, has turned a professional contract.

"The strongest man in the world is just another paid performer," Rayner said.

Hepburn is touring interior British Columbia giving exhibitions of weightlifting and other feats of strength with a travelling show.

Rayner quoted Terry Forbes, director of the show, as saying he held a professional contract with Hepburn.

In Vancouver, Harry Brown, national weightlifting chairman for the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada and a personal friend of Hepburn, said he had not heard of the weightlifter turning professional.

"I know he signed a contract to appear with the show—but that was just a guarantee that he would appear. The contract called for his expenses to be paid during the tour and for the show to make a donation to the Doug Hepburn Gymnasium Fund."

Worth Remembering

When Joe hockey was first developed at McGill University in 1879, teams played as many as thirty players at one time. An amusing fact worth remembering!

MARITIMES HIT BY HURRICANE EDNA

A merchant vessel, caught in the gale winds of Hurricane Edna, off the Puerto Rican coast, is shown riding out the storm in this dramatic picture taken from a reconnaissance plane that flew out of San Juan. The season's fifth tropical storm, Edna, confounded weather experts by its erratic movements, moving northward into the maritime provinces before subsiding in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. —Central Press Canadian.

HORSE SENSE BRIDGE

The Kibitzer

To be classed as a national top ranking bridge player may seem big. But let me tell you what has been an open secret. Among those now so rated, only a few are actually classed at the top.

So far reported here, were the results of the first four deals from the open pair finals of the last winter nationals. Shown here right now is deal number five:

At the 36 tables of masters, 15 were in four hearts, nine in five hearts, one in three no trump, all the rest in no trump. All these made their bids with or without overtricks.

Four of the nine who stretched into five hearts over four spades.

Players of lesser ability may not see the fullest possibility of their combined hands, but all of the highest rating should. If not, they should have their points examined.

Close inspection of the results at the 36 tables reveal that 34 are subject to criticism. To be more specific, only the two that reached five spades doubled are free from any objection.

In a contest of ordinary players excuses could be found and accepted. Even in some of the players were considered experts. But alibis are not for the topmost. They should be near perfect.

Re-read the reached contracts reported above. Make a list of what you think went wrong with the players. Compare it with my comments you will read here when next we meet.

Maybe we can agree.

Duchess Finds Vast Differences In Provinces

By JOE MacSWEEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP) — Princess Alexandra danced into the small hours today following an evening of French-Canadian gaiety in which her mother told of her "discovery" of Canada.

The princess, just 17 years old, danced with sparkling eyes with Premier Duplessis, assembled Polish and military officers while some 600 guests at a civic banquet mostly stood and watched with admiration.

DUCHESS SPEAKS

The Duchess of Kent, meanwhile, had retired after delivering a speech in which she said her brief visit to Canada had shown her the tremendous growth and the even more tremendous potentialities of the country.

It was hospitality in a town that Montreal alone knows how to give, climax to a near-week visit here.

In a flower-banked room, accomplished singers melodically told in French and English of the city's history.

The duchess leaves for New York later today while Princess Alexandra returns to the Laurentians for a few days' rest before rejoing her mother in the United States for the sea voyage home.

LIVES IMPRISONED

Replying to a farewell address by P. O. Asselin, representing Mayor Camillien Houde now in hospital, the duchess said:

"I've seen enough to appreciate the tremendous differences which distinguish one province from another.

"Ontario conveyed to me something of the immense industrial possibilities of this enormously rich land . . . to visit the Maritimes afterwards is to go to another country; its forests and rivers, its towns and their tree-lined avenues have a charm and distinction all their own."

LAUNCH RELIEF CAMPAIGN

OTTAWA (CP)—The Unitarian Service Committee of Canada Monday launched a $110,000 campaign to aid war orphans and war victims in Korea, earthquake victims in Greece and the underprivileged of India.

Trenton Wins Esquire Challenge Golf Trophy

Scoring 17½ points on the fourth and final match of the series, the Trenton Golf Club captured the Esquire Challenge trophy on Sunday at the Bay of Quinte Golf and Country Club.

Although the host club took this final match with 23 points, Trenton had compiled a total of 81 points during the four matches to finish ahead of the other three teams. Napanee came in second with 73 followed by Bay of Quinte with 68 and Port Hope bringing up the rear with 66 points.

Ted Parker, captain of the Bay of Quinte team, presided at a post-series luncheon in the club house after which Ben Yanover, donor of the trophy, presented the prizes.

Fred Bentley and Glen Wagar, both of Napanee, won the low gross trophy. Doug Ferguson of Port Hope and Jack Ford of Napanee tied for the low net trophy.

In conjunction with the sweepstakes held on the day's play the following were prize winners:

Fred Bentley of Napanee, first low gross prize. There were ties for second Wagar and Ford of Napanee, and Niddery of Trenton with 80.

Ben Yanover won the first low net with a 68. Lloyd Latin, Roy Ridley, Joey Pidutil, D. Caffield and Norm Magnusson were all tied for second low net.

Little Benny's Note Book

Ma smell the creem slepicious Ma smell the creem slepicious this morning, saying, Goodness, it's sour. Oh my goodness! will have a rude awakening, she said. Which just then pop came down yawning in back of one hand, and ma said, My William, what a brite cheery morning.

I'll be glad to notice it as soon as I've had some coffee, pop said, and ma said, Now William, how can you think of drugs and stimulants when all nature is smiling such a cheerful greeting?

All nature has had a good night's sleep, but that's no excuse for all nature to gloat over me because I woke up feeling like a battered wreck, pop said, and ma said, Oh, you're not a speck more battered than anybody else, I mean nobody springs out of bed like a proverbial lark for last eaters. So why not cheer up at the very thought that the sun is smiling, even if you are not? she said.

Never trust a man who smiles before he has had his coffee, he's a born hippocrit, pop said, and ma said, Well, I hope so, but the sad fact is, the cream is sour, and that's what I've been slowly and patiently leeding up to. Here's some nice fresh milk, and there are people in remote parts of China who would be glad to get it under any circumstances.

I'm sure that makes me just as happy as if I was in a remote part of China, pop said.

Meaning not at all.

Bombers, Stamps Win Western Football Games

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

An attempted lateral and pitch-out proved turning points in two Western Interprovincial Football Union games Monday night.

British Columbia Lions had a 12-10 lead in the fourth quarter until import Neil Ferris tried a lateral from behind his goal line after a wide field goal attempt by Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

Jack Jacobs intercepted the ball and 16,000 Winnipeg fans saw the Bombers win 23-17 over the luckless and winless Lions.

The theme was almost the same in Calgary where the Stampeders trounced Edmonton Eskimos were tied 5-6 until Calgary halfback Glenn Christian grabbed an attempted pitch - out from quarter Jackie Parker to Rollie Miles in the third quarter.

Christian carried to the Edmonton 37 and Howard Waugh went over for the major and the cowboys then rolled to a 20-6 victory in revenge for the 30-11 beating administered by the Eskies Saturday night.

Saskatchewan Roughriders lead the league with 11 points—five wins, one loss and one tie—while Winnipeg is second with nine points. Calgary trails the Bombers by a single point, Edmonton is fourth with four points and B.C. is without a point.

Your Horoscope

BY FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 15, 1954

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Mars, the god favorably situated, planet today, spells action, determination and aggression. But do give careful thought to all activities.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — Your Venus and other planets' aspects now warn against carelessness, being over-confident or reckless. The day is somewhat restricting so self-restraint will be important. Military matters are favored.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — Calmness and good timing stressed in all interests and activities. Astute planning, perhaps conferences, could be helpful. Much can be accomplished in a quiet way.

June 22 to July 22 (Cancer) — Today's aspects urge agreeable co-operation with all. Bickering should be taboo. A fine day for hard work, endurance, bravery.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo) — A challenge to you energetic, oftimes aggressive (but fair) folks today. Just remember to keep your emotions under control, do your best and you will attain some benefits.

August 23 to September 22 (Virgo)—This can be a disappointing period if you fail to realize that results do not always show immediately. You may have to be especially patient now for benefits to materialize.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Similar to Taurus today. Maintain an even balance and team skill with practical experience to smooth out the rough places, at least, give you an even break for your efforts. Your best!

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Your Mars in excellent position. This can be a productive day if you don't procrastinate or force issues, either. Study your schedule and follow common sense rules in everything. You'll win.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Keep within your capacities for accomplishment, don't strain health or disposition and you can make progress. Don't expect the unreasonable; be conscientious, careful handling money.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—If up to par and as industrious as ever, you should keep pace with day's demands. If on vacation, think of health, avoid extremes and be happy.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Capitalize on your talents and abilities for all "brain and brawn" activities probably scheduled now. No need to rush or worry. Properly allocate duties, taking care of essentials first.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces))—"A little with contentment is great gain" may well be your slogan for today. But don't let down if fresh opportunities come your way. Often we gain more by that "extra" try.

YOU BORN TODAY are steadfast, courageous, devoted to family, good friends; will do a thorough job in whatever is your duty. You have an analytical, intuitive mind; are usually just, sympathetic, kindly. Virgoans are noted for their skill and talent; could succeed especially at designing, decorating, millinery, dressmaking; or on the stage, in journalism, as critic. You may have unusual mechanical ability; enjoy engineering also helping others to a better life. Correct any tendency too worry needlessly. Take recreational periods and mingle with interesting people for your own benefit. Birthdate: Wm. H. Taft, 27th U.S. pres.; Jas. Fenimore Cooper, Amer. novelist; Albrecht Waldstein, Bohemian General.

LAYING PIPELINE

Men and machines begin the difficult engineering job of laying a natural-gas pipeline under the swift-flowing Niagara River. Trans-Canada Pipe Lines' 30-inch pipe will link the Tennessee Gas Transmission facilities in New York state with Toronto's gas-distribution system. This view from the river's New York side shows how the 2,100-foot crossing was made. Toronto will be supplied with United States natural gas until the pipeline from Alberta is completed in 1956. # Questions Merit Of Progressive Education Method

TORONTO (CP) — Dr. Gerard Brakenridge Strathy, chancellor of Trinity College, in his inaugural speech Monday night, questioned the merits of "progressive education."

"We are spending immense sums in Canada for education, I don't know of any better way of spending public funds than in the provision of a sound education for the citizens of this country.

"But, are they getting a sound education?" questioned Dr. Strathy.

"Is it pure coincidence that the rise of youthful vandalism in Ontario has kept pace with the rise of progressive education, and that the vandals wreak some of their worst excesses on the fine schools which are provided for their welfare and pleasure?"

He said traditional education had weaknesses but it produced a multitude of men and women of culture and intellect who would be able to lead happy and contented lives if television, radio, movies and comic strips were all abolished.

Representatives of state, church and academic life joined in the installation ceremony, including Lieutenant Governor Louis Breithaupt of Ontario and President Sidney Smith of the University of Toronto.

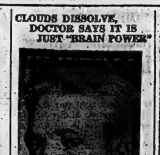
CLOUDS DISSOLVE, DOCTOR SAYS IT IS JUST "BRAIN POWER"



Before 50 residents of Orillia, Ont., Dr. Ralph Alexander, New Zealand physician and author, demonstrated what he calls his "constructive realism." It consisted on concentrating hard on a cloud in the sky. The cloud dissolved while others around it maintained their shapes. He repeated his demonstration three times, leaving his spectators puzzled but not completely convinced that, as Dr. Alexander says, the human brain has power over inanimate matter. — Central Press Canadian.

Nationalists Still Bombard Red-Held Bases

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Nationalist China's air force and navy today bombarded the Red-held mainland opposite Formosa for the 12th straight day, the defence minister announced.

A special communique said three Communist frog men attempted to land on the north coast of Quemoy but were driven off by an alert sentry.

Quemoy, about seven miles off the big Red base of Amoy, has been the centre of a "vest pocket war" between the Communists and Nationalists since Sept. 3, when Red guns on the mainland shelled the island outpost for five hours.

The defence ministry said that again Nationalist planes and ships encountered no Red opposition. So far the Communists' air force and navy have made no appearance in the battle.

Throughout Monday only 10 Communist shells were fired at Quemoy and neighboring Little Quemoy, the defence minister added. There was speculation here that the big Communist bombardment of Sept. 3 might have been a smoke screen for operations elsewhere. The interior minister's Taipo news agency, which claims extensive mainland contacts, said 300,000 Chinese Communist "volunteers" are massing on the southern border of Thailand and Burma.

C.N.R. Station Agent Held Up at Gunpoint

BRADFORD (CP) — One man called "Tex" and another with a drawl tied up a Canadian National Railways station agent at gunpoint early today and escaped with $27, in cash and $4,000 in blank money orders.

Grant Dawson, 25, of Aurora, told police two men rapped on the door as he was closing at 2 a. m. and asked to wire some money to Buffalo. They told him their car had broken down and they required extra cash for repairs.

When Dawson let them in, one man drew a gun. The two men tied the agent's hands and forced him to give them the safe combination.

When they couldn't open the safe, they untied Dawson and made him open it. Then they retied him.

One man drawled: "Let's go Tex," and they made their escape in a 1940-model truck. Police who spotted the truck leaving this town 40 miles north of Toronto, lost it in the darkness and rain.

Ice Cream King Sees Industry Facing Threat

OTTAWA (CP) — North America's ice cream king said today the industry is being threatened by substitute products but declared the integrity of the ice cream cone will be preserved at all costs.

Bert Sweeting of Washington, president of the International Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers, said gatherings both in Canada and the United States "will have no quarter with the blending of fats, or to be blunt about it, adulteration."

The statements were made in the text of a speech issued before delivery.

SERIOUS CONCERN

Mr. Sweeting, who represents manufacturers in both countries, told the National Dairy Council products made of vegetable oils, at reduced prices, must be a matter of "serious concern" to all ice cream producers.

The American industry had taken safeguards to make sure frozen desserts made of vegetable fats are designated as imitation ice cream. The product must be labelled with the fat it contains and it cannot be dispensed by restaurants in milk shakes, milk drinks, sodas or sundaes.

Dairy research workers in Canada and the U. S. were seeking ways of making speedy, simple tests for adulteration which would be acceptable to the courts.

It was too early to predict what impact the substitute products will have on ice cream sales, but indications were that inroads have been made.

Manufacturers had to do everything possible to find new sales outlets, Courtaid marketing shifts "are going to tax our ingenuity if we are to keep ahead of competitive products."

"One of the real challenges of the industry is to develop off-season sales programs which will help keep our production and sales up."

HOPEFUL FUTURE

To do this, said Mr. Sweeting, ice cream manufacturers should join hands with the bakers, cookie manufacturers and other distributors of foods which are perfect companions for ice cream.

"The history of the industry gives us, for the most part, a sense of hopeful opportunity—an outlook of optimism tempered with a desire to outsmart and outsell our competition wherever we find it."

Police Holding Material Witness In Shooting

ILE BIGRAS, Que. (CP)—Police said Monday night they are holding a 41-year-old Montrealer as a material witness in the dramatic shooting of 37-year-old Mrs. Dorothy Wallace on the doorstep of her home in this town, 13 miles northwest of Montreal.

Police identified the man as Lawrence Craig, released Monday from a Montreal veterans' hospital.

The woman died after being shot through the heart by a bullet from a carbine earlier in the night before the horrified eyes of her husband and three-year-old son. She was shot as she opened the front door of her home to answer the doorbell.

Police said Mr. Wallace told them he grappled with the gunman after the shot fell on the floor. He managed to wrest the rifle away from the assailant and threw it out an open window. Three more shots were fired during the scuffle, police said.

BROKE AWAY

Wallace said the gunman broke away and fled from the house in a car. Police said the vehicle was later traced to Montreal.

Police said Craig was arrested in nearby Ste. Rose shortly after the shooting after a car he was driving collided with another automobile.

They said he was found in possession of several .32-30-calibre bullets, the same type as were fired from the carbine at the Wallace home.

Police said he had been in touch with the Wallaces in an attempt to see his 17-year-old daughter, Helen, who boarded with the family. The girl was a ward of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and Craig was forbidden to see her by order of a juvenile court judge, police added.

COW SEARCH FATAL

SMITHFIELD, R. I. (AP)—Edward A. McCaughey, 57-year-old dairy farmer, was electrocuted while searching for stray cows Monday night when he climbed through a wire pasture fence charged by a hurricane - felled power line. A 2,500-volt charge killed him.

Support Prices Tend to Defeat Own Purposes

OTTAWA (CP) — High government support prices maintained for the farmers' benefit tend to defeat their own purposes, Dr. Leland Spencer of Cornell University said Monday.

He spoke at the opening of the National Dairy Council annual meeting where a controversy broke out over the value of price supports.

J. J. Creighton, council president, described government buying and selling of butter as "creeping socialism," creating "a dangerous illusion of security."

Countering the view of the dairy manufacturers and distributors was that of Gordon Loveridge, vice-president of the Dairy Farmers of Canada, who maintained that floor prices prevent agricultural disaster, cushioning the violent effects of the laws of supply and demand.

LIKE RED FLAG

Asking producers to accept a lower floor price on butter would be "like waving a red flag to a bull," he said. The government now maintains the butter floor price at 58 cents a pound wholesale.

Dr. Spencer, professor of marketing at Cornell, said that prices higher than the prevailing competitive level reduce milk consumption and stimulate production "thus creating burdensome surpluses."

He said that this has been finally realized by the U.S. Congress which agreed with President Eisenhower and U.S. Agriculture Secretary Benson to reduce American dairy price supports.

BETTER SALES

A reduction in the floor price promptly brought about increased sales, he said. On the whole, butter is an "outstanding example" of a product that has been priced out of the market.

Efficiency is required to keep the retail price of fluid milk sufficiently low so that consumers can buy liberal quantities of it, Dr. Spencer added.

"The steadily rising trend of wages, together with fewer hours of work per week, makes it especially important to introduce labor-saving practices," he said.

LIONS WORK SAME PAY

SEATTLE (AP)—A 30-hour work week at the present 40-hour pay scale was endorsed Monday at the national convention of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers. The AFL union voted for adoption of the plank by the American Federation of Labor at its convention in Los Angeles next week.

SEE TEA HIGHER

LONDON (Reuters) — British housewives were told Monday that tea—one of their most precious commodities—will probably go up in price before the end of the month. Leading London tea distributors said the rise would be about 10 cents a pound, bringing the new levels up to 86 cents a pound.

Immigrant Had Perfect Alibi

OTTAWA (CP)—Antonino Scebba, 39-year-old Italian immigrant, returned to his plasterer's job Monday after being cleared of suspicion of murder.

Scebba, arrested by RCMP here Aug. 17, was freed Saturday in Joliette, Que., where he faced extradition proceedings aimed at deporting him to Italy to face charges in the slaying of Giuliano and Franchica Luigi in March, 1952.

Evidence in the Joliette court showed Scebba had a perfect alibi. He was in the office of a doctor in Catania, Italy, getting his x-rays taken for his trip to Canada, when the Luigis were shot in Gigliotto, 60 miles away.

Valdmanis Pleads Guilty To Fraud; Sentenced Friday

Admits Getting $200,000 From Newfoundland Govt.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Dr. Alfred A. Valdmanis today pleaded guilty to a charge of defrauding the Newfoundland government of $200,000 and he will be sentenced Friday.

A second charge involving $270,000 was deferred when the 47-year-old former director general of economic development made his surprise appearance in Supreme Court today before Chief Justice Sir Albert Walsh.

Scheduled to appear next Tuesday, Valdmanis, who appeared tense and nervous, was taken into the cells of the Supreme court chambers in a surprise move.

Defence lawyer Gordon Higgins, who entered a strong clemency plea said he understood the federal revenue department may take criminal action against Valdmanis.

HELD 5 MONTHS

Valdmanis was arrested April 22 in St. Andrews, N.B., on a warrant charging extortion. A few days later he was officially charged with defrauding the Newfoundland government of $150,000 and since then the figure has been upped to $470,000.

This was followed May 1 with an additional charge of defrauding a German machine company of $270,000. Another charge that the alleged fraud was committed between August 1, 1949 and October 1951 while the company, Betrieb Gesellschaft of Brunswick had a contract for construction of a fish chinery for a cement plant at Humbermouth on the province's west coast.

Valdmanis stood in the one-hour session today often blinking and swallowing hard. Although he shed tears on an earlier occasion when the emotional industrialist kept his eyes dry for this appearance.

Higgins said that because his client had gained his Canadian citizenship only a month before his April 23 arrest, he may possibly be deported if the federal revenue department takes criminal action against him.

Valdmanis, 47, was finance minister in his native Latvia at 29.

PREMIER'S TOP AIDE

Premier Smallwood hired Valdmanis after Newfoundland joined Canada in 1949. Pulp and paper and fishing were the island's chief industries then and the premier announced he planned to industrialize the province. Valdmanis was his right-hand man in this program, with wife authority and answerable only to the premier.

A cement plant and gypsum mill, reached completion during 1953 at mans' 2½ years as development boss. Several of the new industries now in production were being planned.

Before construction was carried out, Valdmanis was promoted early in 1953 to chairman of the Newfoundland and Labrador Corporation, a crown - controlled company established shortly after confederation to explore the island's mineral wealth. He got a $5,000 yearly bonus.

FIRED THIS YEAR

Then, early this year, Valdmanis was fired by premier Smallwood and replaced as economic development director by Newfoundlander Geoffrey Puddle, former editor of Time magazine. The NALCO post is still vacant.

Mr. Smallwood announced Valdmanis' arrest a few hours after the Latvian was taken into custody April 22. The premier said the charge against his former employee and described it as "the most unpleasant duty I have ever had to perform."

Valdmanis succeeded in getting the money, said the premier, by convincing the companies "that they would never receive the contract until they had paid him this large sum of money."

DOCTOR ORDERS REST AND QUIET FOR MARILYN

Many Arrangements Have Been Cancelled

TORONTO (CP)—Rest and quiet have been ordered for Marilyn Bell, 16-year-old school girl who swam across Lake Ontario last week.

On the advice of Dr. Richard C. Hughes, Bell family physician, she will be kept "under wraps" for the next few days, one of her advisers said.

Another adviser found Marilyn physically fit in an examination Tuesday night but "slightly confused" about the day she has been under. She will take another examination later this week.

Mrs. Bell said that all but two appointments for today have been cancelled. Marilyn will visit a drug concern show and will later be interviewed at a radio station.

"We have scheduled only those two appearances for today and I'll be summoning the doctor as soon as she will have," said an adviser.

The only break Tuesday came when Bell was fined $10 and costs or ten days in the jail for driving lesson in the car with which she swam the lake.

"I almost ran into a truck," she said when she returned to her hotel room.

"I seemed to be behind trucks the entire way and I don't think I have been awful if I had crashed! But it was real fun."

Another sweetheart of Canada from a few years back, Barbara Ann Scott, never liked fame but she had a few tips to offer her.

REMEMBERS CROWDS

In a letter to Canada published in The Telegram, Barbara Ann said she remembers when she became a world champion figure skater and the welcomes and the crowds that went with that title.

"But I also remember that all I wanted to do was to finish a figure economically and well — and I wasn't able to," said Barbara Ann.

"You have to decide what to do. You have to realize that from now on—and particularly if you have full-time professional as I did — you won't have much time to yourself."

Writing from Chicago where she is a theatre star, Miss Scott reviews Miss Scott warned of the drawbacks of the professional career as well as a travelling, little free time and also few dates.

"But you're sixteen. If you won't have a home of your own one day, you will have to make up your mind now and work for it."

RED CHINESE CALL-UP

HONG KONG (Reuters) — Communist China will call up 450,000 men to the forces between October Nov. 1 and Dec. 28, 1955, the New China news agency reported today.

Captives of Reds 18 Months, Three Americans Are Freed

HONG KONG (AP)—Two American war correspondents and a ship captain, in Communist captivity for 18 months, came back to day through the bamboo curtain to the freedom of British Hong Kong.

All three—Richard Applegate, 37, year-old radio and news correspondent from Medford, Ore., International News Service correspondent Donald Dixon of New York, and Capt. Benjamin Krashner of Brooklyn—smiled and at times laughed almost hysterically as they were greeted by scores of reporters and photographers at Kowloon, on the mainland across from Hong Kong island.

Applegate, in his usual bantering manner, shouted, "Well, for the newsmen make the news today," as he stepped from the United States consulate car which met the trio at the border and brought them the intervening 40 miles to Kowloon.

All three were thin and bearded. Dixon, 25, seemed in good shape.

The Reds captured the three May 21, 1953, while they were sailing Applegate's 42-foot yawl to the Portuguese colony of Macao. The Chinese finally admitted during the Geneva conference talks that were holding the trio, but they were not released until after Premier Chou En-lai, former British prime minister, during his recent visit to Peiping, made an appeal from Applegate's mother.

Peiping radio announced last Sunday they were being deported and the yacht confiscated. It said the three had admitted "the crime of intrusion into China's territorial waters."

Krashner's Chinese fiancee, Wang Ying, and two Chinese boat crewmen were captured along with them. The sea captain today said he had not seen the three Chinese for any time during his captivity and does not know now where they are.

Both Krashner and Applegate said they did not know they were being released until Tuesday night.

Krashner said he was questioned dozens of times and repeatedly asked to admit various crimes, but never was given a written confession. He said he gave no sign confessions in Chinese, but was not told what he signed.

He added that his food was plentiful but consisted mostly of rice. The three said that after their capture they saw each other only about July when they were brought together for a brief period to have their photos taken. They were told they would withhold some facts about their imprisonment because "it would help others (their Chinese companions) still in Communist hands."

Atomic Expert Resigns Post, Says Bomb Stock Adequate

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

DENVER (AP)—Dr. Henry D. Smyth resigned today from the United States atomic energy commission, and declared the American stockpile of hydrogen and atomic bombs assures realization of "overwhelming power" against any enemy attack.

President Eisenhower "very reluctantly" accepted the resignation of Smyth, who was the only dissenting vote last June when the commission refused to lift Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer's suspension from access to secret atomic data.

The summer White House also announced that Eisenhower is naming Willard Frank Libby, 45-year - old University of California atomic scientist, to succeed Smyth on the AEC.

Smyth, 56, only current member of the five-man AEC with a scientific background, left the decision to President Truman appointed him May 31, 1949, to a term expiring June 30, 1956.

He plans to return to Princeton University where he was chairman of the physics department and on the faculty from 1934 to 1949.

Smyth's letter to the president made no mention of his dissent in the Oppenheimer case, nor has he ruled a security risk by the other four AEC members. Nor did Smyth say anything about differences with Lewis L. Strauss, commission chairman.

Smyth's letter to the president disclosed that he told Strauss last June that he intended to quit the commission at the fall.

Smyth, however, believes that work on the hydrogen bomb, "of such doubtful feasibility" in 1946, "has been carried through many difficulties in the intervening years to successful accomplishment in the Pacific tests of 1954."

The mutual destruction possible to all nations through modern atomic weapons gives an argument "in favor of peace" throughout everywhere who seek to build peace."

Last June Smyth testified that while he, like Oppenheimer, was opposed going ahead with the H-bomb in 1949 when the matter was referred to Truman, his changed mind and he favored the project before Truman ordered work started on it.

Supreme Court Will Be Asked To Decide

TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario government will ask the Supreme Court of Canada to decide whether an Ontario magistrate has power to confirm an order for compensation for a dependent made by a court in another province or country having a reciprocal agreement with Ontario.

The right to appeal a recent ruling of the Ontario Appeal Court was granted Tuesday after application by deputy attorney-general W. Magone on behalf of Attorney-General Porter.

Last June the Ontario Appeal Court reversed the reciprocal-agreement ruling by Chief Justice J. C. McRuer and said a provincial court has no power "to surrender the civil rights of a person within Ontario to a foreign jurisdiction."

Chief Justice McRuer had ruled in connection with a case being heard by magistrate R. H. Carter-Harris. The wife of John Lewis Scott had obtained a provisional order in Ontario against her husband, shillings a week for her maintenance and 30 shillings a week for support of each of their two children.

Counsel for Scott claimed the magistrate did not have the jurisdiction to take proceedings and later appealed.

OTTAWA (CP) — The Queen Mother will visit Ottawa between Nov. 12 and Nov. 17 as the guest of Governor-General Massey after a visit to the United States. An official announcement of the details of her stay is anticipated. She is expected to reach New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth Oct. 26.

Brain Damaged Before Heart Action Restored

KITCHENER (CP)—A coroner's jury was told Tuesday an attempt to save a 3½-year-old boy's life by massaging his heart after it had stopped beating when a tumor in his brain was damaged before heart action could be restored.

Dr. Ernest Lang into the death of Brian Schnarr, who suffered a fractured skull when struck by a car as the boy ran across the road Sept. 27 after hearing six witnesses.

Dr. Lang told the jury that after he had performed an operation to set a bone near the boy's eye, he felt the boy's heart and found it had stopped.

While x-ray pictures were being taken after the operation, it was noticed the boy's skin had a bluish tinge. Dr. Bean said oxygen failed to reach the boy, so he massaged his heart.

He said the boy's heart started to beat normally within 20 minutes. Breathing began about six hours later. The jury was told death was caused by a blood clot.

Oxygen supply during the period when the heart was stopped.

Dr. Bean said two x-ray pictures taken immediately after the operation failed to turn out, and it was while the third was being taken the boy's condition was noticed.

Dr. David Whaley, the boy's doctor, assisted at the operation, and Dr. C. W. Carr acted as anaesthetist.

CONSUMERS ASK REPRESENTATION ON MILK BOARD

Do Not Feel Interests Being Looked After

OTTAWA (CP)—The president of the Canadian Association of Consumers today urged the dairy industry to join in demanding consumer representation on provincial milk boards.

Mrs. H. E. Vaulelet of Montreal told the National Dairy Council there is a suspicion that too often these boards function as instruments of the dairy industry. Getting consumer representation would help overcome this.

"Various blockading tactics and arbitrary decisions made without public hearings indulged in by some provincial milk boards have done nothing to make the consumer feel that his interests are well represented without his presence," she said.

WILL CO-OPERATE

"Why should only those interested in getting the best price for their goods have representation on such government-created and influenced commissions?"

The statements were contained in the text of the briefs issued in advance of delivery.

The consumers association, said Mrs. Vaulelet, will co-operate with dairy manufacturers and distributors in getting consumers to buy more dairy products, but in return the association would like "more of your cards on the table."

It would like "less effort to fight consumer groups and more great evidence of your readiness to pioneer, to educate to give more credit to yourselves and consumers. Adequate representation on milk boards might assure us on these points."

SKIM MILK

Mrs. Vaulelet suggested the industry might sell more skim milk to low-income families if prices were reduced. She quoted two main complaints that skim milk, with 3.4 per cent butterfat removed, was not good value for five cents less than whole milk.

Some housewives thought more milk should be delivered in paper containers. But if the bottle was the only thing to get them to please, we would like caps on them that cover the pouring edge," she said.

"We like our milkmen, but are not sure that our containers are sterile. And a couple of garbage-fed flies greeting you in the lip of your milk container does not promote that 'health through milk' feeling."

Mrs. Vaulelet said the consumers association never fought for more profit, but it did fight for consumer freedom to buy an adequate food. It fought against any idea that anybody has the right to protection at the expense of everybody.

Play Acclaimed

TORONTO (CP) — Robertson Davies, Canadian playwright, drew audience acclaim Tuesday night for the clever mixture of politics and drama in the premiere of his new comedy "A Jig for a Gypsy" at the Crest Theatre.

The play, a spoof on politicians who seek the aid of fortune tellers on election stars Canadian actress Pamela Brown in the role of a comic triumph in "The Taming of the Shrew" at the Stratford Shakespearian Festival.

Discovery May Give More Practical Means of Fighting Rheumatic Fever

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Possible discovery of a long - sought link between the common cold and rheumatic fever was reported today by Dr. Thomas Francis and Dr. Theodore Robertson of New York.

Some other doctors, commenting on the report, said that if the link is definitely established, there is a possibility of a practical means of medical chemical means of fighting rheumatic fever than now is available.

Rheumatic fever frequently leads to rheumatic heart disease, and is the three most important forms of heart disease, affecting approximately 1,000,000 Americans under 50.

For 20 years, science has known that attacks of rheumatic fever a almost always preceded by certain types of streptococcal infection. Dr. Robertson told the two second world congress of cardiology the link between the two diseases may consist of a chemical enzyme produced by the "strep" germs.

The enzyme was named streptokinase, says Dr. Sr. D. D. Elliott of the Rockefeller Institute. Fellow research workers made practical preparations of it into experimental animals and found significant damage was produced in the muscles and valves of the heart by streptokinase, but no allergic reaction.

Some scientists at today's meeting said in interviews that if the new enzyme described by the New York doctors proves to be the missing link, this might eventually be possible.

Development of a chemical blocking agent having specific action against the enzyme. Such a blocking agent conceivably could be given to a person after he has come down with a "strep" infection — to prevent the enzyme from getting in its bad effects.

Eden Confident France Will Agree To Defence Plan

Paris Final Stop on Tour To 'Sell' British Proposal

By CARL HARTMAN

PARIS (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden declared today he is confident he and French Premier Pierre Mendes-France will find a solution to the problems of European defence.

Eden made his statement on arrival at Le Bourget airfield here by RAF transport plane from Rome. Paris is the final stop of his whirlwind tour of Western European capitals to seek a substitute for the defeated European Army plan.

BRIEFING STATEMENT

The British foreign secretary read a brief prepared statement and refused to answer further questions.

Asked if all the countries he had visited were agreed on the entrance of West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, Eden replied:

"I think that what I have said is enough."

He said he had found agreement everywhere and that he expected he would find agreement in France, too. He recalled that he and Mendes-France had met on other difficult problems together, apparently referring to their co-operation at the Geneva conference where an armistice was made to end the fighting in Indo-China.

Since his departure from London Saturday, Eden has been busily peaceful support for his plan from leaders of West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

FACT UNDER NATO

As a replacement for EDC's one-uniform, step-over European army, Britain proposes to link a rearmed West Germany and Italy to the Brussels mutual defence pact signed in 1948 by Britain, France and the three Benelux countries.

The expanded alliance presumably would operate under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Britain has given over her military phases of the Brussels pact. But big problem appears to be whether France, whose Parliament voted more than two years ago to go against rearming Germany into NATO, now will accept such an arrangement.

French officials think their premier will agree to West German membership in NATO if he gets certain pledges from Britain and the United States, as well as from the Germans. With many Frenchmen fearful that an independent West German army might try to get East Germany back from the Reds by force, Mendes-France is said to want promises from the U. S. and Britain to keep their forces in Germany to bar German manufacture of major weapons such as jet planes, atomic arms and bigger guns; back a system of manpower ceilings that would hold the German forces to something like the French level.

Whether such guarantees will satisfy the French Parliament is something nobody can predict.

KEEP OWN FORCES

The present Brussels treaty provides that any attack on Germany be met as an attack on all. British plans for its expansion are designed to allay the fear Germany to retain its own national forces, rather than British keeping under a supra-national organization. Mendes-France may insist on this.

'Went Over Hill' Because Head Was Hairless

CATTERICK, Eng. (AP)—Pte. William H. McIntyre, hairless at 18, Tuesday told a court-martial he ran away from the British army because other soldiers called him "Old Baldy."

McIntyre had official permission to wear a paratrooper's beret until he could get a wig. But he said non-coms who did not know this were constantly forcing him to bare his nude skull.

The unhappy private, who gave himself up after four months, pleaded guilty to being absent without leave.

He was sentenced to five days in the guardhouse.

Montreal Bids Official Adieu To Duchess

MONTREAL (CP)—It was a simple goodbye ceremony Tuesday at Canada's biggest city bade official adieu to the Duchess of Kent and her daughter, Princess Alexandra.

The duchess, relaxed and wearing a white full-length coat, boarded an RCAF plane for New York for a private visit, after which she will go to Britain to attend the liner Queen Mary.

The 17-year-old princess, meanwhile, stays in Quebec province for a two-day visit in the scenic Laurentians, after which she will rejoin her mother in New York. Tuesday, she entered the aircraft at the airport modest to say goodbye and then alighted as the big C-5, which has made a record round-trip flight by Prime Minister St. Laurent, was made ready for flight.

British plan also would permit the extension to West Germany of NATO's joint international planning, training and supply programs.

After his meetings with Mendes-France, Eden will outline the results of all his negotiations in a special meeting of the 14-power NATO council.

Sources in London said that if Mendes-France accepts the British-backed plan, Britain then will intends to call a conference by London around the end of the month to put the finishing touches on the new alliance. It would be attended, it is said, by representatives of allies, plus the U. S. and Canada.

This would be followed by a conference of all 15 countries to settle up any loose ends and formally approve West Germany's entry.

Kiwanians Honor Key Club At Weekly Luncheon

Belleville Kiwanis honored the Key club at their weekly luncheon held in the club centre yesterday.

Highlight of the luncheon was a report on the Key Club International convention, held in Philadelphia, June 30 to July 3, by Key Club president, John Fuke, 16-year-old student at the Belleville Collegiate.

Most thrilling part of the four-day convention for John was to find youths of his own age conducting a convention "like the professionals." Letters from Prime Minister St. Laurent, marking Dominion Day, and from President Eisenhower on Independence Day, were read to the delegates," he said.

Following his address an award from Key Club International was presented to the Belleville club for remarkable activities. Presented by former International trustee of the Key Club, Don Rose. It was the first award received by the Belleville club from the International organization.

At yesterday's luncheon Don Rose was inducted into the Kiwanis club. Introduced by Ted Schwab, he was inducted by Lt.-Governor made by the Lt.-Governor of 3 Kiwanis Inter-divisional meeting of clubs from Canada and the U.S. scheduled for Kingston, September 20.

Double Salaries Paid Union Heads

NEW YORK (AP)—Union officials got double salaries of up to $30,000 a year, free automobiles, cash "gifts" and paid annuities out of the union welfare funds, a state investigation was told Tuesday.

Witnesses at public hearings being conducted by the New York state department of insurance also told of misuse and rule of welfare funds.

Records were introduced showing that in some cases administrative expenses, mostly salaries of fund officials, took more than half of annual contributions to the funds.

Obituary

WILLIAM DELBERT REID

Suffering a heart attack in his home at Crookston, on Saturday, William Delbert Reid was found dead by neighbors on Tuesday afternoon.

The late Mr. Reid was born at Shannonville, 52 years ago, being the son of Mrs. Luke Murphy. He has resided at Crookston for the past seven years and previously resided at Shannonville.

He was an adherent of the United Church and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Luke Murphy, one sister Mrs. Clifford (Pearl) Hewitt of Watertown, New York, and one nephew Gordon Hewitt also of Watertown. His wife, the former Utah Miller, died in 1950.

Resting at the Belleville Burial Company Funeral Home. The funeral announcement is made elsewhere in this edition.

MRS. WILLIAM WESLEY EDISON

The funeral of Mrs. Grace Edison was held from the Grant Funeral Home, North Front Street, on Tuesday afternoon. The service in the chapel was conducted by Rev. Ray Rowley of Bridge Street United Church. Mr. Rowley also conducted the committal rites in Belleville Cemetery.

The bearers were Robert Miles, Harry Rollins, George Westlake, William Martin, George and Leslie Jenkinson.

Coleman Street Work Will Be Started Soon

Tenders for changing the contour of the pavement on Coleman Street so water will run off instead of lying in puddles to drench pedestrians after each rain, will be called in the near future, according to Public Works Chairman Alderman Bruce Morton.

Alderman Reid inquired at council Tuesday evening just when the work would be started. He claimed that residents in the area were anxious for it to be done as soon as possible.

Alderman Smith said specifications for the work would soon be completed by the engineering department and tenders would then be called.

The puddles on Coleman Street have been a constant annoyance to residents in the area for several years. The condition became worse when the sidewalk curb was removed to widen the street and this left a depression in which water collected following each rain. The passing motor cars sprayed the water over the sidewalk resulting in soiled clothing for pedestrians.

Fate of Firehall On Front Street In Abeyance

The city property committee will bring in another recommendation as to what in their opinion should be done with the old firehall on Front Street.

Just prior to the summer recess city councillors voted not to sell the firehall property, but the link in the recommendation was hardly dry when a large portion of the rear wall of the old firehall fell into the river.

Danger signs were erected and tenders were called for the demolition of the old hall.

Last night at council Alderman D. Tice, chairman of the city property committee noted the tenders were ready to be opened. But the question was again raised if it might not be good business to sell the property in view of the fact that it should be torn down.

Accordingly the committee will

Council Sells Property On Solicitor's Advice

Last night Mr. C. R. Walles told council that he had not intentionally tried to contravene the present city zoning by-law.

He had sub-divided his lot before the final passing of the zoning by-law and claimed that prior to the passing of the by-law a house could be constructed once lot area of less than 4,000 feet. He noted that the city building inspector had interpreted the by-law in this way and had granted him the permit for his second house.

However, to bring his lot area up to the minimum of 4,000 feet he had offered to purchase the 14 feet from the adjoining corner lot, which the city had been unable to sell because of high local improvements.

At a special meeting during the summer the property committee had recommended the sale of the 14 feet to Mr. Walles, the recommendation was approved by council that afternoon. The service in the chapel was conducted by Rev. Ray Rowley of Bridge Street United Church. Mr. Rowley also conducted the committal rites in Belleville Cemetery.

The bearers were Robert Miles, Harry Rollins, George Westlake, William Martin, George and Leslie Jenkinson.

Both Alderman Keegan as chairman of planning and Alderman Tice as chairman of property spoke in support of property sale to Mr. Walles being finalized.

City Solicitor Pringle strongly advised the sale of the property to Mr. Walles. "Otherwise", he said, "the city might be liable for damages in any action which Mr. Walles might bring against the corporation." He said the private action before the courts would not be in any way affect council.

The sale of 14 feet of city property in the Parkwood Heights area to C. R. Walles to give a lot owned by Mr. Walles the necessary area to build a house as required under the new zoning by-law, took up most of the time at Tuesday night's adjourned meeting of council.

After a prolonged discussion during which spirited arguments was heard both from council members and from the parties directly interested, councillors sold the 14 feet to Mr. Walles.

The sale was approved on the advice of city solicitor R. A. Pringle, who said that selling the property to Mr. Walles was the simple way for the city to "get off the hook".

A private court action brought against Mr. Walles for contravention of the city building by-law is presently before the courts and the matter is caused concern of several councillors who wanted the matter laid over until the court action was completed.

The background of events leading up to the sale of the 14 feet of property extends back many months when Mr. Walles purchased a lot on Bertram Ward and proceeded to build.

He built the house on the north end of his property, then subdivided the lot and started construction of a second residence. It was then that S. Sillitoe, owner of the adjoining property, brought court action, claiming that the lot on which Mr. Walles was building did not have the required 4,000 feet. The court action has been adjourned several times and has still not been heard.

Members Accept One Motion, Defeat Another

Two amendments to the city council procedure by-law which were turned back for re-drafting at Monday night's meeting, met with 50 per cent success at last night's adjourned conclave of city fathers.

According to one recommendation which saw approval of councillors, members of city hall will be required to be on the job during the hours city hall is open for business and must receive permission of the comptroller to leave their posts if they wish to engage in any occupation outside of city hall.

bringing in still another recommendation on what to do with the old firehall.

business they must secure permission in writing. Three aldermen voted-against the recommendation.

But another motion turned down a recommendation, which if passed would have ruled out the corporation doing business with a limited company if a shareholder in the company owned or controlled more than 20 per cent of the shares and was a member of city council.

Hip Pierced By Ornament On Car Door

Dean Lavender, 13-year-old Marmora boy was seriously injured late Tuesday afternoon when his hip was pierced by a door ornament on a 1951 model car as he ran into the auto while riding his bicycle.

The lad was treated at the office of Dr. R. C. Shatford and was later taken home.

The accident occurred shortly before five o'clock as Charles W. McMichael, 73 Lingham street, Belleville, an employee of Bethlehem Steel at Marmora, was driving on Mary street in Marmora. As McMichael drove past the lad's home the boy rode his bicycle out of the driveway and into the side of the car. The ornament on the door of the car passed through the fleshy part of the left thigh.

Chief Charles Lockwood who investigated said that no blame was attached to the driver of the car.

Large Bear Stalks Into Village Hunting Food

MARMORA — A large bear stalked the north section of Marmora village on Sunday evening close to the midnight hour. Years ago another bear covered the same district time was partially in search of pork. But this time no one knows what lured this daring one. It was first seen by Mr. and Mrs. William Bishop, neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Orville McGarvey's residence, McGill St. There was no rifle suitable at hand for the tying of conclusions with Bruin and the half dozen witnesses of so were generally content to watch a small dog successfully send it on. About a half hour later, a local bus driver returning from a local plant with the empty bus to put it away for the evening, saw what was apparently the same bear near Harold Doyle's residence on North Hastings Ave., being sent off the village's limits by three barking dogs.

Decision on Keeping Liquor For Sale Charge Reserved

TRENTON (Special)—Magistrate T. Y. Wills will decide by September 22 whether Albert Beckwith of Trenton is guilty of keeping liquor for sale at his premises at 109 Crown street, Trenton.

Beckwith was charged following a midnight vigil by Sgt. Gordon Steenburg, who watched two cars and a taxi visit the accused man's residence from behind a clump of lilac bushes on the opposite side of the street. The Trenton police officer said that he and the taxi driver and apprehended LAC Frank Irving Lent in possession of a 25-ounce bottle of liquor as he emerged from the taxi at 5 Campbell street and 1 Dundas street.

Earlier during the court session here yesterday the airman pleaded guilty to illegal possession and was fined $100 and $3 costs.

Defence counsel Gordon Robertson of Belleville indicated that the crown preferred to charge the accused Beckwith to selling instead of keeping for sale. Because crown witness Lent had been charged under R.C.A.F. station Magistrate Wills pointed out it would be impossible to adjourn the case for the crown to lay new information. He called for the hearing to proceed.

Sgt. Steenburg produced the bottle of whisky he recovered from Lent. The committed sales slips from the brewery retail store, which showed A. and B. Beckwith had purchased 708 pints of beer in three months. Receipts from the local liquor board and Beckwith's liquor permit revealed that the accused had bought 111 twelve ounce bottles and 29 large bottles of liquor since April 20.

HOME SEARCHED

The police sergeant said that a search of the Beckwith house one hour after Lent was caught turned up a case of 24 full pints of beer and a number of empty beer bottles.

Magistrate Wills ruled that evidence submitted by the crown showed Beckwith's purchases of beer and liquor were inconclusive. He pointed out that the crown had not thrown any light on Mr. Beckwith's financial status." He might be worth $100,000 and could well afford to buy that amount," the magistrate said.

Lent referred to by the crown as an accomplice testified: "I was attending a going away party for myself at 5 Campbell street. I wanted to get some more liquor."

"Supplies getting short?" asked the crown counsel. Lent nodded and the spectators chuckled until a police officer called for order.

"I called a taxi, continued Lent, and told the driver to go to 109 George street. I had trouble finding the back door and was finally admitted by Mr. Beckwith. Naturally I asked for a bottle of whiskey. I can't be very definite about certain phases of the evening. All I can remember is I asked for it and got it."

Magistrate Wills took offence to the witness' incoherent testimony. He warned: "If you don't tell the truth I will charge you with perjury." He indicated that the witness was withholding evidence.

"I'm not quite sure if I got the bottle in the house or if Mr. Beckwith) came out to the taxi," Dent continued. "I paid $6 for it."

The witness described how he was nabbed by the policeman as he was getting out of the taxi. The officer asked if I had any liquor on me. Naturally I said no. But I was obviously bulging out from underneath my shirt."

Asked how he knew Beckwith's address the witness replied: "I do a little travelling around Trenton and on occasions I was told I could get a bottle there." He admitted, that he had been at Beckwith's before and had seen a bottle handed to an associate.

Defence counsel Robert Temple of Belleville asked the witness: "Is it possible that you misunderstood instructions and someone just directed you to go to Beckwith's to pick up a bottle of whiskey." The witness said it was quite possible.

Mr. Temple called no witnesses. In his address to the magistrate he agreed that there was proof that his client had sold one bottle of whiskey." The sale of one bottle is not in my opinion sufficient in itself to convict on the charge of keeping for sale." Mr. Temple noted.

Mr. Robertson pointed out to the magistrate that the crown relied on the evidence of the accomplice and the observation of traffic to the Beckwith house.

or anybody else gives you no reason for destroying people's property. This crime has been recorded against you and if you get into further trouble it will be used as evidence to bring about your conviction."

The cost of replacing the window was $1.42. The magistrate ordered each youth to pay $1 fine and $18.50 costs.

CITIZENS DUPED

A number of citizens complain that they have been duped by high pressure out-of-town vacuum cleaner salesmen.

One victim according to one victim paint a convincing picture to make a sale. They talk about service guarantees.

But apparently all did not go well after trouble developed in one of the machines purchased by a local resident. Repeated calls for service brought no answer and finally the exasperated victim had to pay a local repair man to do the job.

CAR SIDESWIPED

Police are on the lookout for a hit-run driver who caused damage to the extent of $70 to a car owned by Alfred George Wood, 33 Ferry street.

Wood stopped his car facing east to make a left turn from Dundas street east to Ontario street. The hunied car proceeding west on the main thoroughfare travelling at a fast clip according to an eye witness sideswiped Wood's car and continued on west until it was out of sight.

EXPLOSION KILLS TWO

KARLSKOGA, Sweden (Reuters) A heavy explosion rocked the Bofors armaments work here today, killing two workers and injuring six. Firemen were unable to approach the scene of the explosion immediately as more blasts were feared.

Throwing Apples Through Window Proves Expensive

TRENTON (Special) — Two young men from Trenton realize the seriousness of taking the law in their own hands.

Magistrate T. Y. Wills hit their pocket book hard yesterday after they admitted throwing green apples and breaking windows in a house occupied by a Dutch family.

A police officer testified that one of the youth told him he broke the windows "because i didn't like Dutchmen."

"I hope this will be a warning," declared Magistrate Wills. "Just because you don't like Dutchmen

Three Union Chiefs Enter Guilty Pleas

DETROIT (AP)—Three Detroit area AFL Teamsters Union officials interrupted their trial Tuesday and pleaded guilty to soliciting and accepting bribes in connection with union activities.

All charges against a fourth defendant, Frank E. Fitzsimmons, 299, were dismissed.

The guilty pleas and dismissal left the fifth defendant, Michael Nicoletti, president of Detroit Local 247, to continue on trial alone. All five originally were indicted on charges of extortion, bribery and conspiracy.

The maximum sentence for the charge on which the three pleaded guilty is five years imprisonment. Judge Joseph A. Gillis set Sept. 29 for sentencing.

RETICENCE MAY BE MISLEADING

Reading Clement Attlee's comments on his recent visit to Communist China, one is struck by his blunt statement of facts, as he understands them, and his sparse use of adjectives.

This is characteristic of Attlee and in Britain, where his style of speech is well known, will occasion no surprise.

The danger certainly exists, though, that on this continent and particularly in the United States his lack of denunciation of the Communist regime may be misinterpreted as approval.

Of some achievements he did approve. He said: "The evidence we have everywhere is you have a government that is incorruptible, that is genuinely working for the good of the people and it has done some very remarkable pieces of work."

Reading that sentence, though, one needs to remember statements made moments before: "Now we have found, as we expected, that there can run by Communists on principles with which we do not agree. We do not understand the point of view of those who are running China."

Mussolini did "remarkable pieces of work" in Italy, but Attlee certainly never approved of Mussolini.

As for the Communist government's incorruptibility, that should surprise no one. To corrupt is to "entice from allegiance." The Communist governments cannot be enticed from their allegiance to Communism is at one and the same time their great strength and their great threat to the western world.

LET'S ALL WEAR BEAVER COATS

Ontario's beavers have been busy at a job only beavers can do—harvesting the beaver population.

This, according to a story from Toronto, is posing a problem in northern Ontario.

Farmers and other property owners are kept busy chasing beavers off their lands and the Ontario Northland Railway is having its difficulties convincing the beaver that trains do not operate at their highest efficiency when required to cross a beaver-made lake.

Blame for this situation must rest partly on Dr. J. K. Reynolds, director of wildlife management in the provincial lands and forests department. His methods have proved successful. Improved management is given as the reason for a rapid increase in the beaver population since 1946.

There is the problem. If you are going to suggest that the 1946 solution is a decrease in the number of Canadians who own beaver coats you are going to have to fight with Dame Fashion. She no longer likes beaver furs as well as some other furs. Time was when a beaver pelt was worth $60; now it brings only $13.

It does seem to us, though, that this lower price in itself suggests a solution. The beaver is trapped on a quota basis, one beaver pelt for each active beaver house on a trap line. Obviously, if this regulation were removed, a trapper could make more money. If he made more money there would be more trappers. If there were more trappers there would be fewer beaver—and more beaver coats. With the cost of beaver pelts much lower than in the past, more people could afford to buy such coats.

Not all of us can afford to buy mink, so if the price of beaver pelts drops low enough this fur may once again become popular with many.

Perhaps in a few years it would be necessary to restore the present regulations, to save the beaver from extinction. In the meantime, though, the problem of too plentiful a supply of beaver would have been solved, a number of trappers would have made some money and a lot of women would be glad to wear beaver coats—all by lifting a restriction which appears no longer necessary.

There may be a flaw in this argument, but the mere possibility that we might get rid of a regulation lends it a great allure.

MACHINERY IS NOT ENOUGH

"The basic difference between you and some poverty-stricken peasant is that you have machines!"

That is the statement made in an advertisement by a manufacturer of machinery.

Machinery manufacturers have reason for pride. Our wealth is founded on their ingenuity, as that advertisement intimates.

Still, we do not believe that the basic difference between our lot and the lot of a peasant is our possession of machinery.

Our forefathers lacked the tractors and combines, the linotypes and sewing machines, the locomotive and cranes that today make our tasks light and our rewards great. But they were not poverty stricken peasants. They worked harder than we do, many found more power in this world's goods than we are, but they had two priceless assets which we do well today to continue to regard as our most valuable possessions, freedom and a land blessed with an abundance of natural resources.

Those are the basic differences between us and the poverty-stricken peasants of other lands, our freedom and our rich heritage. The machine cannot solve the peasant's plight. It can help, it is true, by easing the toil necessary to wrest a living from unproductive soil or from a pitifully small plot of land. Something more is needed, though. It is freedom. And the peasants of the world know that, even if we sometimes forget and regard machines as capable of providing a complete answer for their problems.

BOYHOOD REPARTEE

"Have you any word for Stevie?"
asked his father, homeward bound.
"What message shall I give him should he chance to drop around?"

And little Henry answered just as promptly as could be:
"If Stevie comes to visit you can say: 'Shut up!' for me".

Now that seems a bitter greeting for a little boy to send
From a cottage by Lake Huron to his play-travelling friend,
But boys are most peculiar in the things they say and do,
And when those words the message
he replied with this: "You too."

I record this "Shut up" greeting and the quick response:
"You too,"
As the prayer of boyhood which some day they may review,
With the hope that in the future
when to manhood they have grown
They will both have better manners than so far they've ever shown.

THE PACKSACK

By GREGORY CLARK

A friend of mine, who is an official in a big association of women, was on the committee that comissioned a well-known portrait painter to do a 10,000 portrait of the lady who had been the life and soul of the association for a great many years. To do her honor, the association was going to have a big presentation and then hang the big portrait in the association's permanent headquarters.

I suppose I should have gone around to the artist's studio and taken a look at the portrait," she told me. "But the committee felt it would be nicer if we shared the sensations of the rest of the women at the unveiling. Besides, the artist was famous. We didn't need to worry."

The presentation was a magnificent success. We had twice the turnout we expected. Our dear lady was present on the platform for the unveiling.

"When that sheet fell down, I never got a worse shock in my life. The artist had painted her with a long face like a mourner, grave and solemn. The lady was always the soul of wit and high-heartedness. He had painted her with her gray hair piled up, sticking up wild like a mane. She had all her life been very tidy. After a moment of shocked silence in the hall, the normal applause broke out, which covered the confusion of most of us. In a moment or two, we were able to exclaim how wonderful the portrait was, and by the time the meeting broke up into the usual chattering throng, we had caught our balance and were able to pretend we thought the portrait was marvellous. Indeed, by the time we reached the stage of shaking hands with our guest of honor, we were able to dissemble completely, and tell her what a magnificent job it was. But each time I glanced at the monstrosity, I quivered.

"Now, here's the funny thing, that was several weeks ago. Every time I see that woman, I think she looks more and more like the portrait!

"These darn artists! They can see. And what's more, they can make us see, too."

Explaining English

(Brockville Recorder and Times)

"No! Mr. Smolensky," said the professor to the new student learning English, "you obviously don't understand the use and pronunciation of the simple English verb read. Look how easy it is. If you want to use the present tense, I read, you simply pronounce read as red. If, of course, you want to use the present tense we read, you pronounce read as reed. Of course you understand, Mr. Smolensky, that the words red and reed have nothing to do with the verb read. The word red is a color, and the second is a rush, which also incidentally could be either a plant or a hurry. Simple isn't it?

At last report Mr. Smolensky was booking passage back to Europe.

Play With Fire Around Quemoy

(Toronto Globe and Mail)

It may be true, as the Chinese Nationalists claim, that the mainland Communist regime has massed several hundred thousand fighting troops opposite the Nationalist stronghold of Quemoy. But that does not justify the intensive air and sea attacks which the Nationalists have been making on China's coast. Far from discouraging a Communist effort to capture Quemoy, they seem more likely to provoke it. Indeed, they could easily provoke an attack on Formosa itself, from which the Nationalist ships and planes are operating.

Mr. John Foster Dulles refuses to state whether the United States Seventh Fleet—sailing on China's side—would defend Quemoy against attack by Communist China. That, he says enigmatically, is for the military to decide. Such a policy of evasion is not necessarily bellicose. But there is nothing enigmatic about American policy in the event of a Communist attack on Formosa. President Eisenhower has flatly declared that the Seventh Fleet would defend it. Mr. Dulles has similarly declares—with what justification, we do not know—that the Nationalists would be "unleashed" as they have openly threatened to do, "under any circumstances."

Quemoy is a highly explosive situation which all three parties concerned—the Nationalists, Communists, the Chinese Nationalists and the Americans—seem determined to keep explosive. Even with fire it would be serious enough if they were the only parties concerned. But many other nations would be, or could be, involved if one of the Chinese Nationalist attacks should off a Far Eastern conflagration. That being the case, it is surely time for the United Nations to step in and we may wonder why some of the major powers has asked it to do so.

The UN's Charter pledges it "to take effective collective measures for the prevention and removal of threats to the peace". The Formosa Crisis is surely such a threat, and if it is difficult to prevent the removal of the threat, at least make the effort. Admittedly, there is no point in looking to the undoubtedly Soviet veto for action. But the General Assembly is meeting in New York today, and Formosa should be its first item of business.

What immediately needed is some sort of barrier between the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa and the Chinese Communists on the mainland, to prevent them from attacking each other's coasts. The United Fleet constituted such a barrier during President Truman's regime, to everybody's profit, and should both factions. But when President Eisenhower sent the Fleet it gave orders that only the Communists were to be restrained; the Nationalists were free to fight on the land as much as they pleased. If the UN should assume the role of the Truman arrangement, objection could still be made to one nation—the United States—also playing the role of watchdog.

Taking its cue from Korea, the UN should consider the creation of an international force to patrol the Formosa Strait in the affected region until such time as Formosa's future has been decided. That may prove a long process. But, as we say, the UN should at least try to allay the tension. If it fails, and if in the end the Formosa powder key explodes, the U.S. and it friends will be in a stronger position to do whatever may prove necessary. They will be able to say, as they cannot now, that they did everything possible to prevent it.

The Value Of Fluoridation

(Toronto Telegram)

While the Metropolitan Council remains in a state of indecision, Toronto's experiment in the fluoridation of water supply for the improvement of dental hygiene.

Dr. H. K. Brown, chief of the Toronto Department of Public Health Division, has issued another report which states that there has been a definite and significant and progressive" decrease in dental caries among Toronto children since the fluoridation of that city's water supply nine years ago. He declares that in the 1948-52 period there was a drop in caries of about 40 per cent in the 6-8 age group, of 44 per cent in the 9-11 group, and of 36 per cent in the 12-14 years age group.

The report adds that whereas in 1948 the situation in Toronto and Hamilton was the same as in Sarnia, where there has been no fluoridation, this year the percentage of decayed children in the 6-8 years group without dental caries is twice as great as in Sarnia. And about the same as in Stratford, where the water is naturally fluoridated.

This report should encourage Metropolitan Council to make up its mind.

Cooling Off

(Brantford Sun)

A heated argument can certainly cool the atmosphere in a hurry.

Pity the Poor Track Team?

(The Bristol Word)

A little group of wilful, reactionary, old zinnifists is opposing a proposition to tear up an acre or so of woodland that borders the community and provides us the site track, football field and a couple of softball diamonds for the youngsters.

Some of the youngsters in the community have to walk as much as three-quarters of a mile to get to their present playing field. In winter-time that means the extra effort of carrying heavy skates and hockey equipment.

It's a civic necessity to discuss the matter the other evening there wasn't a dry eye in the house as the chairman of the committee sponsoring the project told of humiliation experienced by the boys on the track team when they were defeated by a team from the community on the other side of the roadhouse. There were gasps of indignation when he related that the local team had to travel by train on a track only three-quarters of a regulation.

He was too much of a gentleman to mention that the opposing team had a cinder track. He was composed mainly of boys of foreign extraction who developed their leg muscles by riding delivery bicycles, walking paper routes and other similar occupations; they were also accustomed to keeping up with the physical fitness reflected to a considerable degree their early experience in participants in physical activities.

A good intramural program should not conflict itself with three or four seasonal sports.

Emphasis should be placed upon sports that not only are of interest

Living-Cost Fairy Tale

(Christian Science Monitor)

Once upon a time in a Far Country a smart and dynamic young man fell in love with a lovely and accomplished girl. She returned his affection, and they were married on the strength of a selling job which promised him $5,000 a year. But as we say, to live in a house which was the last one left of a bunch advertised as priced "as low as" $6,000, and furnish it with the latest husband's commissions climbed up, they didn't ascend "up to" the glistening mark suggested by the advertisement. Meanwhile the cost of their home might be deemed low by some standards, it didn't turn out to be "as low as" by the other set with just before they got there. So the once-hopeful bride and groom soon found themselves "up to" their ears against it! And winter was coming on!

However, he was smart and she was clever. So, naturally, they began to look around extensively again. There they learned that if they insulated their domicile with a certain brand of shredded mineral they would save "up to" so much on fuel bill; if they put in a certain kind of storm windows they would save "up to" another bit; if they installed a certain pump in their cellar they would be living "up" more; and if they threw out the furnace they had altogether and bought another, using a wholly different type of fuel they would save, this time, "up to" 30 per cent.

Furthermore, the young couple learned that a new brand was "Fusion" from the mere "Fission" gasoline they had been using they could drive their car "up to" 15 per cent less. And if they sold their house to the Guided Missile they could save actually 35 per cent at the corner grocery.

So the smart young husband and clever wife did all these things. Thereforth they basted their home costly for nothing, and buzzed around the countryside right merrily for half price. And they lived happily ever after. The moral, however, is that in very far country where the decimal point is optional.

Pity the Poor Track Team?

(The Bristol Word)

A little group of wilful, reactionary, old zinnifists is opposing a proposition to tear up an acre or so of woodland that borders the community and provides us the site track, football field and a couple of softball diamonds for the youngsters.

Some of the youngsters in the community have to walk as much as three-quarters of a mile to get to their present playing field. In winter-time that means the extra effort of carrying heavy skates and hockey equipment.

It's a civic necessity to discuss the matter the other evening there wasn't a dry eye in the house as the chairman of the committee sponsoring the project told of humiliation experienced by the boys on the track team when they were defeated by a team from the community on the other side of the roadhouse. There were gasps of indignation when he related that the local team had to travel by train on a track only three-quarters of a regulation.

He was too much of a gentleman to mention that the opposing team had a cinder track. He was composed mainly of boys of foreign extraction who developed their leg muscles by riding delivery bicycles, walking paper routes and other similar occupations; they were also accustomed to keeping up with the physical fitness reflected to a considerable degree their early experience in participants in physical activities.

laxation" through alcohol and "frustration" in paying taxes and sporting events instead of playing the games themselves.

That part of education which should take priority over the three R's—physical education, is shamefully set aside and ignored by school administrators and taxpayers alike. Have you seen the latest report of physical training our children get?

Problems afflicting school athletics reach their most acute stage in the senior high school. Here emphasis on the few and neglect of the many is most pronounced. Statistics of senior high school than of earlier grades.

The picture of neglect is all the more to be regretted because high school is, for many teenagers, the last opportunity our school has to develop lasting interests, skills and attitudes. Once adults use their leisure time, for example, and what they do to maintain physical fitness reflects to a considerable degree their early experience as participants in physical activities.

A good intramural program should not conflict itself with three or four seasonal sports.

Emphasis should be placed upon sports that not only are of interest during the school years, but may also be played in adulthood.

Sometimes the school's so-called intramural program for boys is little more than an elimination tournament held early in each "major" sport season. Large numbers are encouraged to take part at first, but when the more promising athletes have been selected for the varsity squad, the rest receive scant attention. If false values are attached to the significance of varsity status, the boy who fails to make the squad may acquire feelings of failure and rejection that will color his whole high-school career.

And also may color the town rest and the tabloids yellow, I might add. Wake up, America, and attend to the crucial job of our children's health and well-being.

Monkeys in Sky

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

Royal Dutch Airlines says it has found monkeys aboard a ship by plane "must be spoken to from time to time to keep them from quarreling with one another." Quickest way to get them to quarrel with one another is to remind them that they'll be mistaken for human passengers if they keep up their bickering.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ALONZO STAGG

I can truthfully say that there never has been a time when all sports and athletic events have been so popular and meant so much to the health and happiness of those who engage in them, or are merely spectators, as today.

I like the idea of a Hall of Fame for outstanding baseball heroes. Perhaps some day it will be expanded to take in all great figures in the world of sport. When that day arrives, my vote—if I had one—would be place at the top of them all one of the finest and greatest of all athletic figures, the name of Prof. Alonzo Stagg who years the athletic director at Chicago University and one of football's greatest teachers. Today, at the age of 92, he is a noble example of a man who has lived a clean and been an inspiration to all who have ever met or known him.

Years and years ago they "retired" Stagg from Chicago University. They thought he was too old! Well, he went out to Stockton, California, where the West is always in full bloom, and he made a championship team out of a small college in that section of the knowledge of the Pacific. That was years ago, but I am sure he has not lived a life nonsuch, but to watch him when at Chicago, with his football team, he'd stalk about on the sidelines during the playing, and I'll wager that many a time he has said a prayer! He was, and still is, that kind of a man. Eckersall, his famous quarterback, gave this tribute to him when he left college: "Stagg teaches character as well as football."

Many years ago, I was in Stockton and went to Alonzo Stagg's home for I wanted to meet a man I had for so long admired. We, and his wife, made me welcome, invited to a five-mile walk for the exercise he had up-on-it. I now regret I did not stay over. Let me repeat—Alonzo Stagg is now 92 years of age. It looks as though he were going to live forever, I feel sure that he will!

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY

DR. EARL L. DOUGLASS

A GOD-GIVEN GIFT

Are you capable of being angry? "Oh, yes" you say. "You should see me when I get mad. Stand back, blow up!" Probably you are mad (which means insane), but are you angry? Or are you just blowing off steam? Or are you only hostile inside?

The Bible speaks often of our Lord's anger. It was part of His perfect nature. Never once do we see Him angry at anyone for what that person did to Him. They rallied on Him and He answered not a word. They nailed Him to a cross and He said, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do."

He was frequently angry, but always against men's cruel narrowness, and against the heartlessness with which they treated their fellowmen. His anger was His flaming rebuke to selfishness, self-seeking, and a flagrant disregard of human rights.

So we should ask ourselves, "Am I capable of anger?" We are really capable of anger. The capacity of anger is a gift of God. Hostility, resentment, and the unhibibited manner in which we lunge at other people's throats is for the most part sin, and at all but is the result of our frustration, our selfishness, and our lack of love.

Christian word on this subject is: "Be angry and sin not."

Publisher Says CBC Ahead In Giving News

HARRISON HOT SPRINGS, B.C. (CP)—Stuart Keate, publisher of the Victoria Times, has told Canadian radio men he thinks the CBC is far ahead of private broadcasters in its handling of news.

He was addressing the annual summer meeting of the B.C. Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters Monday night.

"The national news broadcast, often criticized because of its dead pan delivery, at least has the ring of authenticity about it," he said.

Private stations should divert more of their revenue to engage informed, intelligent commentators to develop their own string of experts, on a local basis.

Mr. Keate said he does not believe radio and newspapers are in conflict. The two services were complementary.

Radio men were coming round to the view that they were publishers, because they publish and disseminate news.

"Both of us have a tremendous responsibility. We have fallen heirs to the avenues and the channels of public communications. These channels have not been given to us, but only loaned, in the highest sense, we are lessees of the public trust. The big single factor that can remove them is public opinion.

Budgie Bests Mouse Intruder

TORONTO (CP) — Peter, the battling budgie, whipped the wicked old mouse Monday night.

The two-ounce budgerigar is owned by Gloria Christopher, 13. The girl's mother, Mrs. Mary Christopher, today described the struggle.

"There was a terrific racket in the bird cage about 4 a.m. and we jumped out of bed," she said. "There was the budgie fighting with the mouse which had been trying to enter the cage."

Mrs. Christopher said Peter's claws were fastened to the mouse's back.

"We had to knock the mouse away, and it limped back to its hole."

Peter wasn't talking—although he usually talks all day long. The talented bird also takes commands and plays cards. Solitaire, of course.

Farm Cash Income Drops

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian farmers' cash income dropped by $88,700,000 in the first half of 1954.

The bureau of statistics estimated today cash income declined to $1,093,900,000 from $1,182,600,000 in the similar 1953 period.

Most of the drop resulted from lower returns on grain sales and thus by far the major portion of the decline was felt on the Prairies. Prince Edward Island income also decreased slightly. Other provinces showed gains. Ontario led with a $24,000,000 increase.

TWEED Memorial Service For LAC Rath Held in Village

TWEED — A large congregation attended the Memorial Service in St. John's United Church Sunday afternoon for the late LAC Ronald Rath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rath of Sulphide, who was killed in a motorcycle accident in England. The pastor of St. John's, Rev. W. K. Pace, delivered a special message, and Padre Phillip Ross, RCAF, chaplain of Trenton air station, assisted. Members of Tweed Branch of the Canadian Legion marched to the church in a body. The Last Post was sounded at the conclusion of the service by a member of the RCAF trumpet band, Trenton. News of the death of LAC Ronald Rath of Sulphide was received by his parents in a cable from England. The 20-year-old boy had gone overseas in February of this year, after over two years service with the RCAF in Canada, in the wireless division. He had attended school in Sulphide prior to his enlistment and had been very popular with his school mates. The youngest of his family, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rath, a brother Oscar William, "Bill" of Toronto, and a sister Mrs. Reta Garbutt of Mountain View.

Non-Surgical Cure Reported For Cataracts

LONDON — What may be the first successful non-surgical cure for cataract of the eye is reported from Guatemala. It is simple, painless and quick.

Dr. Edgar R. Palares has reported preliminary success with a preparation made from a plant known as St. Apollonia, used by the native Indians for hundreds of years in treating various eye afflictions. He began experiments in 1952, testing it first on dogs and cats.

Encouraged by the results, he has since used it on humans. In each case, he said, the cataract disappeared completely after 14 to 24 days of treatment, and there has been no relapse. Further trials are continuing.

Contact Club Opens Fall Season

The Contact Club, Christ Church, opened its Autumn session on Monday evening with a good attendance of members. President Florence Lennox welcomed the girls and introduced two newcomers. In a novel introductory roll call each member told where they originally lived, how long they had been in Belleville and a member of the Contact Club.

Volunteers were called for to dog for the bling on Friday evening. The club voted to cater for the dinner of the Women's Canadian Club in November and a committee was formed to take charge of this event.

Eleanor Blake brought news of the annual parish bazaar and tea which takes place in December and members were urged to help make this effort its usual big success.

Honored guest at the meeting was Shirley Ames who was attending for the last time before leaving to take up residence in Sudbury. Presenting her with a parting gift from the club, Jeanne Jackson said that Shirley had been a member who had always worked quietly and willingly and that she would be missed by her many friends.

Members were asked for suggestions for interesting future meetings and many smart ideas were suggested. An amusing competition with modelling clay showed a great deal of hidden talent and provided much laughter. After serious judging by three ladies from the Evening Branch of the W.A., the prize was awarded to Isabel Murray for her model of a baby elephant.

Refreshments were served by the evening's hostesses, Mary Fletcher, Betty Ling and Jeanne Jackson.

Laplantes Mark Anniversary In Ottawa

Close to 100 guests and relations gathered in Ottawa recently to hail the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Laplante, 97 College Street, Belleville.

The reception was held at the home of Mrs. Laplante's sister, Mrs. E. Corrigan, who was bridesmaid at the couple's wedding, 50 years ago.

The address, marking the anniversary, was read by the Laplantes' nephew, Thomas Corrigan.

Mr. Laplante was born in Kemptville, Ontario, and his wife, the former Ellen McGerigy, in Nepean township, Ontario. They met in Ottawa, where they had moved with their parents and were married there in St. Patrick's Church by the Rev. M. J. Whalen, on August 24, 1904.

In 1914, the Laplantes moved to Trenton, after Mr. Laplante joined the CNR and came to Belleville in 1923, where they eventually built their present home on College St. In 1928 they moved to Mimico, where Mr. Laplante was transferred, returning to finally settle down in Belleville in 1947, the year after Mr. Laplante's retirement as foreman with the railroad.

Leaders' School Of United Church Has 21st Session

Over 230 delegates made up the 21st session of the School for Leaders, Bay of Quinte Conference branch of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church, held at the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, recently.

Many features of church work were discussed during the five-day conference.

This is India year and the study of this country is being carried out in all departments of the United Church. The delegates were given the opportunity of hearing varied attitudes on this subject when Miss Annanose Ommen of Madras, and Kayuko Hosaka, Tokyo, addressed the various groups at the session. The delegates also listened to Dr. Winnifred Bryce, who has spent many years in India, and Frances Stevenson, who is home on her first furlough.

A new feature of churchwork—Dramatics in the Church, was presented by Mrs. M. F. Austin, Woodville. Talks were given on the essentials and techniques of religious drama, highlighted by two presentations by the drama group.

Better procedures in various branches of missionary work were discussed with studies in mission circle work by Mrs. H. Pirk, tro-gram, Millbrook and mission band and explorers, presented by W. B. May and Miss Catherine McKeen.

Mrs. F. W Harris acted as dean of the school and head of the program committee, while other members were: Mrs. B. H Soper, vice-dean; Mrs. S. W. ## Rev. and Mrs. John W. Potter Happily Wed for 65 Years

A former Free Methodist pastor, who worked in the ministry for 45 years before his retirement nine years ago, would take lumbering as a second choice to the ministry.

He is Rev. John W. Potter, who with Mrs. Potter on Saturday observed their 65th wedding anniversary at a family celebration at their Frankford home. Twenty-three persons, including their daughter, grandchildren and great grandchildren attended.

Born in Stony Settlement north of Millbridge 85 years ago, Mr. Potter worked on his father's farm and as a sawmill operator until he was 22.

"If I had my life to live again I would again enter the ministry but failing that my choice would be lumbering," he said.

He clearly recalls his younger days in Tudor and Cashel townships, when as a young married man he was the owner of 900 acres of farm and bush land.

BRIDE HELPED SUCCESS

His bride of 65 years was a big help in the financial success of their early married life. He recalls how Mrs. Potter cooked for as high as 23 sawmill-workers. Eight-hour days were unheard of then for Mrs. Potter, who baked every day to feed the men. Just when Mr. Potter got his sawmill paid for he entered the ministry Mrs. Potter is the former Harriet Rose of Frankford. She is 83.

Deemed too old to enter theological college when he turned to the ministry, Mr. Potter was on probation for a short time and then due to the shortage of workers in the new Free Methodist movement he entered directly into the ministry.

HAD MANY CHARGES

His first circuit was at Beaver Creek, also in the Millbridge district. Later he went to Marmora and to Warkworth. Other charges during his tenure as a minister were at Westport, Verona, Picton, Cordova Mines, Gunter and at Frankford. He ministered at Frankford in 1914 and 1915 and was superannuated from Gunter.

He and Mrs. Potter have lived in Frankford since his retirement nine years ago.

Sunday was a full day for Mr. Potter during his early days as a minister, when he had as many as five different appointments at which to preach. Appointments were as far as 15 to 18 miles apart and travelling was done by horse and buggy or by cutter during winter months. He would preach at three appointments one Sunday and catch the remaining two the week following.

FIRST CAR

Mr. Potter now laughs when he recalls his experience with the first and only car that he drove. That was back in 1916, when as the pastor at Frankford he was in charge of camp meetings at Trenton. Transportation was a problem as he purchased a Ford.

"I kept it under a tent at the camp grounds but one day someone removed a big stone and as I started away the front wheel dropped in and I lost control, I ended up against a tree."

After that parishioners at Frankford volunteered to drive the minister to his various appointments.

"Many ministers today with cars do not handle as many charges as I did with the horse and buggy of those days," he says.

FAMILY PRESENT

Although many churches claim a falling off in attendance in late years, Mr. Potter does not think this is the case with the Free Methodist church. Church attendance in the Eastern Ontario Conference was up last year. He paid tribute to the present minister at Frankford, Rev. F. L. Chase.

All members of the immediate family were present at Saturday's celebration when Mr. and Mrs. Potter were presented with a new set of dishes. Their son-in-law Richard Haggarty of Hillier, read the address.

All five grandchildren and nine great grandchildren attended the anniversary celebration. The grandchildren are Mrs. Lawrence (Hazel) Closson of Hillier; Gerald Haggarty of Frankford; Carl Haggarty of Peterborough; Mrs. Walter (Dorothy) Jewell of Belleville, and Reginald Haggarty of Hillier.

ADVICE to the LOVELORN

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

SHE'S LETTING HER IMAGINATION WORK OVERTIME

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I think I'm in love with a fellow I have never met. He is in Korea, and will get his discharge in November.

I started to write to him in June, and for awhile I came to the point where I was not interested in anyone but him. On his side, he sounds very serious about me.

Do you think it's impossible for me to be in love with him, since do you think it's wise for me to sit home and wait for him and refuse a lot of dates?—P.M.B.

Dear P.M.B.:

Are you really asking these questions seriously? And do you think you would take them very seriously if some other girl put them to you?

I am sure you know very well yourself, that it's ridiculous for you to give up dating other boys because your imagination is putting all sorts of things in your head about one you have never seen and could not possibly know very much about.

If this chap wants to come and see you after he gets home from Korea so that he can get acquainted with you, well and good. But wait until you find out exactly what he is like, and have gradually built up a real friendship with him, before going all dewy-eyed about him. At present, you might almost as well be writing to some idea that you're in love with a picture in a book, as on someone who is a virtual stranger to you.

YOU'LL BE SORRY, GIRLS, IF

YOU BREAK UP YOUR FRIENDSHIP

Dear Miss Fairfax:

We are two girls, 16 and 17, who have been pals since childhood-hood.

We have a problem which is quite common in our crowd. that it, we both like the same boy. We have both gone out with him, but until recently we both were unaware of this fact. Now that we have discovered it, we are no longer as close as we were, because each of us has been trying to outdo the other.

Other girls often break friendship over a thing like this, but we do not want this to happen to us. Still, we are both madly in love with this boy, who is a well-mannered fellow and liked by all the girls. Neither has known interest in both of us, neither of us wants to discourage him.

Do you think this other girl and myself should go our separate ways, or remain friends? — B.B. and A.C.

Dear B.B. and A.C.:

I am quite sure that if you two girls broke up your friendship because of what will almost certainly prove to be a passing interest in the same boy, you would both eventually regret it very much indeed. Whether you believe it or not, boys and girls in your age group are continually falling in and out of "love," and a year or so from now, perhaps even sooner, the two of you will be wondering why you ever took this thing so seriously.

Be sensible, now, and don't let anything so unimportant cause trouble between you. If this boy keeps on inviting both of you out, accept his invitations and enjoy him as a friend. Instead of competing against each other in trying to build up a big romance, get over this idea that you must be the one and only in a boy's life or else have nothing to do with him at all, and you will not only have more fun right now, but having many boys as friends, you'll develop better judgment about young men in general which will be a big help to you in the future.

Beauty

By HELEN JAMIESON

BEAUTY BUILD-UPS

It is no good looking for a short cut to beauty. There just isn't any. You have to plod right along the straight path—which is the path of health and good living habits. You can use make-up to your heart's content, but you have to do, a little heavy work as well.

One should keep in mind that the peaches-and-cream complexion is not guaranteed to last. If the diet isn't right, if the digestive organs are not functioning properly, the skin may be subject to blemishes of an kind or another.

Loss of sleep will eventually cause facial tissues to lose tone. The daily bath aids the skin in its work as an organ of elimination and the normal state of affairs is reflected in the complexion. Plenty of water is necessary if the skin is to become dry and rough.

Few women realize that nutrition is as important to beauty as it is to health. Mothers are fussy about the food they give their children, taking pains to see that their diet includes plenty of vitamins and mineral salts. But they themselves are often satisfied with mere "snacks." Every cell of the body is dependent upon nourishment. And that includes the cells of the skin, the hair and the nails.

It is easier than one realizes to retain youthful appearance. It depends upon mental and physical health, emotional control, steady nerves. Health and beauty depend on a great deal more than the assortment of delightful jars and bottles that ornament the dressing table. So knuckle down to a well-organized existence. Have some outdoor life. Snatch pleasant moments when you can. Sidestep "scenes" and arguments. And you will save yourself a lot of beauty problems.

Discovered—An Ally

By Mary Moore

Late in August in response to a request from D. G. I blew off steam on table manners for children.

After the material was dispatched I felt like an old meanie, for nobody loves youngsters more than I do. I had to console myself, after sending out that tough talk, with the reflection that nobody is going to love a wild primitive little human, so his parents are dutybound to strictly discipline the one they love dearest—if others are going to love him too.

That column was dated August 31. A letter dated September 1, promptly reached me and dispelled my qualms:

"Dear Mrs. Moore: How comforting it was to read your article on teaching children table manners. We followed the rules you outlined and so many of our friends chided us for being harsh, when we insisted that we were being firm, that sometimes it worried us in case we were being too severe. One friend said that discipline might show up in complexes of some sort in later life. I gather from reading about your two children that you succeed in spite of table manners. . . our seven-year-old son has quite good manners and we are proud to take him anywhere, and our five-year-old daughter isn't too bad. She makes up in charm for her little lapses. They both eat anything and are willing to try any new food which is a good thing. In a house where the mother collects recipes and tries them all, no matter how weird, I intend to keep on with the rules when our two-year-old graduates to the table in the near future.

"We have never had any throwing of food. One reason for this may be that we always eat in the dining-room. . . It has kept us out of the kitchen where it is easy to become a fuss-budget. . . when ours first graduate to the table we serve the meal on a small tray. A kind godmother has sent us a Beatrix Potter nursery tray, and this, or any cheap tin tray would do, served to catch crumbs, spilled milk, or bits of food. Very little ends on the floor. So I give credit to the tray although I suppose many infants deserve some of it.

"Another helpful idea for getting food eaten was to watch to see what foods were not popular and then to experiment until a popular way could be found to serve these foods. For instance one of my family like spinach, and as I like it I didn't want to quit using it. I tried cooking it mixed with soft crumbs, onion, beaten egg, and a spot of cream and then baked it as custard. They all ate it this way. Then I found that combined with mock hollandaise sauce and tuna fish they ate it well. Another way they like it is mixed with egg, spices, crumbs and baked under pork chops or steak. I do not believe in saying that a child (or husband) does not like a certain food until I have tried it numerous ways, or in the case of children, have waited to re-introduce it, for a child who does not like a certain food one day may be extremely fond of them within a month or so.

". . . it is a subject dear to me especially since I notice that our children are far more sensitive than those of our critical friends.

"If you are still with me would you answer a question for me? . . . I want to purchase a heavy steel or aluminum fish knife with which would be useful at jam making time . . . I need a small one for making pickles too and wondered if the Dutch oven would do. My cook-stove has only one and that a porcelain kettle. My budget won't stretch over two pots so I am hoping the oven will do.

"As my husband is a graduate of R.M.C. and now serves in the Permanent Army I have been most interested in reading about your daughter and her Herbie . . . the moving around gets a little tiresome but if one has a good patient man it is worth any amount of inconvenience to be near him.

"I feel that I have a friend in you even though I do not know you.—J.H.K."

I feel as if I have a friend too. Thanks ever so much. Now I can breathe easily. See my answer about the utensil some time next week.

GOOD MANNERS

By MRS. BEECKMAN

PERSONAL NOTES ON ENGRAVED CARDS

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

My beloved husband died recently, very suddenly. We had no children, and I have been a semi-invalid for several years. My husband's world of friends included not only our friends but also many friends in his profession and in several clubs and organizations. I just couldn't face writing thank-you notes for all the flowers and hundreds of messages of sympathy, and I have no relative to ask to do this. So I ordered engraved cards to express my "deep appreciation and gratitude for your kindness and sympathy." (I hope, Mrs. Beeckman, you won't too much disapprove of my doing this, under the circumstances.) Now my question is: Even though the cards, with very narrow black border, are engraved, would it be at all permissible for me to write at the end of the engraved message, a few words of more "personal" appreciation, to especially intimate friends, if so, would you please suggest some appropriate messages I could write? — E.H.

Under your very sad and particularly difficult circumstances, I do approve of your having engraved cards of appreciation made to send to so many friends and acquaintances. You would not, I should not, be expected to add this sorrowful task to the burden you are carrying in your heart. And I am pleased that you would like to add some personal messages to the engraved message. You may write the very simple "Thank you very much, Elizabeth." Or: "Your memorial red roses were beautiful. Thank you so much." Or: "Your dear words of understanding and sympathy were a deep comfort to me. Thank you."

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT NOW

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I have my engagement ring, but I haven't worn it in public yet because our engagement hasn't been announced. My mother and father think the engagement shouldn't be announced now because it will probably be nearly a year before we can marry, and that we should wait until nearer the time when we can be married. We would like to have your advice. — Engaged

Since apparently there is no real reason for not announcing your engagement now, my advice is that it should be announced. This establishes the fiance-and-fiance status to your relatives and friends, avoids questions.

EASTING CHEF'S SALAD

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

When I order a chef's salad as the main course at lunch (it's a favorite of mine), I'm never sure whether to eat it from the individual salad bowl in which it is served, or to serve it to my plate. How should it be eaten? — J.W.

You may properly do as you prefer. . .but it's usually considered better eating-procedure to take a portion at a time to your plate.

ENGAGED COUPLE ARE INVITED TO WEDDING

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I'm having a quite large church wedding and reception. I've listed a friend of mine, not a particularly close friend, and her mother to be sent invitations. This friend recently announced her engagement, but I have not met her fiance. My sister insists that I must invite him indeed that I must invite any fiance (or fiancee) of any guest I'm inviting. True or false?—Bride-to-be.

True!

Sweden Is Building Major Naval Base Underground

By GUSTAV SVENSSON

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Sweden is building one of Europe's major naval bases underground.

To answer the challenge of the atomic age, the Swedes also are blasting their biggest naval repair yards into the heart of a granite island in the Stockholm archipelago.

This project involves the total transfer of Stockholm naval base and yards to atom-bomb-proof underground facilities at Harajfaerden, 15 miles southeast of the capital.

For defence of the base the Swedes will put in some of their most modern weapons, including Swedish - made medium - range guided missiles—"coastal robots" as they call them here. They are designed primarily for defence against an attacking enemy navy.

The new naval base is under construction in an extensive island system already bristling with fortifications, submarine pens and underground harbors, where destroyers can sail straight inside the granite mountains for protection and repairs.

SHIPYARDS INSIDE ROCK

Using special blasting techniques the Swedes are building the biggest shipyards—in number of docks—in all Sweden inside the solid rock of Muskoe island. Also inside the same mountain will be a major part of what was formerly the Stockholm naval base. Another part of it will be accommodated in similar installations at Berga, across Harajfaerden bay.

Sailing through the Muskoe base area on board a Swedish cruiser, you can see lights gleaming deep inside the rock which hides what is claimed to be the largest man-made mountain cave in the world. Virtually nothing else of these giant subterranean construction works can be seen from the outside.

The total size of these underground structures is a military secret.

The docks are specially designed to offer full protection against the atomic bomb and a very large measure of protection against the hydrogen bomb.

There are about 500 underground command posts in the country for the armed forces and the civil defence organization. All are inside granite mountains. Oil and ammunition stores and some war industries are also underground.

For civilians, atom-bomb-proof rock shelters are being built in major cities. The biggest one so far, inside the Katarina rock in Stockholm, accommodates 20,000 people.

Pathologist Says He Found No Bruises on Body

WELLAND (CP)—A pathologist said in court today an autopsy showed no marks of violence on the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Doreen MacLean, 20, who died in a canoe upset near here Aug. 22, 1953.

Dr. Grant Colpitts, pathologist at the Welland County General Hospital, testified at the trial of the woman's 23-year-old husband, Bruce, on a charge of murder.

The charge was laid after Sylvia Davies of Port Colborne testified at a preliminary hearing of a fraud charge she brought against MacLean last spring that MacLean boasted to her he had committed the "perfect crime" in connection with his wife's death. Miss Davies said she became engaged to MacLean last winter and loaned him $1,800 which she could not recover and later broke off the engagement.

RE-OPEN INVESTIGATION

She testified that MacLean told her he upset his canoe and swam around until his wife, a non-swimmer, was drowned.

At the time of the drowning, the death was listed as accidental. The investigation was reopened after Miss Davies made her statements.

Dr. Colpitts said he was instructed to look thoroughly for possible marks of violence.

"I found nothing to indicate any violence had taken place," he said. In his opinion, the woman died of asphyxia.

Robert Thorpe, municipal, said that during embalming of the body he noticed a bruise above the right eye and a cut or tear on the inside of the left leg that he said could have been caused by grappling irons.

He said the bruise above the right eye might have been caused by a fall against some object. He agreed with defence counsel David Brooks that the bruise was "not of any great depth."

Dr. David A. Wilson, physician called to the death scene, said he concluded it was "a usual case of drowning."

The trial is continuing at an Ontario Supreme Court hearing presided over by Mr. Justice R. W. Treleaven.

Lifer Confesses He Killed Co-Ed 14 Years Ago

McALESTER, Okla. (AP)—Jack Ray, 34-year-old life-term convict and newly confessed killer of a Penn State co-ed, has been pictured as a campus Casanova with a third-grade education.

By his own word, he was twice a murderer—perhaps three times—a car thief and a dope pusher, all within a few short months of a whirlwind crime career that ended 14 years ago.

This is the portrait of a man whose confession is being studied hopefully—if skeptically—by officers in State College, Pa., where Rachel Taylor was beaten to death March 28, 1940.

The co-ed's bludgeoned and stabbed body, stripped of nearly all clothing, was found six miles from the Penn State campus. Ray said he fetched a letter from her bosom as the prize of his crime.

This letter, according to his confession, was written by his pregnant girl friend, threatening in a fit of anger to expose his selling dope to students.

He said he had nothing against Miss Taylor. The 17 - year-old Wildwood, N.J., girl had just happened to be a friend of his paramour whose letter detailed his illegal activities under the guise of a college boy selling sweaters. Actually, he told a reporter, he was "pushing" heroin—selling about 150 capsules every three or four weeks for $1.40 a capsule.

Ray's confession, obtained by deputy sheriff Abner Dear after a behind-the-walls tip in the state prison here, said he beat Miss Taylor to death with a .45 pistol—the same one used in an Oklahoma shooting.

He ripped her clothing off until he found the missive that threatened to destroy him hidden in her brassiere.

Dear said, he alrmalled Ray's confession to Pennsylvania Tuesday. Officers there, weary of following hundreds of leads that fizzled, said they would study it, reserving an opinion for the present.

The sheriff's office here had no doubt, calling the case "solid as the rock of Gibraltar."

Ray himself told reporters after signing the confession:

"I've pleaded guilty, haven't I?"

He was willing to take a lie detector test and was happy "to get it off my chest after 14 years."

Marmora

MARMORA — The fall convention of the reorganized Hastings and Prince Edward Deaneries Sunday School Association (Anglican) was held in St. John's Parish Hall, Stirling, on Friday evening proving a successful, inspiring and helpful conclave. An attendance of 47 represented eight parishes and ten Sunday Schools under the presidency of Archdeacon J. B. Creegan of Christ Church, Belleville.

Following a pot luck supper, the session opened with prayer by Rev. Fred Page of Shannonville and a welcome by Rev. H. C. Secker, rector of Stirling. Minutes of the spring session were confirmed as read by Mary Sallbury, secretary pro tem.

LEADERS APPOINTED

Next came the appointment of four group leaders to lead in discussion, following the delivery of a thought-provoking address by F. L. Benson of St. Thomas, Belleville, who spoke on "The Responsibility of a Sunday School teacher. He declared at the start that the Sunday School teacher is a missionary to help the young to a closer communion with God. He said that privileges meant responsibilities and vice-versa. Children are noticed to give an efficient school teacher the status of a prophet or an apostle.

EXTRA STUDY

Responsibilities of a Sunday School teacher included that of extra study and of knowing the full course of lessons for the year. It meant also the learning of teaching methods so as to inspire the instructed. Teachers should meet and discuss with their fellows the best means of attaining to high standards. They should be at Sunday School early to compose themselves so as to talk with and greet each student before the opening of each session.

Finally they should discipline themselves so their demeanor and actions exemplify the worship and reverence of God.

GROUP FINDINGS

The group leader then presented the findings of each group which were of the unanimous opinion that the subject had been inspiringly presented.

F/Lt. A. C. Maskell of St. George's, Trenton, then spoke on "Teaching techniques". He maintained the basic requirements of a teacher were personality, leadership, subject matter and related material. For the teaching of a lesson, they were to follow the line of three Fs: personality, preparation and presentation.

GENERAL BUSINESS

In general business it was suggested that the Diocesan Board of Religious Education request that the Field Secretary on his visit to the Deaneries of Hastings and Prince Edward, besides the other Deaneries in the Diocese, conduct a Teachers' Training Course.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The election of officers followed the lead of the nominating committee, resulting as follows: president, Flight Lieut. A. C. Maskell, Trenton; vice president, Mr. F. L. Benson, St. Thomas, Belleville; secretary treasurer, Mr. R. Andrews, Stirling. The newly elected president announced that there would be three meetings in the course of the year. The next to take place Jan. 14, 1955, would be at Christ Church Hall, Belleville, commencing again with a pot luck supper. Clergymen present included: Archdeacon J. B. Creegan, Christ Church, Belleville; Rev. W. J. Robinson, St. Thomas Church, Belleville; Rev. L. A. Page, Shannonville; Canon J. M. Brownlie, Marmora; Canon A. S. McConnell, Trenton; Rev. H. C. Secker, Stirling; Rev. W. Giovetti, Madoc.

The session was closed with prayer by Canon A. S. McConnell.

St. Paul's Sunday School reopened for the current year on Sunday morning with a good attendance. Rearrangement of classes was carried out.

Madoc

MADOC — The September meeting of St. Peter's W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Ben Miller. The opening part of the meeting was a memorial for the late Mrs. John McCaffrey who had been a devoted member for a number of years. Psalm 100 was sung, followed by a few moments of silent prayer.

The devotional part of the meeting consisted of hymn 291, "Break Thou the Bread of Life". The Scripture Lesson: Acts, Ch. 4: Verses 8-20, was read by Mrs. Wm. Bateman. Mrs. Allan Johnson led in prayer.

The president, Mrs. Allan, introduced the topic from the study book, "A Missionary Flight Around the World."

Mrs. Cecil Woods read a letter from Formosa, written by Mrs. James Dixon, who gave a vivid picture of the work being done in the leper colony at Taipeh. A tribute to Dr. Gushue Taylor was read by Mrs. David Blakely.

Mrs. Allan spoke briefly on Christianity in Japan and then went on to tell of the Christians at Hong Kong. With the coming of the communists into China the missionaries were all driven out. Refugees from China went to Hong King for aid. There still are Chinese Christians at Formosa.

The study then moved to India where the centre of interest was at Bombay.

Mrs. Johnson read an article on the girls' school at Ujasal. In it we were told of the many converts at the school which is indeed a wonderful tribute to the work of Christian missionaries there.

All are working through God in a mighty plan and purpose to Christianize the world.

The business part of the meeting was then discussed.

The closing hymn was 378, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains". Mrs. Allan closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Bateman assisted Mrs. Miller in serving delicious refreshments.

Mrs. E. T. Nayler and Mrs. N. R. Broad spent the week at London, Ont., where they attended the Grand Chapter, Order of The Eastern Star.

Mrs. Walter Wiryiock is visiting relatives in Toronto.

Miss Margaret Derry, School of Nursing of Civic Hospital, Ottawa, spent the weekend at her home in Madoc.

Miss Ruth Silvester, of Belleville, visited friends in Madoc Saturday.

Miss Gladys Gehan of Napanee spent the weekend with friends in Madoc.

Youths Fined $100 Each For Chaining Boy

TORONTO (CP) —Three teenagers of suburban Scarborough Tuesday pleaded guilty to chaining another youth after grabbing him from his car, dragging him through Lake Ontario at the foot of Scarborough bluffs and stuffing him in the back of a car.

Angus Malin, George Hayes and Morris Mihalkin were fined $100 each in York county court for assaulting Norman Anderson, 17, who police said came close to death in the ordeal.

Anderson said he was pulled with the chain about his waist up the bluffs, rolled in a tarpaulin and stuffed into the trunk of a car. Then they drove him to a park and threw him in a swamp where he was found by detective Cecil Caskie. Detective William Myers said gas fumes in the trunk of the old-model car could have killed him.

"It was the worst thing I have ever seen," said Detective Caskie.

Abduction Proved

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—George Sedgewick, 23, a deaf mute, was convicted Tuesday of abducting a 13-year-old Port Arthur boy. He was remanded to Sept. 22 for sentence.

Police said Sedgwick took the boy to Toronto Aug. 22 and then to Peterborough where they stayed with his relatives. They were apprehended by Toronto police while on a visit to Toronto.

Sedgwick said the boy had "begged me" to take him away from his family to another city. He claimed the boy was the victim of a sordid family background.

Bringing Up Baby
Hints Collected by Mrs. Dan Gerber (Mother of 5)

Schedule slave? Try not to be. While the beast will run more smoothly with a schedule, let it be flexible. For instance: baby's bath time can be shifted if unexpected events remain. If laundry's a problem, don't make a point of ironing every last frill. Your housework is just as happy in clothes that need no pressing.

Treat for a teether. Wonderful to know that you can help bring blessed relief to your teether with Gerber's Teething Biscuits. They're extra-firm and smooth - surfaced ...give baby plenty of chewing satisfaction, yet are ever so easy on tender, aching gums. Made of wholesome ingredients and baked into a special shape that small hands can hold easily. Each one is wrapped in sparkling cellophane so baby can count on his "munch" when you go visiting or airing.

Baby Spoon offer! A heavy silver plated Baby Spoon (regular value $1.25) is yours for only 25c plus one box top from any of the five famous Gerber Baby Cereals. Just send to: Mrs. Dan Gerber, Box 17, Toronto 18, Canada.

New horizons. Once baby cuts those first sparkly teeth, he's ready for something more grown up in the way of food. Gerber's Junior foods are just right for this first step toward "chewing foods." For they have a tender, evenly-minced texture that's easy to manage ... the same kind - flavor goodness baby's been used to in Gerber's Strained Foods. Gerber's Junior Foods: Vegetables, Soups, Meats and Desserts have the uniform quality you expect from specialists who make baby foods and nothing else.

Help wanted. Many of this column's most useful hints come from mothers just like you. If you have any bright ideas on baby care that you'd like to share with other mothers, do send them to me. Write: Mrs. Dan Gerber, Box 17, Toronto 18, Canada.

CHIPS OFF THE SPORTS BLOCK

By Geo. H. Carver, Sports Editor

ROCKY IN EIGHT!

Tonight, a lithe aggressive former world heavyweight plon will seek to regain his crown, something that has never happened in the history of boxing.

Tonight at Yankee Stadium, the crowd will not be cheering their beloved Bronx Bombers, but two men, the king and ex-monarch of the squared circle.

Tonight, Ezzard Charles will once again face Rocky Marciano on whose handsome noggin rests the coveted symbol of world supremacy of what somebody once dubbed "the manly art of self-defence".

It will be the second meeting of the pair. Three months ago Charles took a terrible beating from the Brockton Blockbuster. Rocky won the decision in the latter rounds, overcoming Charles early-rounds point lead.

If you go by the popular trend of box-fighting the last few months, it is an upset if the favorite wins. If such a thing occurs tonight—well you figure it out.

Popular opinion, the experts south of the border, the "boys in the know" and the fight mob, are picking the champion to defend his title. Others, and they are not a few, are ready to gamble that the ebon locks of Charles will sport the glittering crown of the world's heavyweight championship after the smoke and thunder of battle has cleared.

There is one thing to be said about Charles. "He will enter the ring against his formidable opponent a much wiser man than the one who faced Rocky in their previous meeting. Charles learned at least one lesson from that bloody battle.

In that meeting, Charles underlook to "fight the long fight", to outbox his opponent and keep away from the lethal fists of the champion. Tonight, at least it is my opinion, will see the challenger reverse his tactics, and launch a furious early-round onslaught in the hope of tagging Rocky with a knockout punch. This, we believe, will be dangerous for the challenger. For if he fails in his plans to keep the Rock, he will have used so much of his energy that he might be a sitting duck for those blockbusting fists in the latter rounds.

About the only damage of any consequence Charles landed out to Rocky in their first embroglio was a cut over an eye. Rocky bled quite profusely but was not seriously hurt. It is stated that Charles will concentrate on the scarred optic tonight in the hope of slowing down the champion and readying him for the finish.

But on the other side of the ledger, Charles will face a vastly different Marciano to the hard-hitting champion he carried to Yankee Stadium before. Rocky was stale from lack of fights and had been training for about six months. This time he should be at his sharpest.

The champion, according to the "experts" has readied himself for any style of attack Charles may throw at him. One thing is sure. Rocky will not change his ferocious bull-doing style of offence, and if Charles does attempt to mix matters, it could be an early ring demise for the challenger.

In any event, we are of the opinion it will be "three times and out" for Charles. He has been fighting for eighteen years and the road ahead gets tougher each year. We believe it will be the end of the trail for the courageous negro and that he will hit the canvas for keeps inside of eight rounds.

BASEBALL

Not since the flaming twenties when the Mills brothers, Penny and Harry, The "Judas", "Doc" Blakeley and the rest of that illustrious COB gang brought home the provincial senior baseball championship, has a Belleville team been so close to a title.

Strangely enough, that is the position the Bataa find themselves in at the moment.

There is a probability that they will meet the Oshawa Transporters for the Eastern Ontario championship, and a possibility they might even take the provincial title. The Oshawans are crying piteously about their and financial sistas and they could be coaxed to play the Bataa providing the Carsoncers paid the shot, including room service.

However Manager Jack Carson has other ideas. He absolutely refuses to fall in with the Oshawa idea of a two-of-three series and subsidies. In fact he has tossed the matter into the laps of the OBA brass with the request they order the series with no financial strings attached. Should hear something about that later today.

Meanwhile the Oakville Oaks will play Petrolia in an OBA senior playdown, with the winners meeting the Niagara District champions for the western Ontario championship. The winners will meet the Oshawa-Belleville victors for the Ontario Senior title.

CATS IN KINGSTON

"RASSLIN"

The popular and powerful partnership of Whipper Watson and Pat-Flanagan will oppose the judo-chopping Togo Brothers in the tag team wrestling feature at the Memorial Arena on Friday night. The Togos' Canadian Open tag team title and George Richards Trophy will be at stake. Two referees have been appointed to handle this important and explosive match, namely, Al (Sunny) Dunlop and Joe Golfob. Whipper and Flan have teamed together successfully many times in the past and are determined to retain the team honors, which they formerly held, from the terrible Togos.

Gentleman Jack Claybourne, sensational Negro wrestler from South Africa, will collide with gigantic Shy-Hi Lee in the semi-final.

RESCHEDULE BOUT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Boxing promoter Bennie Ford announced Tuesday the lightweight title fight between champion Paddy DeMarco and Jimmy Carter had been rescheduled for Nov. 17 at the San Francisco Cow Palace. The nationally televised attraction was called off last week when DeMarco came down with arthritis.

GETS TICKETS BACK

NEW YORK (AP) — Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champ Rocky Marciano, Tuesday received a package in the mail containing a tie pin and $1,000 in cash. Half the fight tickets recently stolen from his office. The returned tickets were valued at $1,770. Tickets valued at $4,100 were taken from his office originally.

Durochermen's 2-1 Victory Practically Ousts Brewers; Tribe Edges Closer to Flag

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

As the National League pennant chase rushes to a climax, it becomes more and more evident that the three-game Brooklyn - New York series next week would decide the winner.

Milwaukee, to all intents and purposes, is out of the running. The Giants took care of that little item Tuesday night with a 2-1 victory over the Braves. With 12 games to play, the Braves are 5½ back, virtually insurmountable margin.

The Giants still lead the Brooks by 3½ games. Either, of course, could collapse before next Monday when the set gets under way in Ebbets Field, but at the rate the two have been going, that's hardly likely.

The Dodgers cannot afford to lose a game. Every one presents a crisis with them, for they have only 10 left to play. The Giants have 11. Actually, no matter what the Brooks do to the Giants, they can gain no more than three games, so they will need assistance from some other club.

BEAT REDLEGS

Brooklyn kept in the race Tuesday night with a 4-0 triumph over the Cincinnati Redlegs behind the fine pitching of Johnny Podres. In "mean nothing" National League games, the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Phillies, 5-2, and the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates split a doubleheader. The Cubs won the first, 9-2 and the Pirates the nightcap, 4-0.

In the American League, where it's all fun and no shooting, the magic number for the Cleveland Indians became "2" when they turned back Washington, 5-2. Any combination of two Cleveland victories or Yankee defeats and the Indians are the league champions.

The Yanks meanwhile, continued to play it out by rushing Detroit, 11-6. Baltimore beat Boston, 9-1, and Philadelphia shut out Chicago, 1-0, in other American League action.

The Giants had their troubles whipping the Braves, who had a 1-0 lead going into the seventh inning. Whitey Lockman tied it with a home run in the seventh and the Giants won in the eighth. Don Mueller started with a single. Dusty Rhodes walked and both advanced on a wild pitch. Willie Mays was passed intentionally to load the bases.

CONLEY OUT

That was all for Gene Conley, who had been pitching well. Chet Nichols replaced Conley and on his first pitch, Bobby Hofman, pinch hitting for Henry Thompson, singled Mueller home. Rhodes, who collided with Braves shortstop Johnny Logan on the basepath, was out at the plate.

Sal started for the Giants and was replaced by Hoyt Wilhelm in the eighth. The reliever got credit for the triumph.

Podres tossed a three-hitter at the Redlegs to lead Jack Brooks to their victory. The Dodgers rang up nine hits, including Carl Furillo's 17th homer of the season.

Red Schoendienst and Rip Repulski hit successive home runs in the eighth inning to break up a tie game and give the Cards their victory over the Phils.

13 HITS

Bob Rush coasted to victory in the first game over the Pirates. He was backed up by a 13-hit attack. Ralph Kiner knocked in four runs with two singles and a double. In the nightcap, however, the Cubs managed to collect a paltry five hits off Bob Friend.

The Indians wasted little time showing the Senators who was in charge. They scored all their runs in the first inning and from there on Mike Garcia coasted to his 18th victory. Hal Newhouser and Ray Narleski each pitched an inning for the Tribe at the end.

The Yanks rolled up 16 hits against the Tigers and played as though they still were in the thick of the pennant race. Tom Morgan hurled the shutout and Ed Robinson and Bob Cerv knocked in six runs. Robinson got six scores at the plate with a single, double and home run and Cerv sent five homes with a pair of home runs.

Marty Marion made his debut as manager of the White Sox, but it was unauspicious as Arnold Portocarrero tossed a four-hitter in outdueling Virgil Trucks.

Joe Coleman was the big man in the Orioles' triumph. He set the Red Sox down with a paltry five hits.

Third Time For Ezzard

NEW YORK (AP)—Ezzard Charles will be the first former heavyweight champion to get a third chance to win back the title he once held. Eight have tried, Jim Corbett and Charles twice each, but all failed in previous attempts.

Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries, Jack Dempsey, Max Schmeling and Joe Walcott were the others who missed. Charles lost out in attempts against Walcott and Marciano.

Marciano 5-1 Over Charles; You Can Listen But Not Look

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Determined Ezzard Charles gets a second crack at heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano in Yankee Stadium tonight and the odds are 1-5 that he'll get whipped again.

The 33-year old ex - champion from Cincinnati went the full 15 rounds with the powerful Brockton blaster last June 17 but the return figures to be a short and explosive battle.

Most of the experts feel that Charles will have done the world quickly in the hopes of stopping the ever-pressing champion and that, instead of scoring, he will be chopped down by Marciano's savage swings. The pick here is Rocky by a knockout within eight rounds.

The betting is 5-12 that the 30-year old champion will stop the personal challenger and wreck his unprecedented third bid to become the first ex-king to regain the heavyweight throne. You can get 6 to 1 if you think Charles will stop Marciano.

They'll start swinging at 10:30 p.m., EDT before some 40,000 fight. Promoter Jim Norris, encouraged by a brisk ticket sale Tuesday and by a favorable forecast of "fair and partly cloudy at the worst," still hopes to do $525,000 and upwards at the gate. The last one lured 47,585 of the faithful and grossed $343,092. If the fight is postponed by rain, it will be held Thursday.

The International Boxing Club president predicted an advance sale of from $375,000 to $400,000. Radio and television rights tradition for the first fight amounted to $150,000. Norris said his men are geared to handle 61,000 and more.

Coast - to - coast closed circuit television to a record 70 theatres in 50 cities may add another $200,000 to the IBC coffers. There will be no home television. CBS will radio broadcast the fight.

Charles adds another $35,000 to the kitty. If the fight proves sensational, the movies will bring in another golden harvest.

And sensational it could be if it lives up to the pre-fight talk.

Even the conservative Charles has indicated that the fur will fly. In his pre-fight statement, he said:

"I proved that Marciano could be hurt in the last fight when I banged him around and cut his eye in the seventh round. I was cautious and did not press my advantage. You can be sure I will this time and if I get him in danger as I did then, I will smash my way for the kill."

"I'm ready to stand toe to toe and slug it out with him," said Marciano who doesn't need any encouragement along that line. "If Charles rushes me and slugs it out one of us should go in a hurry. I think it will be Charles."

Injured Marlene Wins Three Rounds In US Ladies Amateur Golf Tourney

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The U.S. women's amateur golf championship, which has gone through two days with only a few notable surprises, moved into the stage where it begins to make sense.

Most of the rank outsiders were missing from the list of 32 players going into today's single round of 18-hole matches, starting at 1 p.m. EDT. A few of the prime favorites were gone, too.

But the one unpremeditated fact left to reckon with was that Mary Lena Faulk, the pint Georgian who won the title last year, and Grace Lenczyk, the comeback-bound 1940 champion, were paired in a match that could have an important bearing on the championship.

Blonde Miss Lenczyk, from Pennington, Conn., skyrocketed to the top of the women's division when she won the western championship, the national and the Canadian titles in 1940. She never has come close from the national crowd since then. But this year she has been playing well and turned in a couple of impressive performances in bracketing Stewart Brown and Betty Garber in her two matches in this tournament.

Miss Faulk started more slowly than Grace and just reached the top last year, had only two victories in the two matches she played and showed the effects when she was carried to the 19th green Tuesday before winning, 2 and 1, from blonde Greta Lenczyk of Chicago.

Marlene Stewart, Canadian women's Open champion, overcame a painful injury Tuesday to win two matches and qualify for the fourth round of the tournament.

The 23-year-old girl from Fonthill, Ont., played with a bandaged hand, survived a shaky second round match against Mrs. Alex C. Capers Jr. of Ardmore, Pa., Pennsylvania state titleholder, 4 and 3 and then turned back Patricia Devary of Grosse Ile, Mich., 2 and 1, in a third round.

In another second round match Mrs. Jo'us McDougald of Long Beach, Calif., was upset by Barbara Anne Bruning of Armonk, N.Y., 4 and 3.

Miss Stewart, former British women's champion, hurt her hand a week ago and Monday a doctor found a bone out of place. It was put back in position and the hand bandaged.

But Tuesday Miss Stewart said it still pained when she grasped her club and that her shots were about 20 yards shorter than usual. She played straight, steady golf, however, and was able to take advantage of her opponent's wild swinging.

Two up after the first four holes Mrs. Capers could not stay in the tight fairways of the hilly Allegheny course and lost five holes in a row. Miss Stewart finished the match with a birdie four on the 422-yard 16th hole.

Elgins Edge Golf Terriers For Third Win

Another win and the St. Thomas Elgins will own the Senior International Baseball League championship.

The Elgins took a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven final by defeating Galt Terriers 8-6 Tuesday night at Galt.

At Sudbury the Creighton Indies swept into the Nickel Belt Senior Baseball League final, defeating Frood Tigers 10-3 to win their best-of-seven semi-final 4-0. Next stop for the Indians involves the winners of the Copper Cliff-Sudbury series. Copper Cliff has a 3-1 lead in games.

The Elgins were lucky in beating the Terriers. In the sixth inning Jack Calvin dropped Herm Mason's fly to right field with two out and paved the way for a six-run rally.

It was one of the worst innings this season for the Terriers on their home field. They committed three errors, with two walks and a wild pitch by Jeep Jessup deciding the issue. There were only two hits in the inning.

Eddie Drapcho, the winning pitcher, was taken out in the eighth for a pinch hitter and Wilmer Harris finished it.

When Calvin dropped the ball in the eighth, he kicked it and the sphere rolled under the scoreboard. Before the ball was retrieved, runs crossed the plate. It was his only chance of the game. Calvin how ever paced the locals offensively with five swingles.

Galt's big frame was the fifth when they counted five runs on four hits, with two Elgin errors mixed in. Drapcho fanned eight in seven innings.

Paul Richards Named Manager For Baltimore

CHICAGO (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles finally have squeezed loose from the Chicago White Sox a member of the fabulous Lane-Richards combination.

Sox manager Paul Richards quit as manager of the Sox Tuesday and accepted terms to be named piloting general manager-field manager of the Orioles. He was succeeded immediately by Marty Marion, Sox coach and former St. Louis Cardinals and Browns manager.

Sox general manager Frank Lane and Richards since teaming up in 1951 have kept the Chicago American League club in almost constant pennant contention. And the Sox, seldom a financial bonanza in the past, have counted more than 1,000,000 in attendance in each Lane-Richards season.

But the Orioles since their conversion from the St. Louis Browns last winter have appeared determined to lure one or the other of the architects of baseball's success for their own.

Last winter the new Baltimore management reportedly offered Lane the equivalent of $100,000 for a five year contract to leave the Sox. The Comiskey family, which owns the Chicago team, was floored, reluctantly since he was under a contract which had two more years to run, to extend Lane's contract another five years and hike his salary to a reported $70,000.

Thus the Comiskey attitude a few weeks ago when they were asked permission by Baltimore to dicker with Richards was described as "unsportsmanlike" for these things can run into money. Since the general managership was considered a promotion, however, they consented.

The Comiskeys went through the motions of giving Richards a raise if he would stay, but they would not match Baltimore's three-year figure, which was considered the deciding factor.

Wings Hold Lead Over Montreal; Chiefs Win Berth

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rochester Red Wings hold a one-game lead over Montreal Royals in the semi-final series of the International League's Governors' Cup, while Syracuse Chiefs have copped the final playoff spot.

Jack Fanshoh hurled a brilliant seven-hitter as the Red Wings blanked the Royals 2-0 in the opener of the best-of-seven series Tuesday night.

In the "sudden death" playoff between Syracuse and Havana Cuban Sugar Kings, Syracuse trounced the Kings 13-4 behind the spectacular relief pitching of Lynn Lovenguth. He hurled one-hit ball for 7 2-3 innings.

The teams ended the regular season in a tie for fourth place, and Tuesday night's game was rescheduled after Monday night to determine which would go into the playoffs against the first-place Toronto Maple Leafs.

Havana won a pre-game coin-toss to become the "home team" but the Chiefs, batted first in their own park, scored five runs and five more in the ninth.

Bennie Zientara led the Syracuse attack against Cuban Havana pitchers with a home run, a double and two singles. Syracuse collected 13 hits with Marv Blaylock hitting the 22nd homer and Joe Leonard driving out a three-run double against loser Bill Powell.

Fanshoh spaced seven hits and doubled in the fifth to drive in a run. He gave up only one walk and struck out seven. Rochester scored its first run off loser Ken Lehman in the fourth inning on a single by Al Richter. Allie Clark added to the other.

Rochester entertains the Royals tonight in the second game of the series while the Chiefs open a best-in-seven series in Toronto.

Marciano Will K.O. Charles Says Psychiatrist

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. J. L. Moreno, noted psychiatrist and author, visited the training camps of Ezzard Charles and Rocky Marciano. Here he makes his selection and tells why. Written for The Associated Press

By DR. J. L. MORENO

NEW YORK (AP)—After taking a psychological study of Rocky Marciano and Ezzard Charles I pick Marciano to knock out Charles tonight in one of the middle rounds, probably the seventh or eighth.

Charles, a split personality, has to fight himself as well as the champion. He had his big chance to become the first former champion to regain the heavyweight title when he opened a large cut over Rocky's left eye in the first fight. He failed to follow up his advantage.

Ezzard, the way I see it, has but one slim way to win. If he can rid himself of his emotion blocks in a frenzy, if he should cut or hurt Rocky and then turn loose the "tiger" of his dream personality, then he could stop Marciano.

DREAMER VS REALIST

Charles is the introvert and the dreamer type, Marciano is the extrovert and the realist.

In Charles' dreams he ' ck-less, savage, destructive ' in-cible. Charles the dreamer ' times more powerful th ' ard Charles who is rea- ' lligent and sensitive.

To win, the inward Charles must break loose and strike fast and with all his might. Psychologically, and structurally for this to happen are small.

The study I made of both pugilists indicates to me that Rocky expects to win easily while Charles is anxious to win.

I expect to see them both start slowly tonight with Marciano permitting Charles to meet him halfway. Charles will be cautious. He will retreat and counter.

In the second or third round, Marciano, who generally warms up slowly, will suddenly take over the offensive. In the fourth and fifth, Charles may break loose once or twice in short spurts but sometime he will hold him back from letting loose to the fullest.

Then Marciano will move in with short, punishing blows and begin to wear Ezzard down. Rocky may knock Charles down in the seventh and finish him in the eighth round.

It is possible, of course, that the fight may go the whole way again. If so, Rocky should win more decisively than before. There is only a very remote possibility that Charles' determination to prove something to himself might urge him on to victory by decision.

BEATS WORLD MARK

LONDON (AP)—Galina Zybina of Russia Tuesday bettered her own world record for the eight-pound shot put with a toss of 53 feet, 4.85 inches. Her old mark was 53 feet, 1.8 inches. The record was established during competition in the U.S.S.R.

Amazing Stagg, 92 Hurt, Recovers

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—Amos Alonzo Stagg, hardy 83-year-old dean of American football coaches, was knocked out in a practice session at Stockton College Monday—but was on his feet and bounding about before doctors and an ambulance reached the field.

Staff said he was not hurt although he was unconscious five minutes after a charging centre bowled him over.

"You don't have to worry about me," Staff told players and coaches as he opened his eyes. "I know how to take care of myself."

Then he drilled the squad another 90 minutes.

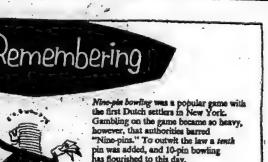
Worth Remembering



Nine-pin bowling was a popular game with the first Dutch settlers in New York. Gambling on the game became so heavy, however, that authorities banned "Nine-pins." To outwit the law a tenth pin was added, and 10-pin bowling has flourished to this day. Another unusual sports fact worth remembering.

British Actress Gives Reaction After First Visit to Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Sometimes it takes an outsider to make you realize that Hollywood is basically a rather wacky place.

Our visitor is Miss Joan Greenwood, brittle and volatile British actress who is here to make her first Hollywood movie, "Moonfleet." Here's her reaction to the town:

"I used to think Hollywood would be quite a normal place, because I had many friends who lived and worked here. They gave me the impression everything was ordinary and businesslike here. But it seems to me like the Hollywood of legend. It's a fabulous place."

One thing she can't quite get used to is the shade of her hair. There's a good reason for that: It changes every day.

"Oh, they've tried everything," she remarked. "When I came here, my hair was a little lighter than my normal ash blonde, because I had been swimming in the south of France. It was slightly bluetinged because of a rinse.

"They decided my hair would have to be changed for the picture. First it was a yellow shade, then mauve, then a bright orange, then a lavender.

"It was very disconcerting to wake up in the morning, brush my teeth and then be startled by my hair. I never knew what to expect. And each shade would put me in a different mood. The orange made me feel giddy, the mauve gave me a depressing mood and the yellow made me look on everything with disdain."

Miss Greenwood had orange hair on the day we lunched together. She was amazed at the way the studio had taken her over, dyeing her hair, altering her makeup and even tampering with my bosom."

She explained that the costumes had been "amazingly" designed.

Tiger Cats Plan Changes For Saturday Game

HAMILTON (CP) — Coach Carl Voyles of Hamilton Tiger - Cats, agitated over his club's three defeats in Big Four football race, apparently is planning to make some changes for next Saturday's game against Montreal Alouettes.

He is unhappy with the showing of quarterback Ed Songin and some of his halfbacks. Songin is the former Boston College pivot who sparked the Ticats to the Grey Cup title last season. Voyles chose him over three other quarterback candidates this season.

Songin has had 14 passes intercepted in four games and this along with the fact that he seems unable to run when trapped behind his line has the Tiger-Cats' coach worried.

Voyles experimented with halfbacks Bernie Custis and Bob Flippin at the quarterback slot during Tuesday night's practice, Flippin, who was dropped by Saskatchewan Roughriders, has not seen action in any of the Tiger-Cats' games.

EXPECT SHAKEUP

The expected shakeup, which may also include halfback Lou Kusserow and Custis, will see either Flippin or Pete Karpuk playing from offensive halfback position. Karpuk, who has been used only on defence this year, practised offensive drill Tuesday night.

Voyles said there are several things wrong with this club.

"Last year, Kusserow was the best halfback in the league. This year he isn't. Custis isn't running. He can be replaced. Songin is having a miserable time.

"But is isn't only these. Some of the long-term Canadians are letting us down. This is the most lackluster club we've fielded in Hamilton in five years. We're going to do something about it."

Voyles added that "either Songin starts running or we'll move someone in there who can." He said also the backfield isn't the cause of all the trouble.

'Duffy of San Quentin' Warner Bros Thrills Opens Today

Action, romance and terror are the ingredients said to comprise the film story of "Duffy of San Quentin", starring Louis Hayward, which opens today at the Belle Theatre, Joanne Dru and Paul Kelly as Warden Duffy. Maureen O'Sullivan co-stars with George MacReady and Horace McMahon in top supporting roles.

Based on the true story of Warden Clinton T. Duffy, former head of San Quentin Penitentiary, the film reportedly shows in graphic outline the riots, murders and brutality which led to the reforms in prison administration that mark our penal institutions today. Paul Kelly plays Warden Duffy, who was responsible for bringing the first woman, Joanne Dru, into the prison to work with the men who had not seen a woman in years. The problems that face Duffy and Joanne are highlighted in the person of one convict, played by Louis Hayward, who bears resentment against the Warden and Joanne.

Your Horoscope

BY FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR THURSDAY, SEPT. 16, 1954

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Auspicious for sound well-managed endeavors. This is the sort of day in which one can show his or her mettle—and it won't be too hard, either. Be kind to those depending on you.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — What you do well now may have a long after-effect. Consider all angles before deciding the course best to take. Direction is the major element in the day's battle for gains, progress. Cheerio!

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — Affairs close to your home, family and heart are especially favored now. Business, routine work, set efforts will require more than ordinary attention.

June 22 to July 22 (Cancer) — It will be appropriate to show your innate initiative and inventiveness now. Though competition is keen, put on an extra fine performance and win credits.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Your splendid and varied talents should stand you well today. And you can do better with a little extra effort. Avoid worry, anxiety; just move ahead to well earned gains.

August 23 to September 22 (Virgo)—You may encounter obstacles that seem impossible to conquer. But you have intelligence; are keen at analyzing and should be able to handle all problems. You have accomplished the difficult before.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Several ways now to improve and accomplish. You are not the type to give up, or become discouraged; don't do it now. Maintain harmony, improve relations with others; both will help.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Be careful how you answer questions, express your opinions—especially if money or other assets are involved. Protect personal and family interests. Avoid anxiety.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Carelessness, thoughtlessness could retard progress. Don't divulge everything you know. Keep confidences; help those who need assistance.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Influences now change from "just fair" to fine. A chance to improve. Handle tasks, propositions conscientiously. Think in terms of modern ways, something different, if profitable.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Get out from under ordinary routine, stock ideas. You can do better. Put fresh interest in your work. We must move forward or we slide backwards. Being lazily content hurts advancement.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Detach yourself from such leadership plans on your own, free to go ahead with faith and hope. Be determined—once you know you are right.

YOU BORN TODAY are able, keen with strong will power — especially when right or wrong is involved. You are magnetic, very talented, may have unusual mechanical skill; are likely to worry and strain if you do not check yourself at regular periods. Religion, calmness at meals and sufficient rest and sleep are requisites for good health and happiness. Don't let the little things in life become great troublemakers for you—take them in stride. Study and continue to improve yourself and advancement can continue all through your life. Be happy. Birthdate of: Francis Parkman, Amer. historian; James J. Hill, Amer. railway financier; Louis, XV of France.

Expect Voting Will Be Heavy In Rural Riding

EAST ANGUS, Que. (CP)—Voters in the predominantly rural and bilingual riding of Compton-Frontenac cast their ballots today in a close by-election, the third since the Union Nationale party was returned to power on a fourth term in 1952. The by-election was called July 21 to fill the Eastern Townships seat, vacant since the death of provincial minus ister C. D. French in May.

It is a three way fight. John French, farmer from Cookshire and a brother of the late minister, is the government candidate. Dr. Curtis Henry Lowry, a young physician from Sawyerville, represents the Liberals, and Hormidas Dalpé of Westbury township is entered as an Independent Nationalist.

Some 13,000 voters are on the lists.

EXPECT HEAVY VOTING

Voting is expected to be heavy, in the 1952 general election nines minister French was reelected by a vote of 4,349 over 4,200 for his Liberal opponent. An independent reaped 86 votes.

Standing of the legislative assembly now is: Union Nationale, 98; Liberals, 22; Independent, one; vacant, three.

Two other seats—in Montreal Laurier and Westmount-St. George —still are vacant. Mr. Duplessis has given no indication when by-elections may be held.

Montreal Laurier became vacant when J. Bruno Marchand left Union Nationale member, died and Westmount - St. George when George Marler, financial critic of the Liberal opposition, was appointed federal transport minister.

The Union Nationale is standing on its record.

Mr. Duplessis has told voters their decision cannot bring down the government. "It is for you to help us to help you," he told a campaign audience.

Liberal speakers have said Quebec is trailing other provinces because of its administration. Provincial leader Lapalme said although Quebec is the most heavily taxed province in Canada the Union Nationale has piled up consecutive deficits totalling $60,000,000.

Fame, Fortune Beckon Marilyn, Many Offers Made

TORONTO (CP)—Fame and fortune beckon Marilyn Bell, first person to swim across Lake Ontario.

John Sutherland, executive of the New York office of Music Corporation of America, conferred in Toronto with her advisers.

Before he met them, he said in an interview:

"I realize I'm on a very important mission here which I think will probe beneficial to a certain person. I shall have a statement to make very soon."

Miss Bell, who will be 17 Sept. 19, spent another day in a downtown hotel suite with a committee of advisers discussed with her the gifts and offers which have poured in upon her since she swam the lake last Thursday.

LIKE ESTHER

Advisers said, the prospect of a career in the entertainment world, perhaps along the lines of that followed by swimmer Esther Williams, raised the possibility that the blonde high school students might be out of school for the next year or longer.

Gus Ryder, her coach, asked about the possibility that she might go to Hollywood, said:

"If they want Marilyn Bell to keep on swimming and to retain her lovely girlhood, the quicker they get her back to the normal routine of her life—no matter what it costs in dollars and cents—the better it will be for her."

Marilyn offered him half the proceeds of her swim but he firmly rejected the offer.

Senator Loses Primary Vote

NEW YORK (AP)—Republican Senior Robert W. Upton of New Hampshire was the most notable loser Tuesday as primary elections in nine states produced party candidates for the November election.

Voters in New Hampshire, New York, Vermont, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Colorado, Utah, Minnesota and Washington picked nominees for five United States Senate seats and 83 in the federal House of Representatives, for six state governorships and a host of other state and local offices. The voteway reported light in several states.

THREE-WAY RACE

Upton was defeated by veteran U.S. Representative Norris Cotton, 54, in a three-way race for the Republican nomination to serve the last two years of the late senator Charles W. Tobey's six-year term. In recent years, Republican nomination has meant election in New Hampshire.

Welland Man's Murder Trial Opens Tuesday

WELLAND (CP)—The trial of Bruce MacLean, 23, charged with murder of his 20-year-old wife, Elizabeth, a year ago August, today goes into its second day before Mr. Justice R. W. Treleaven.

Dr. Grant Colpitts, pathologist at Welland County General Hospital, said Tuesday the finding of an autopsy on the body of Mrs. MacLean was that she had died of asphyxia.

The strangler case made news months after Mrs. MacLean's body was taken from a Welland river by Stanley Mayo, Welland fireman Sylvia Daniel of Port Colborne, that he had boasted to her of committing the perfect crime by drowning his wife.

CONCLUDED ACCIDENTAL

Dr. A. C. Purdon, associate coroner, said he investigated the drowning and concluded death was accidental. He said he saw MacLean standing at the scene and he had seemed upset.

John Cragg, who called police as soon as MacLean reported the drowning, said the accused was quite excited and upset during "Mrs. Margaret Gorman, a canoe rental operator, told the court that in conversation with her, Mrs. MacLean said she was afraid of water and that MacLean had been teaching her to swim during their vacation.

Harold Beckon, who had gone to the Draper home to buy fill, said he had seen MacLean crying "oh and oh."

As MacLean was led away at the end of the day's hearing two flash bulbs went off just outside the courtroom. Mr. Justice Treleaven instructed that the photographs not be published.

"It will be very serious if they are," he said.

Three Families Neighbors For Fifty-One Years

GLACE BAY, N.S. (CP) — The MacDonalds, Walkers and Campbells are old hands at the business of neighborliness.

They ought to be; they've been neighbors for 51 years.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walker have seen one another through three golden wedding anniversaries, the rise to maturity of 32 children and the arrival of 107 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

The three families have hit it off admirably down through the years and the bond of friendship among them is known all over this Cape Breton coal mining town.

They saw Glace Bay become a town and then stuck by side another through the jobless times of the depression years of 1929 and 1930 when strikes hit deeply into the economy of industrial Cape Breton.

The families moved into new homes within the space of a few months of each other way back in 1903. All are Cape Bretoners except Mrs. Campbell who still is trying to re-visit her hometown of Nanaimo, B.C.

Congress Leaders Cool Toward Idea of 'Cartel'

OTTAWA (CP)—Leaders of Canada's two largest labor congresses were cool Tuesday towards the idea of the third-biggest congress for a "cartel" of all Canadian unions to fight unemployment.

Spokesmen for the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor on the question said:

While they said they would welcome any support in battling against unemployment, they pointedly avoided specific mention of the 100,000-member CCCL.

CCCL president Gerard Picard suggested the all-union hookup in a speech Saturday night at Montreal. He said that "this question of unemployment must not be an excuse for the formation of a cartel which, to form a union cartel to make representations to the government."

WOULD WELCOME

"No doubt all organized labor should put forth its best efforts to get what concerted action is necessary to improve employment," said President A. R. Mosher of the TLC. "The number CCCL can assure the two congresses would welcome any support for any public body on the matter."

Secretary - treasurer Gordon Cushing of the 380,000 - member TLC commented:

"The two national congresses can and have got together to try to solve the unemployment problem. Our executives already have endorsed co-operation between the national bodies, and we intend to work with that goal in mind."

U.S. Couple Win $42,000 Damages

BARRIE, Ont. (CP)—A United States couple Tuesday received a $42,000 damages settlement, believed, the largest in the history of Simcoe county, in a civil action suit before the Supreme Court of Ontario.

The settlement was granted by Mr. Justice Charles D. Stewart to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snyder of East Cleveland, Ohio, in connection with a highway accident near here July 29, 1952. They were in hospital here for eight months with injuries suffered in a head-on collision.

Evidence was that a car driven by two Hamilton youths, John Zelisko and Nicholas Lanoski, suddenly veered across the road and collided with the Snyders' car. Both Zelisko and Lanoski were killed.

The suit involved disposition of funds from insurance carried on the vehicle driven by the two youths.

Premier States Eight Regional Talks Planned

TORONTO (CP)—Premier Frost announced Tuesday that eight more regional provincial conferences are being planned in a program designed to guide Ontario in its development as one of the world's greatest industrial heartlands.

The first such conference was held last June in Ottawa when Premier Frost and several cabinet ministers conferred with members of the Ontario Eastern Association made up of various groups representing residents of the area.

One of the results of this meeting was an announcement by Planning Minister Warrender that the province, for a trial period of three years, will grant $10,000 a year to help underwrite the regional program.

The second conference will be held shortly in the Lakehead region and the third in northeastern Ontario which includes the districts of Algoma, Cochrane, Nipissing, Timiskaming, Manitoulin and Sudbury.

WILL BE ELIGIBLE

The eight new planning regions announced by Mr. Frost will be eligible for the planning grants which must be matched, dollar for dollar, by the regional association.

The program, first disclosed early this year by Mr. Warrender, separate the province's 412,582 square miles into nine economically logical areas.

Besides the eastern Ontario, Lakehead and northwestern areas, the conference divisions announced by Premier Frost are:

Lake Ontario—Counties of Durham, Haliburton, Hastings, Lennox and Addington, Northumberland, Peterborough, Prince Edward and Victoria.

Southwestern Ontario — Counties of Brant, Elgin, Essex, Kent, Lambton, Middlesex, Norfolk and Oxford.

Upper Grand River—Counties of Huron, Perth, Waterloo, Wellington.

Niagara—Counties of Haldimand, Lincoln, Nelson township (Halton), Welland, Wentworth.

Georgian Bay—Counties of Bruce, Dufferin, Grey, Muskoka, Parry Sound and Simcoe.

Metropolitan Toronto (excluding Nelson township), Ontario, Peel and York.

BIG PROGRAM

The separate conferences in each area will bring together local government officials, zoning and planning men, industrial commissioners and anyone else who is interested.

The program is designed to end uncharted industrial growth.

"Through these conferences all of these people of the province will have an opportunity through representative regional organization constituted by themselves, to set and discuss with the ministries many problems stemming from the vast growth taking place with Ontario," Premier Frost said.

CALLS FARMERS' MEETIN

STRATFORD (CP)—Reeve Isabelle Stock of Ellice township in Thursday he has called a meeting of hog producers and farmers in Stratford for Sept. 23 to protest the authority of United Livestock Sales as an organization having sole right to market hogs.

Marilyn Bell Goes Swimming

TORONTO (CP) — Marilyn Bell Tuesday night went swimming for the first time since she swam Lake Ontario.

She showed up, as she does every Tuesday night when she is not training, at the Oakwood Collegiate pool to help teach swimming to some of Toronto's handicapped and crippled children.

Close to 100 children were at the pool along with a large gallery of spectators who had come to see Marilyn's return to the water.

Floating on her back, she pulled the youngsters through the water.

"It sure feels wonderful to get back to swimming," she said.

Marilyn Will Go Back to School, Starting Monday

'Hollywood Can-Wait' Says Swimmer in Interview

Seaway Power Equal to Toil Of 55,000,000

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP)—Dollar bills stacked 35 miles high . . . the toil of 55,000,000 slaves . . . horsepower translated to horses—those are a few comparisons drawn today to show the magnitude of the St. Lawrence seaway and power project.

Ellis Armstrong, project engineer for the $800,000,000 joint Canada-United States job, says the 2,200,000 horsepower to be produced by the Barnhart island dam will be the equivalent in the energy potential of a double column of sturdy horses extending twice from New York to Los Angeles and once to Chicago.

Armstrong figures that if wheelbarrows were placed 10 feet apart in a line and filled with earth to be displaced by the project, the line would reach 210 times around the world at the equator, or from the earth to the moon 14 times.

TORONTO (CP)—Marilyn Bell, 16, said today that despite offers of contracts for personal appearances and of screen tests that poured in on her after she swam across Lake Ontario a week ago today, she plans to go back to high school next week.

She said, however, that her advisers will continue to study every offer made and suggest what they think is best for her.

"Right now, I'm going back to school," she said in an interview. "I've been away too long already. Thanks to the wonderful generosity of the Canadian people, I have money to finance my future education in addition to my scholarship at Castle Heights College School. I want to start back next Monday."

Marilyn said Lloyd Marilyn gives credit for her successful swim, Wednesday advised her to remain in Canada.

MUCH TO OFFER

"Don't pay any attention to this nonsense about Hollywood," he said in his address to the Canadian Chief of the Canadian people," he advised Marilyn to stay in Canada, and we agree that this country has much to offer."

Many persons have urged Marilyn to remain in Canada since reword of offers from the United States was given out. Rev. Lawrence Shaw, minister of Westmorland United Church where Marilyn sings in the choir, advised her:

"Forget the glamour, the publicity, the Hollywood offers. Come back home and lead the ordinary life of my other girl."

He also said in an interview:

"If you won't find a finer type of girl than Marilyn, all this exploitation of her must stop. It is tragic when a public child is used without thought of reward becomes so overlaid with commercialism."

GIFTS STILL COME

Marilyn said many of the persons who have begged her to stay in Canada.

Meanwhile, gifts still are coming in. Wednesday, the blonde swimmer was given a pure-breed Shetland sheep dog and a German shepherd puppie. She also received a Siamese kitten.

Marilyn, who will be 17 next Sunday, was advised by a doctor Tuesday to take things easy for a week or two. The strain of reception, personal appearances added to the toll of her strength taken by her 40-mile swim, had left her tired and ill.

Meanwhile, a fund was started Wednesday in Marilyn's home by her coach, to extend his work among crippled children at his Lakeshore Swimming Club.

WHO WILL DEEPEN SHIPPING CANALS NOT SETTLED

Work in Upper Lakes Will Cost $100,000,000

OTTAWA (CP) — A $100,000,000 question remains in the background of the St. Lawrence seaway project.

While Canada and the United States have come to agreement on the main project of spanning the International rapids section with canals, they have not negotiated an arrangement on financing the deepening of channels through the upper lakes.

The cost is estimated at $100,000,000, or roughly what the U.S. plans to spend on canal construction work in the international section of the St. Lawrence river.

Traditionally, the U.S. has taken care of the dredging work in passages between the upper lakes, on the theory that this is deepening U.S. - bound iron ore gives that country the larger interest in the area.

MAINTAINS CHANNELS

At present, it maintains channels of 25-foot depth downbound and 21 feet upbound. To match the new channel depth facilities on the St. Lawrence, these would have to be deepened to a minimum 27 feet. The channels are between Lake Superior, Huron and Erie.

It is expected that a plan for seaway construction, the U.S. will insist on further deepening between the upper lakes. But that treaty became inoperative on a 1932 agreement which Canada undertook to build the international area's work alone.

Last month, the later agreement was revised in an exchange of notes providing for both countries to do work on the international sections.

NO REFERENCE

But the newest agreement made no reference to the upper lakes question, and officials say there have been no recent negotiations on the point. Nor are any in prospect, though government officers are believed to have the matter in the back of their minds for discussion some time in the future.

Meanwhile, the Canadian Canadian government is hoping that the U.S. will be ahead with its work anyway, as a logical follow-up to its present interest in the international section. It expected to open the question unless it gets a definite indication the U.S. will not do the channel job.

So far, Washington has not made known its plans. The U.S. chairman sat said it is probable the channel-deepening will be worked out and confirmed for upriver facilities develops with the completion of the seaway. However, that is not likely to be a live issue for another couple of years.

WANT NEW GOVERNMENT

SAIGON, Indochina. (AP) — Viet Nam's anti-Communist religious sects today denounced both sides in the battle between Premier Ngo Dinh Diem and his army chief of staff, and called for a new government.

The sects—the Cao Daists, Hoa Hash and Binh Xuyen—issued a formal statement condemning the friction caused by Diem's attempts to get rid of Gen Nguyen Hinh.

Limbless Body of a Woman Is Found in River at Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) — The limbless and headless body of a woman was found in the Ottawa river Wednesday night, starting an investigation by municipal and Ontario provincial police.

Police pulled the body from the river after Horace Seguin of Hull, Que., reported he had spotted it floating downstream. Identity was not immediately established.

Meanwhile, Hull police were investigating the fatal beating of Mrs. Emma Dewhurst, 70, who died in hospital shortly after being found early today by neighbors in his home at Wrightville, a Hull suburb.

Inspector Maxime Lavigne of the Hull police said two men, identified as Arthur Simard and Romeo Gilmore, are being held, pending an inquest into Drouin's death.

Ontario provincial police said Mr. Seguin was crossing to Ottawa from Hull on a ferry and noticed the woman's body. He and his three sons, David, Eric and Bernard, brought the body to shore after returning to the river with their own boat.

Alex McFarlane, Cannifton Road, looks at the huge musky that gave him a terrific ninety-minute battle before being captured. McFarlane is pictured looking at the fish after he placed it in the large cistern at his home. The big fish measured fifty inches in length and is estimated to weigh between 45 and 50 pounds. McFarlane keeps the fish in the cistern all the time where they thrive on a diet of rolled oats, liver and grasshoppers in season. In the spring, the winter "pets", fit and happy are returned to their native habitat in the Moira River.

Huge 50-Inch Musky Caught in Moira River Joins Piscatorial Pets in 'Private Pool'

Poor fish, my eye!

Here is one musky that is living the life of the piscatorial Riley. That is for sure and certain.

No more will he safari up and down the stretches of the Moira. No longer will he have to go on daily food-hunting forays.

No sir. This fishy lad has a home in the country, free forage and a private swimming pool.

It is fifty inches long and had an estimated weight of from up to 45 pounds, soaking wet.

Right now he is waiting comfortably perhaps in his private pool at the home of Alex. McFarlane, Cannifton Road, opposite the Cedars. The pool is the McFarlane 12-by-24 foot cistern which is a water depth of nearly three feet.

The big musky is sojourning with fourteen other fish one of them a two-and-one-half pound smallmouth black bass, and the rest rockfish and sunfish.

The musky eyes his finny companions with frustrated rage. They are safe from becoming hors-d'oeuvres for the big fish for time being, because embedded deep in his innards is the McFarlane fish lure which was the cause of his capture. Attached to the lure is the wire-threaded line and rod.

WHAT TO DO?

At the moment the McFarlanes are at a loss what to do with the big fish. Mrs. McFarlane, a lady with a big tender heart strangely enough, does not like fish fresh from a skillet, but is fond of them as pets. The longer the musky stays around the lesser his chances of demise. It is possible he will be returned to the Moira. Said Mr. McFarlane, "truthfully, I don't know what to do with it."

If they decide to keep it, they will sacrifice the other fourteen pets for the minute the big fish freed from the lure. It will make short luncheon shrift of its piscatorial playmates.

Mr. McFarlane will take no part with it no matter what the disposal decision is. For years he has yearned to hook a big one. On three occasions he has brought huge muskies to the boat or shore only to have them free themselves as the last minute.

Now that he has achieved his ambition, he is at a loss as to what to do with it.

The big fish was hooked off the old O'Brien bridge near Plainfield. It struck savagely, nearly jerking McFarlane off his feet. For ninety minutes a furious battle raged between man and musky. At one point, Mr. McFarlane snagged his line, and started to undress with the idea of leaping in the river and "manhandling" the fish. He changed his mind however and a few minutes later he hauled the fish to shore.

He did not wait to extract the lure. He dragged the fish to his car and sped to his home, where he placed his haul in the cistern. He said the musky broke water several times, and after it was placed in its "pool, threshed and fought" until the McFarlanes thought it would empty the cistern.

McFarlane did not weigh the fish but measured its fifty-inch length. Observers estimate the musky to weigh in the vicinity of from 40 to 50 pounds.

Finny pets are not strange to the McFarlane family. Last year after they kept a dozen or so legal-size pike and bass in the cistern. In the spring they were taken out of the pool and placed in the Moira River.

"Why did you not eat them?" Mrs. McFarlane was asked.

"They are pets," she smiled. "And we became attached to them. A person cannot kill a pet fish any more than a pet dog or cat."

The McFarlane pets live like kings. They thrive on a diet of has died.)

An Open Statement . . .
TO PROSPECTIVE NEW CAR PURCHASERS CONCERNING 1954 PLYMOUTH AND CHRYSLER CARS BELIEVE IT OR NOT
WE ARE ALMOST OUT OF USED CARS
THE REASON . . .
It is even harder for us to believe, because, at one time recently our stock of cars was brought us in more used cars than we knew what to do with. However, the unusually heavy demand through July and August for our quality, reconditioned cars was not anticipated to such an extent—and now we are understocked on used cars. This wonderful public response further confirms our faith in our belief that the best way to do business is to give a full dollar's worth of value for a dollar.
THE PROBLEM . . .
Now, WE NEED USED CARS! We have six salesmen we don't want to lose, and they need some used cars to sell. Then, too, we have many regular used car customers who look to Boyce's to furnish them with dependable transportation value.
OUR CHOICE . . .
Yes, we could buy used cars. Cars obtained from this source, however, are very hard to get a "history on," and we've always been very willing to furnish our used car prospects with the previous owner's name—so that he can learn about the car first hand. We like to know our used cars.
THE BENEFIT TO YOU . . .
If you have a real clean car to trade in, and are going to be in the market for a NEW CAR in 1955, NOW is the time to trade with US!
We need your used car this month. We're ready to give you the biggest dollar's worth of value in Boyce's long history of values. Right now you are probably driving the down payment on a brand new Plymouth or Chrysler.

Western oils had fair gains in early trade. Senior base metals were mixed with fractional price changes. Trading in junior base metals and golds was also narrow-range.

Watertown TV Station Opens First of Month

Another television station WWNY—TV Watertown, N.Y., will be available to Belleville and district TV viewers starting about October 1st, it was noted today by Howard Booth, of Booth Radio and Television.

The new station with a power of about 175,000 watts will commence broadcasting a test pattern in about a week and expects to begin programming by the first of October.

The Watertown station will broadcast on Channel 7 and should be one of the better stations to watch from the Belleville area. The distance is about the same as for Rochester but the power of the station is considerably greater and the signal should be stronger.

Cigaret Price Cutting Termed Most 'Unfair'

TORONTO (CP)—Evidence given to the restrictive trade practices commission in Ottawa on cigaret price cutting was termed "unfair" Wednesday by the Toronto Retail Tobacconists Association.

President Joseph C. Farr said that A. R. Tilley of Montreal, vice-president in charge of sales for Imperial Tobacco Co.—Ltd., had given the commissioner an unfair picture of the financial advantage enjoyed by the chain stores.

Mr. Tilley had said these stores were allowed to buy direct from the manufacturer at two cents per package less than was paid by small retailers who got their supplies from wholesalers or jobbers.

Mr. Farr said the advantage was even greater generally. Chain stores were permitted to pay the jobber's price of $2.60 a carton while most retailers were charged $2.95.

He said 25 large Toronto retailers' applications to buy at jobber's prices had been turned down by the tobacco companies. These applications were made to enable retailers to meet chain store competition.

Mr. Tilley told the commission that the reason the applications weren't granted was that the Toronto retailers did not have satisfactory warehousing available.

"But he has never visited our warehouses to see what they are like," said Mr. Farr.

One-Way Traffic on Main Arteries to Be Recommended

The city traffic committee will recommend to council in the near future that Front and Pinnacle streets be changed into one-way traffic arteries as a means of relieving traffic congestion in the downtown area.

This was revealed at council Tuesday night by Alderman Bruce Smith as he urged that the old fire-hall property be retained by the city.

"City merchants will be up in arms when the recommendation comes in to council as they might as well be up in arms now," the alderman said.

In the opinion of Alderman Smith one-way traffic for Front and Pinnacle streets was the only way to relieve the present traffic congestion.

"Unless something is done the first thing we know some syndicate will be starting a shopping district somewhere, that would take business away from the downtown area. Customers just will not continue to tolerate the present traffic congestion."

With the traffic problem relieved the alderman noted that the old fire-hall property would become more valuable. He said the city did not need the small taxes it would bring if the site were sold.

The same attitude was taken by Alderman Keegan who said the fire-hall property should be retained. Alderman Moxam felt the same way but for a different reason. He suggested the site may be used for a police precinct or storage space for use by the public works department.

GET TOGETHER BOYS!

Consistency, thou art a jewel—

There are, however, two schools of thought on that subject. Did not somebody, sometime, remark that only a fool was consistent?

We shall leave to farmers' organizations the task of digging up that quotation. It might prove valuable to them. For if consistency is really a jewel, instead of an evidence of folly, it is a treasure they do not appear to possess at times. At least it was not in evidence at Ottawa on Monday of this week.

J. J. Creighton, president of the National Dairy Council, urged an "adequate" excise tax on margarine, to protect the dairy industry from excessive competition from margarine.

That was at one meeting.

At another, that of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, opposition was voiced to higher tariffs on British textiles, because that would weaken the ability of the United Kingdom to buy Canadian farm products.

There is a technical difference between an excise tax and an import duty, but in the two instances we are considering their purposes would be the same, to protect Canadian industries from competition which threatens their welfare.

If it is reasonable for the dairy industry to seek this protection, then surely the textile industry is also entitled to similar safeguards.

If the textile industry is unreasonable in requesting that the home market for its products be protected from excessive competition from goods produced outside the country then how can the producers of butter justify their request for similar protection from competition, from a product manufactured in Canada?

The solution? We have none.

We do think, though, that these two farmers' organizations, the Dairy Council and the Federation of Agriculture, ought to get together and agree on a common principle before they press too strongly either on the Cabinet. Otherwise, as some politician who has learned to dodge—and what politician has not?—is going to make some discomforting remark about the application of sauce to geese and ganders or the ownership of the ox that is being gored.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

It happened in Belleville — but it could have been any city in Ontario or perhaps any city in Canada or the whole wide world.

A civic-minded group had called a meeting. Attendance was poor. That led those present to wonder what was the matter with Belleville's community spirit.

Something was wrong, opined one man. If you went into a store or a home in any other centre and ventured the opinion that it was a poor town you would either be contradicted or evicted. But if you expressed that same opinion to a fellow citizen about Belleville you would be congratulated on your perspicacity and saturated with examples.

That's true. But let an outsider come into Belleville and try the same experiment and watch how quickly the tune changes. He will return home convinced that only in his own community will the residents agree that their home town is a poor town.

This is not a situation without its advantages. Self-criticism is in some ways the best criticism, because it implies recognition of flaws by those who have the best opportunity of correcting those faults.

Carping criticism, however, is never useful nor beneficial, no matter who voices it. Some of the criticism which we are accustomed to voice about our home towns, whether it be Belleville, Toronto or Port Hope, Trenton-erville, is not justified. It is hard to see the mote in one's own eye, but it is also difficult to appreciate the wonders of an old master if one's nose is rubbing the canvas. A little perspective helps.

For that reason we ought to welcome criticism from outsiders, if they offer it in a friendly rather than an insulting spirit.

Newcomers to a city often bring a fresh outlook of which advantage should be taken. It might be added that in most cases, once they have been accepted as members of the citizenry of their new home town, they are not likely to be as critical of it as are the older inhabitants. This is particularly true of those who have lived in many different cities. They have learned to be cosmopolitan, like every individual, has its faults. When Belleville becomes their home town they recognize that, despite its faults, it is a good place in which to live and would be an even better place if some of the older residents would not continually demand the impossibility of perfection.

On second thought, perhaps that constant demand for perfection is what makes for a good community—and for good community spirit.

Yes, we think that there is nothing wrong with Belleville's community spirit, unless we think that the fact a group of busy citizens will give up their spare time to worry about it and to seek concrete methods of bettering it and the community itself is proof of that statement.

Mr. A. D. Loucks of Canulton was the winner of the automobile in the Rotary Club bazaar in Kingston. He went to Kingston yesterday, produced the winning ticket, and was presented with the car which he drove home. Today in Canulton he is showing it to admiring friends. He did not own a car.

The dummy policeman which weights 300 pounds has disappeared from its position on Front Street near the upper bridge. Last night it is said it was discovered this morning and city foreman John S. Henderson and employees of the waterworks department have searched the city but have failed so far. 16 feet it.

A sturdy and pleasant speaking farmer canvassed down town barber shop this morning and greeted the barber by saying, "I'm going out to get a load of fine ripe tomatoes"?" The barber did not hesitate long, he replied "sure, sit in." The operation was soon accomplished to the satisfaction of both parties. "Can't sell the danged things, anyhow," said the farmer, too plentiful. He rubbed his hand over his smooth, fresh feeling face and said "well, much obliged, good day."

THE PACKSACK

By GREGORY CLARK

The restaurant was crowded, every table taken. In the lobby, every seat was occupied and fifteen or more persons were standing. At the silk-roped entrance, a line-up of another twenty or thirty had formed.

At one of the first tables inside the entrance sat a young man and woman, who had arrived, so the head waitress informed me, at twelve noon. They had established their lunch well before one o'clock. It was now one-fifteen.

The lady, reclining easily, was smoking a cigarette and casually reading a book. The men and gents were engaged in some calculation. One had a sheet of papers in his hands, the other was making notes in a desultory fashion. It was impossible to suppose that they were unaware of the crowds waiting, the pressure on the place.

There is no law regarding how long we may sit at lunch in a restaurant, except the laws of ordinary common sense and decency. In the more popular and crowded restaurants, at the rush hour, three or four or even more separate parties between twelve and two pay for a single table; however, considerable numbers of people, and less popular restaurants where all the tables are never occupied at one time, and it is only possible to be alone over lunch, but entirely permissible, from the point of view of the owner, the other guests, the waiters, everybody. Dawdling gives character to such lunches.

After a twenty minute wait, we had a table and had a pleasant leisurely lunch, finishing before two by which time there was no hurry, as there were plenty of tables then available. As we left, the three from the table near the entrance were just departing.

The head waitress gave us the nows.

"They explained, as they paid their check," she said," that they had a little time to kill. They left the waitress a quarter, but for three of them."

I thought a little time, and injured quite a lot else.

Got Make-Up From Crusade

(London Economist)

Powder and paint were first brought into Europe from the east by the crusaders; they were widely used by Elizabethan ladies, it appeared under the Commonwealth, came back in the restoration and reached their most extravagant use in the 18th century.

Indeed, it is recorded that in 1770 a bill was introduced which would have enacted that:

"All women, . . that shall, from and after such act, seduce, impose upon, seduce and betray into matrimony any of his majesty's subjects by the scents, paints, cosmetic washes, artificial teeth, false hair, Spanish wool, iron stays, high heeled shoes, bolstered hips, shall incur the penalty of the law in force against witch-craft and like misdemeanours and that the marriage upon conviction shall stand null and void."

Likes Fishing Alone

(New York Times)

"I'd like to find a creek some place where I could go out and fish alone," said the nation's Chief Fisherman recently, getting in the last casts and verbal licks of the season. With the exceptions, this remark won the endorsement of fishermen everywhere, for it summed up one of the principal pleasures of fishing, the alone-ness, and the choice of the word "creek" instead of brook or river was significant, too. The larger bodies of water, not excluding the ocean washing up against Long Island, offer little privacy nowadays. Creeks, do.

The alone-ness is what counts when in most other sports—participant as well as spectator—one feels the press of crowds. Name the sport, indoor or outdoor, and there is the ticket-puncher or fan, calling for courtesies, niceties, rules and various forms of gamesmanship. You have to root for this side or that, if watching. You have to compete—figuratively, if playing. Not so to enjoy fishing to its fullest. Fishing calls for a code of its own, but it helps some if occasionally there is a fish to break the stillness.

The fish co-operate nicely by respecting the code of fishermen's etiquette also. This involves a healthy balancing of considerations. The fish (it says somewhere) bite only, or, rather, best, at dawn, at noon and likes time to sleep. This balance preserves greater numbers of fish than the fisherman can kill in a day, long after the fisherman has had breakfast and is ready for supper, and the sun (it says in the same place) bakes the waters and keeps the fish down. They already have had their breakfast several indecent hours before mine. Although my code has proved for certain that fish eat only two big meals a day, they have been misled into snacks are often refused by sated or wary fish.

Creeks insure alone-ness. A fisherman (not the Chief Fisherman this time, but only one of the bravest) recalls that he fished a lovely creek some weeks ago that by no stretch of the river could be called a brook. It ran out of a pond and presented, in one neat package, two kinds of fishing: bass and trout. The pond was only a few hundred yards wide, but small-mouth bass (they always must "lurk") in its depths and alones if they were not interested in the fisherman walked to the creek and tried for trout.

This pond and creek could not be found on the large maps. It was one of the first requirements of unusual fishing adventure which, true, sometimes led to little or no catch. That was the maximum: if you can drive a car there you can fish, and good. The pond or creek that you have to walk to—either, even a boat can be carried in—means that few fishermen have worked its banks. Perhaps, good reason —no fish have been stocked there. But once in a while such a place is discovered, and the "wild" fish present. So says the bait man, an interested party.

Since fishing is a total experience—respecting the code of creek permits one to hear the birds, to watch the squirrels down the water can steer itself skillfully around the rocks and boulders, the bird-like quietness one can detect as call—can actually be heard without the fish's knowing, to look at the bright grubby bushes and a frog or two, the lovely flowers, giants along the creek's banks.

These are the bounties of fishing for pure self, but in all of the foregoing there is an exception. It is the sound of the whistling of a young boy as a fishing companion, perhaps a boy who lives on a farm nearby. Young boys get bored quickly when the action is nil, but they are made for the simplicities and traditions of fishing alone.

Happy Vale's Days Numbered

(Toronto Telegram)

A completely isolated community existing by air service on New Guinea valley—and inevitably described in the press as "Shangri-La"—has been visited for a first time by a white man, an Australian anthropologist with a detachment of tall natives bearing stone axes, living in grass houses and carrying out farming and handicrafts without aid of metal implements.

In this "lost civilization" there has stood still no respect of the wheel and developments which contribute so much to 20th-century living. There is also no knowledge if futile speculation as to whether a numerically comparable group of carrying out farming and handicrafts without aid of metal implements.

In this "lost civilization" there has stood still no respect of the wheel and developments which contribute so much to 20th-century living. There is also no knowledge if futile speculation as to whether a numerically comparable group of people in any other world would through successive generations of stone axes, wooden tools, living in grass houses and never getting ideas about the wheel, electricity refrigeration or telephones. Lying outside the valley, however, isolated 42 Canadian inventions affecting world progress. Some of the more important were in the field of transportation. Because of the isolation of Shangri-La, Canada said, "it had to be like that."

Evidently nothing "Shangri-La" in New Guinea is Shangri-La. These Papuans or Melanesians were not anywhere, however, in no need for transportation. With ample labor and all the time there was, they could move mountains if they wished. Their leisure time was laborsaving or time-saving gadgets. As was apparent the absence of a girdle and the women wear skirts of shredded palm, there is no regard of time. Only the "lost" dense budget for stone axes would be voluntary and with the whole the community the police force, it any, could be small.

Now that it has been established with what we call the civilized world, this population doubtless presages the advent of "hot rod" automobiles, women's slacks, lipstick, electricity, land overdrafts, TV and taxes. Too bad.

Changed View About Interest

(Lethbridge Herald)

Shades of Aberhart and the Alberta which in 1937 repudiated its bond interest contracts—can Alberta, from Calgary Herald, be a reference to Alberta 1954: "The Province has a credit rating of four per cent, to pay off a debt costing three per cent if the debt were paid off."

The Alberton was explaining that August Treasurer Norris, with a debt of $88,300,000 in debentures and a surplus of cash and investments of $16,600,000. So why pay off the $88,800,000?

Can this be the Alberta that wouldn't pay more than three per cent in 1937? Can it be the Alberta of political thugs and economic royalists?.. How times have changed!

Another Army Of Unreturned

(Montreal Gazette)

The heartbreak begins again in the September issue of a magazine known in the United States and to a lesser degree, in Canada. The magazine publishes the list of thousand prisoners taken in Korea. Among them are "lost" other thousands in Korea.

The figures are shocking. French records show 6% officers of field rank missing. The Viet Minh have offered to return nine. More than 3,000 French soldiers are reported missing. The Viet Minh say that they have 1,647. More than 20,000 Viet Namese troops are missing, in the French command. The Red Chinese list only 2,247 in their prison camps.

It is undoubtedly true that many of those listed as missing are dead in action, accidentally died in the Communist prisoner-of-war camps. These factors, however, would not explain away the tragic difference in the figures. Somewhere listed as prisoners out of more than 25,000 listed as missing.

In a dozen countries, now many of the French missing are known to be dead. But the dread question will arise: "Is my son one of the 4,000 or one of the 20,000 unaccounted for?"

And what has happened to the "lost" 21,000? It is known that a large number, probably several hundreds, died in forced marches to counter-of-war camps after capture. The Dien Bien Phu wounded who were returned early in the spring were left to extend their hands and accept the gift which God is holding out to them, namely the gift of salvation.

Personal Health Talks

By DR. WM. BRADY

I WAS AFRAID OF THIS

Time and again in the past five years I have hesitated to release pieces about the nature, cause, prevention and correction or cure of common ailments because I have feared this would happen. Namely, that unauthorized alterations of titles or ruthless excision of one or more paragraphs from the heart of the piece would give readers the impression that this Brady is indeed a nut..Or crazy maybe. Or crooked. Or not abreast of progress in pathology and diagnosis.

Dr. Brady

Well, the wisecares are catching up with me now. I don't care so much what they say about my teachings in letters to everybody's column, but a personal letter from a reader who tells me politely that I harp too much on nutritional deficiency and ignore the actual causes of common ailments, spoils the day a bit. I might better be over bowling than pacing the floor here around my typewriter . . .

Just perchance a reader here and there may understand. I believe most of the common ailments of Americans today are nothing else than manifestations of nutritional deficiency and that correction of faulty diet or supplementation of the missing elements in the everyday diet with a suitable daily ration of the vitamins and minerals that our namby-pamby "refined" food lacks, will prevent, correct of cure most common ailments.

Now wait a minute, please. Before you start screaming at this, let me ask you Yankee Wisecares and your well known, prevalent or leading physician a question that should be easy to answer: Just what would you say does cause any particular common ailment and what positive remedy will prevent, correct or cure it? Aspirin? Barbiturics? Cortisone? Weather? Overwork? Domestic friction? Business responsibility? ACTH? Cholesterol? Sensitive nerves? Acidosis? Terramycin?

Don't make me laugh.

I am serious about this. Aside from infectious diseases, such as infant fever, typhoid fever, tuberculosis, undulant fever, which we do not regard as common ailments; and aside from parasitic infestations, which likewise we do not regard as common ailments; no layman and no physician, I believe, can cite such an ailment with the remedy which prevents, corrects or cures it.

Now the reader who politely tells me I harp too much on nutritional deficiency and ignore the actual causes of common ailments will feel free to point out just where I am wrong. I hate to admit it, but sometimes I am wrong.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

MORE AND BETTER—THAT LITTLE BIT!

A person's attitude toward his work is everything. If he likes it and is inspired all the time to do better— and even give back a little more than he is contracted to—on the right track and no one should attempt to argue him away from it.

In every land there are those who are outstanding because "re giving just a little ... trying all the time to improve their work by reaching each day's work and job just a little better. The noted and distinguished have always been men and women who kept looking and working toward an ideal and through one continuing purpose—by habitually giving more of themselves and doing their work in life a little better all the time.

That little bit—of courage, determination and plan—has often been the difference in the world, helping to reveal unknown and enlarging the vista ahead, as well as increasing its beauty. How often have we all heard the saying from a clerk in a store: "Oh yes, I am just looking around," but this one is just a little better customer, consequently more apt to last longer and be more satisfactory!

We can well imagine that the one who has bet on a favorite horse and lost by a nose would wish that his horse had had a bit longer nose! That little bit plays a big role in all of our activities. No matter where it is placed it is important. What a difference it makes with us and with those whom we may serve if we are glad and proud to do more than ourselves and our time than is expected of us.

It is life's little extras that have more to do with our happiness and peace of mind than we realize. The more and better we work and live—that's what makes the dark days alright! And that is what makes the step between success and failure, between happiness and unhappiness.

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY

DR. EARL L. DOUGLASS

SALVATION IS A GIFT

What is the greatest obstacle which God encounters in his dealings with men?

It is undoubtedly the unwillingness of man to accept God's greatest gift—the gift of salvation. Men spend hours on their knees asking God for lesser gifts. They ask for security and here it is, ready for the taking. They ask for more money and yet all the while in darkness. Often they plunge into church work for entertainment to be zealous servants in the Lord's vineyard. And all the while they refuse to extend their hands and accept the gift which God is holding out to them, namely the gift of salvation.

For in spite of the warning which appears on almost every page of the Bible that man cannot attain salvation through good works, man usually strives to attain it in just this way. But salvation is a gift. No effort of ours can achieve it. God is tapping us on the shoulder, constantly at the doors of our hearts, trying to attract our attention to the free gift of his love and to let us know that he has a great gift for us. But we must take the step between success and failure, between happiness and unhappiness.

Tabernacle WMS Opens Fall Season

Some members and five visitors attended the first fall meeting of the Evening Branch of the Tabernacle Auxiliary WMS, at the home of president Gladys Shane.

A rummage sale to be held in the near future was discussed while a letter of thanks for a parcel sent to Korea and a card of appreciation from the family of Emily Bruce, were read.

"A nation before God" was the theme of the devotional presented by Ruth Pettifor, assisted by Lou Dougherty, Dorcas Cowles and Myrtle Lockyer. Hymn 410 was read in unison, followed with prayer by Ethel Horton. The offering was received by Lou Dougherty.

Ethel Horton reported on the School for Leaders held at Whitby recently.

She described the evening vesper service held in the open-air during the session and said one felt close to God at that hour. Notes from speeches made to the session by Isabell McFadden and Dr. Emily Bryce, who spent 40 years in India, were read. Dr. Bryce had said it was her impression that India would never turn communist.

The meeting was closed with hymn 669 followed with Benediction by Gladys Shane. An amusing auction sale of donated articles was conducted by Pearl Johnston. Refreshments were served by the social committee.

POTATOES TO GET BOOST

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Potato Council decided Wednesday to use newspaper, radio and television advertising in a program of consumer education to promote the consumption of potatoes. W. M. Case, executive director of the council, said the program will be financed by contributions from potato-producing states. The promotion will be a non-brand type, and stress the value of the potato as a food.

Potato Grower Says His Crop Will Be Good One

Although the general potato crop throughout the Bay of Quinte area is not big this year, Tom Kelly, Tweed district potato specialist, says his crop will be a good one.

The extended dry season during the early part of the summer spelled doom to most potatoes.

But Mr. Kelly's excellent crop is not due to good luck, but rather to good management and the result of long study of this particular crop. The expense of proper fertiliser and expert care is going to reap good financial results for the Tweed man.

Early potatoes are now retailing at $3 per bag as compared with $1.25 last year. "At last year's prices it was almost impossible to realize a profit," he said. Mr. Kelly is able to dispose of his complete harvest to markets in the local area and has to bring in New Brunswick potatoes to completely fill his orders.

Mr. Kelly is about the only grower in the area, who grows spuds on a large scale. A few years ago other farmers concentrated on potatoes but went out of spud growing when prices fell off.

$1 FOR FAULETTE

DENVER (AP)—Actress Paulette Goddard inherited one dollar from the estate of her late father under terms of a will filed for probate here Wednesday. Miss Goddard's father, Joseph Russell LeVee died here Aug. 31. His will directed that the remainder of his estate, valued at about $3,000, go to his wife, and the $1 inheritance left to Miss Goddard must revert to the estate should the actress contest the will.

COOK—MACMULLEN

CAMPBELLFORD.— Standards of vari-colored gladioli and ferns decorated the English Line United Church near Campbellford, on Saturday afternoon, when Betty Geraldine MacMullen of Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. MacMullen of Campbellford, became the bride of Ivan Lane Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook, of Nova Scotia. Rev. Gordon Whitehorne officiated.

Mrs. Harry Grills supplied the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mrs. Jim Pollock sang a solo.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of white nylon net and lace over satin with a long sleeve lace jacket. Her fingertip veil of tulle, trimmed with lace was held in place by a band of white feathers and she carried a white satin muff with a white orchid encircled with yellow roses.

Mrs. Raymond Grills, the bride's cousin, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Joan MacMullen, Campbellford, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Edward McDonald, Toronto. Their gowns were sirling colored waltz length nylon net and lace over taffeta, the cut sleeves lace jackets and short net mitts. Mrs. Grills was gowned in turquoise. They all wore matching bands of feathers and carried white satin muffs with yellow centred white mums.

Mr. Robert Edmonds of Toronto, was groomsman. Ushers were Mr. Watson Cook, brother of the groom from Nova Scotia and Mr. Raymond Grills of Campbellford.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Kay's Restaurant, where the bride's mother, received wearing a light blue gown with navy accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip through the United States and to visit the groom's home in Nova Scotia. For travelling the bride wore a pink bengaline dress with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

On their return from their trip, the couple will take up residence in Willowdale.

Out-of-town guests were from Toronto, Unionville and Peterborough.

MARSHALL—MARRIOTT

ADVICE to the LOVELORN

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

MEN CAN SENSE A HUSBAND-HUNTER

There is nothing more natural than that an unmarried woman in her late thirties should worry lest marriage pass her by. For, even without knowing it, according to the actual statistics which bear it out, women are particularly and acutely—aware that as their years increase, the chances of finding a husband decreases.

One such woman, who writes that she is "nearing 40 but still looks young and attractive," is greatly troubled because she finds it "difficult to meet and marry the right type of man." She feels that "Something"—"I am doing, or not doing, is wrong," because it has often happened that "after dating a young man for five or six months, we break up."

Then she goes on to say:

"One trouble is that I have to live with my mother, who is very domineering. She just doesn't give me a chance to cultivate the acquaintance of eligible young men. She is very critical, and too much in a hurry, and wants to control my every word and action. She has also spread the rumor that I am interested only in professional men and college graduates, which is untrue."

Well, I would like to tell this woman first, that she makes a mistake in letting her desire to capture a husband dominate her thinking. Naturally, marriage comes first on every woman's list of what she most wants, but that doesn't mean it should stand out in her mind like a sore thumb. For, paradoxically, the more she concentrates on looking for a husband, the less she is apt to find one. Men have a sixth sense which warns them of the approach of a husband hunter, and they shy away fast. On the other hand, the woman who interests herself in a great many times, so that her life is rich and full, becomes an enthusiastic, vital, warm and friendly person to whom people are automatically attracted, add that includes men, too.

I believe a large part of this woman's trouble is that she has lacked the initiative to get out and do new things, perhaps because she did not know quite how to go about it.

She might begin by paying a visit to the YWCA in her city and find out what they have to offer. Many people do not realize what a varied program the modern YWCA has, and how many opportunities it presents for boys and girls, men and women, to meet each other. I suggest, also, that she make a real survey of her city, looking for clubs and organizations with stimulating programs which have both men and women members. (If a YWCA, I am sure, would be able to give her names of some of these, and she could then find out details on her own. Her city is a large one, in which there must be numerous activities for all ages and both sexes to enjoy. If she will investigate, she might be surprised to discover how many avenues to happiness are open to her if she will only take advantage of them.

As for her home situation, is there no possibility that she might leave home and set up a little place of her own? Or is her mother so wholly dependent on her, both for support and companionship, that it would be impossible for her to leave? This is something to which she might well give serious consideration.

If the fact actually is that she must remain with her mother, then I think a little assertion of her right to live her own life would be in order. It would, no doubt, be difficult to establish a new pattern for herself within the framework of her home, but with patience, persistence, tact and firmness, it almost certainly could be done.

But whatever else she does or does not do, I cannot urge her too strongly to go out and find new interests. If she will, she might eventually find a husband, too!

PLUMBERS CLOSING

MONTREAL (CP) — A spokesman for the Corporation of Plumbing and Heating Contractors said Wednesday the strike of Montreal's 5,000 plumbers, now in its third day, is forcing a shutdown of plumbing activities in the district. He said only 150 of the 300 shops which belong to the corporation were operating Wednesday, and predicted that all the shops would be closed within the next two days.

Sometimes friends wonder aloud how I manage to write on a different topic each day.

That is not the difficulty at all. What is a problem is trying to find space for my answers to your questions and yet attempt to anticipate the topics you want discussed. For two weeks I have been trying to find space for some tomato canning recipes, for I don't look sharp the tomato season will be over.

The pressing questions on canning topics have been answered and I have put on my blinders and am going to give you these tomato recipes or bust trying.

CHOICE CHILI SAUCE

Three quarts (12 cups) chopped, peeled, cored tomatoes, 1 1-2 cups each chopped onion, chopped sweet green pepper, chopped sweet red pepper, 2 cups chopped tart apples, 2 cups chopped celery—outer stalks are fine, 2-3 cup brown sugar, 3 tablespoons mustard, 4 sticks cinnamon, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 2 cups vinegar, 2 tablespoons salt. Tomatoes should be measured after they are chopped and drained—don't add a lot of watery tomato juice. It just has to be cooked off if you do. Mix all ingredients except vinegar and boil gently 1 1-2 hours. Then add vinegar and simmer 30 to 40 minutes longer stirring frequently. Pour into sterile jars and seal. Cinnamon sticks are recommended instead of powdered cinnamon because they keep the color brighter. Instead of powdered nutmeg you may use four drops of oil of nutmeg for the same reason.

CANNED TOMATOES

Use fully ripened sound tomatoes. Dip in boiling water for 15 to 30 seconds, immediately dip in cold water and with sharp knife peel and remove core. Leave whole or cut in halves or quarters and drop into hot sterile jars with sterile rubber rings in place (or use jars with dome lid with rubber under-rim). Tamp down until tomatoes are submerged in their own juice, using sterile spoon or tamper, making sure there are no air spaces, but do leave 1-2-inch headspace. Add 1-2 teaspoon salt to each pint, 1 teaspoon salt for each quart. Process in hot water bath allowing 30 minutes for pints, 35 minutes for quarts and counting time after water comes to full boil. If pressure cooker is used process five minutes at five pounds pressure for both pints and quarts (or for tin cans if used).

FRUIT CHILI SAUCE

Three lbs. ripe tomatoes 1 1-2 cups each coarsely chopped ripe peaches, pears, onions, 2 cups chopped apples, 1 cup chopped celery, 2 tablespoons whole mixed pickling spices, 1 small hot red pepper (2 tablespoons when chopped), 2 1-2 cups brown sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 1-2 cups vinegar. Combine all prepared vegetables and fruits. Tie spices loosely in muslin bag. Into pyrex serving kettle put vinegar, sugar, salt and spice bag, bring to boiling and add mixed fruits and vegetables. Cook uncovered for 45 minutes or until somewhat thickened, stirring frequently. Remove spices. Pour into hot sterile jars and seal.

RECONDITIONING THE COMPLEXION

The sun-worshipping girls who spent long hours on the beaches, leaped around the tennis court or puttered in a garden all summer may not be particularly pleased with the reflection in their mirrors right now. But their complexions needn't worry them—if they get busy immediately.

Patches left by sunburn or tan could stay with you all through the autumn if something isn't done, however. And red splotches that behave the whitehead or shaft the nape line are no help at all when you want to wear a strapless formal. The trouble is that tan does not remove itself evenly. So you have to help nature along.

Strong, flaying bleaches are not to be thought of, but there are mild ones to be found at cosmetic counters. Home treatment, followed faithfully, will restore the peaches-and-cream look that every girl should display during the coming months.

The use of hot, moist compresses is an effective way of removing skin discolorations. Before getting into the bath tub, wash your face thoroughly with soap and water, rinse the suds away, then dip the washcloth in fairly warm water and press close to the flesh. Next, apply a heavy cream. The cream, together with the steamy atmosphere of the bath room, will do a freshening job, help remove tawny skin scales.

After the bath remove the cream with tissues, use cold water freely. The quick reaction of the blood stream will impart pleasing color.

Only cosmetics should be used freely during this reconditioning session. Remove make-up with a thin cream, use a heavy one at bedtime, letting it remain on.

GOOD MANNERS

HOW SHE KNOWS HOW TO ACKNOWLEDGE INTRODUCTIONS

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I just can't tell you what a comfort it is to me to read your advice that the accepted formula to use when acknowledging any introduction is "How do you do"? How nice and simple that is! I used to say all the wrong acknowledgments that you listed one day in your column: "Pleased to meet you"; "Delighted"; even "Delighted I'm sure"; "Glad to make your acquaintance." But no more, Mrs. Beeckman. Now I follow your good advice: I always say "How do you do," I try to catch the name, as you suggest, and add it to my "How do you do"; and I try also to follow your advice to say this introduction—acknowledgment with a pleasant manner and with a nice voice. Thank you for this good guidance.

Now I'm wondering if there's a correct and simple suggestion you could give me about these introductions. I fumble with making introductions as I used to fumble with acknowledging them. Any suggestions? Thank you again.—Mary Rose W.

Thank you, very much indeed, for your good and kind words. . . dinner will be very happy! It is amazing, very often, how much one suggestion can help our social problems. I'm glad you wrote to know that if we say "How do you do" when we acknowledge an introduction we can discard all the wrong expressions.

Now about making introductions. Remember this: for practically all occasions, the simplest and the most acceptable form of making an introduction is merely to pronounce the names. "Mrs. Allen—Miss Hall." "Miss Foster—Mr. Lane." (A man is introduced to a woman, and her name is mentioned first.) And do send me any questions about special types of introductions.

HOW TO SEND WEDDING INVITATION TO GROOM'S PARENTS

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I have ordered my wedding invitations, and the engraver has sent me the envelopes beforehand so that I can be addressing them while the invitations are being engraved. I'm uncertain about whether or not I should send an invitation to the groom's mother and father. Someone told me that you said this should be done. Please let me straight about this. —Bride-to-be.

What I do suggest is that the bride-to-be wait just as soon as she receives the finished invitations, enclose one or two, complete with the two envelopes for each, in a large envelope (also enclose a gracious little note), and mail these to the prospective groom's mother and father. The note might read something like this: "My mother and father, your Peter, and I want you two dear people, our guests of honor at our wedding, to have the very first invitations to be sent out. Dearest love to you both from all of us. Margaret." Another link in that golden chain of good relationship between the two families!

THE THREE SISTERS AND THE USHERS

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

My two sisters and I live together; the oldest sister is considerably older than we two. We have all just received invitations to the wedding of the daughter of a friend of ours. Today we were discussing what we should do—when we arrive at the church—that is, should we expect an usher to escort each one of us up the aisle, or should our oldest sister take the usher's arm, and we two follow together?—Ramona V.

That depends. If you arrive early, or fairly early and there are several ushers disengaged, each one would be escorted by an usher. But if you arrive when there are quite a few guests waiting to be seated, one usher would step forward to escort your oldest sister, and you two other sisters would follow her and the usher.

UNNECESSARY SPORT

Sport is a necessity to assist the young man in his education. He cannot always concentrate on his studies but must have some other relaxation and a way of strengthening his body muscles.

Dr. Marsh gave a vivid picture of the formal occasions in the dining room at the dinner meal, the various clubs and their social events, and said each student has to decide for himself how much time he has for sport and social life and what time he must devote to study.

In 1886 Mansfield College was established as a congregational project but has received assistance from various other Protestant churches in England. Students from every country in the world have attended the college. They have three great levels, theology, research and science.

SIMPLE LANGUAGE

In theology the scholar is taught to express his views in simple language so that all can understand his message.

In research famed people are invited to come to Mansfield College and "do it there."

The speaker gave several humorous anecdotes of happenings at the colleges and then he outlined a day-by-day schedule of life there. The college opens and closes daily with prayer. A week-night service is held when various students take turns in preaching. Once a month a public service is held on the same plan.

HIVE OF INDUSTRY

Oxford was once a small medieval town but now it is a lovely city with a great hive of industry.

Dr. Marsh graphically pictured the narrow lanes built in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries and gave a number of impressions of his many years of service at the college. Just last year he became principal.

In closing the speaker pictured how the quiet work of religion and modern science had been most helpful to numerous outstanding men and he invited anyone interested in a higher education to come to Mansfield College.

Rev. Fletcher expressed thanks to the speaker and the reception closed with "Auld Lang Syne," the National Anthem and a special benediction. Dr. Marsh then spent a social half hour visiting informally with the group assembled.

Dress Designer Got Into It By Accident

By ALEX DIMBO
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP) — Norman Hartnell of London, master of haute couture and dress designer to royalty, came into his trade by pure accident.

"I'm not a dress designer by design," he quips.

Mr. Hartnell was interviewed while in Montreal attending a showing of Hartnell-designed furs. It's his first venture into the fur-designing field and another milestone of a 30-year career in the fashion world.

CASE OF MEASLES

It all began with a box of crayons and a case of measles, he recalled. "The measles kept me indoors and crayon sketching gave me something to do."

The "accident" occurred several years later while he was studying modern languages at Cambridge University.

"I wasn't sure what I was going to do. Then a friend of mine saw some of my sketches and got me a job with a dressmaking firm in London."

He was fired after a three-month apprenticeship and with "just myself and a few hundred pounds" started what was to be one of the world's most famous fashion houses.

"One of my main jobs at the start was to overcome English prejudice against English-designed original models," he said.

Business grew, however, and the name of Hartnell was established in the mid-30's when he was called in to design clothes for the wedding party at the marriage of Lady Alice Scott and the Duke of Gloucester. Two of the bridesmaids were Princess, now Queen Elizabeth, and her sister, Princess Margaret.

Royalty beckoned again in 1938, and Hartnell's made up the entire wardrobe of Queen Mother Elizabeth for a state visit to Paris.

Queen Elizabeth's marriage to the Duke of Edinburgh in 1947 and her Commonwealth tour last winter sent Hartnell's fitters scurrying to Buckingham Palace for measurements and fittings.

STUDIES SHIRTS

Although Hartnell's now employs some 300 experts in every field of dressmaking, Mr. Hartnell still designs every gown that leaves his factory. He estimated that 1,000 creations—all originals—are shipped through the world each year.

The women's dress designer had a word for fashion conscious men looking for something different in shirts.

He said he has been approached by certain interests to expand into the men's shirt field and is carefully considering the proposition.

Do Not Think Too Highly Of Soviet Living

MONTREAL (CP)—A Montreal couple who spent eight days in Moscow say they don't think too highly of the Russian standard of living but there is no way to compare it with Canada's.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Ross, as guests of John Watkins, Canadian ambassador to Russia, saw the Moscow sights and took a 6-mile trip through the countryside during their "thoroughly enjoyable" stay.

Mr. Watkins, a cousin of Mr. Ross, arranged for the visit.

"Moscow is an ugly city," said Mrs. Ross. "Many of the apartment buildings are old and badly-constructed and in disrepair. The public buildings, theatres, and metro (subway) stations seem to have been better constructed and much work has been done to restore these buildings and the churches."

She said rents are low, but it is not unusual to find families of 10 living in two-room apartments. The shops were bare. Food and clothing were scarce and what there was, was of poor quality.

Russian farmers live in villages made up of mean shacks and are taken by truck each day to work on the great collective farms.

The people in both towns and cities looked happy and were extremely clean.

"Their conception of living is entirely different from ours," Mrs. Ross said, "but one thing is apparent—they don't believe of now than they used to be."

Judge Thinks War Gave Women Break

WINNIPEG (CP) — The only woman county court judge in the British Commonwealth thinks the war gave most women lawyers their big break.

Judge Helen Kinnear, who became the first woman King's Counsel in 1954, accepted a judgeship in Cayuga, Ont., in 1943 after serving for many years as a partner in the law firm founded by her father.

Judge Kinnear said men were scarce in the Second World War and this forced an opening for women barristers. She advises young women graduates to start out their practice in a small town.

Men don't mind appearing before her said the judge, who attended the annual convention of the Canadian Bar Association in Winnipeg.

"They just accept it as inevitable."

She does not like criminal work too much because of the serious consequences of almost every case.

Bridge St. WMS Holds Gathering

The Bridge Street United Church W.M.S. auxiliary met recently in the ladies' parlor, which was tastefully adorned with autumn flowers. Mrs. Hyde opened the meeting and Mrs. Adsett in her minutes, recalled the delightful afternoon spent at Mrs. Hibbard's summer home, when Mrs. L. Elliott, of Tweed, was the speaker.

The president announced the dates and highlights of the early fall events. A tea will be held on October 1, at the home of Mrs. Hibbard with home-baking.

The rally will be on October 29, afternoon and evening, with supper served in Bridge Street. A special speaker, who attended the Evanston World Council of Churches, will give a most informative address.

The annual thank-offering meeting will be November 7, and it is hoped several auxiliaries will be present.

PROGRAM

Mrs. Howie and Mrs. Tugnett had charge of the program. In taking the devotional Mrs. H. M. Wood, recently returned from the World Council of Churches, chose as her subject, "The Motivating Power" and read from John IV. This was most inspiring.

Mrs. Clapp and Mrs. Yuke gave a graphic picture of India. Mrs. Reidell gave a solo "Beside the Still Waters."

CHURCH IN INDIA

Mrs. Howie spoke on "Our Church in India." "China has gone behind the Iron Curtain but it does not follow that India and other countries, which have become self-governing will do likewise. The destiny of India shall be governed by India and not by Europe. The Christian church has tried to give practical expression of our creed. The needs of India appeal to us to let them practise what we preach. As Christians can we bridge the gap between our abundance and their poverty?"

The Mispah benediction followed after which refreshments were served and a social half-hour enjoyed.

Women's Institute

BEDNERSVILLE W.I.

The August meeting of the Bednersville Women's Institute, which was postponed due to the passing of a very esteemed charter member, Mrs. Lorne Brickman, was held later at the home of Mrs. Harry Adams with a fine attendance. The president, Mrs. Beufred Peck called the meeting to order and the Institute Ode was sung, followed by the Mary Stewart collect.

Two minutes' silence was observed in memory of Mrs. Brickman. The secretary, Mrs. Donald Spencer, read the minutes of last meeting.

SOCIAL EVENING

It was decided to hold a social evening at Albury Church on Wednesday, September 8, at which Miss Barbara Redner will show slides of her recent trip to England and Scotland. Mrs. Douglas Redner, historical research convener, will look after the progress. Mrs. Ralph Stafford gave an interesting talk on Current Events. Mrs. Max Wallbridge told of the trip which she and her husband, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams, took to Vancouver this summer.

At the close of Mrs. Wallbridge's talk, Miss Marilyn Adams sang "Answer Me, My Love", with Mrs. Earl MacKay at the piano.

TELLS OF TOUR

The gathering was then taken on a trip to Canada's east coast by Miss Betty Redner who with three other teachers had toured part of Quebec, the Maritimes and returned by way of Boston, Cape Cod and Plymouth.

An all-round girls' work interested in Arts and Crafts they visited many workshops along the line. They also saw many handmade rugs in Quebec, bought home-made bread baked in one of Quebec's famous outdoor ovens, witnessed a wood-worker making wind bowls and in Maine saw a wind returned by way of Boston, Cape Cod and Plymouth.

Rev. C. R. Brown, Native of City, Receives Degree

Rev. C. Ross Brown was successful this month in his studies at Marion College, Marion, Indiana, and received his Batchelor of Arts degree.

Mr. Brown was born in Belleville, and is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Brown of Carmel, formerly of 96 Pinnacle Street, Belleville.

He received his early education here in the public schools and high school. After graduation he was employed as a machinist at the Bata Shoe Co., at Batawa and later was employed at Northern Electric Co., as tool inspector.

In 1949 he entered the ministry and was pastor at Brockville, Ontario. He also attended Brockville's Bible School for three years. In 1952, with his family he moved to Marion, Ind., and attended Marion College.

He later answered a call to pastor in the Watertown, N.Y., Standard Church, being relieved this summer by his cousin, the Rev. Irwin L. Brown, M.A., principal of Brockville Bible School so he could attend Marion College and finish his course.

From 1947 to 1949 Ross was director the prayer meeting broadcast over CJBQ. He will now resume his duties as pastor of Watertown Standard Church at 311 Prospect Street, Watertown, N.Y.

Arts and Crafts Club Formed At Meeting

Despite inclement weather nearly sixty men and women interested in forming an Arts and Crafts Club under the sponsorship of the Recreation Committee met at City Hall chambers on Wednesday evening to formulate plans. The Recreational Director, Lloyd "Red" Doran, was in charge of the meeting and members of the committee were on hand to help the director answer the questions that came from the floor of the meeting. Mrs. H. R. Gibson was the unanimous choice of the meeting to chair the gathering and later was given the position of president in the newly-formed club.

Other executive members elected were Mrs. E. R. Whitfield and Mrs. Dolly Cain as vice-presidents, Mrs. A. Gilroy as secretary and Miss Helen Gulman as treasurer. This executive will meet in the near future and nominate members to the executive, those being elected to head the various groups of Arts, Ceramics, Weaving and Crafts within the parent organization.

For some years a successful Arts Club has functioned in the city but during the past two years interest has waned and it was with this thought in mind that the meeting was held in hopes that the club could be revitalized and could also include other hobbies such as weaving, ceramics and crafts. The Recreation Committee, anxious to get more adults interested in their favorite hobbies, have made arrangements with the Board of Education to provide a meeting place for those interested and the committee will also provide some equipment to make the plan workable.

A certain amount of instruction will be provided by the committee but the members felt that most of that work could be done on a voluntary basis within the club. The chairman of the committee stressed the need of good leadership and enthusiasm within the club to gain the best results. All members of the committee took part in the discussion and promised the most assistance possible to make the club a success.

Sales Booming In Tartans

By ARCH MacKENZIE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP) — The highland clan tartans are still caught fast in a tussle between trade and tradition.

Export and internal sales of cloth, clothing and other products in the vivid clan colors have never been better, said a spokesman for the Scottish Industrial Council.

But, continuing letters to The Times and other newspapers testify to the deep sense of outrage some Scots feel at the prospect of say Tom, Dick or Harriet donning legitimate tartan patterns. "Just like wearing an old school tie to which one is 'not entitled,'" said one correspondent.

TARTAN UNDIES

Notwithstanding such sentiment, sales are booming in tartan commodities that bear little connection with national highland dress past or present.

A Glasgow women's wear firm reported that it couldn't keep pace with Canadian and American demand for women's undies in the old clan colors. Ties and garter belts in such lighter clan tartans as the Macpherson, Royal Stewart and Buchanan went like hotcakes, it reported. Some purists purchased to match their bloodlines.

Now, the firm is producing the same outfits in darker Fraser, Campbell and other patterns which incidentally are going to Canada to provide warm—and colorful—winter protection.

FEARS KILTS EXTINCTION

The Tailor and Cutter, last word on matters sartorial, has an article in the current edition which warns the Scot to look to his kilt in view of the new popularity of tartan. Otherwise, it says, the United States is going to make the Scottish national costume extinct by ridicule.

The writer, a Roger West described as an "unbridled contributor" whose opinions don't always mesh with those of the editors, refers to a little garment called "bonnie breeches" unveiled recently in New York and to a half-skirt, half-kilt called "the skilt."

These apparently are aimed at the feminine market.

"And if the kilt is going to be mucked about with by the fair sex, it will fall into disrepute and turn the Scots into trouser-wearers—which will be a pity not only for the kilt-makers but for the Scotland tourist industry."

Switch to something like leather shorts, he advises Scots. "We can guarantee that no woman, wearing her salt will want to take sex equality to the point where she has to lark about in leather breeches. Leather is after all a very tough and unfeminine material."

Would Replace Guard

BRAMPTON (CP) — A grand jury here recommended the guard and protective system at nearby Clarkson railroad crossing be discontinued and a more effective system be installed.

The jury earlier brought in a recommendation of no bill in a charge of manslaughter against gateman William Mitchell of Palermo in connection with the death of William Howe of Lakeview Jan. 13.

Howe, driving a truck on the Clarkson road, sped under the gates being lowered by Mitchell and into the path of a train. He was fatally injured.

Brampton is about 20 miles northwest of Toronto.

ROYALTY FINED

STOCKHOLM (Reuters) — Princess Sibylla of Sweden, mother of Crown Prince Carl Gustaf, Tuesday was fined the equivalent of $285 for driving over a railway crossing against the signal. The princess was on her way to the confirmation of her daughter, Princess Desiree, and was trying to catch the ferry from Oeland island to the mainland.

BUTLER LIKES 'EM

QUEBEC (CP)—R. A. Butler, United Kingdom chancellor of exchequer, took his first look at Canada's new dollar bills Wednesday and found them "nice." Mr. Butler is spending five days at the Citadel as guest of Governor-General Massey before proceeding to the international monetary conference in Washington.

Artillery Duel Involves Isles North of Quemoy

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Communist and Nationalist big guns dialled briefly Wednesday on offshore islands some 250 miles north of Quemoy. Local point of recent action, the Nationalist defence ministry announced today.

A special communique said the exchange involved two tiny islands near the Tachens, northern anchor of the Nationalists' chain of island bases off the Communist-held mainland.

Meanwhile, Nationalist planes and warships hammered Red positions along the mainland coast near Quemoy, opposite Formosa, for the 14th consecutive day.

There still is no indication whether the Reds might start bombarding the Tachens. A five-hour bombardment of Quemoy and Little Quemoy Sept. 3 touched off the current Nationalist attacks.

Most experts agree the Communists would run into trouble should they attempt an invasion of the Tachens, 14 miles off shore. The islands are strongly defended and the terrain is almost ideal for defence.

Skunks Make Wonderful Pets Around House

HAMILTON (CP)—The position of dogs and cats as established household pets is being challenged here and elsewhere by a friendly creature of the Canadian woods—the skunk.

A city veterinarian says last year there were only three skunk pets in Hamilton but there are at least six now.

These have been de-scented by a simple operation that costs only $5 or $10 if you can get a veterinarian to do it. Some refuse due to accidents that have never been forgotten.

Actually, while the operation makes the animals odorless, it is not advised by some veterinarians. They say the animal, once tame, is discreet about using its novel defence. Removal leaves it an easy prey to other animals.

As pets, the properly - trained skunk is affectionate, clean and surprisingly intelligent, owners say. It is no trouble around the house but must be bathed at least once a week to remove the musty odor common to all fur-bearing animals, when dirty. Skunks do not bark or make any noise other than a faint whimper when hungry.

Veterinarians recommend picking the animal up and petting him as much as possible during the training period. They say the best method is to grasp it by the tail. Later on the skunk will ask to be picked up by simply scratching its master's foot and holding its tail aloft.

NEW VIEW OF DIABETES

NEW YORK (AP)—Diabetes may be due to some strange liver trouble, says a new medical report described today to the American Chemical Society convention.

This means that the cure or control of diabetes could well involve the liver, rather than daily or regular injections of insulin.

FATS FOR IMPULSE

KITCHENER (CP) — A painter who slapped a former employee across the face with a wet paint brush was fined $20, Wednesday. Frederick Herrmann said he asked painter Walter Knickelbein for wages which he claimed Knickelbein owed him and the smacking came during the subsequent argument.

United Church Issues Book Saying Roman Catholic View Distortion of Christian Faith

By RAE CORELLI
Canadian Press Staff Writer

SACKVILLE, N. B. (CP) — The United Church of Canada Wednesday released a 64-page booklet claiming the Roman Catholic view is false and leads to a serious distortion of Christian faith and life" in its first major attempt to rebut Roman Catholic teachings.

The church opened its 18th general council here with release of the booklet and the election of Dr. George Dorey of Toronto as moderator.

The booklet represents four years' work by Dr. Arthur G. Reynolds, minister of St. Paul's United church at Elmvale, Ont., under the direction of the Commission on the Christian Faith of the United Church.

COMMON ROOT

It underlined, however, that the two denominations had some things in common.

"Whatever our differences, we must remember that we have grown from the same root," Roman Catholics view Protestants as "heretics" instead of "heathens" and this was "significant," the book said.

"Protestants believe that Roman Catholics possess a corrupted form of Christianity" although "we ought gratefully to acknowledge the piety, devotion and good works of our Roman Catholic brethren insofar as they are true to the gospel."

"Roman Catholics hold that truth itself must be defined as that which is taught by the Roman church and that this teaching is proclaimed by a pope, who in his official utterances, is supernaturally guarded from error."

In the strongest terms the book set forth its opposition to the papacy:

"Jesus Christ is the full revelation of God. He is God at work saving mankind. He is God's grace. In Christ men come into touch with the living God.

"He is the only mediator between God and men. He is therefore the only rightful Lord of men and we must acknowledge that He alone is head of the church.

"He has not handed over the rule of his church to men. He still rules it by His own presence and power. He does not need a 'vicar' on earth for He lives and reigns among His people who are committed to Him in faith."

SEVEN NOMINATED

Dr. Dorey was named moderator over six other nominees.

They were Dr. Hugh A. MacLeod, Knox United church, Winnipeg; Rev. E. M. Aitken, First United church, Toronto; Dr. George Telford, St. Andrew's United church, Oshawa, Ont.; Dr. George Kilpatrick, Montreal, and Dr. M. C. MacDonald, secretary of the board of home missions at Toronto. Dr. MacDonald withdrew his name.

Dr. Dorey succeeds Dr. A. A. Scott, also of Toronto.

The new moderator, a six-footer and a voracious reader of modern history and biography, said in an interview he is convinced that church unity will come about.

"I believe that without a spirit that lends to unity the church is doomed to fail," Dr. Dorey said. "And I mean all churches of the Christian religion."

The general council today turned to scores of resolutions and reports that constitute a biennial soul-searching on matters material.

The Toronto conference wants the church to set up study courses teaching "the Christian view and practice of sex."

The Bay of Quinte conference wants the church to consider establishing United Church student organizations in Canadian universities comparable to bodies already supported actively by Roman Catholics, Jews, Presbyterians and Anglicans.

WANT TV USED

The Manitoba conference wants the federal government to increase the amount in charitable donations that may be deducted from income tax payments from 10 to 20 per cent of income.

Several conferences have come forward with proposals for a bold and imaginative church approach to the possibilities of television as a medium for furthering the Christian message.

Charged With Murder

MONTREAL (CP) — Lawrence Craig, 41, Wednesday was charged with the murder in the shooting of Mrs. Charles Wallace, 36-year-old Ile Bizard, Que., housewife.

Craig was arranged in court and charged a few hours after a coroner's jury had found him criminally responsible for the woman's death Monday. She was shot when she answered the door of her home where Craig's daughter had been placed as a ward.

Union Nationale Government Wins 4th By-Election

EAST ANGUS, Que. (CP)—Premier Duplessis' Union Nationale government has won its fourth by-election since its return to office in 1952.

John French, 60-year-old brother of former Quebec mines minister C. D. French, whose death last May caused a vacancy in Compton riding, rolled to an easy victory Wednesday over his two opponents.

Mr. French piled up a record majority for the Eastern townships constituency of 2,961 votes, bettering the previous high mark set by his brother in the 1952 provincial general election by more than 200 votes.

When the count ended his total was 6,390 votes, compared with 3,371 for his principal opponent, Dr. Curtis Lowery of Sawyerville, the Liberal candidate. Hormidas Dodge, a Westbury township laborer, who ran as independent Union Nationale, trailed with 36 votes.

Said Gangland Shooting

VANCOUVER (CP)—The body of a 43-year-old waiter was found shot through the head Wednesday, dumped under a tree on a local golf course. Police described the death of Daniel Brent, waiter in a tavern known as the Press Club here, as "gangland slaying."

They theorized that Brent described as a not ex-convict, was killed somewhere else in the city and his body driven to the University Golf Course.

Legal Expert Says Drumkometer Should Be Mobile

TORONTO (CP)—Professor Jean Rogers, Ontario government medico-legal expert, told the Chief Constables' Association convention Wednesday the drunkometer should be standard equipment in squad cars.

He said the sobriety-testing machine should be mobile. Officers should be trained to give tests at the scene of accidents or when making arrests. The drunkometer shows the amount of alcohol in a person's blood.

He told the police chiefs that 85 per cent of all murders have liquor as a background and there are 10 times more traffic deaths in Ontario due to liquor than murders.

President Walter Galligan of Vancouver said the machine is not only used on drunken drivers, but on common drunks.

"We have found four persons brought into the police station reacted negatively to the tests," he said. "They were immediately sent to hospital. We like to think it saved their lives."

Earlier, W. O. Gibson, crown attorney for York county, said the conduct of police in dealing with prisoners before obtaining confessions will decide whether further restrictions will be placed on their admissibility as evidence.

Supreme Court Jury Reduces Charge Laid

WOODSTOCK (CP)—A Supreme Court jury after five hours' deliberation Wednesday found David Herbert Beatty, 28, of Ingersoll not guilty of manslaughter but guilty of dangerous driving. Beatty was charged with manslaughter in the death of 11-year-old George Huntley of Ingersoll last May 25.

Sentence will be pronounced by Mr. Justice D. P. C. Kelly today.

Beatty was charged after two bodies, that of Huntley and his cycling companion, Eddie Rutherford, 13, both of Centreville, were found in a ditch after a traffic accident near Ingersoll last May 25.

HAD DRINKS

Earlier Beatty testified he had "three or four" drinks after leaving a sales meeting in Hamilton. He said "I felt all right" and that he had complete control of his car.

He told the court he saw a cyclist about 500 feet ahead of him but was suddenly blinded by the lights of an oncoming transport truck.

"Then suddenly there was a terrific explosion," he said. "I was stunned and dazed and couldn't figure out what had happened."

He said he drove on and made a U-turn and returned as quickly as possible to the scene of the accident.

Witnesses at Murder Trial Of Bruce MacLean Testify Accused Threatened Them

WELLAND (CP)—Two witnesses at the murder trial of Bruce MacLean, have testified they were threatened by the accused.

A charge of murder was laid against MacLean last May in connection with the drowning of his wife, Elizabeth MacLean, 20, more than a year ago. Police first termed it an accidental death.

Mrs. Mary Fox, mother of the drowning victim, said she had answered an advertisement placed by MacLean. He was seeking a room for himself and his small son after the death.

MET BY THREAT

She said her approach was met by the threat from MacLean that "if I'm not careful about what I say next I would get what happened to Betty."

Mrs. Fox said she was unsuccessful in attempts to gain the child by adoption.

Earlier, Mrs. Sylvia St. Louis repeated testimony she gave at a preliminary hearing on a fraud charge against MacLean last spring that led to the murder charge.

Mrs. St. Louis, the former Sylvia Davies of Port Colborne, said her ex-fiance threatened her when she tried to recover $1,600 she had loaned to him for down payment on a house.

She quoted MacLean as saying: "I'll find you and you'll never where or when it will happen."

"He said he had already committed the perfect crime, as far as he was concerned. He had planned every step of it. He had taken his wife out in a canoe and said 'This is it.' His wife begged him to let her live but he just laughed at her," said Mrs. St. Louis.

A surprise witness, Marilyn Lyons, 18, who lives with her parents on a farm near St. Catharines, told of going out with MacLean in June, 1953, unaware that he was a married man.

She said that three weeks later Mrs. MacLean called and told her she was married to MacLean. She asked MacLean to come and see her that night and he told her he didn't love his wife, but that she was a wonderful wife and a good housekeeper.

WOULD OPEN DOOR

"He told me he was going on a trip north with his wife and infant son, Douglas, and he intended to have the boy sit between them so that he could reach over, open the door, and let his wife fall out of the car," said the girl.

Church Rejects Proposal to Wire Congratulations

SACKVILLE, N.B. (CP) — The general council of the United Church of Canada Wednesday night rejected a proposal to wire congratulations to Marilyn Bell of Toronto for her 32-mile swim across Lake Ontario.

The suggestion was made by Rev. E. Gilmor Smith of Timmins, Ont., who proposed that Marilyn's family be accorded the council's "heartiest congratulations and appreciation of the challenging example set by your daughter of courage and determination to reach a goal."

But as soon as the motion had been seconded by Rev. Donald Amos of Toronto, Dr. James S. Thomson of Montreal rose to argue that the wire should not be sent because "it has nothing whatsoever to do with this council."

He said that while admiration was felt for the girl's feat it was purely "an accident that she is a member of a United Church choir in Toronto."

Dr. A. E. Kerr president of Dalhousie University in Halifax, put forth a similar argument and said there were lots of accomplished athletes who could probably be included if the council adopted the reasoning advanced by Dr. Smith.

Then Dr. A. A. Scott, the retiring moderator, rose to his feet with a brilliant grin and disclosed that he had already written a personal letter of congratulations to the Bell family only two days previously.

He thought it would be a good idea to let the matter rest.

Cancer Claimed 4 Times as Many Victims in '52 as All Other Diseases

OTTAWA (CP) — Cancer was Canada's big killer in 1953, claiming almost four times as many victims as all other recorded diseases combined.

The bureau of statistics said today the 17,710 cancer deaths compared with 4,775 caused by tuberculosis, polio and 39 other diseases which doctors are required to report to health authorities.

The bureau noted that the 22,485 total for the 42 diseases was less than the 22,776 caused by 37 diseases listed 28 years earlier despite a rise of almost three-fifths in population.

Of the diseases notifiable both in 1924 and 1953, only six killed more people in 1953, and only cancer showed a distinct upward trend in deaths over the years.

Tuberculosis outstripped cancer as a killer in 1924, but by 1953 had fallen to second place with only 2,457 deaths, the lowest on record.

Third deadliest notifiable disease in both years was epidemic influenza, though the 864 deaths in the latter year were far below the 1929 high of 7,170.

Polio placed fourth on the death list in 1953, a change from its 14th ranking of 1924. The 1953 deaths totalled 311, a record figure topping the previous 1931 high by 41 per cent.

RAWDON

Mount Pleasant

Rawdon W.M.S.

RAWDON—Mrs. Blake Sharp was hostess for the September meeting of Mount Pleasant, Rawdon, Woman's Missionary Society. Sixteen members and four visitors were in attendance.

Mrs. Frank Jeffs opened with prayer. Mrs. Percy MacMullen gave her report. Mrs. James Hoard gathered the offering and Mrs. Herbert Smith dedicated it.

An invitation to visit Springbrook was read. The treasurer reported $9.72 for August. Those having good used articles for an overseas bale are asked to hand them in soon.

Mrs. James Hoard and Mrs. Ross Hoard were in charge of the program. All sang "My Faith Looks Up to Thee", and Mrs. Will Potts offered prayer. Mrs. Will Jeffs contributed a vocal selection with guitar accompaniment. Mrs. Ed. Richardson accompanied the hymns on her piano accordion.

The Stewardship secretary gave a brief message. Mrs. Roy Thrasher synopsized the closing chapters of "Where'er the Sun" by Dr. Samuel H. Moffett. She said "Canada and the United States are sending almost 900 new missionaries to the foreign fields each year and yet there are isolated spots, where there is no religious teaching of any kind. One of Dr. Henry Van Dusen's stories about the conversion of seven American airmen shot down in the South Pacific and another on race prejudice pointed out the necessity of more Christian teaching at home."

ISOLATED SCHOOLS

A wheat farmer in Alberta or a cattleman in New Mexico may live 80 miles from a church and so the missionary starts small Sunday Schools in isolated places.

South America has the greatest stretch of unreached territory with many unknown tribes along the Amazon river and Indians in the Andes mountains. Then there is the challenge of Central Asia with closed countries like Afghanistan, Tibet, Nepal, and Outer Mongolia. The challenge "Go ye into all the world", is a great mission field everywhere. The foreign lands are still the sharpest frontier. The rich province of Szechwan in China has 50 millions of people and only one man in 4,000 is a Christian. Japan, Africa, Europe and many other places need the gospel.

This world is full of hunger, poverty and disease and Jesus Christ is the answer to the despair and hopelessness in human life the world over.

The devotional opened with a hymn of Thanksgiving. Mrs. B. Sharp read the Bible lesson. Mrs. Ross Jeffs gave a paper on Charity and Mrs. Ross Hoard offered prayer. Following the service the hostess served light refreshments.

Mrs. Kenneth Weaver conducted a brief W.A. meeting at the same home and read an invitation to visit Springbrook and a selection on "Light."

Church Must Pick Missionaries From Natives

TORONTO (CP) — An Anglican clergyman said here the church must recruit its missionaries from among the countries it hopes to convert, especially if it expects to win the hearts of people in Africa and Asia.

Canon C. K. Sansbury, warden of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, England, told a convocation marking the 150th anniversary of the British and Foreign Bible Society that there is a rising sympathy for native religions in those parts of the world.

He said the peoples of Africa and Asia have begun to revolt against domination, malnutrition and disease and they want the right to rule themselves and practise their own religions, such as Buddhism.

Canon J. S. Harrington, district secretary of the Upper Canada Bible Society, told the gathering in Wycliffe College, University of Toronto, that the objective of the society is a Bible for every man in his own language.

The society has already printed Bibles in 1,077 languages, but there are 1,000 more to go, he said.

The two speakers were among five distinguished clergymen who received honorary Doctor of Divinity degrees from the college.

Remanded for Trial

KITCHENER (CP)—Albert Harness of Guelph Tuesday was remanded for trial in a higher court when he appeared in a preliminary hearing on two charges of manslaughter.

Charges of impaired driving and careless driving were held over until Nov. 1. Harness was released on $2,000 cash and $4,000 property bail.

He was arrested following a head-on collision on Highway 7 in which David Laidlaw, 50, and Mathew Jones, 40, both of Toronto, were killed. Injured were Mrs. Monica Gaimbling, Preston; and Gordon Peck, Guelph, and Harness.

Sidney Baptist Church Observes Anniversary

The Sidney Baptist Church celebrated its 125th anniversary on September 12. Rev. J. Frank Ward, B.A., B.D., of Smiths Falls, was the guest preacher. He delivered two inspiring messages, entitled: "The God of Your Fathers" (I Chronicles 28:9) and "The Image of the King" (Matthew 22: 21). Mr. Ward was former pastor of the church in 1938-1940, and the church people were glad to renew the friendship. The church's pastor Mr. William Wood conducted the services.

Specialist soloists for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Dills of Plainfield, who sang "Just for Today," and "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked." The church choir also rendered two anthems: "The Old Country Church" and "Live Closer to Jesus."

Many neighbors and friends joined the congregation on this special occasion in a tribute to the pioneers and forefathers who, from generation to generation, had served the church so faithfully since 1829.

CENTENARY—The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Harry Roblin and family, of Plainfield in the sudden passing of Mr. Roblin.

Owing to the untimely passing of a former resident of this community, Mr. Harry Roblin, of Plainfield, the regular meeting of the Centenary W.A. and W.M.S. was postponed to September 16, at the home of Mrs. Roy Thrasher.

School bells are ringing once more in the district. After a two months' vacation boys and girls are once more attending school some for the first time, and we wish all the very best.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval May motored to Elenheim recently to attend the funeral of the latter's father, Mr. John Miller, on September 1, who passed away in St. Joseph's hospital, Chatham on August 29, after a lengthy illness.

We wish to welcome Rev. R. W. T. Middleton and Mrs. Middleton back after an enjoyable holiday in England.

Child Is Taken To Father's Home Probe Reveals

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—A boy whose parents are separated was picked up by a Canadian motorist Tuesday, and state police reported after investigation that the child was taken by a friend of the father.

Troopers said the case was a family matter, and that they had no reason to enter it.

The boy, Ricky Orton, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Orton, police said. Orton is living at Smiths Falls, Ont., and the mother resides near Caroga lake.

Ricky was taken by Barry Jones of Rideau Ferry, Ont., a friend of Orton, troopers reported, and was taken to the father. The Ortons have two children.

District attorney Allen H. Pulsifer of Fulton county and state police questioned Mrs. Orton.

Casino Theatre Has Orchestra Back in Pit

TORONTO (CP) — The Casino Theatre, Canada's only vaudeville house, will have its orchestra back in the pit this week after operating with motion pictures alone last week.

Murray Little, theatre manager, declares that Walter Murdock, president of the AFL Musicians Union, agreed to the move and will also meet with a conciliator for the Casino.

The vaudeville house was the centre of a dispute between the American Federation of Musicians and the American Guild of Variety Artists on Labor Day when the Musicians' contract with the theatre expired.

Mr. Little said a new contract is being negotiated and agreement has been reached except for one clause—which forbids the musicians to play for any act performed by AGVA members.

The orchestra will continue to play for AGVA acts until an agreement is reached, the manager said.

WHEN THE Wright Brothers first took off at Kitty Hawk fifty years ago, weight-saving aluminum was already in on the act. Their tiny engine had a single cast aluminum crank-case and cylinder block. ## Little Benny's Note Book

Ma shook her head to herself, saying to pop, Really, William, I meen actually, Bertha Cornhouse has one of the necest bonnas I've ever been in, but I get aggravated every time I have to play bridge there.

Does she bring out old sticky cards and pay her losses with old rumpled bills? pop said, and ma said, She has an enormous guest book, and the dreem of her life is to see it filled, so she makes us all write in it each time we get through playing, even though our own signatures are staring us in the face from the last time. And Bertha expects us to write something flattering every time, such as a lovely time, thanks so much. She actually goes into the 7th heaven of rapture if somebody takes the time to make up a little verse. I wish I knew how to get in a little dig, without being too obvious, ma said.

That's easy, pop said. Give her this little verse, I'm here again, Oh pardon my pen, and between the 2 lines make a terrific blot covering half the page, he said, and ma said, I'm afraid it would look too much like a plot. But it gives me an idea, William. I'll write, I'm here again and my mind is this, Everything was lovely.

Heh? pop said, and ma said, Dont you see, William, Bertha will expect the 2nd line to be something like, The afternoon was perfect bliss. But as it is, it woot rime at all, and everybody will be bound to notice it. What do you think, William? she said.

I'll let Bertha Cornhouse think, pop said.

And he got th back of his paper and stayed there.

Enrolment in 8 Teachers' Colleges In Ontario Shows 50 Per Cent Jump

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Hundreds of aspiring teachers registered in eight teachers' colleges in Ontario Tuesday and enrolment jumped nearly 50 per cent higher than last year.

Reports from seven colleges show a total of 2,386 students will attend classes this year, compared with 1,560 last year.

The teachers' colleges—formerly known as "normal schools"—train prospective teachers for posts in public schools across the province. Most provide an alternative of one-year or two-year courses.

The greatest boost in attendance was at Hamilton Teachers' College where 296 enrolled for classes —125 more than last year or an increase of more than 70 per cent. Three churches are used as temporary classrooms since the old school was destroyed by fire 1½ years ago. Construction of a new college is expected to start this fall.

A table-tennis room and an auditorium have been converted into classrooms to accommodate the overflow of students at London. The college was designed to hold a maximum of 300, but a record 450 registered.

Because of crowded classrooms first-year classes at Toronto will be taught in two shifts as in former years—one in the morning, the other in the afternoon. Staggered classes handle the largest single enrolment, 788.

Enrolment was also up in the Ottawa Teachers' College and in the French-speaking college supervised by the University of Ottawa.

Teaching staffs at colleges in Stratford and Peterborough got ready to handle an increase of students enrolled in a variety of courses for 1954-55.

Reuther Says Workers Will Get Annual Wage

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter Reuther has predicted his CIO Auto Workers will get a guaranteed annual wage this spring and "10 years from now big industrialists will claim credit for it."

Reuther, president of the CIO and the Auto Workers, said at a press conference that the union would get the guaranteed annual wage when five-year contracts run out in the spring.

"We feel that the guaranteed annual wage is a must, a matter of economic inevitability," he said. "We are not discouraged. We are going to get it. We're on the side of the angels on this one."

The union's contract with General Motors expires May 30, and with Ford on June 1.

He said the guaranteed annual wage would stabilize purchasing power, and in the case of the auto industry provide a market for 2,000,000 or 2,500,000 cars, instead of the present "insane competition" to sell 5,000,000 a year.

He estimated that 250,000 auto workers now are idle, and that unemployment, both complete and partial, throughout the country, is the equivalent of 5,000,000 totally unemployed.

Canada to Have Low Average Wheat Crop of Mixed Quality

–Howe

SASKATOON, Sask. (CP)—Canada will have a below-average wheat crop of mixed quality this year, Trade Minister Howe said Wednesday.

His statement was based on the bureau of statistics' second estimate of the yield based on Sept. 1 conditions, to be made public at Ottawa later today. An advance text of Mr. Howe's speech omitted the specific figures, but he said the crop will be under 400,000,000 bushels.

BLAMES WEATHER

Mr. Howe blamed the decreased crop on weather conditions in the west this summer, following three bumper crops.

But he said the smaller output does not point to any reversal of the marketing outlook for Canadian wheat.

During the coming year, he said, there is reason for confidence that Prairie farmers will be able to deliver all their 1954 wheat plus some held over from 1953 and previous crops, as well as all the oats and barley they have for sale.

Already, Mr. Howe said, the wheat board has disposed of at a profit all oats and barley delivered to it by producers during the crop year that ended last July 31. He said he will announce shortly the final payments on the 1953-54 oats and barley pools.

The only cloud on the horizon for oats and barley, Mr. Howe said, is the fact the United States tariff commission is studying the question of whether to recommend restrictions on their import.

But he added:

"It would surprise me very much indeed if the president were to agree to apply restrictions against imports of Canadian oats and barley which would cause hardship and bitterness among such a large sector of the Canadian population as the farmers of the Prairie provinces."

HOLDING MARKETS

Despite recent big crops, there was no evidence Canada was growing too much wheat, he said. She was maintaining her share of the world market.

"We have not been and we are not," he said, "pricing ourselves out of world markets. . . . So far as I can see, the price of Canadian wheat is not out of line by any reasonable standard of comparison."

Red Olympics 'Force and Fraud' Charges Pole

MUNICH, Germany (Reuters)—A Polish amateur boxer who escaped here from behind the Iron Curtain charged Wednesday that Communist participation in the Olympic Games "is a farce and a fraud."

Henri Tyczmski, formerly a leading featherweight in Poland, spoke over Radio Free Europe and the Voice of America.

"Many people expect Communist athletes to do well in the next Olympics, as they did in the last," said Tyczmski. "Why not? They are nothing but subsidized professionals competing against the honest amateurs of the west."

The boxer said religious persecution in Communist Poland was one of the reasons he deserted to the west.

"I was not even permitted to say prayers or to cross myself before a boxing match," Tyczmski said.

The Communists were tough on losers, he said. So-called amateur athletes receive extra food, get slightly paid for "dummy" jobs, and are excluded from military duty even while in the army.

North Bay Mayor Found Dead In Cottage

NORTH BAY (CP)—William F. Stones, three- times mayor of North Bay and an alderman for nine terms, was found dead at his summer cottage at nearby Trout Lake Wednesday.

Coroner Dr. E. J. Brennan attributed death to carbon monoxide poisoning. Dr. Brennan said that Mr. Stones was found lying behind the exhaust pipe of his car parked in a driveway. The body was found by his son Jimmy.

A native of Scotland, Mr. Stones worked as a clerk with the city before resigning to open his own accounting business. He was mayor in 1944, 1945 and 1946. He served on council from 1938 until 1943 and from 1951 until 1953.

ASKS FUNDS

KIRKLAND LAKE (CP) — Sol. D. Granek of St. Catharines, president of the Zionist Organization of Canada said here that Israel still needed funds "in the light of the world situation and in view of rehabilitation of immigrants emerging Israel." Mr. Granek, touring 24 towns of northern Ontario, reviewed Wednesday night the work of the Canadian Jewish Congress and other Hebrew organizations at a dinner here to make the United Jewish Appeal.

Duke Competent Fly Fisherman Report Given

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Duke of Edinburgh may be inexperienced in the ways of Canada's river salmon, but LL-Col. Paul D. Smith of Vancouver says he is "quite a competent fly fisherman."

Col. Smith, an expert fisherman now stationed in Ottawa, was guide to the duke on his salmon fishing trip in Labrador.

A candid report on the duke's angling ability was made in a letter to Lee Straight, fish and game editor of the Vancouver Sun.

Col. Smith said, "Prince Philip has been taught to cast by an expert and does that quite well, too well in some ways. He tends to pass up water close in, a common fault, and lash away at places 60 feet out."

HOOKED 15

The duke fished a total of 10 hours and on light fly tackle, hooked solidly into 16 salmon. He landed four—three grilse about five pounds each—and one 15-pounder.

Col. Smith said some of the losses were caused by inexperience but most were "quite unavoidable."

One evening the duke ran across a run of sea trout that was "something to see." Sea trout are eastern brook in a sea-run phase. They enter the rivers in midsummer on their way to October spawning grounds.

The colonel had a fly he was experimenting with. It had a gantron fire fibre body and a red squirrel wing. The tywills were, in a word, immense.

"The prince caught sea trout as fast as he could land them for about an hour and a half. He netted 15. Two salmon took the lure also after refusing a dozen salmon patterns.

"The duke was very taken with the lure and on learning it had no name, dubbed it "Bloody Mary."

Next day Philip rose one of the largest river salmon his guide had ever seen, Col. Smith guessed its weight at 30 pounds. Like a true Fisherman "the duke swore it was 40."

Frequent Rains Delay Harvesting In Province

TORONTO (CP) — Harvesting throughout the province has been delayed by frequent rains, particularly in the northern and eastern sections, the Ontario agriculture department says in its weekly report.

Western Ontario farmers have most of their threshing done and are preparing land for fall wheat. Tobacco harvesting is slow and uneven. Hail last week did some damage to tobacco and fruit crops.

Tomato and corn canning are in full swing in Northumberland and Prince Edward counties in the central region. Quality is good.

Field work in Dundas is at a standstill. Red clover cuttings are good in Carleton but unfit for seed in Prescott.

Northern farmers report only about half their crop in. The summer dry spell cut grain crops to as much as 50 per cent of last year's. Good potato crops are reported in the Sudbury district and farmers are receiving $2.30 a bag at the farm.

Marciano-Charles Title Fight Postponed By Rain; Ready To Go Tonight

CHIPS OFF THE SPORTS BLOCK

By Geo. H. Carver, Sports Editor

VENGEANCE

It was a cold gray morning. Sullen thunderbirds rolled ominously across the darkened sky. A patter of rain beat against window panes. Dawn was an hour away.

In the warm coziness of his bedroom a sleeping man stirred. He opened sleep-drugged eyes, stretched and became fully awake. He glanced at the luminous hands of a clock on the bedside table. Across the room a companion snored blissfully.

Slipping out of bed he crossed the room and shook his sleeping friend. "C'mon, Bill", he said, "Shake a leg. We have only an hour to get there." Bill wakened, grunted and turned over in the bed. His friend shook him again. "Hurry, yuh big hog. They will be there before we are, and you know what that means."

Bill opened sleepy eyes. Yeah, this was it. It could be the end of a long wearisome trail. The time had come for a showdown. For years, they had haunted him. Elusive, clever, they had always kept out of his reach. They had been responsible for the death of his brother, the victim of a shotgun blast.

For years he had sworn revenge. He had a tip-off that they would be in this vicinity on this particular morning. A feeling of elation swept over him. Today he would avenge the untimely death of a brother with the squeezing of a trigger. That tip-off looked good.

Suddenly awake, he slid out of bed. The men dressed hurriedly.

Coffee bubbled on an electric stove as they donned heavy clothing.

"Better put on your warmest duds," said Bill, "we may have to wait for them for some time. How about the guns and ammunition? Better check, for we cannot afford to make mistakes."

They sipped hot coffee, then picking up their guns and pushing ammunition into pockets, they crept stealthily from the house.

Minutes later they were driving slowly through gently-falling rain. They reached the outskirts of the city, drove a few miles along a dark country road until the reeds of a marshy swamp loomed ahead.

Bill drove the car under some trees. The men got out.

"We cannot afford to make any noise," said Bill, "this job has to be done quickly and thoroughly. And remember, shoot to kill. This is very important."

The rain was now falling heavily. The men picked their way along a narrow path that ribboned the reeds. Minutes later they huddled in a murky wet morass. They were soaking wet. But they carefully protected their guns from the moisture to avoid any accidents or miscarriage of plans.

They drank coffee from a thermos jug. Minutes passed. The sky lightened in the east as dawn approached. Water dripped on them from the tall reeds trickling down their necks and sending rivulets down their clothing.

"What time do you expect them," whispered his companion to Bill.

"Anytime after daylight," replied Bill. "Brother, I've waited for this opportunity for years. I'm going to shoot it's daylight out of them. If it is the last thing I do. They have it coming to them."

"Remember," he went on, "no mistakes. The minute one of them shows up, let him have it. I have trailed them for years and not once did I catch up with them. I feel that this is it, so make the job a thorough one and don't leave any tell-tale evidence."

Silence hung over the muddy rain-soaked scene. The rain fell in undiminishing quantities. The men stirred occasionally as the dawning day brightened. Low lying cloud raced across the sky.

Then the silence was broken. A strange noise filtered through to where the men lay.

Bill looked up. He tensed, reached for his gun. "This could be it," he whispered hoarsely.

The noise grew in intensity, drew closer. Bill and his friend picked up their guns.

Suddenly two sharp explosions blasted the morning air. Two bodies slumped into the reeds.

Bill heaved a big sigh. He threw his empty gun to the muddy terrain.

"I hope they're fat. That's the first pair of mallard ducks I've shot in six years," he said.

SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

The duck hunting season that opens Saturday inspired the above piece of fictional drivel, and the marsh and river hunting shindigs will be out in full force on beats and bath day. The boys will have almost three months to get their fill of the sport since the season has been extended to December 15. Yup, the duck heavy artillery will be thundering bright and early and we are informed there is a plenitude of the birds. We might take a crack at the wild drakes ourselves and please, Mr. Hunter, remember blacks, mallards, teals and pintail do not sport spatse thatches nor wear bright red windcheaters. It ain't necessary, baby, to come home and get the little woman to extract birdshot from the south side of the lap with a pair of tweezers.

TO COACH GUNNERS

SIMCOE, Ont. (CP)—Leo Reise, National Hockey League defenseman with the Detroit Red Wings and New York Rangers for several years, will coach the Simcoe Gunners of the Niagara district Ontario Hockey Association senior B group. It was learned Wednesday. Reise has played junior B hockey with the Brantford Lions and Junior A with Guelph Ballimore. Workouts of the Gunners are expected to start Oct. 15.

SHORE HUNTS COACH

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP)—Eddie Shore, owner of the American Hockey League Springfield Indians, said Wednesday he's still in the market for a coach to handle the new AHL entry. Shore said no individual has the inside track for the job. Until he chooses a coach, Shore plans to continue supervising the team at its training camp, at nearby Stamford.

But Gloomy Forecasts Predict Afternoon Rain, Cool Tonight; Fight May Be Moved 2 Weeks

By Murray Rose

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and Ezzard Charles worried more about the weather than each other today as they peered anxiously at the skies and hoped for the best.

If the weatherman gives them a break they will fight at each other at 10:30 p.m., EDT in their return 15-round title bout at Yankee Stadium. And judging by the gloomy forecast, the gladiators will have to sweat out long hours.

Following intermittent rains during the night, the weatherman predicted "cloudy, ending in the afternoon, followed by continued cloudy and cool weather this afternoon."

If it rains throughout the day and their scrap is postponed a second time, the fighters as well as the promoting International Boxing Club will have plenty to worry about.

COMPLICATIONS

Friday night is out because of the IBC's weekly radio-television fight. Saturday, IBC officials say this week, Saturday is a question mark, and next week is even worse.

The big hitch on the Saturday date is Dave Dividend. Harry Markson, president of National Sports Service, Inc., doesn't know whether he'll be able to clear the coaxial cable Saturday for the closed circuit telecast from the coast to coast. He's okay for tonight.

Theatre cash is an important factor in the promotion. Haipern has 320,000 seats available and the IBC gets a dollar a seat.

The Garden's Thursday night Wednesday night's fight was made at a hefty 1825 pounds, a pound more than he ever had scaled for a fight before and seven more than his poundage for his losing 15-rounder to Marciano on June 17. Charles said he wanted the extra weight to add power to his punches. It indicated that he was planning for a short fight.

Galt Hawks Off to Early Hockey Start

GALT (CP)—Hockey made one of its earliest debuts here when 40 prospective junior A players, the property of the National Hockey League Boston Bruins, took to the ice Wednesday for a week's training at the Galt Arena.

Supervising the workouts are Lynn Patrick, coach of the Bruins, and Baldy Cotton, chief scout. Also in attendance from the Boston club are Milt Schmidt, veteran centre star Real Chevrefils and Murray Henderson, coach of Hershey Bears, Bruins' American Hockey League farm club.

Coach Gerry Brown of the Galt Black Hawks is also looking over the players, many of whom will be performing for the Galt club this season under an arrangement between Chicago and Boston clubs.

Bob Senior, goalie with Toronto Marlboros last season, and Don Frazio, a native of Cambridge, Ont., and member of Kingston Junior B's last season, are two of five goaltenders in camp. Patrick said he was talking to Frazio to the Bruins camp at Hersey, Pa., next week but how the negotiations would be returned here for further trial.

Nelson Bullock, a member of the Memorial Cup squad, and Gus Gothacines Teepees last year, is here and will likely line up with Black Hawks this season.

Royals Square Wings' Series; Leafs Rained Out

By The Associated Press

Toronto Maple Leafs, pennant winners in the International League, and Syracuse Chiefs are probably wondering when they will begin the Governor's Cup semi-final series for the Governor's Cup.

Toronto and Syracuse were scheduled to play Wednesday night but rain postponed the start of the Friday-Monday series. They play Saturday and Sunday at Rochester in the best-of-seven series.

Jack Cassini was the big gun for the Royals with three hits, including a pair of doubles, scoring twice and driving in one. Bill Virdon collected all three Rochester hits off Roebuck, who walked only one while striking out four.

Postponement Affects Fighters In Different Ways, Says Mr. Talbot

By Gayle Talbot

NEW YORK (AP) — When a championship fight is postponed, any commentator worth his salt must delve into the characteristics of the principals and decide which one will suffer more from the enforced idleness.

Two fighters who have trained themselves to a razor sharpness for the night they were scheduled to meet and who are forced to sit around are going to deteriorate.

Which of them will deteriorate faster is of first importance to the official odds-makers, and no doubt the head man is waiting right now to learn whether he should let the price favoring Rocky Marciano out another notch, to 1-6 or give it a quick tuck back to 1-4 on the chance that Wednesday's cold rain put new life into Ezzard Charles.

Take mental attitudes. Frankly, Marciano, doesn't do much thinking about any thing except that it's wonderful to be alive. He might have felt a trace of irritation at being forced to wait another day before getting at Ez again.

Charles, a little more the thinking type, is inclined to be broody. The delay may make him down-right sulky and mean by the time they square off tonight.

Compare the two men physically. Rocky is younger and extremely strong. He is in the greatest shape of his career.

Ezzard proved in their first fight in June that he's far from infirm. He trained long and conscientiously and felt himself prepared to go in there and slug it out toe-to-toe with Rocky Wednesday night.

What will the postponement have done to Marciano and Charles?

What can happen when a man has too long to think things over? Who can say that Jersey Joe Walcott would have been knocked out in the first round of his second bout with Marciano if he hadn't been forced to break training and wait around more than a month while Rocky's nose healed?. That might have been exactly the time Joe needed to remember how hard Rocky hits and to get scared.

Dodgers Move Within 3 Games Of League-Leading Giants With 10-4 Win Over Redlegs

By BEN PELEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

They may be dead ducks by next week, but as of today the Brooklyn Dodgers have no rivals as the toughest hings of the National League.

At least four of their victories were thoroughly waterlogged and if they try to play any more games under conditions such as prevailed Wednesday, the front office better consider equipping the club with fur-lined sweating suits.

When the rains come they are unmistakable.

Wednesday," the bad weather brought a 10-4 triumph over the Cincinnati Redlegs and the "victim," screaming that both clubs should have stood in bed.

At the Polo Grounds, the first place New York Giants and the third - place Milwaukee Braves never left the clubhouse. The temperatures hovered in the 70s and the water poured in puddles over the covered infield.

In both cases the decision to play or not was in the hands of the umpires. They came close to calling the Polo Grounds with the score tied at 3-3 after four innings. But after a long delay they finally sent the players back on the field and they clobbed to a finish.

Only two other games were played. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated Philadelphia 9-1 and Boston more moved out of the American Leagues cellar with a 3-1 squeaker over Boston.

The Dodgers moved within three games of the Giants by virtue of their 10-4 victory over the Redlegs.

Don Newcombe, with help from Jim Hughes in the eighth, registered his ninth victory. Bud Podbielan, who left shortly after Hodges and the Whip and Pat hope to wrest it from them come Friday, "Bunny" Dunlop, popular Toronto reference will team with Joe Godder in the officiating duties. Should be quite a brawl.

Whipper Billy Watson and his mat pal Pat Flanagan pictured above, will take on the formidable team of the Togo Brothers, Jay "Crusher" in Memorial Arena Friday night. The Richards Cup, emblematic of tag team wrestling is at present held by the Terrible Togos and the Whip and Pat hope to wrest it from them come Friday, "Bunny" Dunlop, popular Toronto reference will team with Joe Godder in the officiating duties. Should be quite a brawl.

Rain Halts Mann Cup Series Opener, Outlook Gloomy for Replay Tonight

PETERBOROUGH (CP) — Peterborough Timbermen and Victoria Harbor Shamrocks will try again tonight to play the first game of the Mann Cup lacrosse finals.

They made an effort Wednesday night but the game was washed out after five minutes of the second quarter because of rain. The downpour read the dirt floor of the outdoor Miller Bowl too treacherous to play on and the two teams will start all over again tonight if weather and playing conditions permit.

The outlook is not too good. Rain is forecast until this evening and even if no rain is falling by game time the bowl's floor may not be in good enough shape.

The Shamrocks led the eastern champions at the time referee Joe Murphy and Lou Vipond called a halt Wednesday night. It rained lightly during the first quarter but increased after the first intermission.

The Shamrocks took a 2-1 lead in the first period on two goals by Jack Northup and they made it 4-1 in the second period on tallies by Archie Browning and Jack Bicoda. Jerry Fitzgerald counted the Trailermen's first goal in the initial period and Bobby Allan and Jim Bradshaw scored in the second period.

Ray McMillan, coach of the Shamrocks, criticized the choice of the Miller Bowl as the site of the series, generally because it hasn't a hard surface. The Shamrocks have never played on a dirt floor. "It's foolish playing outdoors at this time of year," he said. "You can't depend on the weather and we could be rained out nearly every night.

"We don't mind playing in the open air if we had a hard surface. As far as we are concerned we definitely would like to see the series moved to Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto or any other indoor arena in Ontario."

The prospect that more games might be rained out might extend the series to more than the two weeks the western champions will stay in the East.

McMillan said to avoid this he would prefer to have some of the games played on successive nights. They have already been here three days and have said that the two-week limit is necessary because they can't stay away from their jobs longer than that period.

Kennedy Scores Only Goal In Intra-Squad Game

ST. CATHARINES (CP)—Coach King Clancy put his Toronto Maple Leaf hockey club through an intra-squad game Wednesday in their first day on the ice at their preseason training camp here.

The Blues defeated the Whites 4-1 with Ted Kennedy, captain of the National Hockey League club, getting the honor of scoring the only goal.

It was disclosed that Hugh Barlow, linemate of Brian Cullen's with St. Catharines Teepees last season, had turned out at the Pittsburgh Hornets' camp in Niagara Falls, Barlow, second leading scorer in the Ontario Hockey Association junior A group last season with 68 goals and 73 assists, was reported signed by Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen of the OHA senior A circle earlier.

It is understood that Leafs, parent club of the Hornets, earlier had an option on Barlow's services. The understanding is that if he is adjudged acceptable by Pittsburgh coach Howie Meeker that Leafs may make a deal for him.

Barlow's professional rights are reported to be owned by Cleveland Barons of the American League.

Cullen, Barlow's teammate of last season and the leading scorer in the OHA junior A group, is working out with the Leafs in a bid to step right from junior ranks to the NHL.

Frustrated Fans Crowd Station

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Frustrated fight fans, many of them from Rocky Marciano's home town of Brockton, Mass., milled about on the railroad station platform here late Wednesday after receiving official word of the 24-hour postponement of the heavyweight title fight between Marciano and Ezzard Charles.

Dejected travellers asked each other: "What'll we do—go on down to New York or go back home?"

The decision had to be made during the 10-minute stopover of the New Haven Railroad's "Marciano-Charles Special," created by adding extra cars on the "Yankee Clipper," Boston-to-New York express.

Eventually, the railroad said, about 50 of the 325 holders of the excursion tickets decided to go home. The rest continued on to New York.

Bobcats Whip Kingston 10-2 In Series Opener

(By GARRY ALEXANDER)

The Bellerville Bobcats, inspired by Doug Thompson's three-hit pitching effort and a 10-round floor game, handed the Kingston Alcan "Mules" a 10-2 decision in the first game of the O.A.S.A. Intermediate "AA" Playdowns in Kingston last night. The second game is scheduled for Belleville on Saturday.

Thompson hurled an excellent game, giving up three singles in the eight-inning contest. Two of these hits came in the fourth frame when the Alcans netted both their runs while the other was in the seventh. He fanned seven, walked seven, hit a home run and fielded his position flawlessly including a backhanded stab that looked like a sure hit with a man on base in the fourth.

Thompson saw him send perfect support in the field while batting out 13 hits to pace Barlow. The understanding is that if he is adjudged acceptable by Pittsburgh coach Howie Meeker that Leafs may make a deal for him.

Barlow's professional rights are reported to be owned by Cleveland Barons of the American League.

Cullen, Barlow's teammate of last season and the leading scorer in the OHA junior A group, is working out with the Leafs in a bid to step right from junior ranks to the NHL.

innings to take the loss with Ruthven Gerrie finishing the classy effort. The loser gave up all 12 hits and ten runs as he whiffed eight while issuing two. Eight errors added considerably to his worries.

Ron Dueshury paced the winners at bat with a double, two singles and a walk in five trips to the plate while Dick Fitzpatrick and Gordon Bohan hit a double and single each. Thompson had a home run and McBride a double with the other singles going to Bob Hatfield, Bob Temple and Harry Wardhaugh. Elliott, Murray and Alarie each claimed a single in defeat.

ENTRY J-J IN SPECIAL

LINCOLN, R.I. (AP)—Alfred G. Vanderbilt's favored entry of Social Quickstep and Cash Over ran 1-2 in the inaugural running of the $58,000 Rhode Island Special at Narragansett Park Wednesday. Florida Vine was third. Social Quickstep sped to the finish under a half ahead of his stable mate in the track record time of 2:06 1-5.

Shawinigan Falls To Enter League

SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Que. (CP)—City council Wednesday approved a project agreement between the city and a group of Shawinigan Falls businessmen for admission of the city-owned arena, making way for the entry of the Calgracks as the sixth team in the Quebec Hockey League.

Mayor Gerard Martin, who attended a QHL meeting in Montreal Wednesday night, immediately notified Cyrille Slater, president of the pro league, in Montreal of the decision.

The businessmen now are negotiating for formation of a Shawinigan Falls Catarachs Company to make way for the ice and signing of a contract with the city for the arena.

At the QHL meeting, Mayor Hardy, whose all-out campaign to raise a club has resulted in a $35,000 guarantee to season ticket sales, got agreement from the five other league teams to borrow reserve players from each to start a new club.

Richards, Horse Won't Be At Track Classic

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—Sir Gordon Richards, the English jockey who retired with more, winners than any in the world, cabled Wednesday that he would be unable to accept Laurel's invitation to be honorary steward at its International horse race on Nov. 3.

Richards cabled:

"Many thanks your kind invitation. Greatly appreciate it. But with accident and finishing new stable already impossible."

Richards retired as a rider this summer after twice being thrown and still is under treatment.

England's top 3-year-old colt also will skip the classic his owner said.

Never Say Die, winner of the English Derby and 2,000 Guineas Stakes, was invited to run in the $67,500 Laurel race.

Cincy Manager Enters Protest Of Dodger Game

BROOKLYN (AP) — General manager Gabe Paul of the Cincinnati Redlegs, angered because the umpires refused to call off Wednesday's game between the Reds and the Brooklyn Dodgers despite a steady rain, said he will file a formal protest with the National League president, Warren Giles.

Paul contends that the umpires never should have permitted it to start because of the threatening weather when the game began.

"The umpires are grown men and should have the guts and courage of their convictions. Fourth place means as much to us as first does to any other club."

None of the four umpires were available for comment.

The Dodgers won the game 10-4.

HAMILTONIAN WINS

WINNIPEG (CP) — Twenty-year-old Peter Hildrop of the Hamilton Cheddoke public courses won the Canadian assistant golf professionals' championship Wednesday, defeating four contestants with a 36-hole total of 148 for the par-144 course. Runner-up was Henry Dublet of Montreal's Mount Royal Club finished with 148, e

Marlene Enters Tough Quarter-Finals In US Women's Golf Championship

PITTSBURGH (CP)—The youngsters led the parade as the United States women's amateur golf championship today went into its fourth and toughest day.

Of the 16 players going into today's double round of 18-hole matches, just six or perhaps only two more in their early 20s. One was Marlene Stewart, Toronto Canadian champion from Fonthill, Ont., who Wednesday pushed through to the quarter-finals despite an inland head.

The old-timers and the record books couldn't tell of any set of 16 matches which ever had produced as close competition as those Wednesday on the rain-soaked links course in the hills of suburban Sewickley.

The 1953 winner and runner-up both were carried in the 20th hole, and two other top favorites got bed scares before they came through.

REAL SQUEAKERS

The 20-hole winners were defending champion Mary Lena Faulk, who was fortunate to get past 1945 champion Grace Lenczyk, and Polly Riley, who had a real squeaker against Mary Ann Downey. Miss Stewart beat Jeanne Bisgood on the 19th after the English girl had missed a fairly short putt for a win on the 18th.

Today's two rounds were to reduce the field to four players, and it was virtually impossible to pick a favorite in advance.

Miss Faulk, after one narrow escape, ran right into Ireland's Philomena Garvey, one of two survivors of the British Curtis Cup team. Philomena beat Mary Lena when they met in the semi-finals of the 1953 British championship.

Miss Riley's fifth-round opponent was 18-year-old Janette Robertson of Scotland, the other Curtis Cupper. If successful there, the chances are that Polly will run into 19-year-old Mickey Wright, who knocked out the 1951 champion, Dot Kirby.

Merv. Grissom Giants New Start Pitcher

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants, faced with an acute pitching shortage for the final stretch drive, dug down into his bullpen today for a fourth starting pitcher.

Dissatisfied with the recent hurling of righthander Jim Hearn and southpaws Don Liddle and John (Windy) McCall, Durocher named Merv Grissom, veteran relief star, to pitch the second game of today's important doubleheader against Milwaukee Braves, Idle Wednesday, the Giants' lead over the three games by Brooklyn's 10-4 victory over Cincinnati.

Grissom, 36, has appeared in 28 games this year, 26 of them in relief. He has not started a game since May 1, when Chicago Cubs knocked him out of the box.

REMEMBER WHEN

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

"Sunny Jim" Bottomley, St. Louis Cardinals first baseman, batted in 12 runs in one game against the Brooklyn Dodgers 26 years ago today. Bottomley had a perfect average of six hits in six times at bat as the Cards won 17-5.

Electrics Blank Point Anne 7-0; Take 2-1 Lead

Playing flawless defensive ball behind the seven-hit hurling of Jim Carson, Herby Henn's Northern Electrics blanked the Point Anne Intermediate "A" squad by a 7-0 count in the first game last night.

The victory gives the Hennery Gang a 2-1 lead in the series for the city softball championship with the third game being slated for the CNR Recreation Park on the "week-end."

Carson hooked up with Bobby Hurley in a stirring mound duel and came out on top with a fine effort. He scattered his seven hits effectively struck out nine and walked three. Hurley gave up eight hits for all seven runs. He gave way to the veteran Pat Maracle during the eighth and the relief hurler boglied the Electrics over the rest of the route whiffing three of the seven men to face him.

Johnny Balchanos paced the Electrics attack driving out two doubles and two singles for five. "Deacon" Whiting put the game under glass for the Hennery crew in the fifth when he blasted a grand-slam home run with the winners enjoying a 5-0 lead. That was all the scoring.

Jackie Wardhaugh got the heaveho from Umpire Mike Whalen for talking too much about a decision and Lefty Bateman's first assist was accidentally "beaned" by Hunter and forced to retire from the game.

Electrics grabbed a two-run lead in the first innings off Batchelor's double and singles by Carr and Deacon. They added a single in the third off Du Shaine's one-base clout and Batchelor's second two bagger. In the fifth a hit-by-pitcher, a walk and a single cluttered the bases for Northern and Whiting smote the pill far and wide to clean the landscape for four.

The Pointers threatened on occasions but fine clutch hurling by Carson and outstanding defensive work on the part of his mates choked the rallies. Their biggest threat came in the fourth when they loaded the bases with two out but Carson struck out hard-hitting Pat Gilmour to retire the side.

Locke, Carr and De Rushie hit singles for the winners. Jake Wade and Billy Strachan each had two singles for the Pointers with Pat Gilmour connecting for a double and Bobby Strachan and Sam Mulholland each getting one-baggers.

Gaels Strong In Kick Dept.

KINGSTON (CP)—Queen's University Golden Gaels expect to be able to hold their own in kicking this season against the other teams of the senior Intercollegiate Football Union.

Fred Geard, who did most of the punting last year, is back again and he is expected to share the job this season with Jack Thompson, formerly with University of Western Ontario.

The Golden Gaels have looked fast, ambitious and heavy enough in practices so far. The impression is growing that coach Frank Tindall will field probably the strongest Queen's team since the end of the Second World War. About 60 players have been working out under Tindall and his four assistants.

Willie Barboie Whips Hendrix

Other results included:

147 pounds — Tommy Whalen, Brantford, fought to a three-round draw with Monty Montgomerie, Toronto.
